and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed, and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by William Storm and William Fritz. (with names here) for the reasons following to wit: That on the night of the 20 day of February 1860 deponent saw said premises securely closed and fastened and said property was then within said premises. That on the morning of the 21 of February aforesaid deponent discovered that said window had been forced open and the door

Parting said window torn out, and said property burglariously taken, stolen and carried away therefrom.

That thereafter deponent was informed by Officer Richard King, here present, that on the afternoon of the 6th day of March instant he, said officer, found a portion of said stolen property, viz: 2504 of said $100 checks in the possession of said deponents, which deponent believes to be true. That deponent has seen the checks so found by said officer in the possession of said deponents and identifies said checks as a portion of said property so stolen as aforesaid.

Thomas Shaw

W i l l i s B. W h i t a k e r      6 Avington Sq.

I am in the express, trucking and carriage business. Shaw had been in my employment for two or three years as driver. He took his meals at my house. We had been missing goods from time to time for the last four months. After February 10th, there was a roll of matting taken from a sleeping room in which Shaw had been stowing goods. He had acted very suspicious the night before, in leaving the house first and then returning for his overcoat, and our servant suspected him of taking the matting. The next day he admitted to me having stolen it. He seemed to be penitent, and I told him I would not make any charge against him if he would reform, which he agreed to do. It was the duty of him and Goff to be at my stable 443 West Street last Thursday to drive any carriages that might be ordered. There was a carriage ordered for Dr. Haddon No. 5 Avington Sq. My clerk Jonas Hans was sent by my wife to see that the carriage was sent to answer the Doctor's call. When he got to the stable neither Shaw nor Goff were there. John the stable-man remarked to Hans, "Has anything been going on wrong about here lately, was I heard Goff in our second story to-night and saw him meddling with things that did not concern him. He also went to the front part of the building and opened the large doors. A few moments afterwards Goff came down the ladder to the main floor of the building. Just before this I thought I heard something fall that had been thrown out of the window above, then Shaw and Goff walked away. Shaw was on the side walk apparently waiting for Goff. The clerk then went to the clarence which they intended to send in answer to the Doctor's call, and opened the door and found therein silk dresses that I had on storage in the stable building. As my clerk was driving out of the stable to attend the call, Goff appeared, asked him where he was going with the carriage; he told him, and Goff said he would attend to it, and asked Hans if he found some goods inside of the clarence and he told him he had. Goff said, "You need not say anything about that, they belong to car No. 13 of the West Street line, they fell off. Shaw was at this time standing on the opposite side of the Street. Goff then got on the coach, and the clerk came and reported to me. An officer was finally obtained who arrested Goff, and under the lining of his hat was found a pawn ticket for a ring belonging to my wife which she had missed for several days, stolen from my house. That ring was redeemed by my wife. It was pawned at Harlan's in Hudson St. Officer Burleigh of the 9th precinct arrested Shaw at breakfast at my house. He first denied any knowledge of the dresses, but upon being confronted by the officer with the dresses he admitted that he and Goff had broken open the two trunks at the stable the evening before, abstracted the dresses and other goods, frames and brushes, and pawned the frames and brushes the evening before when they were absent from the stable. I was present at this conversation. Shaw made this confession freely. The silk dress mentioned in the complaint and indictment herein is one of those found in this clearance. Shaw was then taken to the station house, and upon being searched a slung shot found upon him. Both of them were taken before a magistrate and admitted their guilt. The officer and myself went to the residence of Shaw—he told us he lived at 639 but he really lived at 640 Greenwich St. We inquired for Shaw and were told that no one of that name lived there but that Mr. and Mrs. Place lived there, and we afterwards ascertained from Shaw himself that he was the person known as Place. We made search in his room and found the roll of matting, worth $4 or $5., taken about Feb'y 15th, also some brass connected with the grate, taken from our stable, also two pawn tickets in the possession of Mrs. Place his woman. We found several pawn tickets, one of which called for a ring belonging to our servant, pawned in Houston St. near Mott. We also found two magazines which had been abstracted from a barrel, which had been forced open. This barrel was on storage with me. The officer and I went up stairs in the stable, and we found two trunks that had been broken open, from which the goods placed in the carriage were taken, and we found goods in the trunk to correspond with those in the carriage.

0194

0195

4321
The People v. Court of General Sessions. Before Judge Thomas Shaw Cooving. March 7, 1880. Jointly indicted with Stephen Goff for grand larceny Willis B. Whitaker sworn and examined, testified I am the complainant; am in the Express and trucking business and run coaches. The prisoner was in my employ; this last time he was with me since April 1879, he had worked for me previously two or three years ago; on the 26th of February he worked for me; my stables are 443 West St. near West 11th St.
I had several trunks with property in my possession and had some for Mrs. Schuyler of Albany. I made some advance to Mrs. Schuyler; she had picture frames, as well as trunks that were on storage with me; the articles alleged to have been stolen were silk dresses which were in the trunk that was stored away on the second story of the building. The last time I saw the property was at the close of the Hudson River navigation, the 20th or 22nd of December.
Goods were found in our place and we went up stairs to see if anything had been tampered with; we found two trunks open; the trunks were stowed away and a lot of other freight piled on top of them and it would take some labor to get them out. The dresses were found in one of my carriages on the floor below. I was not present when they were found. They were shown to me that night and I saw the remainder in the station house that morning. The dresses came from the trunk that belonged to Mrs. Schuyler, for we found that there was some pieces of dress that corresponded with the dresses. The prisoner was arrested in the morning while taking breakfast at my house; that was the last Friday of February. When I missed the goods I reported it at the Ninth Precinct Station house and they deputized officer Burleigh to look after the case and he arrested the prisoner. The officer showed the prisoner one of the dresses in the morning and asked him what he knew about it. He said he would tell us all about it; he stated that Goff, the one that was sentenced, and himself had taken the goods. Then we searched and found the trunks open. Both of the dresses were silk and one poplin. I am married and have had occasion to purchase silk dresses. I do not think I could replace them for fifty dollars. I think judging from bills that have been formerly sent to me that a bill would be presented me for seventy five dollars. I would be very well satisfied to settle with Mrs. Schuyler for fifty dollars. I paid a lady a year ago one hundred dollars for goods she claimed was lost that were not as good as these. The Asst. Dist. Atty read the examination of the prisoner before the Magistrate wherein he stated when asked what he had to say in reference to the charge, "I am guilty." Cross Examined. I think it was in July 1878 I received Mrs. Schuyler's trunk and a great many goods. I did not make her advances at that time; she came to me in an embarrassed situation afterwards and wanted assistance. I forget what I gave her, five or ten dollars, she wanted to go to Albany. I did not open the trunk to see what it contained. I received her goods and gave her a receipt for the articles; she did not tell me what the trunk contained; she called a month or two after and got some money of me, she was embarrassed. There were two silk dresses, a poplin skirt, and Swiss goods enough to make another over skirt found in one of my carriages. I have no certain knowledge of where that property came from, but I am satisfied it belonged to Mrs. Schuyler. She has not seen or identified this property. My clerk found the property in one of my carriages. I had not seen the trunk from December to February; the young man that pleaded guilty the other day by the name of Goff was in my employ as a driver and the prisoner was also a driver.
