"I can't get shoes to-day, because it's a holiday". He took a pair of put them on; he asked what they cost me. He went to go out I held him, Margaret Geoghegan picked up a knife from the benches, and while

I live at 81 Division St with Annie Mitchell. I frequent the saloon 253 Bowery, and was allowed a commission on the drinks I ordered. I had been in and out during the evening, came back about 12 o'clock. I was sitting at a table with two girls, Sadie Sullivan and Irish Susie, and two men having a glass of beer. George Ferman came and said there was a man in the front part of the <sup>saloon</sup> that he was drunk and that "I should work him for drinks". This was about 1:30 a.m. the front door being closed. I went up there with Ferman who brought a chair for me to sit down. Gilmore, Mrs Ferman, and Muldoon were at the table. Muldoon was very drunk. Ferman said for Muldoon to treat, Muldoon said bring us a drink. Ferman asked him for the money Muldoon said "I haven't any money this drink is on you". Ferman said "Yes you have look in your pocket" pulling back the lapel of Muldoon's coat. Ferman ~~took~~ helped him up from the chair, and took him over to the bar. Mrs Ferman, and Gilmore followed them to the bar. Muldoon started to take the things out of his pocket and placed them on the bar. I then went over. Muldoon, Ferman and Gilmore at the end of the bar nearest the Bowery. Mrs. Ida Ferman, and myself stood at the front of the bar. I saw a watch, a breast pin, and two or three rings on the bar. His handkerchief and a neck-tie were also there. Ferman was trying to take the stones out of the breast pin. I left them there and went in the back part of the saloon and a few minutes afterwards I went out. I went around to a restaurant and had something and I stood for a few minutes at Bleeker + Bowery. I started towards Elizabeth, through Bleeker. I was in front of 15 Bleeker St. Gilmore came along with Muldoon. Gilmore whistled for me. He said "put this man to bed." He gave me a dollar. He helped across the street, and up the stoop and I took the man upstairs. I opened the door, the woman came down. I paid her a dollar and took Muldron up two flights of stairs. He fell on the bed and I left him there. I met Gilmore in Elizabeth St near Houston St. He asked me how I made out. I said "I left him there". He said "Did you get anything out of it" I said "No". He said "Here's your share" and gave me

a pair of earrings and a ring.
I went home. Annie Mitchell was asleep. In the morning I said to Annie Mitchell "will you hook my ring for breakfast" she took the ring and went out and brought back seven dollars. In the afternoon
I told her about the earrings and how I got them, and she hooked them. I went out with her, she hooked them in Taylor Bros, I think Cor Grand and Hester Sts. She got $25, she had it in a pocket-book,
and gave it to me when we got home.

Assistant District-Attorney Bedford for the People .
for the defence.

F R I T Z L E V I N, called by the People being duly sworn, testified that he is a shoemaker living and doing business at the shoe factory No. 334 First avenue in New York city; that he is an Israelite, and that October 1st is a Jewish New Years called "Yung Kipper". That between 9 and 10 o'clock A. M. on said day the defendants called in the store and the deft. Patrick asked for a pair of shoes. Witness declined to sell them as nobody was working on the holiday. There were five benches there. Witness called for Meyers, a Christian, who lived in one of the three back rooms with witness and his family. Defendant Patrick took a pair of shoes from a shelf in the window and put them on. Witness said that he wouldn't sell the shoes, but that they were worth 75 cents and Meyers could take the money. Witness called for Meyers because he (witness) was afraid of the defendants. Defendant Margaret said she would knock his (witness) head off rather than give him 75 cents. Defendant Patrick said that he would not give anything for the shoes but would take them. Defendant Patrick started to go out of the shop and witness tried to stop him by taking him by the collar. Defendant Margaret took a shoemaker's knife off of witness bench and stabbed witness twice with it. Defendant Patrick then took off the shoes and witness went out and locked the door and the defendants went into the back yard. Defendant Margaret was cut in the hands in some way unknown to witness, but she was not bleeding. On the same day defendants were arrested and witness was taken to the hospital where he remained two weeks from the effects of the wounds. While Margaret was stabbing witness defendant Patrick held him. Witness did not strike the woman because he did not have a chance to and was bleeding terribly.

