Indictment filed SEPTEMBER 29TH, 1893.

-----
APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY STEPHEN J. O'HARE,

For THE PEOPLE.

MR. JAMES W. McLAUGHLIN,

For THE DEFENCE.

-----

ANNA Von FABER, THE COMPLAINANT, being duly sworn, testified, through the Official Interpreter, that she lived at 282 Fifth avenue. She had been living there since May, 1893. On the 14th of October, 1892, she lived at 301 East 83rd street, on the second floor. Her husband was dead at that time, and she had an advertisement in a German newspaper for a furnished room. She first saw the defendant on the 4th of July, 1892. The defendant introduced himself as Carl Schroeder. The defendant did not become a boarder in her house. The defendant proposed marriage to her the first day he called. She told the defendant she thought they had better wait a while. The defendant called three or four times during the week following the 4th of July, 1892. The defendant called on her again, about the 14th of October. She said to him, "Hello, Mr. Schroeder; I thought you were married long ago." The defendant said, "Oh, no, I am not," and the defendant told her he had property in New Jersey, and one little child. He talked very sweetly to her. She thought, if everything that the defendant said to her was true, he would make a good husband for her. She did not think that the defendant was a rich man, but she thought he was well off. The defendant agreed to go with her the next day to show her that what he said was true. He went that morning with a large bouquet of flowers, "and he told her so many things, that he was so happy the night before, and he had a little drink, and he broke his watch." The defendant asked her to lend him her watch for the day. She loaned the defendant her watch, and a chain which had been her husband's. The watch and chain were worth $100. Her little girl was in the kitchen when she loaned her watch and chain to the defendant. The defendant told her he would return the watch the next night. The defendant never returned with her watch and chain. On the 22nd of September, 1893, she inserted an advertisement in the paper, and the defendant went to her house and asked if that was the place where a lady sought a position. Just as the defendant saw her, he walked out of the house. She followed the defendant into the street. She followed the defendant to the corner of 10th avenue and 23rd street, where she had him arrested.

In cross-examination the complainant testified that she was forty-three years of age. She trusted the defendant when she trusted him with her watch, but her opinion had changed since then. The defendant did not have a beard when he got the watch. She was positive that the defendant was the man who received her watch.

HATTIE VON FABER, being duly sworn, testified that the complainant was her mother. She remembered having seen the defendant on the 4th of July, 1892, at 301 East 83rd street. She saw the defendant about five or six times after that. She again saw the defendant on the 14th of October, 1892, in the afternoon. She heard the defendant tell her mother that he had broken his watch and chain, and the defendant asked her mother if she would lend him hers. The defendant said he would return the watch and chain the next day, surely. The Judge in the Police Court asked her if she knew the defendant, and she said, "Yes," that his name was Carl Schroeder.

The defendant did not wear a beard when she saw him in 1892. When she saw the defendant in Jefferson Market he did not look exactly as he did when she saw him in October, 1892, but she was positive that he was the same man. She did not pick the defendant out of a crowd in Jefferson Market Court. Before she went to Court, her mother told her that Schroeder had been arrested, and she expected to see him.

MICHAEL H. MADDEN, being duly sworn, testified that he was attached to the 16th precinct police precinct. He remembered arresting the defendant on the 22nd of September, 1893, at 22nd street and 10th avenue. He saw the complainant and the defendant walking down Tenth avenue. The complainant asked him if he would arrest the defendant, and he said he would, if she would make a complaint against him. He asked the complainant whether she was positive of the defendant's identity, and she replied that she was. He took the defendant to the station house, and the complainant there entered the charge against him. He took the complainant's daughter down to Jefferson Market, and he put the defendant with about ten other prisoners, and he told the little girl to pick out the man who took her mother's watch and chain. The girl walked over and picked out the defendant. The Judge was on the bench at the time.

HATTIE VON FABER, recalled, testified That before the Judge asked her if the defendant was the man, she did not go into the prisoners' box. The police officer did not put any number of men in line and ask her to pick out the man who had taken her mother's watch and chain. No such thing ever occurred.

FOR THE DEFENCE, GEORGE ELLER, THE DEFENDANT, being duly sworn, testified that he was sixty-four years of age. He had heard the testimony of the complainant, to the effect that he had gone to her premises and gotten a watch from her. He never got a watch from the complainant. He never saw the complainant until the time of his arrest. He never made love to the complainant; nor did he ever tell her he wanted to marry her. He was married. He was not in the complainant's house on the 22nd of September, 1893.

In cross-examination the defendant testified that on the 22nd of September he was not working. A couple of days before that he was in the Catskill Mountains, where he had worked for a man of the name of Hillson, as a coachman. He did not go home on the evening of the 21st of September, because he was looking for work in Morrisiana. His wife lived in West 100th street. He had worked for Dr. Stronack, in 52nd street, as a coachman. Since his arrest, his wife had moved over to New Jersey. Before his wife moved to 100th street, they had lived at 560 First Avenue.

