Phillip McCormick

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Gildersleeve. April 26, 1883 Indictment for felonious assault.

Michael Travers, sworn and examined, testified. I live 463 West Fifty first St. I am a car starter for the Eighth Ave. Railroad Co. I remember the day I was assaulted, the 26th of last July. The prisoner pointed a pistol at me seven o'clock in the afternoon; he rode as a passenger in one of the cars, and when the car was turned into the house it was expected those passengers in the car would change and take a car in the street; he refused to change for the conductor and when I saw him waiting too long I boarded the car myself and told him it was necessary for him to change, to take the car outside that was going down town. I caught him by the arm when he refused to change; he said, "Let me go." I did let him go, and he would not move again. I caught him and pushed him out of the car and he fell on the ground. Then I rang the bell for the driver to move on. I moved up a certain distance from the car house and when I came back towards where he was he was rising. I understood him to be getting a handkerchief to clean the dirt off his pants. He presented a pistol at me and fired; the weapon was found afterward. Some men brought the prisoner to the station house in Forty Seventh St. I was in the car house when he fired. I don't know where the bullet struck. Cross Examined. He possibly may have been under the influence of liquor; he could not have been sleeping, for it only took five minutes for the car to go from the terminus of the road to the car house; he was not asleep after I woke him up. I used no more force than was necessary to put him off the car. I was five or six yards from him when he fired. Patrick Smith sworn and examined. I know the complainant. I saw the prisoner in July the day this shot was fired. The car came from the Central Park and turned into the house, and the passengers in that car changes out to one on the street. If there is not any they have got to stand until they do change. The prisoner was in the car and it was delayed a little too long. Travers went over to see what was delaying it; the conductor could not get the prisoner out and he left. Travers went to get him out, and I happened to look around and I saw Travers put the prisoner out and he fell over, he kind of shoved him, and he put him from the way of the car that was going in. When the prisoner was getting up he put his hand round to his hip pocket. Travers ran round the car and the prisoner as soon as he got up fired. I heard the shot. I ran around and I saw the prisoner with the pistol. I took it away from him. I gave it to the policeman down at the Forty Seventh St. Station house. [Counsel for the defendant conceded that the pistol took and gave to the officer was the pistol taken from the prisoner.]

Cross Examined. I did not help to get the prisoner out of the car. I did not see him fire, but I heard the shot. The stables of the Company are at 49th and 50th Sts. on Eighth ave. The cars go from Central Park down to the stables in five minutes, it might be a little longer.

Patrick Rabbitt sworn and examined. I am an officer and received from the last witness a pistol about the 26th of July last. It was a Smith and Wesson 38 calibre; there was three loaded and two discharged. These shells (produced by the witness) were taken from the pistol. The prisoner was in the station house before I came in. I did not hear him make any statement

0638

Phillip McCormick, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am a brick layer and live at 224 East Fifty ninth St. I was not working on the 26th of last July. I had been working for D. C. Weeks & Son. Mr. Weeks gave me orders not to allow the bricklayers delegates to come on the job during working hours; the delegates came and said they would draw their men off. So we made a fight over it and finally the delegates were satisfied I would have to be discharged before they would allow their men to go to work, and Mr. Weeks had to discharge me. The men made threats to do violence to me, to lay me out and they would drive me out of New York. I had formerly belonged to the Society and had resigned. That was the reason I carried a pistol. On the 26th of July. I was coming down from 58th St. in a car; the day was very hot. I had a few glasses of beer and I fell asleep in the corner of the car, and the first thing I knew I had my ears rubbed and was thrown on the top of my head. I thought it was a gang of those men coming to assault me and I fired the pistol in the air with no intention of hurting anybody. I did not know the complainant until I saw him in Court.

0639

Francis M. Weeks sworn. I am a mason and builder. I know the prisoner since 1866; he has worked for me off and on. He has never been in any trouble of this kind before. You can easily see he is a little cranky.
George M. Smith and Thomas J.
Shawley also testified as to the good character of the prisoner.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault

parties in this case.

About 8 o'clock on the evening of the 10th inst. I was going to the Theater and passing through 13th Street. I saw two men and a lady and another man in an alleyway. They were talking loud and I saw Lorrans strike the defendant, here present, the defendant fell and Lorrans called to the other men to come over and pitch in. When McLaughlin was down the two went over to him and I then heard a pistol fired off four times. McLaughlin had the picture and was going down at the time the gave the first shot.
