The People
vs.
John Moran.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smythe.

November 7th 1884.

Indictment for larceny in the first degree.

John A. Anderson sworn. I live at 27 Clark Street, on the 15th of October I possessed a gold watch which I valued at $145, I carried it in my left vest pocket, I had a gold chain attached to it, the chain was secured into the button-hole and hooked to a clasp, on the night I saw the prisoner about nine o'clock standing on the north-east corner of Canal and Hudson Streets, there was a crowd there I believe it was the Micheal G. Murphy's battery that was passing there, a political procession was passing up Canal Street, I was watching it, I walked down from 283 Hudson Street and was on the corner over fifteen minutes, the sidewalks were crowded, I saw the defendant and two other parties crossing the street following close behind a couple of ladies, I moved just in enough to let the ladies pass by, this defendant pressed close in front of me, he represents himself to be John Moran, I felt him pull the watch from my pocket and heard the click and looking down I saw the watch in his hand, I caught him by the right arm and halloed to a friend who is in court, to assist me. The prisoner passed it to a party right behind me, I caught it at the same time and hung on to the fellow who took the watch from my pocket and pushe him out into the street, he tried to get away, I succeeded in trhwoling him down and some one summoned the officer and he came and arrested him while I was getting down in the street, he found us both down, I got up at the same time and as soon as the officer had the prisoner I looked for where my friend was with the other party, I saw them, they were working up the street, apparently, with the third party who was there and my friend had hold of the party which this prisoner passed the watch to, he was striking at him and the third party was striking at him, of course I went to my friend and struck the man, I knocked him loose from him and he escaped through the crowd, I went back and went to the Station House and made the charge, I never saw the prisoner before, my friend's name is Cunningham and I think the officer's name is Berrian, the watch was my property.

Cross Examined. I came from my work about seven o'clock I left 283 Hudson Street and went down to Canal Street, there was a very large crowd watching the procession, the prisoner and his party were coming down Hudson Street to Canal, I saw them coming across, the defendant came up in front of me, he pressed close up to me as a man in a crowd will, he was the only man in front of me for I stood directly behind a few ladies, there were parties behind me, I could not say how many there were, I could not recognize their faces. Persons were back of him pressing too? Yes sir, as much as there will be in a crowd, I testified that I felt him pull the watch from my pocket, He was in front of me when I saw him pass the watch, I saw the watch in his hand, I grabbed him while the watch was in the hand by the right arm. Did not he say, what is the matter, what did you do that for, he protested, he pushed away from you? Yes sir, certainly he tried to get away, I grabbed while he had the watch in his hand, before he ever spoke a word to me, I pushed him into the street and he said, let me go and commenced to pull away from me, he jerked nearly away, but I still hung to his coat, I saw I could not hold him and I succeeded in tripping him and held him until Officer Berrian came and arrested him.

He protested against this, I did not push him over the gutter, but I tripped him and he fell, I did not see the officer come up but when he did come I told him to hold the defendant, the officer held him and he had him in his possession when I came back, I went to the Station House, and the defendant walked along side the officer all the way up, I did not see that he attempted to escape.

John J. Cunningham sworn. I know the complainant four years, on the 15th of last month I met him on the corner of Wall and Hudson Streets about nine o'clock. I was standing at the corner of Canal and Hudson with Mr Anderson at the time his watch was taken. We were watching a political parade, there was quite a crowd of people passing to and fro, I heard Mr Anderson halloo, gave me that watch, I turned around and he said to me, hold that man, he has my watch. (Pointing to a man) I took hold of the man and he held on to the prisoner, there was a third party, a young man, he tried to thump me a few times and the man I had was a little lighter, the crowd was pushing us around; he told me to let go of him or he would shoot, I told him I would shoot first and I hit him; so he kept quieter then and I held on to him until my friend Anderson came along and it appears he was in a rage and he hit at the man I had and he knocked him loose in the crowd and the man ran away and left his hat after him, we lost him and then the third man disappeared at the same time. I saw the man I held and the prisoner acting like hand-in-hand and I caught on to the other young man. The third man hit me while I was holding on to the man who Mr Anderson said had his watch. The defendant was in front of Mr Anderson, I saw the man I caught hold of put his hand behind Anderson and catch this watch.

Richard Berrian sworn I am connected with the 8th precinct, on the 15th of October I was near the corner of Canal and Hudson and my attention was called to Mr Anderson the complainant, I found the prisoner and the complainant lying in the gutter off the sidewalk, the complainant was on top holding the prisoner who was trying to get away, I grabbed hold of him and told him he was my prisoner and Mr Anderson accused him of stealing his watch, the prisoner said he did not know anything about the watch, I said, what did you try to get away for, he said, any man would do the same thing the way he was situated, there was a crowd of spectators looking at the processions going past.

Cross Examined. I did not see any fighting going on, I saw Cunningham six or seven minutes after I arrested the prisoner, Mr Anderson went away to look for the other parties and I held the prisoner until he came back.

The Case for the Defence.

Delia Moran sworn. I live 2023 Third Avenue, Harlem. The defendant is my son, he is my only child, he will be nineteen on the 19th of next February, I am in the restaurant business and he runs it for me, he is my only help, he works regularly for me every day for about two years. I never knew the child to take a cent in his life and he has handled over hundreds and hundreds of dollars of mine, not a penny unless he would ask me for a dollar and I would give it to him, I always gave him a dollar or two when he went out, he never gave me any trouble in his life, he was working in my house the day of his arrest till half past seven that night, I gave him eight dollars to go out and buy a new hat, I did not know he was arrested until Sunday night when a young man came up and told me Johnnie was arrested.

