The defendant in this case Michael Dakein was a dog-catcher, and it appears that he was taken as the owner of a dog in-signment. There is a very grave doubt that he has or licenses was on the dog at the time when it was taken a number of reputable witnesses testify that there was no collar on license on the dog.

There is no fear of the repetition of such an offense as the State proposed by the Legislature of 1894 placing the power of catching dogs in the hands of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The defendant, though, in the circumstances, is a very honest, and therefore, I think, it is best served by discharging him on his own recognizance May 17/99. Respectfully

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse FRANK J. DAVIS of the crime of Omitting, refusing and neglecting to perform an act required of him as a public officer, by the election law, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred the first Monday of the said month of November), there was held a general election throughout the State of New York, and in and throughout the said City and County of New York.

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, and at the said election, the said Frank J. Davis, late of the City and County aforesaid, was an Inspector of Election of the Fifteenth Election District, of the Nineteenth Assembly District of the said City and County, duly appointed, qualified and then and there acting as such, and did then and there with the other Inspectors of Election of the said Election District lots and to enter the said voting booth with such voter and there assist him in preparing his ballot.

Nevertheless the said Frank J. Davis so being such Inspector of Election as aforesaid, well knowing the premises, then and there feloniously did omit, refuse and neglect to perform the acts so required of him by the election law as aforesaid, and then and there and between the opening of the polls of the said election in and for the said election district and the closing thereof, did feloniously admit within the guard-rail of the said polling place, and omit, refuse and neglect to refuse admittance within such guard-rail, or to exclude from within the same a certain person whose name is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, not being an inspector of election of the said election district or a poll clerk or ballot clerk of the said election district, or a duly authorized watcher, or person admitted by them to preserve order or enforce the law, or person lawfully admitted for the purpose of voting, or a person duly admitted to assist a disabled voter, or a person lawfully designated by a candidate to be present at the said canvass; and then and there did feloniously suffer and permit more than one person to occupy one voting booth in the said polling place at the same time, and omit, refuse and neglect to prevent more than one person from occupying one voting booth at the same time, to wit: did feloniously suffer and permit the said person whose name is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, to pass within the said guard-rail of the said polling place and to receive the ballots of one James Cahill, a voter of the said election district, the said James Cahill not having declared under oath to the said Inspectors

Memorandum of Facts for Grand Jury

Benjamin B. Groom, complainant was in charge of owned, 30728 acres of land in Carson County, Texas, which he wished to sell. Henry H. Finley above-named, an attorney at law represented to Groom that he had a client who was anxious to invest money in Texas lands, and he thereafter introduced ~~him~~ Groom to Robert Williams above-named. On meeting Williams, he Williams repeated to Groom, the statement made to him by Finley, about his desire to ~~purchase~~ invest his money in Texas lands, and showed him, Groom a number of alleged bonds which he represented were of great value. At a later interview, they (Finley & Williams) ~~represented~~ stated to Groom, that they would require the appointment of an agent for the purpose of going to Texas and examining the property there.
Groom agreed to this, and Finley and Williams named one Homer P. Finley of Ann Arbor, Michigan. Williams gave Groom a letter of instructions to Finley and Groom went to Chicago to meet him. When Groom reached Chicago he received a ^{letter} telegram from said Homer P. Finley demanding one hundred dollars to be paid him, before he would leave Ann Arbor. Groom telegraphed him that sum, and after said Homer P. Finley reached Chicago, Groom had an interview with him. At this interview, said Homer P. Finley demanded $2000 as his fee for going to Texas, examining the property &c. He finally compromised for $1350. Groom then advanced $500 in cash and ^{promissory} a note of $850. for the balance. Thereafter they (H. P. Finley & Groom) went to Texas and examined the property. After the examination the said H. P. Finley reported that everything was satisfactory, that the property came up to the representations &c. Thereafter Groom returned to New York, met Henry H. Finley and Williams, and after several more interviews, Williams finally stated that owing to the failure of the people behind him, as he expressed it to advance the money, he ^{had} ~~could not~~ ^{was} not be able to raise ^{no} money ^{with which} enough to purchase the property. He had always stated, at the earlier meetings before Groom & H. P. Finley had gone to Texas, that he was purchasing the property individually, that most of his money was invested in securities paying a very low rate of interest, and advanced ~~this~~ as the reason for his desire to purchase Groom's property, his belief that it would bring him in a larger income for the money invested.

Groom now charges that the whole scheme was a conspiracy on the part of the said Henry H. Finley, Robert Williams and Homer P. Finley, to obtain the said sum of $1350 from him.

The Police report that Williams is a notorious English thief and swindler, known as R. W. Davey and has been identified as having been concerned in schemes of the same nature both here and in Great Britain.

Henry H. Finley has also been arrested here, for being implicated in schemes of the same nature.

BEFORE: HON. FREDERICK SMYTH and a Jury.

Indictment filed December 12th, 1893.

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the first degree.

New York January 16th, 1894.

Appearances for the People, Asst. Dist. Atty.

Stephen J. O'Hare,

For the defendant Mr. T. H. Terry and Mr. Sidney Stuart.

