AFFIDAVIT

0311

To the Hon Frederick Smyth Recorder of the City and County of New York.

May it please your Honor!

The petition of Bernard H. Train an Attorney and Counsellor at law of the Supreme Court of the State of New York
brother of and Counsel for Samuel H
Truitt

Allegeth:

That on the 2nd day of March 1881 at a Court of General Sessions of the Peace holden in and for the City and County of New York Samuel H Truitt aged nineteen years, plead guilty to the offence of felony larceny and was remanded by your Honor for sentence. That there was no evidence of any violation of law against the prisoner at the time of his arrest.
That the officer who arrested him, upon the promise that it would be to his (Truitt's) advantage and that leniency would be shown him and while in his custody and under duress unlawfully obtained from him confessions and admissions as to his (Truitt's) guilt which were subsequently without any regard to truth used against him. That there were three prisoners arrested and charged with the offence of feloniously receiving stolen goods upon information given by the prisoner and other evidence procured against them by the officer. That said officer has admitted having procured the confessions aforesaid under the circumstances above enumerated. That the prisoner admitted the larceny of four dozen handkerchiefs on a certain day, but that the officer in the case, remarking that the prisoner had confessed to him that he was not certain whether he ~~was or was not~~ had taken four, five or six dozen handkerchiefs that day, said "well we will split the difference and call it five dozen", thereby making the offence appear to be grand larceny; that as will appear by said complaint, it was framed upon the confession of the prisoner, which if at all admissible in evidence against him, could only show a case of petty larceny. That it is the prisoner's first offence, he has already been confined in the Docks over six weeks, and is sick in consequence thereof as appears by the Physician's Certificate hereto annexed, that he has been well behaved while there and is thoroughly penitent as certified to by the warden of the City Prison.

That he has been in the employ of the complainant for about five years. That his family and social connections are of the highest character. His fall is to be attributed to the evil effects of occasional visits to the vile dens on Sixth Avenue and their attendant vices, and not to a depraved criminal mind and heart. Since his arrest he has given evidence of sincere penitence for his misdeeds.

Your petitioner most respectfully and earnestly craves that your honor will in view of the circumstances hereinbefore submitted, extend your most lenient mercy to the prisoner. Believing that, thereby the ends of justice will be best served, and that a premature downward course effectually averted.

And your petitioner will ever pray &c.
Dated N. Y. March 24/81. Very Respectfully -

B. M. Threlkeld
of Counsel for prisoner.

We the undersigned Citizens of the City of New York, having been made acquainted with the circumstances aforesaid do most respectfully join in the above petition and most earnestly recommend -

0314

His case to your Honor's consideration as one in which it would be eminently proper, just and merciful to interpose judicial clemency.
