STATE OF NEW YORK,

County of New York } ss.:

Charles Sears, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
 That he resides in the town of Montgomery in the County of Orange and State of New York, and is 49 years of age, and is an expert appointed by Josiah K. Brown, New York State Dairy Commissioner; That on the 8th day of February, 1886 in the store occupied by him, No. 500 Hudson street, in the City of New York in the County of New York and State of New York, one Philip McAleer, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter
 the product of the Dairy; that the said Philip McAleer offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, 1 pound as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered after April thirtieth, 1885, out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. That the same was not manufactured, or in process of manufacture on April thirtieth, 1885, but has been rendered, manufactured, compounded and mixed since April thirtieth, 1885, as deponent is informed and believes

~~That the tubs in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter"~~
~~upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent~~
~~black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand;~~
~~that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.~~

Deponent further says that on said 8th day of February 1886 he went to the said store of said
McAleer in said City and County, and told said McAleer that he wanted to buy some Butter; that said McAleer showed deponent a number of pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned, offered the same to depo-
 nent for sale, and sold the same to deponent; that he so sold to deponent 1 pound as and for Butter thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $ 0.25;
 that, as deponent believes and charges, the said McAleer at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as hereinbefore stated; that he did not tell deponent at any time that the said Oleomargarine so sold to deponent was not Butter, the product of the Dairy; that deponent saw the tubs in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said McAleer to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him; that on February 9th 1886, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to E. G. Love a chemist of the city of New York N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said Philip McAleer and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

The People
vs.
John McCarthy.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

March 3, 1886.

Indictment for assault with intent to steal as a pick-pocket.

John J. Keliher sworn and examined, testified.

You are a police officer? Yes sir. Of what precinct?
Fourth. Do you know this defendant? I know him to see him around the streets, around Tryon Row. Did you see him on the 27th of February 1886? At half past four I arrested him for taking a pocket-book out of a girl's pocket, I brought him to the Station House and he was discharged.
That is not this charge? No, I arrested him afterwards.
You saw him afterwards, he was discharged the first time?
Yes sir. Where did you see him? In Tryon Row.

Counsel: This was not the case we are trying now.

The Court: Strike that out.

By Mr Davis. Come down to this charge, Officer, you saw him twice then on that day? Yes sir. The second time where did you see him? In Tryon Row, coming from the Park across from the elevated station. What time was that? At half past five. Just state what happened, what you saw? I stood in the doorway of the Staats Zeitung Building, I saw him walk over two or three times, following girls going to the elevated Station, going on through the Bridge, I followed him closely, I said to myself, that is the same boy I had before, I am going to keep a good watch on him, I saw him at the Elevated Railroad, I caught him with his hand in the cloak pocket on the right side of the girl. In the cloak pocket worn by whom? A girl. There was a pocket in the cloak and he had his hand in it when you arrested him? Yes sir. How far in? I guess he had his hand in about that far in the pocket. (Showing.) When you arrested him what did he say if anything? He struggled with me for about two minutes and tried to get away and the officer stationed on the crossing came and arrested him. Did you take him to the Station House? Yes sir; during the struggle the girl walked away and I could not get her at all. Did he say anything at the Station House? He said he did not do anything at all. Did you search him? Yes. Did you find anything on him. No sir.

Cross Examined. This was half past four? It was half past five. There were a great many people about the Station at this time was there not? Yes sir. Did you see the girl? Yes sir. Didn't you ask her to make a complaint against this young man? I had not time. Did you ask her to come and make a complaint against this young man, answer that question? No sir. Did you examine the cloak? No sir. Will you swear to this Jury that that cloak had a pocket in it? Yes, I saw it with my eyes, I was right alongside the girl. Will you swear it was a pocket? Yes sir. Do you know whether there was anything in that pocket? I could not positively swear to that. How close were you to them? I was as close as I am to the desk when I caught him, I looked at the pocket, I saw his hand in the pocket. It may have been an armhole? I swear positively it was a pocket. But you did not examine it? No sir, I did not examine it. You did not ask her to come and make a charge? No sir, I did not ask the girl to come and make a charge for I had not time; when I caught him he struggled to get away from me and during the struggle the girl walked away home.

Mr Davis: That is our case.

The Case for the Defence.

John McCarthy sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: Where do you live? 26 East 4th Street. What do you do for a living? Peddle. What do you peddle? Peddle glass ware or any stuff I can get hold of to buy. Do you remember the evening you were arrested? Yes sir. Did you put your hand in any lady's pocket? No sir. Did you intend to steal anything from anybody there? No sir. Did you assault anybody in any way? No sir, I was not close enough to anybody to assault them.

Cross Examined. About where were you when you were arrested? I was crossing the street, there was a car passing by and I had to wait till it got past. How near were you to the Elevated Station? I was not at the Elevated Station, I was about fifteen feet away by the car track. About what time? I could not say exactly the time, it was around five o'clock. Were there many people there? There was about four men crossing the street, there was no woman around me, there was a woman going to the Station but I was fifteen feet away from the Station, I was not near a woman, there was two officers on the spot the minute he caught me, I have been convicted of an offence before, I was arrested at Grant's funeral for an assault with intent to steal as a pick-pocket, I got six months in the Penitentiary, I was never arrested before.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty and the defendant was sent to the Penitentiary for one year.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

April 9, 1836.

Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.

