Charles H. Rhea

vs.

Homer of No.
133 West 45th Street.

Keeping Disorderly House.

William M. Widgery      101 East 14th St.

On the night of the 26th of September about ten o'clock I went to 133 West 45th St. in company with Mr. George Wright. A colored servant opened the door for us, and we went into the parlor. We asked if there were any ladies in, and she said she would get some in a little while. In about twenty minutes she brought in two ladies. I went to bed with one of them, gave her seven dollars and came away. While we were waiting some parties drove up and came into the house, and the servants in the house opened wine and carried it up stairs

George A. Wright      98 Ganesvoort St.

I accompanied the previous witness on the 26th of September to the house in question, and I got a girl there and took her to her room and had connection with her and paid her seven dollars. After I came down stairs I bought a bottle of wine.

I was at this house previous to this between the 25th and 30th of July, when I met Mrs. Homer, and helped her drink three bottles of wine, but could not have sexual intercourse with her. She however got me a lady, and just as I got into bed with her, her friend came, when she took French leave, and 0675

Mrs. Homer the lady to whom I had given ten dollars, refunded it to me.

Charles H. Rhea Monsey, Rutland Co., N. Y.

I left New York on the 22nd of July. Previous to that I lived at 131 W. 45th St. for two years and eight months, and during that time I noticed that the house in question was a disorderly house or house of assignation, as a great many ladies and gentlemen visited that house in the day time as well as night. Callers disturbed us very often at night ringing our bell, desiring to see Mrs. Homer.

Louis Bergman 135 W. 45th St. is another witness.
