 worked hard - The Policy business has ruined me - It was on Satur-

 This day was the first time that I ever said anything about the Policy transaction. I have never feeling against the defendant, about September the 27th day in the after-

 I went there on Thursday morning
 Mrs O'Brien was standing behind

 There was no ship came in. She told her I would not pay until

I saw the ship - she (O'Brien) said give demanded.

Said Waterman took the money, check and bank book, promising to effect deponent's release within an hour, since which time deponent has not seen said Waterman, and though she has employed a detective to find said Waterman, she has been unable to do so.

After being incarcerated for three days deponent concluded to inform a friend of her arrest and thereupon deponent furnished bail for her appearance at the Court of General Sessions.

On going to said Waterman's office deponent was informed that he was out of town and it was uncertain when he would return. At said Waterman's <sup>residence</sup> ~~place~~, a woman claiming to be his wife returned deponent's bank book, and begged deponent not to prosecute said Waterman.

A man, claiming to be an Attorney, named B. P. Kernan called on deponent, offering to pay deponent $100 of her money for a receipt in full, and another party, who would not give his name, called upon deponent and threatened her with vengeance if she should make complaint against said Waterman, stating that the Judge and District Attorney were his friends, and they would bring her to an immediate trial and she would certainly be sentenced to a long term in the Penitentiary.

Deponent further states that she is a poor woman, a stranger in this city, that she has a family of children in Orange County whom she is trying to support by letting furnished rooms. That since her arrest she has arranged to remove from her present residence, and on Monday, October 9th 1882, she will so remove preparatory to her return to Orange County—

Deponent further states that the prosecuting witness against her is the keeper of a bawdy house, whose house at No. 260 West 40th Street has been raided by the police some months since, and she now keeps a disreputable house in the same street.

Deponent further states that a couple of days ago she received a letter of which the following is a copy:

"Hudson, New York
Oct. 3/82

"Mrs. M. Intyre
"Madam.

"I am unexpectedly detained here on "business and may not get away for "two or three days. As soon as I get "to New York I will call on you & see

"cannot be satisfactorily adjusted.
