The People
vs. George Bulfe

Court of General Sessions Part I Before Recorder Smyth. November 17, 1891

Indictment for burglary in the third degree.
Abraham Mendelsohn, sworn and examined testified. My place of business is at No. 227 East street, and I am in the leaf tobacco business.
My firm is Jacob Mendelsohn and Brother; we occupy the first floor of the building. The entrances to the building are the front door from the street and a side hall door. I remember the afternoon of the 10th of October. What time did you leave your place of business that afternoon? At five o'clock. Do you know whether your place was securely locked at that time?
Yes. I examined it myself and it was well secured. The side door was closed by a bar across the door on the inside, and there was two patent locks and one beside on the front door. There were two padlocks and a stop lock and they were all locked.
When did you next go to your place of business after Saturday the 10th of October at five o'clock? Monday, the 12th of October at eleven o'clock in the forenoon. That was a Jewish holiday, and my place of business was not open on that day. Why did you go to your place of business at all on that morning? I got notified from the East precinct to call over at once. I went to my place of business. I found the glass in the side door leading from the hallway into my place of business was broke and the bar off. Was there any property missing from that place when you went in? There was eight bales of Havana tobacco missing. Was that tobacco there when you closed the place on Saturday afternoon? Yes. It was leaf tobacco and the property was worth ~~nine~~ hundred dollars. My place of business No. 227 Pearl street is situated in the First Ward of the city of New York. Have you ever seen your property since then? No sir. I have not.

Cross Examined. Who carried the keys of this store, Mr. Mendelsohn? I carried the keys. There is only one set of keys, and those were in my possession from the Saturday evening I speak of until Monday morning at eleven o'clock when I got notice to go to the store.

Charles Bernier, sworn and examined. What is your business? I am a stableman. Where do you keep? No. 77. 110th street. Do you know this defendant? Yes sir. How long have you known him? Only just seen him that Saturday night. That was the night of the 10th of October about six o'clock. Where did you meet the defendant at six oclock on Saturday night the 10th of October?

Inside in the stable on the floor at No. 77 Mott street. What conversation did you have with him? He said he would like to have a truck on Monday morning, he would call for a horse and truck. What did you say to him? I told him he could have it - at least the boss told me in case he came Monday morning at six o'clock. to give him the horse and truck. When did you next see him after that? Monday morning about half past six o'clock. Where did you see him then? In the stable. What conversation did you have with him then?
He asked for a horse and truck and I gave it to him. Describe the horse and truck that you gave him? No. 6523 was the number of the truck - a bay horse, the letter B was on the blinders. No. 6523 is the license number. In front of the truck was boarding and sale stables No. 77 Mott street. What did he do after you gave him the horse and truck? He drove away with it, and he brought it back again a quarter to one o'clock on that same day. Did you have any conversation with him then when he brought it in? No sir, the only remark he made was to tell the boss he brought in the truck at a quarter to one o'clock. You had never seen him before that day. No sir, that is the first time. I have ever seen him. What is the name of your boss? V. Newburger. He is the proprietor of the stables and of that truck? Yes sir.

Cross examined: How long have you been working for Mr. Newburger? About ten years. The No. 6523 was on both sides of this truck was it? Yes sir. It was a bay horse. Yes, it had the letter H on the blinders.

And in front of the truck, that is, the dash board I believe you call it, it had boarding and sales stables No. 77 Mott street? Yes, that is right. Did it have the name of Mr. Newburger there too? No. They were not large letters? Yes, large enough for any person, a person could see them for a block or two. William J. Grimes, sworn and examined.

I am a porter and am employed at No. 227 Pearl street, in the same building in which the firm of Mendlesohn and Brother have their business. I am employed with the Valtas Tobacco Co., a flight above Mendlesohn's. I remember Monday the 12th of October. I got there that morning about half past eight o'clock.

