Lira Wood being duly sworn and cross examined in the presence of the prisoner says. The pin was taken between 11 & 12 at night. I had been in the parlor until a little past ten and returned direct by the elevator to my room. I did not immediately make preparations to retire. I had not seen被告 before that night. I took my pin off about 11.15 P.M. I placed the pin on my bureau, which is against the wall within a foot and a half of the door. My room was on the 3rd floor. The room fronts towards Madison Avenue. There are other rooms on that floor occupied by guests. I did not lock the door after Mr Wood left. I can't swear that the door was closed after Mr Wood left. I rang for the waiter about 10 minutes after Mr Wood left. I sat facing the door engaged in sewing and was not looking at the door while sewing. That and looking for the key to see on my belt took me about 15 minutes. I don't think I looked for the pin on the bureau before ringing for the water. Defdt came up shortly, came in the room and put the pitcher on the mantle which is perhaps 10 feet from the bureau. He went directly from the mantle out of the door. It was from 5 to 10 minutes when Defdt came with the second pitcher of water. My door was locked then, and he did not enter the room. I took it from him and placed it on the mantle and saw nothing more of him. Five minutes after I discovered the loss of my pin. I went to put my jewelry in a box. the necklace was there and the pin gone. The first thing I did was to look in the trunk to see if I had not taken the pin and put it in the box. I returned to the bureau and made a thorough search. and went a second time to my trunk. took everything out and shook it. I then called my daughter and asked her if she had put my pin away.

She said it was on the bureau.
I did not think at that time that it had been stolen. I searched the trunk and bureau a third time. and then told my daughter Mary and her friend Miss Nellie Williams to come and search. No one else was in the room at the time. I first complained to Mr Wood, saying "my pin had been taken from my bureau".
I went into no other room that night except my room. I did not see defdt again until arrested.

Ques You are not now willing to swear that the defendant took that pin?

Ans. I was never more certain of anything and that is founded upon the fact of searching for and not finding the pin and the circumstance of defdt coming to the room with the water.
Standing on the threshold of the door you could easily reach to the centre of the top of the bureau where the pin was. I and my daughter tried and both did it.
