Sir :

Yours of the 10th inst. to Mr. Martine concerning the difficulty of getting your watch, for which I gave you an order, from the Property Clerk, has been handed to me.

The Property clerk very properly has a rule for the identification of those who request property from him, and the most proper person to identify, in the great majority of cases, is the police officer arresting the defendant. If in this case you will prepare a letter for the officer's signature identifying you, to be shown to the Property Clerk, I have no doubt he will sign it, and that will attain the object without necessitating his attendance at the Property Clerk's Office.

Yours respectfully,

A. D. Barker

Samuel L. Kerue

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant and myself have been friends from boyhood, and I know him so well that on reflection I am satisfied he had no Criminal intent. When Deft took my watch I am convinced he did not intend any wrong. He is a good fellow, and is of good Character and family. We are friends now, and I am very sorry I made any Complaint and I only did it, because I was provoked and angry. Full and complete restitution has been made to me and I respectfully ask that my old friend and school fellow be discharged.