Did you notice anything when you arrived at the place of business that morning? No sir, the doors were all right when I seen them. I passed the door. What time did you notice anything else? Only when I was going down stairs I noticed about nine o'clock a one horse truck standing in front of the door backed in loaded with tobacco, as I judged, eight or nine bales of tobacco. As I got down I seen somebody, I dont know who it was it was a man anyway, he threw part of a rope on the back of the truck and jumped down and drove away. I saw the door open, and thinking it would be suspicious I thought I would take the number No 6523 and the #. At half past eight o'clock when you first arrived at your place of business you passed this side door of Mendelsohn Brothers and it is all right? Yes sir; and about nine o'clock when I went down stairs I saw this tobacco on this one horse truck in front of the door, eight or nine bales, and the door of Mendelsohn's place was open? Yes, and then I took the number of the truck and the # on the binders. Have you ever seen that truck since? Yes sir. I saw it on the corner of Elizabeth and Hester sts. in front of Block's tire place. When was that?

I believe the following Wednesday night.
Cross Examined. You were examined in a police Court were you not? Yes sir. Were you asked there to identify anybody as being in that truck with the man that threw the rope? Yes sir. And you could not do it? No sir. You have told us, Mr.
Grimes, that you saw the number on the truck? Yes, 6523. It was a dark horse, I did not describe the horse.
He may have been black, he may have been brown. I did not take that much notice. How near to this truck were you when you saw the letter H on the blind-ers? About four or five feet. In what relative position to the truck were you standing at the time you saw this?
The truck started to go, it had turned around. I took the number; ^{and to} make ~~be~~ sure I would make no mistake I took it twice. Did the dash board come towards you? No sir, it went towards Burling Slip, the other way; it went away from me. At any time were you in a position to see the dash board of that truck? No sir. The truck drove away from me. Did you say in the Police Court that you could not tell whether it was a white or a colored man that drove that truck? No. I have not been asked quite often since this whether I could refresh my memory as to the identification of the man who was on that truck. Do you know Mr. Nugent? Not till I seen him the first time, not till that case. Have you not spoken to him since the case was in the Police Court? No sir, not of any account. He told me when I was going away I would not have to come back until I would be subpoenaed; that is about all that I remember. How many times were you in Court? About three or four times.

Andrew Nugent sworn and examined. When did you first learn of the door of Mr. Mendelsohn's place being broken in? On the 12th of October about a quarter to ten o'clock that morning. I went to the scene of the burglary. The door is a double door, that is, two swinging doors with the upper part small panes of glass. I found both of those doors open and the wooden bar lay across the floor where it had been thrown down. I also found that opposite the hasp which held the wooden bar was a small pane of glass that had been broken, something shoved through the glass and the bar lifted out of its socket and thrown down, and all a person had to do was to walk right in. The place was in disorder and tobacco was scattered around, that is bales, what was left of it. I then investigated and found three witnesses. They also gave the name and number of the truck. My partner detective Oates went to the City Marshal's office and got the number of the truck there. After we found the number of the truck in the Mayor's office, we located the truck as being the property of Valentine Newburger No. 17 Mott street. We found the truck there that evening standing in front of the stable. I saw Charles Bremner that night and asked him something and on the following morning I talked with Mr. Newburger, the proprietor of the place. When did you arrest the defendant? I did not exactly arrest the defendant; he was pointed out by the stable man who accidentally saw him on Canal street, and he told the officer that I was in search of him. The officer arrested him and turned him over to me. That was on the 14th of October. When the defendant was turned over to you did you have any conversation with him? I did in the station house. Who was present and what was the conversation? There was nobody present. I said, "Well Balfe, you got yourself in a nice box." He says, "I don't know as I have." I says, "How do you account for the possession of that truck, being in possession of that truck at the time of this burglary was committed?" He said, "I don't know anything about the commission of any burglary. I admit hiring a truck." Then I had a conversation with him the following day. I said to him, "Balfe, you are a fool to shoulder the responsibility; you are shielding others as well as trying to shield yourself." He said, "I am not trying to shield anybody." Then I said to him, "What did you do during the time that you had possession of this truck?" I said, "Were you in possession during the time you hired it in the morning until you turned it into the stable?" He said, "I was." I said, "Could not you get any job to do in the line of trucking? He said, "No." I said, "Where did you go with the truck?" He said, "I went across town around Harrison Street." I says, "Did you have any conversation with anybody over there who knows you?" He said, "Yes!" I asked him who they were? and he told me a man named Harrison and another man by the name of Seymour. Then I said, "Where else did you go?" He says, "I stood with the truck on the corner of Pauling Slip and South Street about half past eleven or twelve o'clock, and I was talking to a man that you know that hangs out in the precinct." I said, "Who was it?" He said, "I don't like to tell you because you might think he was in this job." I says to him, "Balfe, you are a fool, that don't tell the circumstances of this case and tell who your accomplices are, it will certainly help you out in this matter." He says, "I will tell you one thing. Agent, I promise you if I ain't treated as I expect to be and I find I have got to go to prison I will take others with me." So that ended our conversation. Those are the only conversations you had with this defendant relative to this case? That is the only conversation.