WILLIAM ROBERTS, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I live at No. 546 Atlantic Ave. in the City of Brooklyn at present. About the 17th of Oct. last I answered an advertisement for a partner in the restaurant business.
In reply to that, about the 20th of Oct. I received a postal card signed by this defendant asking me to call at his restaurant on Columbus Ave. near 72nd St.. I went to
No. 308 Columbus Ave. on the morning of the 20th of Oct.
I found Mr. Scattergood in the store. He took me down stairs and introduced me to Mr. De Long. I told Mr. De Long I was looking for a chance to go into business. De Long took me around and showed me the different things in the place. He said "We want another partner to act as

cashier and to take charge of the restaurant upstairs. He took me all around and showed me four refrigerators and then he showed me a warming pan. He said "These are all mine and they are all paid for. I said to him "Are they all yours"; he says "yes", " and they are all paid for. I asked him what I would pay $800 for and he said it would be for a share in the business, one third interest. There was a vacant room alongside of the restaurant room, and Mr. De Long told me that in that room he wanted to start a pool and billiard room, and it was for that reason he required the $800. After showing me the three refrigerators and the warming pan in the basement, he took me upstairs and showed me another refrigerator at the head of the stairs. When we were upstairs he again told me that the refrigerators were all his and that they were all paid for. I then asked him about the nature of his business he told me that he had three customers that were paying him $45 per week and said "I have a very good business here and I can guarantee you at least $25 a week." When I went into the place first I told him that I had seen his advertisement in the New York World and had come in response to it. When I asked him how much capital I would have to put in the business for a 1/3 int. he told me $800; he said that he wanted the $800 to start this pool and billiard room next door to the restaurant. He also said that one reason why they wanted another partner was, that Mr. Scattergood lived out in New Jersey and could not stay there very late at night; he was anxious to have the place kept open until 12 or 1 o'clock at night, and if there were two partners the time could be equally divided. I told him I was anxious to go into the business and would pay him

$800 in cash the following day. I examined the different ice boxes that were shown me, one was about 8 ft. high, about 5 ft. wide and about 2 feet and a half deep; the others were similar in size. I am certain that Mr. De Long told me that these ice boxes were his and that they were all paid for. Before I left Mr. De Long on that day I told him I would come on Sunday night and bring a lady friend with me. The following Sunday night I called with a Miss McLoughlin around about seven o'clock. Mr. Scatter good took Miss McLoughlin and myself downstairs and introduced us to Mr. De Long. Mr. De Long took us both around again and showed us the refrigerators and the warming pan. I again asked him if he owned all these ice boxes and he said he did, and that they were paid for. I asked him then what he wanted the $800 for and he told me for a one third interest in the business. He then took us into the vacant room next door and told us that he intended to start a pool and billiard room in there and it would take the $800 to fit the place up. At that time I gave Mr. De Long a deposit of $25 and said I would come there on Monday morning and pay the balance $775. I came the following Monday morning at 9 o'clock. I told Mr. De Long I was ready to pay the money; he went away and came back with a lawyer, Mr. Harris, at about half past two oclock. Mr. Harris sat at a table and drew up an agreement between the three of us. After the agreement had been signed I paid over to Mr. De Long $775. I remained in that business three weeks. The first week we had a net profit of $47 and 92 cents; the second week there was a profit of $17 or $18 and the third week there was a profit of $18. At the end of the third week Mr. De Long came to me and said that he wanted to sell out his share in the business for $50. I told him then that I wanted to get my money back; he laughed in my face and he told me to go and get it where I could. In a short time after that I made a complaint against Mr. De Long for larceny.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Where did you live before you came to Brooklyn? A I lived in Pennsylvania before I came to New York.

Q What were you doing in Pennsylvania? A In the grocery business.

Q Why did you leave there? A I failed in business.

Q And you came here to New York to get rid of your creditors, did you not? A No sir.

Q With whom did you live in Brooklyn? A With a Mr. Schultz?

Q What is his business? A He is in the furniture business.

Q When did you first see Mr. De Long? A On the 20th I think it was, I saw Mr. Scattergood first.

Q You saw De Long and Scattergood both? A Yes sir.

Q What kind of a building is that, No. 308 Columbus Ave.?

A A large apartment house with a dining room on the ground floor of about 48 ft. front.

Q Were you ever in the apartments of that building? A No sir.

Q Did you ever make any inquiries as to how many tenants were there when you saw Mr. De Long? A No sir, but Mr. De Long told me it was full of tenants.

Q There was a kitchen in the basement, was there not?

A Yes ssir.

Q Was this warming pan you speak of attached to the range?

A No sir, it was at the other end of the kitchen, but I think it was connected by steam pipes. They went through the floor.

Q These refrigerators that you saw in the basement were they attached to the wall? A They seemed to be built in the wall.

Q What did the defendant De Long say about them? A He told me that they belonged to him and they were all paid for.

Q Didn't he tell you they belonged to the premises, to the owner of the premises? A No sir.

Q What conversation did you have with Mr. Scattergood?

A I introduced myself to him and he took me down and introduced me to Mr. De Long. He said "here is Mr. Roberts, a young man who has answered the advertisement for a partner. I then told Mr. De Long that I was looking around to go into business. He then showed me the different refrigerators as I have already stated. I said to him " A Are they all yours" and he said "Yes" He then told me they had a veryngood business there and he could guarantee me $25 a week; he said they had one customer who paid them as much as $45 a week. Both he and Mr. Scattergood told me they had been doing a lucrative business, and the week before their profits had amounted to $90. The following Sunday when I went there with Miss McLoughlin Mr. De Long repeated the statement that the ice boxes were all his and had been paid for.

Q You started in that business on a Monday morning and you stayed there three weeks? A Yes sir, going on four weeks.

Q The first week you received $16 as your share of the profits: A Yes sir; the next week I received $6.25 and the third week I received $6.

Q Were there any quarrels between you and your partners as to the conduct of the business before you had them arrested? A I had a misunderstanding with Mr. De Long. One day he found fault with me because I said that some cakes that had been sent up from the kitchen were in a bad condition. We then had a quarrel.

Q Was there any quarrel about the pool room? A No sir, Mr. De Long told me he was going to start a pool room but he never did so.

Q This $800 that you paid was your money? A It was money I borrowed from Miss McLoughlin.

Q You put it in this business? A Yes sir.

Q Did you refuse to allow your name to be printed on the business paper as a partner? A No sir, but I told them I would prefer that my name be left out.

Q To whom did you give this money? A To Mr. De Long.

