To the Secretary,

The Grant Memorial Committee;

Dear Sir; I am somewhat blindly, in the absence of any information regarding the proper committee, or official leaving in charge the ceremonies on the 27th inst, the dedication of the tomb of Gen. Grant, induced to write you trusting to your good will to aid me in obtaining such tickets to witness the ceremony as the committee have decided to furnish the press.

I desire to be present as a newspaper correspondent. If you will kindly hand this to the proper official I shall be greatly obliged.

If it does not trespass too much on your time or good nature, please inform me by note to Westminster Hotel, where I am to apply for the requisite tickets to take in the military and naval ceremonies, or if it is the same to you and quite as agreeable, the favor of sending the tickets to the Westminster Hotel would be highly appreciated by

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following
TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Honorable Mayor Strong,

Dear Sir,

Being a stranger in town from London, I write & ask you kindly, could you send me a couple of invitations for the grand stand to witness the ceremony on Memorial Day.

I have tried to purchase same but find it impassible, & was told if I wrote to you perhaps you would have a couple to spare.

As I sail for London on Saturday I should very much like to see some for I suppose it will be something never to be forgotten.

Hoping this is not asking too much, & that you will be able to accommodate me.

Dear Sir :

It having come to the knowledge of the writer that you are distributing tickets for your stand at Riverside Drive, I beg to ask that you will favor me with two tickets.

These are intended for two of our friends from the West, who are very desirous of witnessing the ceremonies, and if you can oblige us, the writer would esteem it a favor.

Very respectfully yours,

H. Raphael

FORM 15, N. Y.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following
TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

JOHN O. STEVENS,
Secretary.

ALBERT B. CHANDLER,

My dear Colonel:-

Mr. Root has sent me tickets for stand H. I should like very much, if you can manage it, to get two good tickets for Mrs. Burnett and her escort, as you originally suggested to me, on stand B. I shall not be with her, as I am assigned to the charge of the Brazilian Minister. Can you not do Mrs. Burnett and myself this personal favor by giving to the bearer either an order for two tickets or the two tickets on stand A or B?

Dear Sir,

Pardon the liberty I take in requesting that you be so good as send me tickets for self and family, for the purpose of viewing the Grant Memorial parade tomorrow.

I make the request for the following reasons. There are hundreds of thousands of people in this Country, who know that had it not been for my efforts as a member of the 31st Cong.
press from this City, there would have been no demonstration in New York tomorrow in honor of Gen. Grant.
A reference to the records of that Congress will show that when the resolution passed the Senate of the United States without even the dissenting votes of the New York Senators, and was sent, as per rule, for Concurrent action of the House. It was I, and I alone that had it sent to the Committee on Library.

Such was the desire of the vast majority of the members relative to the removal of the remains of the Hero from New York to Arlington, that had the resolution been allowed before the House at the time it would have passed by an overwhelming majority.

For nearly a year I fought, and labored, with the members, on one occasion remaining full ten weeks in Washington watching, lest the Chairman of Committee, who had the matter in charge, would call it up - and no doubt, had I been absent, would have had it passed.

The result being that when at last I permitted it to be brought up for action, it had it defeated by a very handsome majority. The Men of the Country, as well as the press of this and other a reporter having been discharged but a few days from 746 Ills Vol Infy.

I was on the platform taking the speeches

of Washburne - Rev. J. H.
Vinecent & the few words of your father. I was at the brick house on the hill when Mrs. Washburne talking me for you said "Why Fred" and started for me etc.

Last I saw of you was looking out of the old window in the Parsonage as the procession passed. I have a picture of the stand where Vinecent was preaching for making a speech, rather

Sometime you see you - can you, you a little incident you never heard of.

Well I hope you will give us more Police to protect us from wheelmen & women. I sent a request to Gen. Porter for seats for my wife & 2 daughters

I have not heard & do not expect to hear from him.

Hope your Mother can be present on 27th

God bless her.

My Dear Mr. Mayor:-

I have written General Dodge asking him for four seats in the reviewing stand at the unveiling of the Grant Monument. Of course I do not know that he has the power. If you have the disposition of any, and can let me have them, I shall appreciate it very much.

