out.. I had another friend of mine with me on the wagon. There were just ten in the crowd that followed us out of the ferry house. We drove our horse pretty fast but ~~this man and other~~ Italians continued to follow us around the Battery. When we reached Battery Place and Washington Street, this man was right near the wagon and he pulled out a pistol out of his pocket and let it go at the two of us who were seated on the ~~side~~ of the wagon.

Q From the time you left the ferry house, until he fired the shot, had you said anything to him, or he to you ?

A No sir, not a word.

Q Did you drive pretty rapidly. A. Yes sir, we drove pretty fast for we wanted to catch a boat at the foot of Chambers Street to go to Jersey City.

Q This man kept up with your horse and wagon? A. Yes sir After he fired the shot he turned around and went up Battery Place and we drove right on about our business.

I didn't see this man arrested at all. I never saw him after that until I saw him under arrest in the Tombs. I did not make any complaint against him.

Cross-examination.

I ~~am not~~ ^{made no complaint} on the night this man was arrested. The conversation that I related is all that we had on the Ferry boat.

Q Between the time he said to you; "Dont mind them they are drunk!" and the time the shot was fired did you say anything to him or did he say anything to you.

A. No sir, not a word.

- Q How did he point the pistol? A. Towards the ~~side~~^{ceast} of the wagon. I was about twenty feet from him when the shot was fired. He then took aim at me. He aimed at the ~~side~~^{ceast} of the wagon to hit me, and my friend who sat inside of me on the wagon. He didn't hit either of us.
- Q At the time he fired were you trying to come down from the wagon? A. No sir, I saw the pistol in his hand, and then I saw the flash of it when he fired.
- Q You did not stop after he got arrested? A. No sir, I did not want to bother with him.
- Q And for ten days after that you never thought of it? A. No sir.
- Q You were found out by the officer A. Yes sir, the officer came and found me out.
- Q If it was not for the subpoena you received you would n't have thought any more about it? A. No sir, I would have forgotten about it.

JOHN STELLMAN, a witness for the people wsworn testified: I live at No. 106 Raymond Street Brooklyn. I am in the milk business. I was with the last witness on the day that he mentions crossing over on the ferry boat and going through the streets of New York. On the ferry boat coming over there was a crowd of Italians in the cabin, and a man was playing an accordeon and they were dancing. They fell against both of us, and the prisoner said to my friend. "Dont mind them , they are drunk". We finally got off the ferry boat and were driving around Battery Park, and these men --- about ten of them followed us. When we reached the corner of Battery Place and Washington Street I heard a pistol shot. I was on the ~~car~~ ^{boat} at the time and I looked and saw this defendant running ~~along~~ ^{along} side of the wagon. I was sitting right by the side of the last witness when the shot was fired. I did not see the shot fired as I was looking in the direction in which we were going. I certainly heard it.

Cross-examination.

I saw this man following us around the Battery. We were going pretty fast while driving around Battery Park. We had no conversation with him whatever while driving around the park. I did not know what his intention was in following us. He kept on running with the wagon

ANTONIO FAZIO, the defendant, sworn testified:

I am a barber, and reside at No. 15 Rector St. New York City. I remember Sunday 17th of February last I was visiting some friends over in Brooklyn, and at 10 o'clock that night I took the Hamilton Ferry boat and came back to New York. On the ferry boat I met several countrymen of mine. There was a man on the boat who had an accordeon, and also a companion of mine. He was somewhat under the influence of liquor and was dancing. The two men who have testified here commenced to insult my companion, who was dancing. My companion then went to another part of the ferry boat and this man followed us and continued to insult us. Then they commenced to spit at us into our faces, and on our clothing. Then then commenced to use whips which they had in their hands upon us. When we landed on the New York side, they did the same thing to us. In order to defend ourselves, we were looking for some stone or something but we could not find any. Then they got into the wagon and were about to go away. My companion had left me by this time and these two men tried to beat me on the corner of Washington St. and Battery Place. I was on my way to home and it was necessary for me to go through Washington Street. When I was passing the corner of Washington Street and Battery Place there were four or five loafers standing on the corner, and they said to the men who were in the wagon, "Give it to him". They then got down off the wagon, and commenced to beat me with a whip, and I, in order to defend myself fired in the air. I fired in order that the policeman should come up and stop them from beating me. The policeman came up and arrested me, and they went off with the wagon.

Cross-examination

I have been in this country about two years. I came from the Province of Salerno in Italy. I carried this pistol because I owned a barber shop and needed it for protection. I took it along with me on Thursday for the same reason for fear I might have some question with anybody. I arrived at the corner of Washington Street and Battery Place before the wagon did. I was on the sidewalk and they, from the wagon began beating me with the whip. Then they came down on the sidewalk and it was at that time that I fired. I did not tell the policeman

VINCENT DONARUMINA, a witness for the defendant sworn testified :

On the night in question I was with the defendant on the ferry boat. The two witnesses who testified here were ridiculing us, while we were dancing on the boat and they used insulting language to the defendant. The defendant asked them why they did not attend to their own business, and they answered by calling him names; "Dago" and other bad names which I dont recollect. They challenged the defendant to come out and have a fight. When we arrived in New York the men got in the wagon and went off. We walked through Battery park, and as we were going along this man insulted us again, and got down from the wagon, and the defendant in order to defend himself fired his pistol off in the air? He didn't aim at anybody. I saw the direction in which his pistol was pointed; it was fired in the air. Then the policeman came up and arrested him.

0724

Cross-examination.

I saw the two men get off the wagon; I am positive of that.

LORRENZO VASTOLO, the employer of the defendant testified to his good character.

R E B U T T A L .

THOMAS E. COUGHLIN, a witness for the people sworn testified:

I am an officer of police attached to the Second Precinct. On the night of February 17th I arrested this man at the corner of Battery Place and Washington St. About half past ten that night, I was standing under the ~~Elevated~~ ^{Elevated} ~~Stones~~ at Battery Place and I noticed a wagon going along, and in a couple of minutes I heard a shot fired. I went in the direction of the sound of the shot and the prisoner started to run. I grabbed him and asked and asked him if he fired the shot and he said, "No".

I caught hold of him by the arm and arrested him — I found a little boy on the street who saw The defendant shoot and ^{on his} missed the complainant ~~who was~~ here. he was held

Cross-examination.

I spoke to this man in the English language and he answered me. All the English he spoke to me was to answer "no" to the question I put to him. The witness ^{on whose} made himself complainant. He was ^{held is not} only seen here to-day. The boy who saw the shot testified in the police court that the defendant pointed in the direction of the seat of the wagon.