SIMON BANNER, a witness for the people, sworn, testifies:

I am the owner of the premises 308 Columbus Ave. in this City. In the month of Sept. last I leased those premises to the defendant De Long. At the time of leasing the premises there were three ice boxes in the kitchen and one on the street floor. They were all connected with the building fasten to the walls and were all my property. The defendant De Long, did not own any one of those ice boxes.

I never sold them to Mr. De Long. When the defendant entered into the possession of the premises I promised to give him rent free for Oct. Nov. and Dec.; for Jany. Feby. and March he was to pay $100 a month; for April May June, July Aug. and Sept. $150 per month, and to have the privilege of a three years lease at $2,000 a year. I did this in order to give him a chance to make a living.

LIZZIE KIESWELL , a witness for the people, sworn, testifies

I live at 751 Putnam Ave., Brooklyn. On the 20th of Oct. last I was employed washing dishes at 308 Columbus Ave. in this City. That was a restaurant kept by Mr. De Long. On the afternoon of the 20th of Oct. about 2 o'clock I saw Mr. De Long and Mr. Roberts talking downstairs in the kitchen. I heard Mr. De Long tell Mr. Roberts that the ice boxes and the pan warmer were all his and had been all paid for.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Does Mr. Roberts live at 751 Putname Ave., Brooklyn?

A No sir. I never lived with Mr Roberts.

Q Where did you go after you left Mr. De Long's house?

A I went to my brothers and stayed there for 2 months.

Q Didn't you live part of the time in the same house with Mr. Roberts and Miss McLoughlin? A No sir, they are strangers to me. My uncle lives near them, but I do not live near them.

Q What were you doing at the time you heard this conversation? A I was standing in the kitchen doing nothing.

My work was done.

Q What did Mr. De Long say, as near as you can recollect?

A Mr. De Long simply showed him the ice boxes and said they were his.

Q You did not hear any part of the conversation before that did you, A No sir, that is all the conversation I heard.

Q Were you discharged by Mr. De Long? A No, sir, I left.

ELIZABETH McLOUGHLIN, a witness for the people, sworn and testifies:

I live at 546 Atlantic Ave. in the City of Brooklyn On the 22nd of October last, Sunday, I went to No. 308 Columbus Ave in this City with Mr. Roberts. To the best of my recollection we arrived at the place between six and seven o'clock. We were introduced to Mr. De Long. He invited us to go downstairs and see the kitchen. We went down and while we were there he showed us around, pointed out the pan warmer and the three refrigerators in the kitchen; he said they all belonged to him. Mr. Roberts asked him "Are these all yours"? he said "yes, they are all mine, they are all paid for. After inspecting the kitchen we went upstairs. Mr. De Long took us in a room which adjoined the restaurant, and when in there told us that he was going to start a pool, and billiard room there but no drinks would be sold in that room. I asked Mr. De Long what the $800 was for and he said it was for a one third interest in the business. Mr. Roberts paid $25 to Mr. De Long on that night.

Cross examination:

Q What else did Mr. De Long say about the pool and billiard room? A He said that the $800 would be used to properly fit up that place, and that they would keep it open until 12 at night.

Q How long have you known Mr. Roberts? A At may be about 7 or 8 years.

Q Where did you become acquainted with him? A At my home in Pennsylvania.

Q When he came to Brooklyn did he reside in the same house with you? A Yes sir, with Mr. Schultz.

Q This $800 that Mr. Roberts paid to De Long was your money

A Yes sir, he borrowed it from me.

Q Did he give you any security? A No sir, I just gave it to him, if he could pay it back it was all right.

Q Had you ever loaned him money before to go into business

A No sir, I did not.

Q Did you have dinner in the restaurant the evening you were there? A Yes sir.

Q Tell me the first thing De Long said when you were down stairs? A Mr. Scattergood took us downstairs and introduced us to Mr. De Long. Mr. Roberts told Mr. De Long who I was and then he started to show us around the kitchen. He showed us a lunch table a pan warmer and the three ice boxes. He said that the ice boxes and the other fixtures in the kitchen were all his.

Q What time did you leave that place on that night? A It must have been somewhere about 8 o'clock. I am not positive.

The Articles of Agreement were offered in evidence and read to the Jury.

D E F E N S E :

LOUIS H. DE LONG, the defendant, sworn testifies:

I am in the restaurant business. I have been a chief cook for many years. I am acquainted with Mr. Roberts. On the day he came to the restaurant I was introduced to him by my Partner, who said he was a young man who wanted to go into the business. Mr. Roberts asked me the price and I told him we would give him a one third interest for $800. I took him downstairs, he looked around and then he went away. That was the first transaction. I simply showed him the place and that was all. I showed him the ice boxes but said nothing to him about owning the ice boxes. He returned a day or two afterwards in company with a lady. I took both of them down to the kitchen and showed them around. On that occasion I did not say to Mr. Roberts that the ice boxes were my property. I recollect showing him the ice boxes and telling him that they belonged to the place. I also told him that I had a lease of the place for three years. On that visit Mr. Roberts said "I like the place very much and I will leave $25 to bind the bargain so that you won't take anybody else." I am positive that on neither of those visits did I say to Mr. Roberts or to the lady who accompanied him that I was the owner of those ice boxes. I did not tell Mr. Roberts at any time that I was the owner of the warming pan which it in the kitchen.

These articles are attached to the premises and are no part of my personal property.

It cost me about $2,000 to fit up this place. I bought furniture, chairs, tables, table linen, silver ware, glass ware, and cutlery.

