the property of deponent and that this deponent

 has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Henry Garnew (now here) from the fact that on said day at about the hour of twelve P.M. deponent left said property standing on South Street between Beekman Street and Bowling Slip in said City and went to purchase some Merchandise that after remaining away between five and ten minutes deponent returned and discovered that said property had been feloniously stolen. Deponent further says that he was informed by William J. Norton of the New York Police that he arrested said deponent at about the hour

New York, January 2, 1884.

Hon. Rufus B. Cowing,
City Judge of the City of New York.

Sir, Michael Gordon - convicted of Assault in the third degree at the Court of General Sessions and sentenced by your Honor March 15, 1883 to imprisonment for the term of One year and fined $500 - has been faithful and diligent in the discharge of the duties assigned him and in all respects obedient to the rules of this Institution since his reception into this Penitentiary on March 16, 1883, whereby he has earned the full commutation allowed by law and his Excellency the Governor has directed a deduction of two months from his term of sentence, whereby it will expire on the 15th of January instant.

On the 9th day of October 1883, Gordon was working in a gang near the Lunatic Asylum on this Island, when an Insane Woman - a patient in the Asylum - threw herself into the river; upon seeing her do this, Gordon immediately plunged into the water and at the risk of his own life and after a struggle with the Lunatic, succeeded in rescuing her from drowning.

the property of

Samuel W. Andrews, Charles Andrews Simon Andrews and Clark Andrews under the firm name of S. W. Andrews & in the capacity of deponent and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Otto Gunther (now here) *from the fact that on the above date deponent was driving a pair of horses attached to a stage down Fifth Avenue for the purpose of collecting passengers for which five cents fare is charged and in said stage is placed a box for passengers to put their fare into.

That said Gunther was a passenger in said stage and had seat near said box, that a lady passenger got into* said stage and shortly after entering the stage she handed said Gunther her fare which consisted of a five cent nickel for the purpose of depositing into said box which is provided for receiving the fares of passengers that said Gunther did not deposit said nickel into said box but appropriated the same to his own use with intent to drive the true owner of the same thereof