Thanking you for any courtesy, I am, as always,

Sincerely yours,

Gen. Horace Porter,

Dear Sir:

Being a great admirer of Gen. Grant, I have the greatest desire to have my little girl witness the ceremonies at the tomb next month. Therefore I have taken the liberty of asking if you could spare me three tickets for any of the stands, where she could hear, if possible, your address, and be impressed all her life with the grand scene.

You do not know me, but I have long been

HEADQUARTERS DIVISION OF THE ATLANTIC, GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, NEW YORK CITY,

August 13, 1885.

GENERAL ORDERS }
No. 15. }

I. The Major General Commanding having discharged the duties assigned him by the President of the United States, in the ceremonies observed in the funeral of General Ulysses S. Grant, late President of the United States, and General in Chief of the Army, desires to acknowledge his obligations to all who took part in conducting the remains of the illustrious deceased from Mt. McGregor to the Capitol at Albany; and from Albany to the City Hall in New York; and finally, to all who assisted in the solemnities of Saturday, the eighth instant, when the body was borne in funeral column to Riverside Park and placed in the tomb erected for its reception by the municipal authorities of the city of New York.

On an occasion which required the services of so many official personages, it is impossible to mention all who contributed by their zeal and diligence to the satisfactory discharge of the sad duties committed to them; such omissions will be supplied, as far as practicable, in orders issued by the Generals commanding divisions.

The instructions given Colonel Roger Jones, inspector general, placing him in charge at Mt. McGregor from July 25th until the arrival of the Major General Commanding, in the morning of August 3d, were executed with discretion and judgment.

The arrangements for removing the remains from Mt. McGregor to Albany and thence to New York, confided to Colonel Alexander J. Perry, assistant quartermaster general, were carried out with precision and due attention to every detail. Colonel Perry reports that he was cordially assisted by the generous co-operation of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company Railroad, and the Saratoga, Mt. McGregor and Lake George Railroad.

Captain William B. Beck, 5th U. S. Artillery, commanding the Guard of Honor, (composed of his battery and Brown's company of the 12th U. S. Infantry,) over the remains at Mt. McGregor, thence to New York and to the tomb, in common with the guard, deserves commendation.

Major General John G. Farnsworth, adjutant general of the State of New York, aid-de-camp, and Marshal of the funeral obsequies at Albany, charged with the details of the ceremonies at the Capitol of the State, performed his duties satisfactorily. To him, to the municipal authorities of Albany, and to Major General Joseph B. Carr, commanding Fourth Division of the National Guard, S. N. Y., and to his command, the Major General Commanding is indebted for zealous and efficient co-operation.

Under the direction of Brevet Major General Wesley Merritt, superintendent and commandant of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, appropriate observances marked the passage of the funeral train, near that historic point.

The First Division of the New York National Guard, Major General Alexander Shaler, commanding; the Naval detachment of Marines and Blue Jackets, commanded by Lieutenant-commander William W. Mead, U. S. Navy; and the battalion of U. S. Artillery (5th) under Major Abram C. Wildrick, escorting the remains from the Grand Central Depôt, in New York, to the City Hall, on the evening of August 5th, are entitled to conspicuous acknowledgements.

Lieutenant Colonel Henry L. Abbot, commanding battalion U. S. Engineer troops, Major Abram C. Wildrick, commanding battalion of 5th U. S. Artillery, and Captain Wallace F. Randolph, Light Battery "F," 5th U. S. Artillery, at the head of the escort column in the march from the City Hall to the tomb, merit special commendation.

The Major General Commanding has great pleasure in recognizing the distinguished part taken in the final obsequies on the eighth instant, by Rear Admiral James E. Jouett, U. S. Navy, commanding U. S. Naval forces on the North Atlantic station, by the fleet under his command, and by the Naval Brigade, organized under his direction, but commanded by Commander H. B. Robeson, U. S. N., and to Captain James H. Merryman, commanding vessels of the U. S. Revenue Marine, and to commanders of craft, steam and sail, who assembled in the river, near Riverside Park, during the final ceremonies to honor the illustrious dead, his acknowledgements are also tendered.

The Major General Commanding is much indebted to Major General Daniel E. Sickles, U. S. A., commanding the Division of Veterans, and to Major General Alexander Shaler, N. G., S. N. Y., commanding the volunteer escort, and to Brevet Major General Martin T. McMahon, commanding the Civic Division, for their efficient aid in organizing and directing their respective commands in the march of the funeral column from the City Hall to the tomb on Saturday, the 8th instant.

