John Thompson

filed Feb. 1882

2062

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part F
 John Thompson } Before Judge Gildersleeve. March 1, 1882 Indictment for grand larceny from the person.
 Jacob Mussell, sworn and examined, testified. I am in the beer bottling business at 166 West Twenty fifth st. I know the prisoner I saw him on the 22nd of February in Twenty sixth st. I came out of Marion Hall and he came right on me and wanted to know if I wanted a coach - there came three of them; it was about three or four houses from the corner of Madison Ave. I told him to let me go, I did not want any coach, and as soon as I said that one of them took my watch; he ran away, I ran after him and I fell down corner of Twenty Sixth st. and Madison Ave on the Park; he ran close to Twenty sixth st. and Officer Ferguson caught him there.
 The watch was in my left hand vest pocket fastened on a chain; it was a gold watch, I bought it from Frankel & Co Sixth Ave. and 14th st. it was worth $120. I could not say that I saw the prisoner take the watch; he was on my left hand side when I missed the watch. Three of them came around me, one took me by the arm and another caught hold of me and said, "Do you want a coach?" The prisoner had hold of me by the left hand side, the side on which the watch was. They said "I will take you home for $1.75." I said, "I don't want a coach. I halloved, I said, I don't want a coach, I want to go home." They took my watch and ran away. I felt the hand when he turned that round, (pointing to the chain of the watch). Cross examined. I had been to the Marion ball, I started for home about five o'clock in the morning. I had no liquor the whole of the night, I had a few glasses of lager beer. I was sober; I cannot tell who took the watch; they were all strangers to me; it was done in a minute. Two men were on my right side and one on my left. They had no cabs at all; they were at the hall, but they went with me to the middle of the block. I did not strike the prisoner over the head with an umbrella. I told him he ought to be licked. I had an umbrella in my hand. I cannot tell where the prisoner was arrested; the officer can tell you that. I was not present when he arrested him. Samuel J. Ferguson sworn and examined. I am a policeman and know the prisoner

I first saw the prisoner corner of Twenty sixth St. and Madison Ave. on the morning of the 22nd of Feb. about 5 1/2; he was running when I saw him ahead of the complainant, who was I should judge about six or eight feet from him; he halloed, "Stop Thief" I ran towards where the sound was; the complainant was running after the prisoner, and as he turned Madison Ave. and Twenty sixth St. the prisoner turned around a wagon and the complainant fell. I saw that, I was about 15 feet away from him, I followed the prisoner around the wagon; he went through Madison Ave. to Twenty sixth St.; he turned the corner of Twenty sixth St. towards the Fifth Ave., and as he got by a stoop he dropped something; he was probably 15 to 20 feet ahead of me, and he ran around the cab I arrested him; he asked me what I arrested him for and I brought him back to the stoop and handed him to another officer. I lit a match, I looked on the stoop and I found a silver watch where I heard this thing drop. The silver watch was taken by order of the Captain to the Property clerk. From the time the complainant fell up to the time I caught the prisoner he was trying to escape from me.

Cross Examined. My attention was first attracted to this young man about 5.30. I was sent to the Harmon Ball to regulate the coaches. I joined in the pursuit of the prisoner by the complainant. I kept him in sight and never lost sight of him until I caught him. he turned around the wheel of a carriage and I put my hand on his shoulder; he was not attending to a call of nature by the side of the carriage. I saw him throw something down on the way, I heard the noise as it struck. I took him in custody. I walked right back to the place and handed him to Officer Connolly. I never saw the man before. I could not see anything about the complainant that night that showed he was not sober. I am sure this is the young man I pursued and arrested.

John Thompson sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am a butcher by trade, but for the past two years I have been working with my brother buying cheap horses up at the horse market and reselling them for a few dollars profit. I have never been arrested before this. On this evening I had been to a coterie on Seventh Ave. and 26th st. I had been on my way home going through Twenty seventh st. to take a Third Avenue car to ride up home, I was compelled to stop at this carriage, and as I stopped there and just had got through buttoning my pants when the officer grabbed me and said, "I want you." "What do you want me for?" I said. "I will show you," he said. He took me over on the sidewalk and handed me over to another officer. He lit a match and looked in the basement steps and found a silver watch. With that he took hold of me and walked down the avenue. I asked him, "What am I arrested for?" He said, "For robbing this man of his watch." I said, "It is a mistake." He said, "We will see." The complainant struck me over the back and shoulders with his umbrella; the officer took me over to the station house. I told him it was a mistake, I was on my way home. I was not there when the complainant came out of the Marim Ball when he said that some parties said, "Do you want a cab?" I have no knowledge of seeing the complainant until I saw him in the station house. I did not throw any watch away in a basement.

