Start of General Sessions. Part I
Before Judge Martine.
Wednesday, June 27. 1885.
Indictment for larceny

Sammy Litzky, sworn and examined testified: I live at 59 Canal St. I remember the 5th of June. I was in Orchard near Canal St. in this city; it was around evening, I could not tell exactly the time, around five o'clock. I am married. I went out with my baby in a baby carriage and I was rolling it through the street. I had a reddish leather pocket book. I had from fourteen to fifteen dollars in it, and there was a credit check of Brummell's in Grand St. for $1.45. There was bills and silver dollars in the pocket book. I had the pocket book in my dress pocket. I saw Sonnenberg around me but I never suspected anything. I was stooping over my baby who was sick, and all of a sudden I saw Sonnenberg around me; he was near me, and in a minute I put my hand in my pocket ~~book~~ and my pocket book was gone and I saw him run. He was so near to me that I saw him touch me; while I stooped in the carriage my pocket book went out. I turned around immediately, he turned and I saw him running. I could not leave my baby. I saw him running as far as the corner. I never saw my pocket book & money since that time. I had a conversation with Camp on the corner of Canal and Orchard Sts. He stopped me and said, "Are you the lady who lost the pocket book?" I said, "yes." He said, "Was there not a check from Brummell in it?" I said, "yes." He said, "There was lots of money in there." I said, "yes." He said, "It was a reddish pocket book." I said, "yes." He said, "I will either bring you back the money or show you up the boy who has your pocket book." Then the next day in Court Lounenberg called me and I paid no attention to him. Anyhow he called me so many times. I went over. He said, "Madam, I will return you fifteen dollars if you do not have me sent away." I said, "it is too late now, it is in the Judge's hands."

Cross Examined: It was on Tuesday the 5th of June that I lost my pocket book around about five o'clock. There were not a good many people around me. Before I saw the defendant near me there were a lot of boys around, about ten minutes before, but they were not there that time. I could not tell how many boys, I did not count them. I had my pocket book when the boys left. I know I had it because I had my hand in. I carried it in the right hand pocket of my dress; it was not exposed to view; it was quite a deep pocket. When I missed my pocket book I went over to my brother's store, Mr.

Steinberg; he keeps at 60 Canal St., opposite my place. I told him and his partner that the boy ran away and I could not catch him on account of my baby. The boy ran across the street, but I could not tell in what direction I did not halloo on account of my baby. I noticed him particularly before my pocket book was taken when he was around me. I had just put my pocket book in my pocket ~~shortly~~ before he took it when I walked down from the door of my room about a quarter of an hour before that. My baby began to cry. I stooped down in the carriage and I noticed the boy at my pocket. I made a statement at the Police Court, but they did not ask me as many things as you have asked me. I did not tell the Police Justice that I knew nothing about it; this was on a Friday that I was examined. I swore to the paper and signed it. I did not see Camp the day the pocket book was stolen, but the next day; he told me that he would either bring me the pocket book or show up the boy that got the pocket book. He was taken to the Police Court as a witness to testify to what he knew about somebody having taken my property. I never saw Sonnenberg or Camp before that time.

Samuel Jacobs sworn. I am acquainted with the complainant and remember the day her pocket book was taken; she came over about six o'clock in the evening and told me she lost her pocket book. The next morning I saw Camp about 9 o'clock in my place of business, 60 Canal St. I had a conversation with him in reference to this pocket book. He came in and asked if Mr. Jacobs was in? I said, "yes," what do you want? He said, "A friend of yours lost a pocket book." Is that so; do you know about it? He says, "yes, I see the Kid took it." I says, "Who is I see the Kid?" He says, "I will show him to you; if he don't bring up the money, either he has to give fifteen dollars up or I will point the man out to you." I said, "all right." He went away. I don't know where he went. In the evening he came around about eight or nine o'clock and said "I seen him, he would not give up the money;" he took me to 103 Canal St. in the restaurant. Camp pointed the boy out to the officer, and said, "There is the young man that stole the pocket book from the woman," and the officer arrested Sonnenberg. I had a conversation in Essex Market Court with Sonnenberg after his arrest. He said if we would let up on him he would pay back the money." To Camp Sonnenberg said, "If you give ~~me~~ away on me, I will pull you along with me." I had no conversation with Camp other than what I have stated. I remember Camp telling me that he received fifty cents from Sonnenberg. I don't remember his saying to me that Sonnenberg owed him fifty cents. I had a conversation with Sonnenberg in the Essex Market Police Court. It is not true that I there said to him that I told him to give up that pocket book before he said a word to me. I said that in 103 Canal St. before the arrest was made.