Gunda Olsen sworn and examined. I am a sailor and am in the House of Detention now, I remember the 26th of March last, I was on the corner of Greenwich and Carlisle Streets on that day between eight and nine o'clock in the evening, I had five dollars in my pocket, a two dollar bill two single dollars, half a dollar silver piece and some small change, the bills were in the pocket-book and the pocket-book was in my right hand pantaloons pocket, I saw the prisoner at that time, he stopped me in the street, put his hand in my pocket and ran and I ran after him, he came along side of me and ran down his hand into my pocket, in the pocket in which I had the five dollars in the pocket-book. Did he ever get out of your sight from the time you felt his hand in your pocket until you got hold of him? No, the policeman got hold of him. Did you see him all the time up to that? Yes. Did you shout after him? Yes. Is that the man there, John McDonald? Yes. Did you miss your pocket-book and your five dollars? Yes. Did you ever see your pocket-book or your money since? No, sir.

Cross Examined. I am an able bodied seaman, the ship I was on was the Agnes Barton, I shipped in her from Baltimore, I was not paid off, I came ashore on the 25th of March, the day before this occurred, I went to a boarding house 5 Albany Street, it is kept by Henry Radcliff. Did he advance you any money? I got five dollars of him that day I came ashore, I got nine dollars from the Captain on account of my wages, it was on the 26th that I received nine dollars from the captain and on the 25th that I received five dollars from the boarding master, I spent most of the five dollars on the 25th, I had about one dollar and fifty cents the next morning, I drank some beer. How many glasses of beer did you have up to twelve o'clock on the 26th? Five or six glasses of beer, I took dinner in the boarding house and went down to the ship and got my pay, I had three or four drinks, some beer and some whiskey, I got my supper about six o'clock I think and left the boarding house after eight o'clock, I went to the letter box to post a letter about five minutes before I lost my money, I was on my way back to the boarding house after putting my letter in the box when the defendant stopped me in the street, I was near home, I did not go into a liquor store after I mailed the letter, no man shook hands with me in the street before my money was taken, I remember everything that happened that night but I was not perfectly sober. Is not this true, that when you missed your money you walked up to this man who was standing on the corner of Greenwich and Carlisle Streets and said, where is my pocket-book and that he told you he did not have your pocket-book? No sir, that is not true at all, I saw him with the pocket-book and said, you thief, you stole my pocket-book, and he ran and I ran after him around the block. Did he run the length of the block? Right square around the block. Did you follow him close behind? He was about a little bit further than from you to me. I am a pretty good runner, I kept him in view.

Albert E. Downing sworn. I am an officer attached to the 27th precinct and arrested the prisoner on the 26th of March in the hallway of 125 Greenwich Street, I heard the cry of, stop thief, police and saw the prisoner running right towards me with the other man in view a few feet behind him, I had my thick gloves on and made a grab but could not hold him, at the same time I tripped him in the middle of the street, he recovered himself and ran about half a block with me close behind him, he ran into a hallway and I grabbed him and we both fell at the foot of the stairs, I did not lose sight of him, the complainant said the prisoner stole his money and he did not say anything, the complainant said he lost five dollars in a pocket-book.

John McDonald sworn and examined in his own behalf. I am an iron moulder and was last employed in Albany by Osborn & Sodd, was about four months, I came out of State Prison on July 7, 1885, I was sent there four years, earned my commutation and got my discharge papers home; my father and mother live in Brooklyn and my sister in New York, I did not steal the complainant's pocket-book, I saw it in a man's hand while he was running, I came up to see my sister in 109 Greenwich Street, I rapped at the door and she was not in, a woman told me she must be down to the grocery store, I looked down and she was in the grocery store, I staid outside waiting for her and while on the corner of Carlisle and Greenwich Streets the complainant came out of a liquor store and a man shook hands with him and bid him good-night. The complainant walked up the street after the man left him, he put his handkerchief in his pocket, he turned around and came running down, I was standing on the corner, he says, give me my pocket-book, I says, the man that is after taking it is running, he grabbed hold of me and that was the whole of it, I ran away, I knew I would get in trouble because I had a bad character and had been in State Prison. This is the second time I have been arrested.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

STATE OF NEW YORK,

County of New York ss. :Charles DeaneThat he resides in the Lower of Montgomery in the County ofand is an Orange and State of New York, and is 49 years of age,That on the 25th day of January, 1886 in theof Store occupied by him, No. 574 South Avenue street, in the Cityof New York in the County of New Yorkand State of New York, one Thomas Melrath, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter the product of the Dairy; that the said Thomas Melrath

offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, 1 pound as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered after April thirtieth, 1885, out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. That the same was not manufactured, or in process of manufacture on April thirtieth, 1885, but has been rendered, manufactured, compounded and mixed since April thirtieth, 1885, as deponent is informed and believes.

~~That the tube in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter" upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such label; that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.~~

Deponent further says that on said 25th day of January, 1886, he went to the said Store of said

Melrath in said City and County, and told said Melrath that he wanted to buy some Butter; that said Melrath

showed deponent a number of pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned, offered the same to deponent for sale, and sold the same to deponent; that he so sold to deponent 1 pound as and for butter

thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $ 0.30;

that, as deponent believes and charges, the said Melrath at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as

Butter, the product of the Dairy; ~~that deponent saw the tube in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no~~ printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said Melrath

January 26th to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him; that on purchased by him as aforesaid, to E. G. Love, 1886, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so the city of New York N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said Thomas

Melrath and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.
