Samuel C. Reilly POLICE JUSTICE.

5272
The People
vs.
Franz Paulio.

Court of General Sessions, Part II.
Before Judge Cowing.

December 1, 1886.

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Jacob Streifler sworn and examined. I live 2627 8th Avenue and was in the city on the 4th of October; on the night of the 4th of October he worked on my building and he hit me, I am a mason and am building some houses on 145th Street and Hexksome Avenue. It was in the morning between seven and eight o'clock the defendant was driving for a man that blasted the rock in the cellar. Every stone that comes from the building they have to leave them at the building and the bad stones they have to dump them in the yard. They get the cut stone on the stone boat, I said to the prisoner, please dump that stone right here. He said, that is not my business. The man who was with the prisoner lifted up a crow-bar to hit me, I caught it so that he could not hit me and then the prisoner lifted up the crow-bar and hit me over the head, I did not speak a word to him, he knocked me right down, I was in bed eight days and the ninth day I went out.

Cross Examined. The policeman took me to the doctor and he put a bandage on my head and I went home, I did not say to him, "you are a God damned Italian."

John Welsheimer sworn. I live 2163 Second Avenue and saw this occurrence on the 4th of October, I was working in 145th Street on the third floor, I went to the window and heard some words and I saw the complainant come up to where those two men were dumping that stone, I went to call the other man that was cutting the floor while I was nailing I turned and Streifler got up on the embankment, I saw the prisoner striking him over the head with a crow-bar, I did not see the complainant hit the prisoner before he was knocked down by him.

Cross Examined. My attention was attracted by loud talking, I know nothing that happened between the time I saw the complainant come up out of the ditch and the time the blow was struck.

John W. Goodwin sworn. I am an officer now in the 4th precinct but was in the 30th then, I arrested the prisoner on the charge of striking Streifler with a crow-bar, I saw Streifler at the time, I saw some blood on him, I brought him to the Station House and over to the Court to make a complaint, he became kind of weak and I had to take him to the doctor and he dressed the head and I brought him back to the Court and he made a complaint. I saw the wound while it was being dressed, it was a cut about three inches long into the scalp, the scalp was not fractured, it was scratched. I could not get the prisoner to understand me because he is an Italian.

Martin McNerney sworn and examined for the Defence. I take contracts for excavating rocks and earth, the defendant has been in my employ a year and a half, he was driving a team for me at this time, he was carrying stone from a stone boat, I know the complainant, he was a mason and worked across the Avenue, he worked for McCarlin and was not working under Streifler in any shape or form, Cross Examined. My attention was attracted by loud talking, I know nothing that happened between the time I saw the complainant come up out of the ditch and the time the blow was struck.

John W. Goodwin sworn. I am an officer now in the 4th precinct but was in the 30th then, I arrested the prisoner on the charge of striking Streifler with a crow-bar, I saw Streifler at the time, I saw some blood on him, I brought him to the Station House and over to the Court to make a complaint, he became kind of weak and I had to take him to the doctor and he dressed the head and I brought him back to the Court and he made a complaint. I saw the wound while it was being dressed, it was a cut about three inches long into the scalp, the scalp was not fractured, it was scratched. I could not get the prisoner to understand me because he is an Italian.

Martin McNerney sworn and examined for the defence. I take contracts for excavating rocks and earth, the defendant has been in my employ a year and a half, he was driving a team for me at this time, he was carrying stone from a stone boat, I know the complainant, he was a mason and worked across the Avenue, he worked for McGarlin and was not working under Streifler in any shape or form.

he had no control over my men, I was not present at this occurrence and know nothing of it.

Louis Alli sworn. I live 71 Thompson Street and on the 4th of October I was working with the defendant, he was driving a team and I was helping to get the stone up on the wagon; we got the stone to the place and put it in a certain place, the complainant said, "you have to put the stone here" and the defendant said, "I will put the stone where you want it every time if you tell me beforehand". The German said, "God damned Italian" and the defendant said back, "you son of a bitch"; the German who was seventy feet away came up to the defendant to strike him, I interfered between the two and told the German to be quiet, then he hit me in the [] with his fist and hit the defendant twice with his fist and then the defendant struck back with the crow-bar, I did not attempt to hit him with the crow-bar.

Franz Paulio sworn. I live 9 Mulberry Street and am a laborer, I was carrying stone from one place to another, the complainant told me where to put the stones and I always did as he told me, this time I had a big stone and I put it where we had put all the other stones and he said, "why didn't you put it there", I said, "I am not a mason", then he commenced to call me bad names and I answered him, he came up with his fist against me and my companion came between me and him, he struck me twice and I pushed the crow-bar against him which I had in my hand.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree with a recommendation to mercy.
