*District Attorney's Office,
City and County of New York*

February 2nd

1895

To the Honorable
the Justices of the Court of General Sessions.

Gentlemen :

In addition to the three parts of General Sessions, two parts of Oyer & Terminer are now sitting in this county, thus making five courts available for the trial of criminal cases. This furnishes an opportunity for the final disposition of a great number of cases which have accumulated in the District Attorney's Office, and will enable us to bring up the business to a very recent date.

The judges of the General Sessions have always very courteously expressed a desire that the District Attorney should communicate fully with them, in regard to the conduct of the criminal business of the county, and of such suggestions as might aid in the speedy transaction of such business.

I therefore very respectfully call their attention to the fact that we are now enabled, by reason of the number of courts sitting, to expedite the trial of cases much more rapidly than has heretofore been the case; and with a view to accomplish this, I venture to suggest that if the various parts of General Sessions could, for the coming month, at least, convene at half past ten, the hour at which the two Courts of Oyer meet, it would greatly facilitate the disposition of cases. This is especially true in view of the fact that during the coming month I shall put upon the various calendars, alike in Oyer and Sessions, many bail cases, the trial of which may occupy more time than is customary in cases of persons confined in prison.

I submit this proposition with a view of ascertaining the wishes of the judges upon the subject, confident that they will receive it in the spirit in which it is offered, only as a suggestion which may, or may not, be of importance in the determination of the great number of cases now awaiting the action of the various courts.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

John R. Fellows
District Attorney.

Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Judge Fitzgerald. September 24th 1941 Indictment for grand larceny, second degree.
Mary L. Bruce, sworn and examined,
I am a single woman and I reside at 457 West Twenty Third Street in this city. I live with my parents. I know the defendant; she has been in our service for a year and a little less than seven months. Left the city about April 23<sup>d</sup> of this year and my mother left with me. My father and brother were left in the house and my brother joined us two or three days afterwards, leaving my father and Kate Simpson, as she is known now, in the house; we went to Clifton Springs. I missed from the house two diamond rings, a bank book, a pair of jet ear rings, a little jet ring, two cut glass salt cellars, a wrapper, a cloak, two silk handkerchiefs and thirty dollars in money. The diamonds were in the linen closet off my father's bed room, and the glass ware was in the china closet down stairs, which no one had access to but myself. I hid the key away on a top shelf in a tin box.
I returned to the city about July the 16th and discovered that the goods I have mentioned were taken. We looked the house over although there was no place to look but the one place. Was the defendant in your employ then? She was, but the moment we got home on the 16th I had not the satchel down out of my hand before she complained of being sick and wishing to leave the house at once. She said she was going to her sisters. I asked her not to leave me when there was no one else in the house until I got her place supplied; she did not make me much of an answer but said she would have to go. I persuaded her to stay for two or three days, and she remained until the following Sunday. We returned on the Thursday before. Was that the following Sunday she left? It must have been the following Sunday or Sunday week. I would not be positive about that, it was on a Sunday. The safe was open on the Sunday that she left and we found part of the contents of the box missing. She came back for her wages. I asked her why she did not come back as she promised she would; she had already put an advertisement in the paper for another place. I saw her on that day and paid her. I did not speak to her concerning the missing articles because we had no idea they were stolen. Afterwards we searched the house and there was nothing found and then I made a report to the 20th precinct. I do not know much about the safe, for I have never been allowed to go into it; my father had access to it. It is one of Marvin's safes. I never have been allowed to stay in the room where it was opened. The diamonds were put into the box and put into this linen closet. I was the last person who locked the door and Kate Kelly was alone in the house three or four hours till my father came back from the depot. I should think the value of the two diamond rings was about $375. One of the rings was a crown setting with a round band and the other was of Roman gold set like a gentleman's ring and it matched the ear ring I have in my ear as to size. The defendant many a time saw the diamond rings in my hand; she admired them ~~in~~ my hand and she said she wished she owned them, and at one time she wanted to know where I kept them; at another time she said, "I will get in your room and steal them." I turned and said, "I did not think the diamond rings were very good. I did not think anything of it at the time. I treated the thing as a pleasantry. I could not say what time that was, it was before I went away; it was when I was in the kitchen giving orders. I put up my hand like this and she noticed the rings on my hand; she said she would like to have them; she did not say she would like to know where they could be bought; she wanted to know where I kept them at night - she would get in my room and steal them. I know what has been missing from the box. I don't know whether I told them all down there at the Police Court or not. I was so confused when I went down. As near as I can remember there was a gold watch; there was another little diamond ring set in silver and other trinkets. I really could not tell you, but those were the two most valuable things. The bank book was in the Greenwich Savings Bank. There was a clock. I am not sure whether that was in the linen closet or on top of the closet itself. The thirty dollars in money was in my father's pocket book, and it was in his trousers hanging over the chair; the shawl must have been taken out of my room; it was worth about $32 and the wrapper which I gave her to wash was worth about eight dollars. and the clock two or three dollars. I afterwards saw the shawl, the clock, the wrapper, a salt cellar, a finger bowl and a cork screw at No. 348 West Thirty eighth St, to which the defendant had access; she had the key of the place. The "clock bottle", the shawl, and the corkscrew now shown me are part of the property which was taken from our house; also the finger bowl and the handkerchief. I used to wear it round my neck. I also identify a pocket book which belonged to my uncle and a memorandum book - also one of my pitchers and part of a wrapper and a dress with beads on it. I saw these things a very few days before we went away. I saw them at 348 West Thirty eighth street about the 18th or 19th of August. I asked the defendant why she took those things and she denied it, but when she got down to the station house she confessed to having taken the things. I pleaded with her to have her tell me if she took them, and if she did take them to acknowledge it and not bring anybody else into it. What did the officer say to her? He said that he thought she had given us time. He enough she might as well acknowledge it. She said she did not take them and she did not know anything about them, and then one of the other officers went in and asked her and she would not tell him. Finally the second time I went back, and she said, "I will tell you the truth, I did take those things." The things were all there. I asked her, begged and begged her to tell me about the diamonds. I tried to reason with her, but there was no reason in her. She said nothing further except she did not know where the diamonds were. I have never seen her from that day to this.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