Marks Steinberg sworn. I am acquainted with the complainant and with Samuel Jacobs the last witness. I remember hearing about the loss of the pocket book on the afternoon of the occurrence. I did not see Sonnenberg, but I remember seeing Camp in my store 60 Canal St. He came in and asked if a lady lost a pocket book? Mr. Jacobs and other people were in the store. Somebody said, yes. He asked him why he he asked? He said he knew the boy that took the pocket book and described the pocket book and said there was in it a credit check for $1.45 on Brimmonell in Grand St. He then said, Is not the pocket book a red one? He told him we did not know, but afterwards we found out from the complainant that

It was a red one. He said, "Was there thirteen dollars and some odd cents in it? He told him we did not know but we heard there was. He said the boy that took it they call him "Smee" the Kid. He said he would bring the boy up with the money. That was in the morning. He came in before we closed up the store, it must have been half past eight or nine o'clock. He repeated the same thing. I went home. I don't know what happened after. I heard that the boy was arrested the next morning.

Patrick Green sworn. I am an officer attached to the 11th precinct police. I arrested the defendant Sonnenberg and arrested Camp as a witness. I arrested Sonnenberg at 103 Canal St. in a restaurant on the 6th of June. I had seen Jacobs before I arrested him on the street near the place. I sent him after Camp and he (Camp) came along with him. Jacobs and Camp went into the restaurant 103 Canal St. Camp pointed Sonnenberg out. I had no conversation with Sonnenberg.

Herman Sonnenberg, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified I live at 123 Ridge St. with my father, who is in Court. I am going on sixteen. I will be sixteen in December. I have heard the testimony of the complainant; it is not true that I took her pocket book. I saw her on that day; it is not true that as soon as she missed her pocket book that I ran away, I passed right ahead but I did not run. I had occasion to be in the street on that day and saw her but I was not near her. I work as an operator on cloaks upon a sewing machine. I work steadily for my father and give the money that I earn to my father. My mother is dead one year. Cross Examined. I never worked for anybody but my father. On this day in question when I saw the complainant in Canal st. with her baby I was going up to see my aunt. I did not know the complainant before that night. I saw her rolling the carriage but I did not notice her stooping over it. I was up at the stoop when she passed the door I did not follow her; she went towards Canal st. I did not go near her. I did not take any interest in her, I walked about my business. I never talked to Camp about that pocket book, never had any conversation with him about it. I never told him about a check being in that pocket book. I never showed it to him. I never spoke to him about thirteen dollars or any amount being in that pocket book and never gave him any description of it. I remember talking to the complainant in the Essex Market Police Court. I did not tell her if she would let up on me I would give her back her money; that is untrue. I remember the night I was arrested in the restaurant. Camp did not go in the restaurant with the officer; he was there ten or twenty minutes after. Jacobs came in with the policeman. I did not say to Jacobs in the Police Court that if I would be let go I would give back the money, but he said to me if I would give him fifteen dollars he would not go against me - he would let me out. I gave half a dollar to Camp which I got from my father and which I owed to him.

0208

Harris Sonnenberg sworn. I live at 123rd Ridge Street and am the father of this boy. My wife died on the 24th of May last year. I am a clock maker and he works for me. He is the best boy of all my children. I have got six sons - two at school; I give him some pocket money - a couple of shillings to spend, sometimes one dollar, usually on Friday and Sunday. I remember that on one day he did not come home, I found out he was arrested; it was a couple of weeks ago.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty against Sonnenberg and a verdict of not guilty in the case of Camp. Sonnenberg was sentenced to the House of Refuge.

Hon. R. B. Martine
Justice Court-General Sessions, New York City-
Dear Sir

On the 2^d of July last Henry Losenberg was convicted before you of Grand Larceny in the 2^d degree and committed to the House of Refuge, it being stated at the time that he was under 16 years of age. The parents soon make application for the lad's discharge, claiming that he was 18 years old when committed, and I will add, his appearance favors the truth of the latter statement.

Before taking action the Managers request to know if the boy should be returned to Court for other disposition or shall they proceed as in other cases.

Very truly yours
Grace B. Jones

02 19

New York, December 11th, 1888.

To the Honorable Indenture Committee of the House of Refuge of the County of New York.

Gentlemen:-

The undersigned Harris Sonnenberg, residing at 123
Ridge Street, in the City of New York, father of Hyman
Sonanberg, an inmate of your institution,

Respectfully Petition to your honorable committee, for the discharge of my son Hyman Sonnenberg, who was sentenced on or about the 27th day of June, 1888, to your institution upon a conviction had before the General Sessions of this City for Grand Larceny.

Your Petitioner respectfully shows that the boy is of the age of 18 years past, and that he is an assistant to me in my daily avocation, I being a tailor and he being a first class operator. I have a wife and seven other children, who are small and all attend school, who look to me for their maintenance and with the assistance of my son Hyman,
I will be able to support them properly.

The cause of the boy's arrest and conviction was bad company and the boy named Bogart who was jointly indicted with him at the time, got acquitted and a week thereafter was sent to the State prison for another offense.

I most positively promise your Honorable Committee if my supplication is granted to take care of the boy with all the power I possess and the assistance of a Divine Providence make a good and honest citizen of him in the future, so that he may yet yet be a pride to his parents in their old ages.

