New York, February 24th 1890

To whom it may concern

This is to certify that I treated Mrs. Coomas of No. 414 Fourth Ave. for a severe inflammation of the bowels. She was very sick from Jan. 7th to Jan. 20th 1890.
She had consulted me in Aug. 1888 when she was suffering from nervous prostration.

In her present nervous condition just having recovered from a serious inflammation of the bowels, I consider that any excitement might precipitate a serious mental prostration

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Georgia Loomis

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Georgia Loomis
of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

The said

Georgia Loomis

late of the 21st Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty-ninety~~ and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Georgia Loomis on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Georgia Loomis

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

(Section 385, Penal Code.)

The said

Georgia Loomis

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty-~~ninety, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0585

THIRD COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

(Section 322
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

Georgia Loomis
Georgia Loomis
late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty-~~ninety and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