At the time I started in business at that place I took Mr. Scattergood into partnership with me, and he put up some of the money.. On Monday morning Mr. Roberts came to the store and said he was ready to pay the balance of $775. I went downtown for Mr. Harris, the attorney, to draw up the proper papers. Mr Harris came uptown with me and sitting at a table in the saloon drew up the agreement. The agreement was read over to Mr. Roberts and he said it was satisfactory to him. After it had been signed by all three of us Mr. Roberts paid over to me the sum of $775. I did have a conversation with Roberts in reference to starting a pool and billiard room. It was not my intention at any time, nor did I say to Mr. Roberts that the $800 would be used by me in fitting up the pool and billiard room. The business which was done at that place was a prosperous one the first month, and Mr. Scattergood shared as much as $90. After Mr. Roberts came in we lost some of our best customers and the business began to fall off. We relied mainly on the occupant of the flat for our trade. I did not guarantee Mr. Roberts a net profit of $25 or any other sum. After he had been in the business about three weeks we had a quarrel. I differed with him as to the conduct of the business and I did tell him I was willing to sell out

Cross examination:

Q How long have you been in the United States? A Since 1872.

Q How long have you been a chief cook? A About 24 years.

Q Where were you born? A Bordeaux?

Q How old are you? A I am 56.

Q When did you go into this restaurant business at 308 Columbus Ave., A I opened on the 1st of October.

Q Where were you in business just before that? A I was at the corner of Bedford Ave and Fulton St., Brooklyn.

Q How long were you in business there? A About 2 or 3 months.

Q When did you leave there? A I could not remember.

Q Can you tell the month or the year? A I think in April, May or June.

Q You sold out there? A I sold out to my partner Mr. Giger.

Q Is that the gentleman you sold out to (p ointing to Mr. Giger) A Yes sir.

Q How long had you been in business with him? A About 2 months.

Q How much did you sell out to him for A 175 dollars.

Q You did not go into business between June and October A No sir.

Q How much money did you have outside of the $175 that he paid you? A I cannot remember, my wife kept my money.

Q Where was your wife? A She keeps a place at 155 West 12th St.

Q Do you live there? A I go there to see her every evening.

Q You had no money in bank at the time you received this $175 from Giger? A No sir, but my wife had business.

Q How did you pay $2,000 for furnishing this place in Columbus Ave.? A I said that to fit up the place, the kitchen and everything it would cost $2,000.

Q What did you buy? A I bought tables, chairs silver ware, crockery ware, glass ware and cutlery.

Q Where did you buy them? A I bought some of them from a Mr. Willits on 4th Ave.

Q Where did you get the money? A Mr. Scattergood invested $500.

Q What did you put in? A I got $700 from my wife at different times - I put in about $350 in this restaurant at the time I started with Mr. Scattergood.

Q How much did you pay for the chairs? A I paid $24 a dozen.

Q Where did you buy your linen? A I bought some of it at Bloomingdale Bros. but I don't remember just what I paid for it.

Q Where were you in business last summer? A I don't recollect.

Q Were you not in business on 3rd Ave.? A Yes sir, number 27 3rd Ave., the Astor Place Hotel.

Q How long did you stay there? A About 2 months.

Q Were you lucky enough to have some one buy you out there
A Yes sir, I sold out for $250 or $275.

Q Where were you in business before you went to Bedford Ave. and Fulton St. Brooklyn? A No. 760 Bway.

Q Did you have a partner there? A Yes Mr. Ghevany.

Q How much did you sell out to Mr. Ghevany for? A I think $500.

Q How long were you in business at 760 Bway? A About 2 months.

Q Before that where were you in business? A I was down in 73 New St.

Q Did you sell out, A Yes sir.

Q Tell me some other places where you have been in this restaurant business? A I can't think of any more just now.

Q When you told Mr. Roberts that you made $92 the week previous to his going into partnership with you, did you tell him also that you had not deducted from that $92 any of the expenses? A No sir, I don't believe I did -- that was our net profit. Mr. Scattergood kept the books and he knows more about that than I do.

Q Who is Mr. Harris, the gentleman that drew the contract? A He is an attorney at No. 116 Centre St. in this City.

Q Did Mr. Roberts put $800 in that restaurant? A Yes.

Q You got the money? A Yes sir.

Q What did you do with the money? A It was divided between myself and Mr. Scattergood. Mr. Scattergood got $400 and I got $400.

Q Have you ever paid that money back to the complainant Mr. Roberts? A No sir, I have not.

Q Have you got it? A No sir. I told you I had to pay half of it to Mr. Scattergood.

HENRY FOERDRUNK, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a cook and live at No. 13 Rivington St. in this City. In the month of Oct. last I was employed as a cook in the restaurant kept by Mr. De Long at 308 Columbus Ave. One Sunday afternoon in Oct. I saw Mr. Roberts and the lady who has testified here come down into the kitchen with Mr. De Long. I heard a part of the conversation that took place while they were down in the kitchen. I saw Mr. De Long showing them the ice boxes the lunch table and the warming pan. I did not hear Mr. De Long say to Mr. Roberts or the lady that the ice boxes belonged to him. Lizzie Kieswell was in the kitchen at the time/ but was not near enough to hear any of the conversation.