The defendant. I protest against all this in the name of justice; I have been threatened with all kinds of police persecution.

The Court. Listen to me for a moment. Take my advice and say nothing except through your counsel.

Counsel. May it please the Court: Some things have happened since this case began which have not pleased me in my position as Counsel for this man. I am acting for him without any hope of reward in the hereafter. I have found fault with some of his actions and have told him so, and he will not be guided by what I deem my best judgment in the case.

Andrew Nugent recalled. I told the defendant it would be best for him to tell me the truth, but I do not recollect holding out any inducements to him to tell me who committed the burglary. I told him I did not think he did the job alone.

James Oates, an officer of the first precinct, was sworn and examined. He testified that he saw the defendant in a cell in the station house on the afternoon of the 14th of October. I said to him I thought he was in a pretty bad "snap". He said he did not think so. I says, "You hired the truck that Saturday night and took it out Monday

He said, yes. I said, parties in the hall where the burglary was committed took the number of the truck, and parties went up to the stable and identified the truck. He said, I had the truck but I was not in that neighborhood. I was on the west side all that morning over at the North river. He said, they must make a mistake. I say, "They did not make a mistake with it on the blunders, he says. "I dont care what they say, I am innocent of that case and I will get out of it.

William W. C. Laughlin, sworn and examined.

I am captain in charge of the first precinct. The defendant was brought to the station house. I questioned him about the burglary and he said he knew nothing whatever about it. He admitted hiring the truck and having it in his possession from six o'clock or half past six in the morning until one o'clock on the day of the burglary. He said he had been over to the North and East river with it, and he said the truck had never been out of his possession. He said he had been arrested three times for burglary and once for robbery. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree.

Dr. Sir:

I have examined the above case as requested, and find that upon an examination before the Police Magistrate on Sept. 25th 1891 he determined that there was sufficient cause to believe that the defendants Bergman and Goldstein were guilty of Burglary and directed that they be held in $1,000. bail to await the action of the Grand Jury, and that they be committed to the City Prison until such bail be given.

On the following day the complainant was notified shortly before 10 A.M. to both defendants were discharged, as the complainant claims, unjustly.

Upon an examination of the papers in

In the Matter of the Complaint of Char. Joseph against Morris J. Bergman and Michael Goldstein.

City & County of New York, ss.
Moses Rosenberg being duly sworn says I was ten years old on January 11th 1891 and reside at 1218 E. Broadway; I know Michael J. Bergman for about three months.
On the night of Sept 24th 1891.. I got up about 2. P. M. to go to the water closet which is in the yard. When I got in the yard I saw the said Bergman on the shed at the rear of Mr. Joseph's apartments on the first floor over the store. When I first saw him he was getting out of the window. In the morning about 9. 0^o clock I went to Mrs Joseph's and told her what I had seen and that the man that I saw getting out of the window was Bergman. On Thursday the 24th day of Sept. I met Bergman in the store in the front of which he has a soda water stand. He said that he had seen my brother ^{in the} hall and asked me if I had seen him in the hall I said no. but said nothing further as I did not see him in the hall but had seen him on the fire escape & on the shed and in the back yard at about 2 A.M.

I know it was about 2 A.M. as the clock on the mantel in the kitchen just struck as I was going out to the closet. - I met him again on the same night near his soda water stand and he said "Come here I want to tell you something" I went to him and he said "I shouldn't tell any-body about last night"

I saw him again on Saturday night but said nothing to him. I also saw him in court on Sept. 25th and 26th.