Similar acknowledgments are tendered to Major General John C. Robinson, U. S. A., in charge of the retired officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps; to commander S. S. Burdett, Commander-in-chief of the "Grand Army of the Republic"; to General Locke, in charge of the several delegations of the "Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States"; to the First Division of the New York National Guard, under Major General Alexander Shaler; to the Division of the New Jersey National Guard, under Major General J. W. Plume; to the Second Division of the New York National Guard, under Major General E. L. Molineux; to the brigades formed of independent companies and of visiting companies from other States, under the command of Colonel David E. Austen; to the 1st Regiment of the Pennsylvania National Guard, Colonel T. E. Wiedersheim, commanding; to the 2d Regiment of the National Guard of Connecticut, Colonel W. J. Leavenworth, commanding; to the 1st Regiment of Massachusetts Infantry, under Colonel A. C. Wellington; to the battalion of four companies of Virginia State Troops, Lieutenant-colonel M. S. Spottswood, commanding; and to Gate City Guard, Atlanta, Georgia, Lieutenant-colonel William M. Camp, commanding; to Company "D," 1st Minnesota Guard, Captain Bean, commanding; the Union Veteran Corps, District of Columbia, Captain S. E. Thomason; the 1st Company Union Veteran Corps, District of Columbia, under Captain H. E. Urell, and the Capitol City Guards, District of Columbia, Captain T. S. Kelly, commanding; to the Governor's Foot Guard, Hartford, Connecticut, Major J. C. Kinney, commanding; to the Veteran Zouaves (Independent) Brevet Brigadier General J. Madison Drake, commanding; and to the 22d Independent Company and the Wheeler Post of the Grand Army of the Republic of Saratoga, under Colonel George T. Balch, for their services prior to and pending the passage of the funeral train through Saratoga.

Special mention should be made of the services rendered by the Police Department of the City of New York, and of the skillful handling of his force by Superintendent Murray, on Wednesday the 5th, and on Saturday the 8th, instant.

The Municipal authorities of the City of New York, including the Commissioners of Parks; the Department of Public Works, under Commissioner Rollin M. Squires; and Commissioner of Street Cleaning, J. S. Coleman, all afforded facilities for the ceremonies on Wednesday the 5th, and on Saturday the 8th, instant.

The marked courtesy extended by the Broadway Surface Railway Company in suspending travel on the 8th instant, and the special facilities and gratuitous transportation given to visiting organizations of veterans and of troops by other railway companies, are acknowledged with thanks.

This recognition of services rendered would be incomplete without a formal acknowledgment by the Major General Commanding, of his obligations to his Staff, regular and special, for their assiduous exertions in their respective departments of duty. The presence of General Gordon of Georgia, and of General Lee of Virginia, among the Aides-de-camp, was especially gratifying.

Brigadier General Lloyd Aspinwall, Aid-de-camp, late N. G., S. N. Y., charged with routes of march for the funeral procession; Colonel Alexander J. Perry, Assistant Quartermaster General, U. S. A.; Colonel Roger Jones, Inspector General, U. S. A., and Acting Assistant Adjutant General; Lieutenant Colonel Henry C. Hodges, Deputy Quartermaster General, U. S. A., in charge of the reception and transportation of public personages, and his efficient assistant, Major George L. Gillespie, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., and Major Samuel N. Benjamin, Assistant Adjutant General, U. S. A., were all unremitting and untiring in the discharge of their staff duties.

To the Honorable William L. Strong,

Mayor--New York City,

City Hall.

My dear Mr. Mayor:--

I must apologize for this unusual communication.

I note the great preparations being made to honor the late General Grant at the dedication of the new tomb. It was my good fortune to be quartered with my regiment in the British service at Allahabad, Central Province, East India, when the late General Grant visited there on his tour around the world, and my distinguished privilege to be on the "Guard of Honor" furnished by the Governor of the Northwest Province for the late General's reception. Through these events I am interested in the ceremonies, as well as having a high regard as a soldier for the military genius of this great man Grant.

I therefore ask the favor, if it is within your province, of your sending to me a ticket for a place on the grand stand on the 27th of April for myself and wife.

Permit me to remain,

Your most obedient servant,
