The People vs. Thomas Kitty } Court of General Sessions, Part I. Before Judge Gildersleeve. Friday, January 28, 1881.
 Jointly indicted with John Kitty for robbery in the first degree.
 Emil Genelunge, sworn and examined, testified through the interpreter. I know the prisoner; on the 19th of November last he was on board the vessel and I was with him. I left the vessel at 3 o'clock and he was with me then; he went with me to the washerwoman and his brother also; we stayed there about a month. I left the washerwoman and the prisoner said that he would show me a short way home. The prisoner's brother was with us then, but he left us afterward in a lager beer saloon; then the prisoner and myself were left alone. I was sitting in the liquor store leaning on my arm.
 I stayed in the liquor store about a quarter of an hour. Then we left, we went out in the street, then he made me go into the Museum.
 I saw the brother of the prisoner at the Museum but he did not go in with us. It was then about six or half past six o'clock. I was on my way home when I left the Museum. Then he told me, "you turn around here, it is a shorter way to go home," and as we turned around we came to an alleyway, then he pushed me in and I fell; then he put his knee on my mouth and he held a revolver to my head; then he took my money and left me. His brother was with him in the alleyway. He took fourteen dollars and sixty cents from me. Cross Examined. I saw Thomas Kitty on board the vessel before we left for a trip to Texas and when we came back this morning (the morning of the day when the robbery was committed) he came on board the vessel. I did not know his name then. The father of the prisoner is chief cook on the vessel. I saw the father first that morning and afterwards the brothers came. We all went ashore together and I went back to the vessel again. I only had a bottle of sarsapilla before I started away with the boys to get the washer woman; the father treated me to that bottle. Then I was robbed I am sure that the brother of the prisoner was there; he held me by the legs Thomas put his knee on my mouth and a revolver at my head. I am just as sure that Thomas was there as I am that John was. I cannot be mistaken. It was dusk, but it was not dark; there were several street lamps lit. I got a good look at John Kitty's face. I knew John longer than Thomas. Were you in 15 Christie St.? I do not know the name of the street I think. I saw the girl now in Court there. I was not drunk. The sarsapilla I drank on board the vessel. After you got robbed what did you do?

I went home where I board. Then did you make a report to the police of the robbery for the first time? Then I came out of the hospital. I was in the hospital with my arm. My arm was bruised. I was in the hospital two weeks. As soon as I became well I came out and made the complaint. I went in a street car to the hospital. I went to a German hospital on Seventy-seventh St. and Fourth Avenue. I was robbed two blocks from the Museum. How long a time did it take you to walk home from where you were robbed before you got home? About ten minutes. I walked home. I had no money to pay for a car. Did you see any policeman on your road home? No sir. I only stopped in Prince St. I told a friend that I was robbed and then I went home. When you were robbed did you scream and make a noise? I cried because I was suffering very much. Did anybody come to your assistance? No sir, if any would have come I would have them arrested immediately. The Museum is where many railroad tracks join together. I don't know the streets of the city; it is where the bearded woman is. Was the street full of people passing to and fro at the time you were robbed? The street was not full of people. Otherwise they would have been arrested. At the moment I was robbed there was nobody there; I think it was half past

sir. Then you saw the policeman and told them after you came out of the hospital that you had been robbed, did you tell them the names of the persons that robbed you? I said the two sons of the cook who works on the same vessel with me. I did not know their names. Did you see the father after you came out of the hospital, the chief cook? I did not see him when I came out of the hospital. I am considered to be on board the vessel yet, I was not discharged. I went back to the boat the day the prisoners were arrested. How many days after you left the hospital was it before you made a complaint? About twelve or thirteen days. I made no complaint to the police until after I came out of the hospital and was well. I waited for twelve days before I made any complaint because my arm was yet in a bad condition. I had to go to the Dispensary. I was home where I lived, I could not leave, the doctor warned me that I should not go out in the street because if I caught cold I would have a very dangerous sickness. I took a car to Christopher street in going to the Dispensary. The dispensary is about fifteen blocks from my house; it is between the First and Second aves. I went once, twice or three times a week to the Dispensary. I had only to walk about one block or two from the car to the Dispensary.