S. GRANVILLE HARRISS, a witness for the defendant, sworn testifies:

I am a lawyer having my office at 116 Centre St. in this City. I am the gentleman spoken of as having drawn the articles of partnership between Mr. Roberts and the other two partners. I can tell by looking at the articles of iagreement that they were drawn on the 23rd day of oct. I went up, to the restaurant for that purpose. As I came into the place Mr. Roberts was sitting down. I said "I came here at the request of Mr. De Long do draw up a partnership agreement. what do you intend to do, if you tell me what you want to do I will put it in the partnership agreement" Mr. Roberts said "I intend to buy a one third interest in this business." I asked him whether he desired an inventory, and he said it was not necessary. I then drew up the paper. Before I started to draw it up I said, "Now gentlemen, before I draw this paper so that there may be no dispute, I want Mr. De Long and Mr. Scattergood to state the reasons why they are taking Mr. Roberts into partnership. They then said, we are taking you into partnership for this reason "Mr. Scattergood is upstairs all the time, and I in the kitchen. We cannot attend to our business in the way we desires We want to keep our business open until 12 or 1 o'clock at night and for that reason we want an extra man. I said Mr. Roberts are you agreeable: He said "I am". I inserted in the agreement that Mr. De Long had a lease of the premises for 2 years. There was nothing said in my presence about the ice box. After the agreement had been signed and the money paid over Mr. Roberts asked me what I thought of the business. I told him I didn't know much about the restaurant business, but I supposed it was a pretty fair place for a good business. I delivered one copy of the Articles of Agreement to each one of the partners. One day two or three weeks after this time Mr. Roberts came to my office in regard to a certain matter of business. In conversation with him, I asked him how the business was progressing; he said it was going to smash, that De Long was an infernal crank and was always fighting and quarrelling, that the customers didn't receive proper attention and that the business was going to smash. I said "You ought to patch up your difficulties and see if you can't get along with your partners in a peaceable way". He said "I have just learned that Mr. De Long is going to take the place next door for a billiard and pool room. I asked him who told him and he said he heard so on that day. But would not tell me from whom he heard it. He complained that De Long was not going to let him have his share in this pool and billiard room. I told him that De Long could have as many places of business he pleased and was not compelled to give him a share in each one of them. He turned around and said "Well If I don't get in that pool and billiard room business, there is going to be music, I will fix him. He doesn't own the refrigerators and the warming pans. He told me that he owned them and I have found out that he does not. If he doesn't let me in that billiard business I am going to fix him". I said "He did not deceive you or cheat you in reference to those ice boxes and this is a contemptible action on your part to bring an action against a man with whom you have been in business. He said "I don' care, I ought to get into that business and if I can't bring an action on that ground I will get some other ground, I will fix him. " I told him to go home and try and arrange his difficulties with his partners.

Cross examination:

Q How long have you been a lawyer? A Since 1886.

Q Are you in the same office with Mr. Terry who is the counsel for the deft. in this case? A Yes.

Q Have you done any other legal business for Mr. De Long?

A I have on one or two occasions drawn agreements for him.

Q In the drawing of these articles of co-partnership you represented all three parties? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't it the intention to give Roberts a one third interest in that business for his $800? A yes sir.

Q Wasn't this lease of the restaurant a part of the co-partnership property? A Yes sir.

Q Weren't you perfectly well aware from the conversation you had with these people that Roberts was to have a one third interest in that partnership and in all it belongings. A Yes sir.

Q The money was paid to De Long in your presence? A Yes.

Q What did Mr. Roberts come to see you about at your office? A He came to see me in reference to drawing up a mortgage that he desired to give to Miss McLoughlin as security for this $800 he had borrowed from her.

R E B U T T A L :

JOHN SCATTERGOOD, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I am jointly indicted with Louis H. De Long for grand larceny in the first degree. In the month of Oct. 1893 I went into partnership with De Long at 308 Columbus Ave. I contributed $500. De Long represented to me that he was the owner of all the furnishings of the place. I t was understood that he wa s to put in $500 also, but he only put up $350. The money I put in was spent in buying chairs tables and other fittings for a restaurant. I was not acting in complicity with Mr. De Long in cheating the complainant in this case. I did receive $400 from Mr. De Long but I did not know whose money it was. I had paid Mr. De Long $500 and I asked him for my money and he said all he could give me was $400. At the time Mr Roberts came to the restaurant I told him that we were doing a prosperous business. The week before he came we had divided $90.

WILLIAM ROBERTS, recalled:

Q Did you have a conversation with Mr. Granville Harriss at 116 Centre ST.? A Yes sir.

Q What did you talk about? A I went there and asked him if he would draw up a mortgage in favor of Miss McLoughlin for the $800 I had borrowed of her. He said all right, he drew it up and he told me he would charge me $2.25.

Afterwards I had a conversation with Harriss in which I told him that De Long wasn't treating me right, that he had misrepresnted things to me. Did you say that you would let fix him because he would not you in the pool and billiard room business? A I never mentioned the pool and billiard room.

Q Did you say anything of that sort? A No sir

Q Did you say you had discovered that De Long did not own the refrigerators? A No sir.

Q What was the mortgage you had drawn? A It was a mortgage for $800 on my interest in the business-- in favor of Miss McLoughlin from whom I had borrowed the money.

Q You had not given Miss McLoughlin any security? A No sir.

Q You told Harriss that you wished to mortgage your one third interest in the business to Miss McLoughlin? A Yes sir.

Q You swore to a complaint in the Police Court against these two defendants? A Yes sir.

Q Did you not charge that Scattergood made false representations as well as De Long? A I charged them both but most of my conversations were held with Mr. De Long.

The Jury returned the verdict convicting the defendant of Grand Larceny in the First Degree and of giving witness in the trial before

The jury returned the verdict acquitting the defendant of all allegations made with respect to the allegations as well as to the fact that the defendant did not know whether the defendant was a person these two references. A. S. S. S. S.

Q. You spoke to a committee in the Police Court and that of No. ~~308~~ Columbus Avenue Street, aged 36 years.

occupation ~~Restaurateur~~ ^{orator} being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 19 day of October 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in May time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money to the amount and value of Eight hundred dollars $800.00

the property of

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Louis M. De Long and John Scuttergood (both now here) and acting in concert; from the fact that on said Deponent answered and drew money of the said defendants asking for a partner in a Restaurant business situated at 308 Columbus Avenue. The said defendant represented to deponent that they were doing a prosperous business and that they would pay deponent the sum of twenty five dollars per week. Deponent visited the said business in company with the said defendant DeLong and Scuttergood and they represented to deponent that they had four refrigerators and a running Pan that was in said business together with Other furniture and fixtures in said premises.

The value of the said Refrigerator and Warming Pan is about ~~Three~~ hundred dollars. Dependent is informed by Section Buyer of 10 West 74 Street that she is the owner of the said Refrigerator and Warming Pan and that the said defendants ~~did~~ not own said property.
Wherefore dependent relying on the statements of the said defendants that they owned said properties gave the said defendants the sum of Eight hundred dollars for an interest in said business.

