Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

William Boyd

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

William Boyd
of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE ON SUNDAY, committed as follows:

The said

William Boyd

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ~~twenty-seventh~~ day of ~~November~~ Seven in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-Seven, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

John W. Carroll

and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

William Boyd

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

William Boyd

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Tried, May 21st., 1888.

APPEARANCES:

Assistant District Attorney McDona for the People;
Mr. Mc Feeters for the Defence.

OWEN S. ROBERTS, the complainant, testified that he lived at 138 East 28th. Street. On the night of the 30th. of April at about half past 12 o'clock he saw the defendant at the corner of Third Avenue and 28th. St. There were two men with the defendant- Bradley and Hand- as he — had learned since. One of the men asked Hand to play the accordion, and he did and they stayed a waltz. He, the complainant, had a friend who walked ahead. When his friend had got about 12 or 15 feet ahead of him, he said, "come along Owney" Then Bradley ran his head into his, the complainant's stomach and got hold of him and Sheenan also caught hold of him. He threw his arms over his shoulders. Then they ran away and he halloed, "my watch is gone" He, the complainant, and his friend ran after them. He called out to his friend come back and let them go", because he was afraid they would do some harm to his friend. The value of his watch was between 8 and 10 dollars.

BEARD & LEWIS, Stenographers, 280 Broadway, New York.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION he testified that he had been to see a friend home from church. He accompanied his friend to a lady, to 18th. Street, between 5th. and 6th Avenues. After he left her, he went up 5th. Avenue and crossed the park at 23rd. Street and entered 26th. Street and went through 26th. Street to 3rd. Avenue. Hand was playing the accordion, and he stopped to hear it played. It was a silver watch. He saw the watch after it was stolen from him in the 57th. Street Police Court. It was in the hands of the police officers. There was an electric light at the corner and he could see distinctly and clearly.

OFFICER MICHAEL C. DONOHUE testified that he was attached to the 21st. Precinct. He saw Sheehan on the corner of 28th. Street and 2nd. Avenue on the night of the 30th. of April. He didn't arrest the defendant that night but he did arrest Hand who was in his company

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION. (None).

OFFICER JOHN W. TAYLOR, testified that he belonged to the 21st. Precinct. He saw the defendant on the night of the 30th. of April. He was going up 28th. St. towards 3rd. Avenue and he saw Sheehan Bradley and Hand and the complainant, and another young man running down the street. He ran across the street and got behind a truck and when Sheehan got up within 10 feet of him, Sheehan said, "cheese it; there is a policeman" Bradley and Hand ran back towards 3rd. Avenue and Sheehan tried to dodge him around a truck, but he, witness, caught him and took him back to the corner of Third Avenue. The complainant caught up with Sheehan almost as soon as he, the officer, did. The complainant identified him as one of the three men that had robbed him. Sheenan said, " I Don't care a dam, I have lots of money and can get out."

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION, The witness testified that he, the defendant, made this remark in answer to the complainant's remark, "that's the man."

FOR THE DEFENCE EDWARD BRADLEY testified that he was jointly indicted with the defendant. Defendant had nothing to do with the taking of the watch. Hand and Sheehan were going along together with an accordion. He, witness, was at 28th. Street and 3rd. Avenue and he asked them to play the accordion for him. They didn't know that he, Bradley, was taking the complainant's watch. He had not been a minute with them when the complainant and his friend came up. Sheehan didn't touch the complainant at all. There was no waltzing at all. That was a made up story of the complainant

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION He testified that he went right over to Roberts and lifted his watch out of his pocket and took it. Roberts didn't see him take the watch.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION. The witness testified that he was under the influence of liquor that night.

JOHN SHEENAN testified that he and Hand were at a party at 411 East 29th Street and left the party at half past 11 or 12 and he, the defendant, was on his way home. They met a man named Frank Martin and went to a liquor store, but it was not open. All of a sudden, he heard someone say, "I have lost my watch." He didn't know who it was and he ran and Hand ran ahead of him: He didn't see Bradley at all that night, but just happened to see him as he passed the corner. He was not in his company for five minutes before the watch was stolen. He didn't know that Bradley was going to steal the watch. He didn't touch the complainant at all.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION. He testified that there were 10 or 15 people standing on the corner. He had known Bradley two or three years. He had never been in trouble with Bradley before. He had been arrested before for simple assault. He was before Judge Cowen upon the trial for assault about 15 months ago. He was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for 8 months.

