Tried March 31st, 1886.

Assistant District Attorney Purdy, for the People; Frank Oliver, Esq. for the defence.

LYMAN G. MILLER, being duly sworn, testified that he was the manager for J. A. and R. A. Reid, of Providence, Rhode Island. They were the publishers of a Railroad Guide.
The defendant worked for him, the witness, as such manager, for about six weeks before his arrest. He was engaged in taking orders for the railway guide. He received the order in question from the defendant. He received it with a number of others. He reported almost every day. He, the witness, paid the defendant at the rate of forty cents for each subscription. He paid him forty cents for the order set forth in the indictment. There were 64 other orders of a like character with the one charged in the indictment.

JAMES B. COLLINS, being duly sworn, testified that he was a liquor dealer at 176 6th Avenue. He never signed the order set forth in the indictment, nor did he ever authorize anyone else to sign it in his behalf. He was at his place of business on the 30th of December. No one in his employ had authority to sign any paper for him.

For the defence, JAMES FETTERLEIN, the defendant, testified that he was a canvasser by trade. He was engaged by Mr. Miller to take orders and go to the different beer saloons and hotels and get them to take the Guide. It was very cheap, and he could get almost anybody to sign for a dollar a year. He could not remember distinctly, but he believed that he handed in the order in question. He received it from his partner, a party by the name of Smyth. Smyth's business was to take orders for him, the defendant, and turn them over to him and they would divide up. Mr. Miller knew nothing of this arrangement between them. Smyth had been in Mr. Miller's place, but he could not say whether Mr. Miller knew of him.

In rebuttal, Mr. Miller being recalled, testified that he knew no person by the name of Smyth, and never authorized the defendant to employ any person to act for him in any capacity, whatever. He did not know that there was any such person as Smyth.

That on the 1st day of February, 1886, in the City of New York occupied by him, No. 134-9 Street Avenue street, in the City and State of New York, one James S. Hub Patrick, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not

Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats, or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or

Cream; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy; that the said James S. Hub Patrick did offer and offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for

Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit: One half pound as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated

Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or

Cream, or both; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, pure unadulterated pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow or Butter, a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter.

That the tubs in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter" upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand; that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.

Deponent further says that on said 1st day of February, 1886, he went to the said Store of said James S. Hub Patrick in said City and County, and told said James S. Hub Patrick that he wanted to buy some butter; that said

Butter, the product of the Dairy; that deponent saw the tubs in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said James S. Hub Patrick to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him; that on February 2nd, 1886, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to F. G. Love, a chemist of such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said James S. Hub Patrick

James W. Ford

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse the said John Brown,

That the said James W. of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said John

Brown, with intent to deprive and defraud the said John Brown, -

two dollars and fifty cents, and had not been and was not then and there duly authorized and

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said James W. Ford, — was and were to the said John Brown — the said

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say : That the said James W. Ford, —
the day and year first aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, in the manner and form aforesaid, and by the means aforesaid, with force and arms, the said proper moneys, goods,