Dependent says that the statements and representations made by the said defendants were false and fraudulent and made with the intent to deceive and defraud Dependent.
Dependent therefore asks that the said defendants may be held liable to the landlady.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK |

AGAINST

Dennis M. De Long and John Scattergood

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Dennis M. De Long and John Scattergood of the CRIME OF Extortion LARCENY in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Dennis M. De Long and John Scattergood, both — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the nineteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- three, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one William Roberts — of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to their own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

William Roberts, —

That they the said Dennis M. De Long and John Scattergood were then conducting a prosperous and lucrative restaurant business at the premises there situate known as number 308 Columbus Avenue, that the business then being done by them, and which had been doing at the premises aforesaid, paid and realized a profit of at least twenty five dollars a week upon an investment of eight hundred dollars, and would have done the said William Roberts

such right as he invested that sum in purchasing an interest in the said business; that they the said Louis H.
De Long and John Scattergood were the owners of four certain refrigerators and a warming pan then in the said premises, and then being used for the purposes of said business.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said Louis H. De Long and John Scattergood did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said William Roberts, the sum of eight hundred dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of eight hundred dollars, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

— William Roberts —

with intent to deprive and defraud the said William Roberts, — of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to their own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Louis H. De Long and John Scattergood were not then conducting a prosperous and lucrative restaurant business at the said premises, and the business then being done by them, and which had been done at the said premises, did not pay and receiving a profit of at least twenty five dollars a week upon an investment of eight hundred dollars, and would not pay him the said William Roberts such profit as he invested that sum in purchasing an interest in the said business; and that the said Louis H. De Sancy and John Scattergood were not the owners of the said four refrigerators and warming pan.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Louis H. De Sancy and John Scattergood to the said William Roberts — was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as they the said Louis
H. De Sancy and John Scattergood at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Louis
H. De Sancy and John Scattergood, in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said William Roberts, — then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

" Before

" HON. FREDERICK SMYTH,

" and a Jury.

Tried, DECEMBER 11TH, 1893.

Indicted for ASSAULT, in the FIRST DEGREE.

Indictment filed DECEMBER 7TH, 1893.

APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY THOMAS J. BRADLEY,

For THE PEOPLE.

JACOB BERLINGER, ESQUIRE,

For THE DEFENCE.

FRANK J. CONNELLY, being duly sworn, testified that he was the House Surgeon at Bellevue Hospital. He remembered treating the complainant in the case. He first treated the complainant on the 8th of November, 1893. At that time the complainant was suffering from a wound of the abdomen, about an inch in depth, caused, in his opinion, by a sharp cutting instrument. The direction of the wound was directly inwards. The wound was not of such a character as to cause death. The complainant remained under his care until the 25th of November.

AUGUST KOEHLER, THE COMPLAINANT, being duly sworn, testified that he lived at 221 Chrystie street, and was a truckman. He met the defendant on the 8th of November, 1893, at the corner of Second avenue and Houston street, about a quarter to 8 in the morning. He was standing on the corner, talking to two other men. The defendant crossed the street with a friend of his. The defendant went over to the corner where he, the complainant, was, and looked around. The defendant then went up to him and said, "What are you going to do about that hat?" On the Monday night preceding the night in question, he, the complainant, the defendant, and another man had changed hats. He had walked around the corner with the defendant's hat on his head, and, when he returned, the defendant had disappeared. He said to the defendant, "Where is mine?" The defendant then made a blow at him, and he jumped aside. The defendant made three or four more blows at him, and he then struck the defendant on the shoulder. The defendant then stabbed him in the abdomen. He did not know the defendant had a knife until the defendant stabbed him. He, the complainant, immediately ran around to Dr. Von Guinn, in First street, with whom he was acquainted. On the way to the doctor's house, he met the officer, and the officer took him to the station house. He was subsequently taken to the hospital, in an ambulance. He remained in the hospital from the 8th of November until the 25th. A Mr. Marks was present at the time of the assault. He did not strike the defendant until after the defendant stabbed him.

In cross-examination the complainant testified that it was after he had hit the defendant that the defendant stabbed him. He did not know whether or not he could have avoided the blow which the defendant made at him. He was twenty-two years of age, and had known the defendant about four years. The defendant did not do any work "to any extent." He recognized a man pointed out to him as Mr. Brett as the man who was with the defendant at the time of the assault. He, the complainant, weighed about 185 pounds.

HENRY MARKS, being duly sworn, testified that he lived at 190 Orchard street. He was in the newspaper business. He saw the assault on the morning in question. He corroborated the complainant in regard to the assault, but he did not know whether or not the defendant had anything in his hand. Immediately after the defendant struck the complainant, the complainant said, "I am cut." When the complainant said that he was cut, the defendant ran away.

In cross-examination the witness testified that he had kept a new-stand on the corner for about eighteen years. He had no feeling against the defendant.

WILLIAM KENNELL, being duly sworn, testified that he was an officer connected with the 14th Precinct. He saw the complainant running through the street with his hand on his side, and he had some conversation with the complainant. He then met Officer Keeling, and had a conversation with him. Keeling then went down Chrystie street. He took the complainant to the station house, and rang up an ambulance and had him taken to the hospital. He saw the defendant, subsequently, in the station house. He asked the defendant why he cut the complainant; the defendant, said, "It was merely over a hat quarrel." He said, "Did you mean to do it?" The defendant said, "Yes, to defend myself." He said to the defendant, "What did you want to run away for; why didn't you stand?" The defendant said, "No. I am always put into trouble, no matter what happens." He did not see the man Brett in that neighborhood at the time. Officer Keeling gave him a knife which had been found in the defendant's possession at the time of his arrest, and he produced the knife at the time of the trial. He showed the defendant the knife and said, "Is that your knife?" The defendant said, "Yes." He said, "Did you cut him with that knife?" The defendant said, "Yes." He took the complainant to a doctor's office, in First street, and had the wound dressed, before going to the station house.