Horace Van Rensselaer, sworn and examined. It was Officer Sullivan who arrested the prisoner. I took him to Court next morning. He said, "Who the hell thought this case would come up now?" He said, "Who the hell thought this case would come up now, happening two months ago?" He says, "I want you also to get the other parties." I said, "Who are the other parties?" The prisoner said one of them was named Hutchinson. I says, "Where is Hutchinson?" He says, "he is up for robbery." I said, "you had better state that to the Court." He said, "It is pretty hard to get him when he has been sentenced for robbery. The prisoner said if this party (meaning the complainant) put him away, he would fix him when he got out. Cross Examined. I said to him it looked bad about the tickets. What did you find in his possession? Fifty one tickets that he handed to Officer Sullivan, not to me. I don't know as I said anything to him before he said, "Who the hell thought this case would come up happening two or three months ago?" I told him it was a hard case, that was all. I did not say any thing to him as to the charge upon which he was arrested. He knew what it was. John J. Sullivan, sworn and examined. Did you arrest this prisoner? I did on the complaint of Emile Genelunge. I arrested him at 383 Pearl St. in a lager beer saloon. Then I went in the lager beer saloon after him. I asked him about his father? He was standing by a billiard table. I told him to take a walk out with me. I wanted to see him. He walked along. I never let him know what I had him arrested for until I went down to the sub-station, pier 24 East River, sub-station of the steamboat squad. I there let him know that I was arresting him for a charge of highway robbery and I put him up stairs in our office, let him in charge of a roundman and the officer until I went for the complainant on board the Western Texas lying at pier 20. The complainant was in the kitchen then working as a baker. I asked him twice if he could identify the person that had committed this robbery on him? He said, "yes that he was sure of it, and if he was not sure that he would cut his throat. He identified Thomas Kitty. I do not remember Kitty said anything to me. I hurried away with the complainant to get his clothes; he had his clothes on board the steamer. I hurried back to the steamer with him again to get his clothing, and he got what clothing he thought he would need while he was here and then I brought him up to the sub-station again. From there we went and took the Bleeker St. car. On the way from the sub-station to the Bleeker St. car Thomas Kitty made the remark that he would get square, with whom he did not say. That is all I said. I searched him - no, I did not search him, he gave me those tickets and told me to give them to his wife or mother; he handed them to me on the way to the Central Office. I have got a list of the articles here. There are forty one pawn tickets.

 Cross Examined. I did not talk French. I said to him, "Are you sure that is the man?" He said, "yes," that if he was not sure he would cut his throat. Did you have an Interpreter? ~~No~~ ^{for the defense} Thomas Kelly, sworn and examined. ~~in~~ ~~Q. The prisoner is my son. I am connected~~ with the same boat that the complainant is on.
 I am cook; the prisoner is second cook and does the baking. I am not now connected with the boat.
 I got paid Friday, the day I was discharged. My two boys came down to meet me; they always do when I come home on the steamer. The complainant asked me to have a glass of brandy. I took brandy three times and the boys took cigars and he changed a five dollar bill in Tringleys and he gave a five dollar bill to the stewards. I did not see him take any paracipilla in that place; he took brandy along with me; he can talk as good English as I can. Cross Examined I got drunk but did not get very drunk that day.
 I saw the money in his hand. I said to the complainant, "you will lose your money if you do not put it away." He said, "no, I want change in silver. Quigley said, "Money is best put away." This was seven o'clock in the morning. That was the first drink I took. After we got our money we went to Quigley's and drank three or four glasses of brandy a piece. The boys would not drink anything, but they took cigars. Thomas Kelly sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I lived in Clinton St. before I was arrested with my wife. I was aboard the boat with my brother the morning that my father was paid off. The whole four of us came ashore; the baker asked us to come and have a drink. They had three or four drinks of whiskey; we left my father on the corner and we went to the washwoman's; he drank there - had some beer, and paid for his washing; we went from her house and left my brother and ^{I wanted} put the baker on a car. ~~He~~ He would not go; from there we went to the Bowery and went into Christie St.; we had a drink there; he fell asleep on a chair, and the answer I made was, "Let the poor fellow be; he has been making 500 loaves of bread last night." I waited till he got up, he was kind of sobered. He said, "Come and have a drink in Bayard St. before we go. Five of us had a drink along Pearl St. I met my sister coming from work.

Two fellows came out behind us and stood near the corner where I met my sister. He said, "We will have another drink before we go into the Museum; we went into the Museum and came out. This fellow came in with us; we went out to 11 Bayard St. These two fellows took him out. From that day I never saw him till the day he was arrested. I did not rob him or assist any one to rob him. I was not arrested exactly for stealing a boat but for keeping it beyond the time. I was sent to the penitentiary for six months.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree. He was sent to the State Prison for seven years.
