 The People vs William Bamberg
 Court of General Sessions Part I
 Before Recorder Smyth. Aug. 6. 1883.
 Indictment for burglary in the first degree.
 Martin Lyons, sworn and examined. I live in 542 West Forty First St. I have worked for the Hudson River Railroad Co on and off for thirty years. I was in these premises on the night of the 15th of June. I closed the building when I came over from the stable to give the horses a drink $\frac{1}{4}$ of 9. I locked the door and fastened the windows. This is a tenement house. There was no one in the room but myself, I have no family. I slept there every night, I lived there over three years. There is a fence between the front yard and the yard near my house, and the man who got in stood on the fence and pushed back the window blinds and raised the window. My trunk was within two feet of the bed; there were two bank books and \$18 in money and a new suit of clothes. When I woke up this prisoner was by the bed side. My silver watch was in my bureau which was in the room. I gave \$20 for the watch, and there was 78 cents small change in the bureau. When I woke up the prisoner had the drawer of the bureau out.

0482

in which was the watch and the 78 cents. The prisoner had the watch. There was another fellow with him named Clawson, he was brought here and pleaded guilty and got five years in the penitentiary. When I chased that fellow from my own house up to the Tenth Avenue the factory clock struck one. I am perfectly sure the prisoner is the one who was in there; he was scratching matches. I jumped up and looked up in his face. Clawson was further off than him. The other fellow ran first and the prisoner ran after him. He fell and broke three banisters of the stairs. My room is on the second floor and a Scotchman of the name of Allen lived in the next room to me. I went to bed a little after nine o'clock and went to sleep. When I came back after chasing them I saw that the window was up to the full height. I had a lamp lit all night and it was turned down low this night. The trunk in which I had the bank books was not locked. They did not take the clothes; they took nothing out of the trunk but the $18; they took the watch and the 78 cents out of the bureau and the prisoner was searching for me. Cross Examined. This lamp was within three or four inches of the end of the bureau. Every time I wanted to look at the watch I turned up the wick to look at it. I got a good look at the defendant. I know him these three years. They got out of the room as quick as lightning. You identified that boy? Yes sir. When I would go every morning to feed my horse I saw the prisoner around and the other fellow. They had no home; they used to lie out in the wagon. I ran out after him in Tenth Avenue down Forty Second St. until I came about 15 or 20 yards of him. I had nothing on me but my inside shirt, hallooing "Watch," "Police," "Robbery, Robbery." The two ran down Forty Second St. towards Eleventh Ave. and I lost sight of them again, and then I went back and dressed myself and went to the station house. I know the prisoner about three years, he lives in Tenth Street the last three years; he used to hang around there. I never used to see him work. I knew the other boy about the same time, I used to see him about Forty St. I have horses and trucks and men to work for me. When I first saw the prisoner at the bureau his face was towards me. I was not looking at him very long. I am 40 years old.

10/1/11

0484

Matthew McCormell, sworn. I am an officer of the 5th precinct; the premises 542 West Forty first St. are in the 22nd ward. I know nothing about the burglary more than I went there and saw the window disturbed, the latch pulled off from the shutter. I arrested the prisoner on the 8th with Officer Laddy; the old man reported the burglary at the station house some time through the night. Officer Laddy and I were sent out at 8 o'clock in the morning; I saw Lyons first a little after 8. He said he knew these boys by sight but did not know their names. About two weeks before he was arrested Lyons told us that his name was Wm. Bamberg. I went to the house where the prisoner was living 570 West Forty third St.; we went in at 6 o'clock and arrested him; the other prisoner was arrested before Bamberg. I had no conversation with the prisoner at the time of the arrest; the old man was very indignant at him. Officer Laddy was with me. I did not ask him what he did with the watch.

Martin Lyons recalled. I had seen the prisoner between the time of the burglary and the arrest. I saw him near the 11th Avenue and pointed him out to a policeman about a week before he was arrested, but he ran away

I saw him a day or two after and sent detectives after him.

Tuesday, August 7, 1883.

The prisoner pleaded guilty to burglary in the second degree. He was sent to the penitentiary for five years.