FOR THE DEFENCE, AUGUST DOERR, THE DEFENDANT, being duly sworn, testified that he was a baker, by trade. He lived at 286 Bowery. He had known the complainant about six years. On the night of the 6th of November, 1893, he was standing on the corner talking to the complainant and another man. His hat fell off and the complainant picked it up and put it on his, the complainant's, head. The complainant put his own hat on the defendant's head. The complainant asked him, the next day, where his hat was. He told the complainant that he had thrown the hat away. On the morning in question, he met the complainant on the corner of Houston and Chrystie streets. He said, "What are you going to do about that hat?" The complainant said, "Take it." He reached over to take his hat off the complainant's head. The complainant then hit him a blow, nearly knocking him senseless." He knew the complainant was a stronger man than he, and he thought that the complainant was going to hit him again; so he pulled his knife from his pocket, opened it, and struck the complainant. He did not mean to cut the complainant. He had been convicted once of assault, and had been sentenced to six months in the Penitentiary. That was the only time he had ever been convicted of crime. He had been in this country fifteen years.

In cross-examination the witness testified that, up to the time of the assault, his relations with the complainant had been friendly. It was not true that the complainant was four or five feet away from, that the, the defendant, was on the ground, and that he jumped up and ran over to the complainant and stabbed him. He did not strike several times at the complainant. He was arrested in the cellar of a house in Chrystie street. He went into the cellar to hide, because he was afraid of being arrested.

JACOB BRETZ, being duly sworn, testified that he was a baker, and worked at 38 East Houston street. He had known the defendant about four years. He saw the assault. He heard the defendant say to the complainant, "What are you going to do about my hat?" The complainant said, "Take it." The defendant tried to take the hat off the complainant's head, and the complainant knocked him down. The defendant got up, and the complainant said, "Come up," and the complainant and defendant got together again. He heard the complainant say, "I'M cut." He did not see the defendant cut the complainant.

In cross-examination the witness testified that he did not go to the station house and say that the defendant had stabbed the complainant in self-defence. He did not appear as a witness at the Police Court. He had been to see the defendant subsequent to his arrest, in the Tombs.

Taking a false statement of the result of canvass of the ballots cast at an election.
 [Section 41n, Penal Code.]

Ordered to the COURT of County of NEW YORK, trial (Entered in the Minutes) 1879

The defendant Arnold is the only one on this Indian tract whose case remains undisposed of. He is engaged in reputable employment, has repeatedly acted for the Disposit^{ion} of this case and as his trial has never been moved altho he was and has been within the jurisdiction for over two years, and at being a grave question whether the people will then scattered elsewhere, since we are able to manage the case I recommend that Chandland be discharged on his own recognizance

Court of Oyer and Terminer
OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

*James J. Dadey,
Michael S. Fay,
Edward O. Donnell,
Francis S. Sigurdson and Edward Kappenberg*

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment accuse James J. Dadey, Michael S. Fay, Edward O. Donnell, Francis S. Sigurdson and Edward Kappenberg of the crime of intentionally making a false statement of the result of a canvass of the ballots cast at an election, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (the same being the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in the said month of November), there was held a general election throughout the State of New York, and in and throughout the said City and County of New York, and in and for the 19th Election District of the Second Assembly District of the said City and County, at which said election divers persons were voted for, and divers ballots cast, for such persons in the said election district, by the electors thereof, for the following offices, to wit: the office of Secretary of State of the State of New York, the office of Comptroller of the State of New York, the office of Treasurer of the State of New York, the office of Attorney General of the State of New York, the office of State Engineer and Surveyor of the State of New York, the office of Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, the office of Delegate-at-Large to the Constitutional Convention of the State of New York, the office of Delegate to the said Constitutional Convention for the 22nd Senate District of the said State, the office of Senator of the State of New York for the said Senate District, the office of Member of Assembly of the State of New York for the said Assembly District, the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for the said City and County, the office of Justice of the City Court of the said City, the office of Surrogate of the said County, the office of Comptroller of the said City, the office of Sheriff of the said County, the office of District Attorney of the said County, the office of Coroner of the said City and County, and the office of Justice of the District Court of the said City for the Second Judicial District thereof.

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, and at the said election, the said James J. Dadey, Michael S. Fay and Edward O. Donnell, all late of the City and County aforesaid, were Inspectors of Election of the said Election District, duly appointed, qualified and then and there acting as such, and the said Francis S. Sigurdson and Edward Kappenberg, both late of the same place, were Poll Clerks, of the same election district, likewise duly appointed, qualified and then and there acting as such.

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the polls of the said election, in and for the said election district having been closed, and the canvass and estimate of the ballots so cast at the said election, in the said election district by the electors thereof, having been duly made and completed, the said James J. Dadey, Michael S. Fay, Edward O. Donnell, Francis S. Sigurdson and Edward Kappenberg, feloniously did wilfully and intentionally make a certain false statement of the result of the said canvass and estimate of the ballots so cast at the said election in the said election district, by the electors thereof, as aforesaid, to wit: a certain statement, partly written and partly printed, then and there purporting to be in the form prescribed by the statute in such case made and provided, and to contain a statement showing the whole number of votes given for each person voted for at the said election in the said election district by the electors thereof, and at the end thereof being a certificate that such statement was correct in all respects, the same being then and there made up and composed of divers, to wit: eight sheets of paper and each sheet of which, as well as the said certificate, being then and there subscribed by the said James J. Dadey, Michael S. Fay, Edward O. Donnell, Francis S. Sigurdson and Edward Kappenberg, and each of them, as such inspectors of election and poll clerks, respectively, which said false statement is as follows, that is to say:

CANVASSERS' STATEMENT.