OFFICER MADDEN, being recalled, testified that the defendant had a pocket-book in his pocket at the time of the arrest, which contained some small pieces of paper.

Judge Fitzgerald
Dear Sir—

I will be glad to call and see you if you really desire. It is in response to this summons, but I think there is some mistake, as I called in reference to this same person, on a similar notice a few days ago, when you were convinced that he did not know me and I did not know him. — If you will remember the young man said he had been employed by the Am'n Dist. Tel. Co whose office is at 8 Day St — you sent an officer there for any papers on file regarding him.

I would respectfully refer you to officer O'Brien of your Court who knows me, and who also questioned the boy Erisman while I was there.

Very Respectfully

Examination Before Justice Hogan
Aug 25 1893

For the Defendant Mr Callahan

Lizzie Ross the complaining witness being duly sworn and cross examined by Mr Callahan
deposes and says:

Q What charge have you to make against these men?

A Of taking my furniture - going into my flat and taking my furniture when I was sworn here.

Q Where was the furniture?

A At 162 West 35th St

Q Did you buy <sup>that</sup> that furniture?

A Yes sir

2 When and where did you buy it?

A - I bought my furniture of Coogan. Some of the furniture was presented to me by friends
- one went by the name of Ross - a gentleman who called himself "Uncle Ross."

2 Have you been living with this man Evans about 13 years?

A No sir - off and on - I have supported this man time and again. I had to give him money to leave me in peace.

2 Have you been living with him lately?

A No sir. He has been coming into my house and intruding at times.

2 How long did you live with him?

A About six years.

2 Did he support you for those six years?

A - No sir - I never was in court with a gentleman that lived with me had him arrested for abusing me - a gentleman named Myers who branded with me

2 You lived with him - those 6 years without any trouble?

A - He had me arrested several times

2 - What supported you during those six years?

A myself at work

2 What did he do?

A He worked off and on sometimes

2 Did he contribute to your support in those six years.

A No Sir I have been working.

2 What did you do during the other 7 years that he lived with you?

A I have been keeping boarders

2 where?

A In 33<sup>d</sup> St. and 16th St.

3 2 You claim that this was your personal property?

A Yes Sir

2 He did not contribute to pay for this furniture at all;

A No Sir

2 If he says he paid for the furniture he tells an untruth;

A Yes Sir

The People Rest

Richard Evans being duly sworn as a witness in his own defence deposes and says.
I live at 162 West 35th St
I am a carpenter. I know the complainant

2 she claims this furniture as hers... what do you say to that?

A I got it from Coogan

2 Who paid for it?

A I did

2 You paid for it yourself

4 A - Yes Sir. - My name is down on the books

2 How long did you live with the complainant?

A Thirteen years

2 she says you only lived with her 6 years. Does she tell an untruth?

A Certainly she does

2 she says you mal-treated her
- is that true

A That is false again

2 You say that was your furniture?

A - It was, for the reason that I paid for it

2 What did she pay?

A Fifty cents a month

2 Is that what she paid?

A Yes, about - It was about three times.

2 Well, about the removal of this furniture?

A Well: your Honor: we got dispossessed and we had to move. She was going to sell the furniture for 14 dollars

Q I thought it was too little for the furniture I was up there Saturday I was living with her at the time.

Q What did this other defendant do - Reynolds,

A He helped me to move it - that was all

Q Did you give him any money for that work?

A I gave him a dollar that was all

Q What for?

A Just for helping me to move the furniture.

Q That was all he had to do with it?

A That is all

Q Any conversation between you and him as to what you would do with the furniture

A None whatever - I just asked him to go out and get a truck - the simple reason was we would be moved out at 12

O'clock

Examined by the Court

2 - Where do you work?

A at 301 7th Avenue

2 The week before last - I have continued right along straight.

2 Is that what took you to Coney Island?

A No sir; I have not been there since this year or last.

2 Did you tell this woman you were going to sell this furniture?

A I told her what to do -

2 Did you tell her

A I did not see her to tell her - I did not have time.

2 She said you have been sleeping in the basement.

A I have never slept in the basement in my life.

7 2 - She says you have not lived with her for six years

A She is mistaken. I lived with her for 13 years.

Q You say she is mistaken?

A I know it.

Re direct by Mr. Callahan

Q You say she swore falsely?

A I say so.

By the court

Q Do you know where this property was taken?

A I was told -

Q Do you know?

A Yes sir

Q Do you know in whose name it was stored?

A - Yes, it was there was trouble

Q In yours?

A I do not know

Q - Don't you know that it was stored in the name of your co-defendant?

A Yes sir - I did not know it - I know now.

Q This woman says that the other defendant represented himself as a constable - a marshall what do you say about that?

A I do not know anything about it

Q Did you hear him represent himself as a deputy sheriff?

A Not to my knowledge

Q Do you know whether he did or not

Terence Reynolds, one of the defendants, being duly sworn and examined as a witness in his own behalf deposes and says: I live at 807 7th Avenue Q You have heard the complaint what have you to say about this transaction?