HENRY MEYERS being duly sworn, testified that he worked at shoemaking at 334 First Avenue, and was there on the morning of October 1st, 1892, in the back room when the defendants came in. That the boss was at church, and Levin and witness were in charge of the place. Witness saw Levin in the store, and as soon as the door opened, he (witness) came out and was a little way behind in the store. Witness heard Levin say it was a holiday and he did not like to sell shoes. Defendant Patrick then took up a pair of shoes from a shelf in the window and put them on, and asked Levin how much they cost. Levin said 75 cents. Defendant Patrick said he would not give so much but would give 50 cents. Levin said he would not do that. Then defendant said if he did not want 50 cents he could not get anything. Then defendant took hold of the handle of the door to run out without paying, and Levin grabbed hold and pushed him back. When witness saw Levin was not strong enough he (witness) took hold of him and pulled him in. Then defendant Margaret took a knife while the two were struggling together, and defendant Patrick held Levin while defendant Margaret stabbed him three times. Witness went inside and took an old hatchet to scare defendant Margaret, and said "Stop that". As soon as Levin was cut witness threw the hatchet away and ran out .

J A M E S T U M M O N Y being duly sworn testified that he was a policeman belonging to the 18th precinct, and arrested the defendants on the morning of October 1st 1893 in 18th street between First avenue and Avenue A;; that defendants were standing in the street and defendant Patrick went into a liquor store and arrested him and subsequently arrested Margaret before he (witness) got to the station house. When arrested defendant Patrick said it was not his fault. Witness heard from a man in 22d street that Levin was stabbed. At that time Levin was bleeding and had on his vest, pants and white shirt .

M A R G A R E T G E O G H E G A N, one of the defendants, being called on behalf of the defence, and duly sworn, testified that she was the wife of Patrick Geoghegan and had been for 8 years, although they did not live all that time together; had one child , a boy. On the morning of October 1st, 1892, witness was getting breakfast ready and went down to the laundry and met her husband who had been to work. Defendant Patrick said that his shoes were broken and he needed a new pair, and witness accompanied him and they stopped at 334 First avenue and took a pair of shoes off the shelf in the window, and Levin said they were worth 75 cents. Defendant Patrick said they were worth 50 cents and tried the shoes on and paid 50 cents . Witness told Patrick to take the shoes off as long as Levin did not want to take the 50 cents. Patrick took the shoes off and threw them down and asked for his 50 cents back. Levin agreed to give a pint of beer but wanted 25 cents more. Witness would not give it to him but asked for the 50 cents back and Levin would not give it, and got up and tore the clothes off of her (witness) back. Witness wrestled with Levin who had a knife in his hand and she tried to get away. Meyers was not in the place at all but in the back room. Levin got stabbed but did not see him get stabbed. The knife was between Levin and witness and witness got cut. Levin tore the clothes off of witness back and had her in a corner, -Levin, a tall woman and another man. Her torn sack is in 57th street that Levin tore. Then witness and Patrick sat down and went out the back way and went down 19th street and up through 18th street. Witness was going home and defendant Patrick was going to work. Patrick went into a liquor store and was arrested there, and witness went to the station house with him. When witness was arrested she told the officer in 22d street as they walked together from 18th street that it was only to buy a pair of shoes and showed her hand, and that Levin had her in a corner and kicked her black and blue in the stomach and on the leg, and that she (witness) was pregnant past three months.