STATEMENT OF VOTES given for Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, State Engineer and Surveyor, Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, Delegates-at-Large to Constitutional Convention, District Delegates to Constitutional Convention, Senator, Member of Assembly, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Justices of the City Court, Surrogate, Comptroller of the City of New York, Sheriff, District Attorney, Coroners and Justices of the District Courts, at a General Election held in and for the Nineteenth Election District of the Second Assembly District, in the City and County of New York, on the Seventh day of November, 1893, made by the Inspectors and Poll Clerks of Election in and for the said District, on which said day the Polls were opened in said District at 6 o'clock A. which said statement was then and there false, in this, to wit: that it did not then and there contain a statement showing the whole number of votes given for each person voted for at the said election in the said election district by the electors thereof, and was also then and there false in divers other respects, and among them in this, to wit: that whereas the said statement purported to set forth and indicate and did in substance and effect signify and declare that at the said election the whole number of votes given in the said election district by the electors thereof for the said office of Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals was Two hundred and seventy one, — that of the votes so given, Isaac H. Maynard received all, — and Edward T. Bartlett received none, — and that the said canvass and estimate of the ballots so cast at the said election in the said election district by the electors thereof had so shown; in truth and in fact of the votes given at the said election in the said election district by the electors thereof the said Isaac H. Maynard did not receive all, — and the said Edward T. Bartlett received seven of said votes, of a number to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, — and the said canvass and estimate of the ballots so cast at the said election in the said election district by the electors thereof had so shown;

all of the ~~the~~ by the said James J. Dodson, Michael S. Barry, Edward O'Donnell, Francis T. Smyth and
Edward Hoffendorn,
then and there well knew.

And the said James J. Dodson, Michael S. Barry,
Edward O'Donnell, Francis T. Smyth and
Edward Hoffendorn —
did then and there make and subscribe the said false statement, in the form and containing the matters hereinbefore set out, in triplicate, and within twenty-four hours after the said several statements had been subscribed, by the act and procurement of the said James J. Dodson,
Michael S. Barry, Edward O'Donnell, Francis
T. Smyth and Edward Hoffendorn, — one of the said statements was duly delivered to the Clerk of the Board of Aldermen of the said City by one of the said Inspectors of Election, another of the said statements was duly delivered to the County Clerk of the said County, by another of the said Inspectors, and the other of the said statements was by the other of the said Inspectors duly delivered to the Chief of the Bureau of Elections of the Police Department of the said City, as and for the statements of the result of the canvass and estimate of the votes cast at the said election in the said election district by the electors thereof, required by the statute in such case made and provided, to be so made in triplicate and to be so delivered to the above named officers respectively in the manner aforesaid.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say, that the said James J. Dodson,
Michael S. Barry, Edward O'Donnell, Francis
T. Smyth and Edward Hoffendorn, — in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously did wilfully and intentionally make a false statement of the result of a canvass of the ballots cast at the said election, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Superior Court
COURT OF ~~GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE~~ OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Patrick Dougherty

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse Patrick Dougherty of a FELONY, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on the 19th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-~~three~~, the same being a day duly appointed by law as a day for the general registration of the qualified voters of the said City and County, the said Patrick Dougherty late of the City and County aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did personally appear before the Inspectors of Election of the 39th Election District of the First Assembly District of the said City and County, at a meeting of the said Inspectors of Election then being duly held at the duly designated polling place of the said Election District, for the purpose of the general registration of the male residents of the said Election District who would be at the election next following the said day of registration (to wit: on the second day of November, in the year aforesaid, being the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in the said month of November, and being the day duly appointed by law for the holding of a general election throughout the said State and in the City and County aforesaid), entitled to vote therein, Indictment filed December 22nd 1893.

Indicted for Burglary in the Third Degree.

New York, January 2nd, 1894.

Appearances. For the People, Assistant District Attorney Stephen J. O'Hare.
 For the Defendant, James W. McLaughlin.

JOHN TOTTEN, a witness for the People, sworn testified:

I live at No. 240 West 49th Street. I have lived there about ten years. I lived there on the 10th of December last. I am the owner of the property No. 223 West 49th Street. It is a three story and basement brick building. I was in these premises on the morning of the 16th of December, somewhere around about ten o'clock, between half past nine and ten o'clock. I came out the front door and locked it. The windows front and back were closed and the basement door was closed. I went back afterwards and found that the iron grating covering the hole leading to the cellar was broken off. I saw this man going into the house. I got an officer and when we went in we found that the plumbing was very badly damaged. It was in good condition at the time I saw it on the 16th . I had never seen these men before and I never authorized them to go into this house.

WILLIAM H. BENNETT? a witness for the People, sworn testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 22nd Precinct. I know the premises 223 West 49th Street. I went into the premises with Mr. Totten on the morning of the 16 of December last. We found the two defendants in the place ; each one of them had a bag with them. We examined the plumbing and we found that part of it had been broken . We found a wrench and chisel near the part of the plumbing that had been damaged.

JOSEPH DUFFY, one of the defendants, sworn testified:

I am 20 years of age and live at 525 First Avenue. with my mother and father. I was arrested in the premises in question. I didn't go in there to steal. I was going along looking for work and I wanted to go to the closet. I went to the corner saloon but there was another man in there; then I walked along and saw the door of this house open. I went in there for the purpose of going to the closet. I didn't have any bag with me. The officer came in and arrested me.

Cross examination:

I have known Dunne about five years. He was in my company on this day in question. We were going along together looking for work taking down awnings. We went into several houses on that same block looking for ~~work~~ work. I had a wrench and chisel with me in order to do my work properly.

JOHN DUNN, one of the Defendants, sworn testified:

I am a boiler maker by occupation. I was in company with Duffy on the day in question. We were going around taking down awnings. I had a screw driver and a pair of pliers with me to do that work. Both Duffy and I went into this house for the purpose of going to the closet. We had no intention whatever of committing burglary.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting both the defendants of Burglary in the Third Degree.