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twentieth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

Sumner Baldwin —

and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

William Broderick —

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

William Broderick —

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

The People of the Sate of New York,
against
Michael Murphy .

Indictment filed May 8th 1888.

N E W Y O R K, May 18th 1888.

APPEARANCES: For the People, Asst. Dist. Atty. Goff.

For the defendant, J. Oliver Keane, Esq.

FERDINAND WARNIVH, a witness for the People, testified:

I am a laborer and reside at No. 101 Greenwich St. in this city. On the night of the 29th of April this year about one o'clock I was standing on the stoop of the house where I live. Th3 co-defendant Brown came along and put his hands on my shoulders and then seized me by the arms. I ran away and he folllwowed me into the house and tore my silver watch out of my left hand vest pocket and ran away. I did not see this defendant Murphy there at the time at all. There was another man there but I could not recognize him. I then told a policeman about it and after Brown was arrested I identified him as the man who had taken my watch. The watch was worth ten dollars.

PATRICK DURKIN, a witness for the People, testified:

On the night of the 9th of April I lived at No. 101 Greenwich st. in this city . I remember seeing the complainant on that morning in the hallway. I heard some one holler out that his watch and chain was gone . Immediately before I heard his outcry I saw two men pass into the hallway but I could not recognize the men .

MICHAEL MURRAY, a witness for the People, testified:

I am an officer of police . On the night of the 29th of April I was on duty in Greenwich St. I saw the complainant at the corner of Rector and Greenwich St. He made a complaint to me that his watch had been taken. I looked around to see if I could find the people who took his watch; he gave me a description of the persons and a few days after that two officers brought Brown and Murphy to me and I arrested them. I brought them to the station house and upon searching the defendant Murphy I found the complainants watch in his pocket. Murphy said that he had come by the watch honestly . When he said that Brown said "You can't come that on me". Murphy insisted that he bought it honestly .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Murphy was arrested by another officer and handed over to me .

D E F E N C E

MICHAEL MURPHY, a witness for the defendant,, testified:

I am in the newspaper business . On the 29th of April I was at a wake at No. 31 Washington St. in this city. I went to the wake about ten o'clock at the house of a Mrs. Conroy. I stayed there until four o'clock in the morning . There was a young man with me there who will be a witness her to-day . I did not have anything to do with the taking of this watch . I met the defendant Brown a few days after at No. 26 Trinity Place and he asked me if I would buy the watch from him --if I would mind it for him for a few days as he was waiting to give it to a friend. I took it from him and I did not have it in my possession five minutes when the officer arrested me .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I have never been arrested in my life for anything. I did not know this watch had been stolen when I took it from Brown ; if I did I would not have taken it .

OWEN McPARTLAND, testified, that he was at the wake of one Mrs. Conroy at No. 31 Washington St. on the night of the 29th of April in company with the defendant and that they were there from ten o'clock until four o'clock the following morning .

RICHARD ENGLAND, testified to the good character of the defendant.

The jury found the prisoner GUILTY of Receiving stolen goods %

Charles Buelow.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE.

The prisoner, who is a German 31 years of age and a cigar box maker, is indicted for taking, receiving, harboring and using Lizzie Jones, a little girl aged 14 years, for the purpose of sexual intercourse, in violation of § 282 of the Penal Code, at the Bowery Hotel, south-east corner of Third Avenue and 6th Street, on April 29, 1888.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PEOPLE.

