POLICE COURT First DISTRICT

City and County of New York, ss:

John C. Holscher of No. 15 Pearl Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises situate at a room in the First Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Store Room
and which was occupied by deponent as a such

were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcing open a door with a false Key leading from the hallway into said Room on the 8th day of February 1881 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

A quantity of Womens wearing apparel a desk and some stove pipes chairs and clothes packed with other furniture in all of the value of two hundred dollars the property of Deponent and Deponents Sister and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Charles A. Anderson for the reasons following, to wit: That the door aforesaid was locked and fastened and deponent hearing a noise caused by the falling of a broom handle which deponent had placed inside the door in such a manner as to fall when the door was opened came down stairs and found the prisoner standing in the doorway the door being at the time open

John C. Holscher.

Michael Flannery of the First Precinct Police being sworn says that he arrested the prisoner in the aforesaid premises and, after having taken him into custody he found in the prisoners possession the several bunches of Keys here shown some of which deponent believes were used by him Anderson in forcing an entrance into the room in question.

A 6 1/2

Police Court--First District.

John Stephenson

of 47 Nassau St.

upon his oath complains that a person called Charles Arcularius, being a man quite full with full grey beard & grey hair about 60 years of age at premises No. 98 Nassau Street, in the City and County of New York, unlawfully keeps and maintains a Gambling House, and knowingly permits divers idle, disorderly and evil disposed persons to resort there, to gamble and play at cards and games of chance for money, in violation of the law, and to the common nuisance of the People of the State of New York.

Deponent further says that in said premises on the thirteenth day of January 18 81 said person called Charles Arcularius did unlawfully and feloniously deal the game called Faro, and did then and there within the space of twenty-four hours win from deponent one dollar and seventy five cents at said game, and that within said premises are exhibited, kept and used by said person called Charles Arcularius faro and other gambling tables, checks, cards, devices and apparatus, for the purpose of gambling, the discovery of which would tend to establish the truth of the charge herein made.