In the hope that my prayer will be granted, I am,

Your humble servant,

Harris ^{his} X Sonnenberg
mark

This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with the above Petitioner and have known him for several years as an honorable and respectable citizen and know the boy Hyman and am of the opinion that his incarceration was caused by being in bad company and have always doubted the guilt of the boy. I have every reason to believe that the above Petitioner will in the future take care of the boy, and the boy will be an assistant to his aged parents.

Trusting that the Petition herein will be granted,
I am,

Respectfully,

M. E. Goodhart

EDGERTON BYNNER, a witness for the people, testified:

I am a contractor and dealer in machinery and reside at Spark Hill, Rockland County, N. Y. About 2 o'clock on the morning on the 15th of June I boarded an elevated train at Cortlandt street. At that time I had a gold watch and chain on my person valued at $81. I had the chain fastened to my watch and also fastened to the vest. While going up town in the train I feel asleep. I saw the defendant there at that time. I was awakened when we got a good distance up town by the conductor who said "That this young man has taken my watch and chain. The defendant denied it.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

There were a half a dozen people in the car when we got to 135th street.

PATRICK Mac GALLIGER, a witness for the people, testified:

I am a conductor on the sixth avenue elevated railroad and live at No. 219 E. 22d street. On the morning of the 15th of June this year I remember having seen the complainant on my train. He was sitting in the northeast corner of the second car right alongside of the door. He went sound asleep. I noticed that he had a very heavy gold chain hanging from his vest. I noticed the prisoner sitting alongside of him acting in a suspicious manner; I didn't like the looks of him and I kept watching him. After the train left 59th street the passengers commenced to thin out and after we got to 125th street I noticed the watch and chain of the complainant still on his vest. All the passengers got out except the defendant who was sitting alongside of Mr. Bynnet. After leaving 225th st. I kept my eye on him; then I walks through the first car towards the engine and when I was coming back I saw the prisoner leaning over Mr. Bynnet; then as we pulled in to 135th street station the prisoner came out on the platform, put his hand on the gate and said "Let me off"; I says "Hold on, don't be in such a hurry" and I looked around and I saw the chain was gone off Mr. Bynner's vest.

Q Was he yet asleep? A Yes sir; there were no other passengers sitting on that side of the car within 13 feet of Mr. Bynner. I detained the prisoner until an officer came and then I handed him over to the officer.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I first noticed the defendant on the train when we got to 28th street. I suspected the defendant of taking it because he was the only person who sat close to Mr. Bynner. There were four or five persons in the car when we reached 135th street. I did not search the defendant but he was searched in the 155th street station and you know what was found on him. When he was brought into the station house he told the officer he lived between 124th and 125th street

HARRISON CURRY, a witness for the people testified:

I am a police officer. I arrested the defendant at the 155th street station of the elevated railroad. When he was brought into the station house he told the sergeant that he lived between 124th and 125th street on 8th avenue. He also said that there was a grocery store underneath the place where he lived. We ascertained that there was no such place as the prisoner described.

JOSEPH H McNEVEN, a witness for the people, testified:

I am a bookkeeper in the employ of the elevated railway. I visited this defendant in the Tombs Prison on the 21st of June this year. I had a conversation with him and I made a memorandum of it at the time. He said he was riding up town the night of this robbery in the car; that as he got into the car he noticed Mr. Bynner whom he had been acquainted with and whom he knew to be a rich man sitting in the corner of the car. That after the train left 125th street he took Bynner's watch and chain and put it in his pocket; that he kept the watch and chain in his pocket till the train reached 125th street; that he attempted to get off the train but that the conductor suspected him and held him and that then the conductor woke Mr. Bynner and asked him if he had lost his watch and chain and he said he had. The prisoner then dropped the watch and chain out of the car window between the track and the station platform. During the conversation he mentioned that he had been in prison before.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I man by the name of Otinger accompanied him to the prison on this occasion. That was the first time I had ever seen him

Q Mr. Otinger pretended he was a friend of the prisoner's

A He did I believe. I don't know whether he told him at that time that he had called upon his brother or not.

The prisoner pleads guilty to grand larceny in the first degree.

Dear Sir

As the police had no direct information in regard to Cornelius Sullivan, arrested for stealing watch and chain (the property of Mr. Edgerton Byrner 93 Liberty Street) on 6th Avenue train at 2 am Saturday June 16th. I sent two men from this department to interview him in Tombs Prison, to whom he made the following statement

I rode up town on 6th Ave train Friday night June 15th and noticed Mr. Byrner (whom I knew to be a rich man, having ~~business~~ ^{business} in ward where he keeps his place of business) asleep in the car. I thought he had been to the races and was tired, after the train left 125th Street, I took his watch and chain and put them in my pocket, where I kept them until train reached 135th St. when I thought the guard became suspicious of me, as he awoke Mr. Byrner and asked him if he had lost his watch, at first Mr. Byrner said, he did not have a watch, but when he was thoroughly awake and realised where he was, he felt his pocket and said, his watch and chain had been stolen. I then dropped the watch and chain into the street between the car and station platform, I do not know the value of the watch, but the chain was very heavy and I think it was of great value.

He further stated that he had been released from Sing Sing prison last February, after serving a sentence of three years.