LIZZIE JONES. - Resides at 739 East 11th Street. Since January last has been employed in the cigar box factory of Simon Strauss at 183 Lewis Street, and has been working on cigar box pasting and earning 3 to 4 dollars a week. The prisoner is also employed there and so is Lena Schmidt. On Saturday, April 28, witness received at the factory $3.10 her week's earnings, and then she and Lena Schmidt made an appointment with the prisoner to meet them Sunday afternoon, April 29th, at 2.30, at Houston Street Ferry, and take them to a christening at Maspeth, L.I., and also to have a gentleman friend with him. On Saturday evening when she got home she told her mother that she was not paid at the factory but would get her money the following Monday. She left the house that evening, purchased a white shawl and a hat and left the same at her friend's house Lizzie Gavan aged 17, 15 Dry Dock Street, and then on the day following, Sunday, she went to Dry Dock Street, put on the shawl and hat and proceeded down to Houston Street Ferry which was about 3 P.M., and there she met the prisoner, Joseph Strauss a son of the employer, and a young man named Billy also employed in the factory, and Lena Schmidt. They all proceeded to the christening at Clinton Park, Maspeth, L.I., and while there drank beer and wine and danced, and prisoner was the godfather of the child that was christened. About 7 P.M. Joseph Strauss left for home, and about 9 P.M. witness and Lena Schmidt, prisoner and Billy left for home, and at Union Avenue and Grand Street, Williamsburgh, Billy and Lena got off to go to 27 Montrose Avenue where Lena is boarding. On arriving on New York side, prisoner then took witness to the Bowery Hotel, which was about 11.30 o'clock, and engaged rooms and registered, and also purchased from the barkeeper a bottle of beer, which he took to the room. They then went to sleep and in the morning he had sexual intercourse with her. Prisoner left the hotel at 6.30 A.M. and gave her $2., and she remained at the hotel until 9.30 A.M., and then went to her aunt's house, Eliza Jones, on 7th Avenue between 53rd and 54th Streets, and remained till 4.30 P.M., and then went to 7th Street between Avenues B and C, to the segar box factory, to meet her friend Katie Schepp aged 18 years, and then accompanied Katie to her house, and then met Billy Waltz aged 18 years, and after talking for some time, asked him to accompany her to the Bowery Hotel, which he did, and she engaged rooms for 50 cents, and registered her name, and then Billy went home. She remained till next morning, Tuesday, May 1st, 10 o'clock, and then went to her lady friend's house on 13th Street between Avenues B and C, named Maggie Meister, and remained with her till 8 P.M., and then went out for a walk on Avenue B between 7th and 8th Streets, met Katie Schepp and Billy Waltz, and asked Billy again to take her to the hotel, which he did. She then engaged rooms again and paid 50 cents and registered her name, and Billy went home, and she remained in the hotel till next morning at 11.30 o'clock, and then went to the segar box factory and saw her friend Katie Schepp. About 12 o'clock noon, the prisoner and Lena Schmidt saw her at the factory, and the prisoner said "You had better go home; I will get in a hole." He also stated that if her parents refused her admission he would take care of her. They then left and she remained with Katie Schepp till 8.30 P.M., and then prisoner and Waltz came around again and accompanied her to the Bowery Hotel. Prisoner remained outside the hotel, and she and Waltz went in, and then she paid 50 cents for the room, and Waltz registered her name, and he went home, and she remained in the hotel till next morning, Thursday, May 3rd, at 9 o'clock, and then went to her married sister's house, Otilia Hummel, 260 Rivington Street, when her mother came around and had her arrested. Prisoner is a married man and resides at 223 7th Street and has one child. A year ago last January witness and Joseph McBarrow aged 20 years, of 741 East 11 Street, went to a bed house in 4th Avenue between 10th and 11th Streets, and there had sexual intercourse, which was the first time. There was also in the house with her at the time Norah Fleming aged 16 years of 737 East 11th Street, and a young man named John McCabe aged 20 years of 11th Street near 1st Avenue, and they also had sexual intercourse. Joseph McBarrow and prisoner are the only two persons witness ever had sexual intercourse with.

LEN SCHMIDT, a witness on trip 24, 1934, between 1934 and 1935

LENA SCHMIDT. - Lives at 27 Montrose Avenue, Brooklyn, is 18 years of age and works in the cigar box factory. Left the prisoner and the last witness at Union Avenue, Brooklyn, at the time the last witness stated. Had been with them to the christening. Was with them from 3.30 till 9.30 in the evening, at Clinton Park, Maspeth, L.I. Works in the same factory with the witness. The prisoner is foreman of the nailers. Has heard the statement made by the last witness as to what occurred on Long Island, and the same is entirely true.

MRS. ELIZABETH JONES. - Is the mother of the girl Lizzie Jones. The girl is 14 years old, and was born June 23, 1873, and baptized by the Rev. Mr. Seymour of the 6th Street Emmanuel Baptist Church near Avenue D. Knows that her daughter left her house on Sunday, April 29th, about 2 P.M., and on May 3rd witness found her at her married daughter's house, Otillia Hummel, 260 Rivington Street, and from what witness learned in reference to the prisoner she caused his arrest. Witness has family Bible (will produce it) shewing the daughter's age.

OFFICER WILLIAM MC CORMACK. - Is an officer of the Municipal Police of the City of New York. Made the arrest of the prisoner, who admitted to him that he took the girl to the hotel on the day in question.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM SCHULTZ. - Captain of the 13th Precinct Municipal Police. The prisoner admitted to witness that on the night in question he took the girl Lizzie Jones to the hotel, but denied having sexual intercourse with her.