OFFICER THEODORE BEESELEY, testified that he was an officer attached to the 20th Precinct. He knew the defendant. On the 15th of October, last, she lived at 229 West 29th Street, in the basement. He was solicited by a colored woman and taken to that house, and found the defendant in charge. The witness had a conversation with the defendant. He asked her where "Julia" was-- a girl that was there at the time that he raided the house before. She said Julia was not there any more. He said that he was not satisfied with the woman that brought him in from the street. Then the defendant picked him out a girl, and he asked her how much she wanted for the use of her, and she said 75 cents, and he paid her the 75 cents, and took the colored woman into the back room, where she exposed herself to him, and he declined to have any further use of her, and went out. The witness knew the house. The basement was frequented by colored and white prostitutes of a low kind. He had seen them going and coming at late hours of the night and in the morning and received several complaints about the house. He had seen women solicit men in the streets and bring them to that house. The defendant was once before arrested upon a similar charge. She took the 75 cents. The premises in question are in the 20th ward. The witness was on special duty at that time.

THE DEFENSE.

ROSE GILMORE, testified that she did not rent the floor, but that her husband and cousin rented three rooms in that basement, and paid the rent. Her husband was a white man. When her husband rented the rooms, he said that his wife was a colored woman, and the landlord said that that did not make any difference. The witness denied that she furnished the officer with a woman for the use of which she agreed upon and received the sum of 75 cents. The witness testified that the officer "Done me the same trick during the summer." That he picked up a colored woman in the street, and brought her into the witness's house, and wanted the colored woman to swear that the witness took men in her house for 25 cents and then he made a complaint against her. She said she did not keep a disorderly house. The witness testified that there were three rooms, and her cousin and his wife and her husband and herself lived there. She, the witness, had been working in one family for seven years, in 27th Street---Mrs. McCarthy. She, the witness was a laundress. Her husband hired the place from a Mr. Little. She did not know Mr. Little's address, as her husband had the receipts. Mr. Little is a white man. She, the witness, had been living in that place 11 months. The rent was paid to the janitress, a colored woman, who lived in the same house, upstairs. Her name was Barrett. The janitress lives there now. She collected the rents for Mr. Little. She, the witness, believed that the place was once raided. Her husband is not home; her cousin is supposed to be there all the time. She, the witness, is not there at all, except at night. She had no one there at night, except those who lived there or neighbors who called upon her. On the night of the arrest there were three colored girls who came to see the defendant, and also a white girl that used to be with the defendant in a laundry. There was also there a young man, a friend of her husband. There were also two men playing cards. The men did not go in there with the girls. They merely came in to see her, the witness. She had known Officer Beeseley, and did not introduce him to a girl. She did not know any officer but Beeseley. He tried to induce a man to say that the witness stayed with him for a quarter. Officer Beeseley, she testified, said he was going to get square with her, the witness. In.

R e - D i r e c t E x a m i n a t i o n,
she again said that she did not keep a disorderly house.

OFFICER HENRY W. SHILL, testified that he was attached to the 20th Precinct. On the 14th of October he was in the premises kept by the defendant at 226 West 29th Street, after officer Beeseley left. He had been solicited on the street, and went in with a colored woman, and he found the defendant there and four or five white and colored woman and some colored and white men. He went in the back room first, with the woman from the street.

He said that she did not suit him, as he wanted to find out who was in charge of the premises. So the girl said, "Come here, Rosey, maybe we will find one that does suit you;" and we went out into the room and Rosey was there, but she did not have a woman that would suit him, so he gave her a dollar for a round of beer to pay her for the trouble. She took the dollar and the witness walked out. He saw her get the beer for the women. The beer was there. The witness testified further that he had been in the precinct about four months, and was familiar with the premises in question. He had seen the loose kind of black and white prostitutes that there is in New York going in and out of those premises, and on the sidewalk in front of the house.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Mary Godfrey.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I am a married man with a family and doing business among a large number of families as Butcher. My place of business being at No 410 Greenwich street, this city.

The facts in this case are such that the disgrace of being in Court to me would ruin my business and may break up my family.

I will also state that my wife is about being confined and the effects of the publicity and exposure of her husband's conduct may seriously affect her health.

I will also say that the evidence of defendant's guilt in my opinion is not sufficiently strong to secure a conviction.

Under all the above circumstances I respectfully ask leave of this Honorable Court to withdraw the complaint made by me herein and that the defendant be discharged from custody.