I have a watch of my own which I had on my person. I could not tell the name of the coterie; the night was rather stormy. I went up there and passed a few hours. I got interested and stayed there till five o'clock at the corner of Seventh Avenue and Twenty Sixth St. The Germania Assembly Rooms. I walked up Sixth Ave. to Twenty Seventh St.

Jacob Mussell recalled. The watch that I lost was a fine gold watch.

John Thompson recalled. Cross Examined. I turned up Sixth Ave. to Twenty Seventh St. I should say I left the hall about five o'clock. I stopped at the corner to get a glass of beer. I was compelled to stop at a carriage near Madison Ave. I was not at the coterie all the evening. I was at Miners' Theatre in the early part of the evening. I went to the coterie to look at the dancing. I left the theatre about 11 1/2 and reached the hall about twelve. I remained there till five. I did not know a good many people there; they were all strangers to me. I paid 50 cents to go in. The first I saw of the complainant that morning was when I was walking down Madison Ave; he came running up with an umbrella; he struck me over the head and shoulders, I say to the officer, "What does this mean?" I was not in front of the garden that night, but when I was at Madison Avenue I noticed the streets blockaded with carriages, I surmised there was a ball going on in Gilmore's garden, I was not in that crowd, I live at 227 East Fifty Sixth St. I was just buttoning up my pants when the officer arrested me, I noticed a man run swiftly across the street as I stepped down off the curb I did not say anything to the officer; he grabbed me by the neck, I asked him what he arrested me for? He said he would show me, he lit a match, and he found a little silver watch in the basement of the American Jockey Club. That watch or any other watch I had no knowledge of. I stood by the hind wheel of the cab, I was up at the horse market at Seventy fourth St. and the East River that day with my brother till 5 o'clock. I went home and had my supper and left at 7 o'clock and then went to Harry Miner's theatre, I went to the theatre alone that night. Charles A. Whitmore sworn I am in the butchering business at 75 University Place I have known the prisoner 12 years; he worked for me about four years, I have found him an honest, hardworking boy. Cross Examined. He left me about 1873 and I have met him casually since, say once or twice in the year. I think he was employed by a butcher named Williams, who said he found him a very good boy. John J. M. Thompson and examined. I am in the butchering business at 346 Third Avenue; the prisoner has worked for me, I have known him 14 or 15 years, I always trusted him with all I had while he was in my employ. I always found him honest, I trusted him to collect bills.

 I saw him around the neighborhood

William Thompson sworn. I am the brother of the defendant; we have been working together for the last three years buying and selling horses; we trade in the horse market, I remember the night he was arrested; we started away from the horse market about 5 P.M., came home and got our supper, I went out and left him in the house and the next morning I heard of his arrest; he lives home with his mother; he has been in the habit of coming home regularly; he has never been arrested before to my knowledge and I have not been.

Samuel J. Ferguson recalled. At the time you reached this cab where you arrested the accused how far in advance of you was the person whom you were chasing? Not over 15 to 20 feet at any time. I did not lose sight of the prisoner. I did not see the complainant strike him with the umbrella.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
He was sent to the State Reformatory.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the City and County of New York.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

Patrick H. Tighe ^{against}

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York by this indictment accuse

Patrick H. Tighe

of the crime of Obtaining goods by false pretences committed as follows:

The said

Patrick H. Tighe

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the twenty third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy~~ Eighty one, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one Joseph H. Collins did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Joseph H. Collins, that he the said Patrick H. Tighe, was then the owner of stock, fixtures, machinery, tools and materials, raw and in process of manufacture in a certain business then being conducted by him in the City of New York, and that the same had been inventoried and were worth the sum of three thousand dollars. That the business which he the said Patrick H. Tighe was then conducting and carrying on was paying him a large profit; and that he then had many orders for goods which he could not fill; that his said stock, fixtures, machinery, tools and materials were then duly insured to the amount of four thousand dollars; that he the said Patrick H. Tighe had never had ~~any~~ ^{but one} partner in his business; that a certain firm doing business under the name and style of Lloyd and O'Neil had agreed to purchase immediately of him, goods to the value of five thousand dollars; that he then had more than five hundred dollars worth of toys in his said stock; and that he was worth the sum of twenty five thousand dollars, and that during the then preceding year he had made a profit of five thousand dollars on the sale of toys alone,

