The People vs

John Madden } Examination
Charles Johnson } before Justice
Murray. Oct 31
1885.

City County }
of New York }
ss.

John Green being duly sworn and cross examined says. I arrived in this City last Wednesday about 4 o'clock, and had four drinks ^{of beer} Thursday morning last in this City, about 8 A.M. I was intoxicated but not confused before I met the defendants. I recollect distinctly all that took place between me and defendants, and every thing that was said. I met them in 26th St. as I was coming from Bellevue Hospital, where my room is with a broken leg. I ~~don't~~ know the streets here from the Avenue. I never spoke to them or they to me. I never saw them before. I had a drink in one tavern after leaving Bellevue. Did not see defdts in the store or after I got in by my knowledge.
I could not swear they were not in there.
I drank once in there. I won't swear 0905

whether I did or didn't ask either of defendants about a boarding house. I wrote since that Madden said he would show me a boarding house.
I could not swear that I did or didn't walk with them in Avenue A between 23rd & 24th Sts. and ask them in a store there where a defendant had recalled that they threw me down, but nothing was said. I suppose it was because I was intoxicated. I was not drunk but that I knew what I was doing.
Both defendants grabbed me at the same time. Madden held me while Johnson went through me. I can't tell what part of my body either took hold of.
It was immediately upon coming out of the store. There were plenty of people walking on the sidewalk. I never took the money out of the waist pocket of my pantaloons. I had 70 dollars in that pocket, and 42 dollars in the outside pocket of my undercoat. I had 130 dollars on leaving home, and bought my tickets. I did not show any money at all to anyone. I didn't fall, but they laid me on the walk.
By the Court. I had two coats on when I lost the 0906

the money, the 42 dollars was not taken from my coat pocket.

X^E. I saw Johnson's hand in my pocket but did not see the money taken.

By the Court Madden held me so I could not see the money taken, but felt Johnson take it. I put the money in my frock pocket at 7 A.M. and bet 8 & 9 A.M. I was seized.

X^E. I was sober when I signed the Complaint. I could not swear that it was 11.45 A.M. when I had no watch. I was held so tight I could not struggle.

John Durr. 18 Precinct Police being duly sworn says. I arrested Madden and Johnson was arrested by Officer Byron. I saw Johnson arrested, a boy I went to 24 St, and saw defds on top of Green. Madden had hold of Green by the neck, and Johnson was across his legs. When defds saw me they ran away together about ten feet and separated. I fired a shot when Madden stopped and Johnson kept on. Johnson was out of my sight 2 minutes before Byron caught him. It was 11.45 AM. I saw both men distinctly. They were both searched but no money found.

X^C Breen was held for Identification on my Complaint. About 2 PM I brought him to Court and he was too intoxicated to make his Complaint. He was Com'd for Intoxicated. I went round that defds tried to raise him up. because I saw Breen's pants pocket and got pocket hanging out.

November 9, 1935 .

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Jennie Huston sworn and examined . I live at 471 Seventh Avenue, my occupation is a waitress and I was in the City of New York on the 28th of October and saw the prisoner at the bar, Mabel Marks. Where was it when you had this trouble, where was she and where were you? I was round the corner of 36th Street in an employment office kept by a man named James A. Turner and I was in there talking to him about ten minutes. On coming out I got near the corner and this woman came with a heavy rush with a knife and stabbed me here. (Pointing to the neck.) That is the first place. Then I ran across the street zigzag, I saw there was no way I could get into my home, I tried to get in the intelligence office and she headed me off on the other side of the street, I hollered police, I am stabbed, at the top of my voice and no one came. This woman, the prisoner, came after me cutting away my clothes in the back and she did not cut me on account of the sacque. This was the next wipe I got, cutting the arm and the hand, I lost two fingers, the tendons were cut. I ran across the street and she right after me, I halloed police and the crowd commenced to gather, then I held my hands up to save my face and she cut away at my fingers. I begged a gentleman in the street to help me that I am stabbed to death; they were afraid to go to her, she kept cutting away. At that time I saw an officer running up and he grabbed her, I says, " am out to death. I says to the officer, do you see the woman with the knife, why don't you take the knife from her? The officer pulled her hand and she slighted her hand and dropped the knife. I have been in bed ever since, I was taken to the Roosevelt Hospital. I kept a strict eye on the knife all the time. They wanted to keep me in the hospital all night and I begged them to send me home. She threatened to kill me the Saturday night before that, she said the first chance she would get she would kill me, I staid in my house because I was afraid to go out. On the way to the Station House I asked her why she stabbed me in cold blood? She said if she had a razor she would have killed me, the officer is witness to that.

Cross Examined. I have lived at 171 7th Avenue about a year. Have you ever been sent to the Penitentiary? I wont answer. Is it not true as a matter of fact that you were sent to the Penitentiary about a year ago for keeping a house of prostitution in this city? I decline to answer. I am a married woman and my husband lives with me. I have only two rooms. On the Saturday night previous to this assault she met me and gave me a little beating, I did not tell her that I would lay her guts open so they would run out in the street, I had no chance to, I have always been shy of her, I did not strike her with a glass, I did not have that knife. In cold blood she tried to butcher you? She did.

Samuel Williamson sworn. I am a clerk in the general post-office and was in the City of New York on the 23th of October, I could not recognize either the prisoner or the complainant, I saw the knife, I heard a cry of police and started from 37th Street, I live between 36th and 37th Streets, and near the car track the officer grabbed a lady in a brown dress and a tall hat and as the officer grabbed her with the left hand she threw this knife out of her right hand at my feet, I did not see the face of the prisoner, I handed the knife to the officer it was closed.

Michael Phelan sworn. I am an officer of the 20th precinct of police and arrested the prisoner on the 23th of October between ten and eleven o'clock at night; the complainant was bleeding from the hand and had a cut on the neck, I heard the halloo for police and I saw this woman chase her across from the east to the west side, I ran up and caught her on the middle of the track, the complainant says, I am cut, Officer, she has got a knife; she threw her right hand behind her back and dropped the knife at the last witnesses feet. On the way to the Station House the complainant asked the prisoner why she cut her in cold blood? She said, if I had a razor I would cut your heart out.

Mabel Marks sworn and examined in her own behalf, testified: I live 345 West 36th Street with respectable people, I am a chamber maid in a laundry and work out for my living. I have never been arrested in my life, I never attempted to butcher anybody, I do not carry a weapon about me, I did not go out with the intention of killing this woman, I was passing by her house and she hollloed to me, you black bitch, I want you to keep off this navenne, I said I wouldnot and she hit me with a glass and tore all my bothes off for three blocks, I did not go out until Wednesday night, I was on the corner taking and she struck me with a glass and tried to, open the knife, I threw up my hands and struck her with broken pieces of glass, I didnot see any knife. I can prove by people who seen her that she said she would cut my guts out of me. I never threatened her life.

The Jury rendered a veridct of guilty of assault in he third degree.