Cross Examined. I do not know what he was doing on the corner of Hudson and Canal Streets, I learned after that, that he was going over to see his aunt in Sixth Avenue he generally goes down to buy everything, he never bought anything in Harlem, I never knew of my son being arrested, I don't know that three weeks before this he was arrested and taken to police head-quarters and detained here for some time, he never was away from home, it was on Wednesday night when he left the house and I did not know of his arrest until the following Sunday, I was looking for him that night, I kept the place open until two o'clock and then I closed it up.

Mary Notkowsky sworn. I know the defendant from infancy, he worked about two years ago for my husband, his mother took a restaurant and took him to work for her, his character was always good, I never knew him to do either one way or the other unless it was some childish freak which some of our great statesmen might do.

John Moran sworn. I am going on nineteen, I work for my mother, I run a restaurant for her up in Harlem, on the night of my arrest I left home between seven and half past and came down town to buy a hat, I bought it of a man named Cohen in the Bowery from I always buy my hats, he has a store in Harlem and one down town. I always go to the store down town because you will get a hat cheaper there. After I bought the hat I went across Canal Street for the purpose of taking a Seventh Avenue car to go up to see my aunt at 228 West 41st Street, on going over I saw a crowd of people and lights also, I thought I would take a walk to see what it was, I got over to the left hand side and the crowd was too dense and I crossed over to the right hand side to get out of the way of the crowd entirely to come back and take the car to go up. As I was crossing the street there was a lot of people behind and in front of me, the procession was about turning the corner and I got pushed against the gentleman that is making the charge; there was two or three men in front of him also, he seized me by both shoulders, I asked what was the matter, I put up my two hands to push him off, I thought the man was intoxicated and tried to assault me, he turned to his friend and said, catch hold of that man, he says to me, you have got my watch, with that I said, no sir, he threw me in the gutter and was on top of me when the policeman came over, the officer caught hold of me and he charged me with stealing his watch and he, the complainant, ran away and came back again, I stood with the officer without him holding me explaining to the officer the way I was caught, I walked afterwards with the officer to the Station House without him holding me. I was arrested about five weeks before this, I was walking with a man who was in Sing Sing or some other place before that and the both of us were arrested in Fourth Avenue; we were brought before the Judge and he held this man for one month and I was discharged, I was kept about two days and no charge was made against me, I knew this man for years before as a boy in the neighborhood I did not know anything about him.

Cross Examined. I was taken to Police Headquarters, I believe that the charge that was made was attempt to pick pockets. This man and I went to the same school together. I did not know that he was in State Prison.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree.

a man's eye.

Ques. What if anything did the defendant say in retaliation to the complaint?

A. Defendant said he wished he had killed the man, naming Patrick Donnelly. The defendant
said he hoped he had knocked Donnelly's eye out and hoped he had killed him as they were a dirty
set and he was glad to get out of the house. Defat also stated to me that he busted out the panels
of the door leading to defendant's room. I saw the two top panels had been kicked out. Defat said he kicked them in with his foot.

A. Ex. I never saw Donnelly before the night of the arrest. I knew the defeat Murphy by eight only. I never had any trouble with Murphy. It was dark when I arrested Murphy. I arrested him in the house where both lived. I arrested him as he was coming down stairs. I asked him if his name was Murphy. he said yes. I said I wanted him and he went with me. Drummely lives two flights up. I took Murphy immediately to the Station House. No one went to the Station House with us to make complaint. The conversation with Murphy was while going to the Station House. Murphy told me how Drummely received his injuries. He said nothing to me except what I have already stated. It was when I went back to the house for complaint I saw the door broken. I swear on my own knowledge and oath who broke the door.

Hon. Peter B. Olney, District-Attorney.

Dear Sir,

Mr. Murphy, broke into my apartments on September 4, last, and without cause knocked my eye out with the handle of a broom. He had with him at that very time his wife and two men friends of his, all of them seemed to assist him. On the seventeenth of last March, Mrs. Murphy wanted the Landlord to put us out and to give our rooms to them, this the Landlord would not do. He said we were good tenants and if they did not like it they could move. About two weeks after on Sunday, Mr. Murphy came to our door with a weapon of some kind. He made a noise to show that he had it, and called us out to kill us. He passed by the door several times, he called us the most improper names that he could think, saying if he could not hunt us out he would kill us. When I came home from my work on the evening this event took place, my wife told me that Mr. Murphy's family was moving out and not to notice anything they would say as they were provoking a quarrel all day. Several times during the day they used the words that they would take satisfaction out of us before they would go yet. Mr. Lunn came to prove that he heard him use those words. A little after six o'clock that same evening, Mr.

0488

O'Brien comes to prove that he
also heard him use threatening
language that same evening.
Mr. Cratton is a witness. Four he wishes to be called on the stand. ^{Mr. Shivers will} testify that he had a broom, cleaning in Mr. Murphy's room; this may be the broom that Mr. Murphy used. I saw him going in to their room
with it and a pail about ten minutes before the house breaking began. He told my wife and Mr. Shivers also that his broom was there. Mr. Murphy had a man as a witness for him,
no person saw this man in the house that night or any other time before. He is suspected not to be a real witness.