And the said Joseph H. Collins then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Patrick H. Tighe and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Patrick H. Tighe, divers promissory notes for the payment of money, and of the kind known as bank notes then and there due and unsatisfied of a number and denomination to the Grand Jury unknown, of the value of fifteen hundred dollars, and divers valuable securities and evidences of debt to wit: promissory notes for the payment of money then and there unsatisfied, of the value of one thousand dollars, of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Joseph H. Collins and the said Patrick H. Tighe _____ did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said promissory notes of the said Joseph H. Collins of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Joseph H. Collins

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Joseph H. Collins of the same.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Stock, fixtures machinery Tools and material of said Patrick H. Tighe employed in his business had not been inventoried and was not worth the sum of three thousand dollars, and his said business was not paying him a large profit, and he did not have many orders for goods which he could not fill and whereas in truth and in fact the said stock, fixtures machinery, tools and materials were not insured for four thousand dollars; and the said Patrick H. Tighe had had more than one partner in his business, and whereas in truth and in fact the said firm of Lloyd and O. Neil had not agreed to purchase immediately of him goods of the value of five thousand dollars, and there was not in his said stock toys of the value of five hundred dollars, and whereas in truth and in fact the said Patrick H. Tighe was not worth the sum of twenty five thousand dollars, and had not during the then preceding year made a profit of five thousand dollars on the sale of toys alone,

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Patrick H. Tighe to the said Joseph H. Collins was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit. on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Patrick H. Tighe well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Joseph H. Collins to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the ^{Grand Jury} ~~jurors~~ aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Patrick H. Tighe by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Joseph H. Collins, the said promissory notes -

with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

City and County of New York, SS:

Joseph H. Collins, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he resides in the county of Westchester, but does business at no. 122 Fulton St. ^{3rd floor (near)} in the City of New York.

That Patrick H. Tighe resides and carries on business at 702 Eighth Avenue near 45th Street in said City of New York to the best of deponent's knowledge, information and belief.

That at the time hereinafter mentioned said Tighe carried on the business of manufacturing and selling base balls, writing desks, work boxes, toys, &c. at 122 Fulton Street in the City of New York. That at said City of New York and on or about the 23d day of July, 1881, said Tighe with ^{and with deponent's intent to cheat and defraud deponent} did designedly and to obtain from deponent money, personal property and valuable ^{false} things, make the following pretences, contrary to Section

53 of 2 Revised Statutes 677, and the form of the statute in such case made and provided, to-wit: that the stock, fixtures, machinery, tools and materials, raw and in process of manufacture of his, said Tighe's business, was worth and inventoried $3,000.; that the business was paying expenses right along, and a good deal more; that he had a good many orders for goods that he could not fill; that there was an insurance on said stock, fixtures, machinery, tools and material as above of $4,000.; that he had never had but one partner, one Bussey; that a firm in Jersey City, Lloyd & O'Neil, had agreed to purchase immediately $5,000. worth of goods; that he had made during the last year clear of expenses $5,000. on toys alone; that there was $500. worth of toys in his said stock at that time; and that he was

And deponent says of his own knowledge that said stock, fixtures, &c. were not at the time above mentioned worth $3000., but only $1,200.; that the said business was not paying expenses at all; that said Tighe had no orders at all for goods; that there was not an insurance as stated by said Tighe of $4,000., but only for $1,000.

And deponent says that said Tighe had had 5 partners from last December up to the time said false pretences were made; that said Lloyd & O'Neil had not agreed to purchase any goods of said Tighe; that there was not $500. worth of toys in said stock, but only $33. worth. Shawley And deponent says on information and belief that said Tighe did not make the year before $5,000. on toys alone, or a sum to exceed $500.

and that said Tighe was not worth $25,000., or a sum to exceed $5,000. That said Tighe obtained from said deponent by said false pretences $1,500. in money and notes to the amount of $1,000., and that deponent parted with said money and notes believing said false pretences to be true and on the faith of them sworn to before me this