Cross Examined. The defendant was found by the officer on the 18th or 19th of August. At no time during the time that she was in our employ and remained with us did I charge her with the lacking of this property. I discovered the property was taken on the Sunday after she left. My mother resides in the house; she is not here in Court. My brother William is not in Court. Did you not state to this woman (the defendant) if she would get you your diamonds you would not prosecute her? I told her if she returned the things I would not say anything more about it. Have you heard anything about the bankbook? No sir. Did you call at the bank? Yes. and we stopped the money being paid. How did you first discover this property was missing? When the safe was opened and the tin box was taken out in which the diamonds were. My father put the diamonds in the safe. I was not present at the time they were put in. I have my father's word for it. If there is anything deposited in that safe for safe keeping my father deposits it for the family. I swear positively that the safe cellar now here is the one that was taken from our home. I identify it by the duplicate one I have home. I don't know who the manufacturer was; they are old fashioned. I also identify it as mine by little stars around the bottom. The defendant washed the wrapper for me, but she did not afterwards wear it around the house. I did not learn when I came home that she had been wearing the sapphires. When she complained of being ill, I told her she might go and rest a few days and if she did not care to come back it would be all right, that I would get another girl. She acknowledged taking the things we found, but we could not get her at any time to acknowledge that she had taken the diamonds.

Your father, as I understand it, must have taken that box from the linen closet and put it in the safe? Yes. Is your father here? No sir.

Re-direct Examination. I guess these salt cellars have been in the family fifty years. Where do you say you put your diamonds? They were put into this linen closet into a tin box. I put them in there. I was the last person that looked up the closet; and afterwards my father must have put it in the safe. We left that morning about eight o'clock. They were always kept in the safe when I did not wear them. I have never seen the diamonds since. When I came back I asked papa right away to open the safe. When my father took the tin box from the safe then it was that I missed my diamonds. Do you know one Lucy McFarland? I only know her through her employers. Is she in Court? Yes sir. Kate Simpson worked for me a year and a little over, a year and six months; we used to miss tea coffee and sugar. I never told her she might wear any of my <sup>things</sup>. Lucy McFarland swears I live at 402 West 14th st. with Mrs. M.M. Young as a servant. Kate Kelly came to see me. I am not personally acquainted with her; she visited me three or four times. About the 8th of July she showed me a ring on her finger and said her fellow gave it to her. I looked at it, it was a diamond ring. It was a very white stone and when she passed the ring over for me to look at, it flashed. I said it was very pretty. I was standing at my iron board ironing. I saw her again on the 17th of July and I saw the same ring on her finger. The defendant withdrew her plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to an attempt at grand larceny in the second degree. She was remanded for sentence.

The People of Court of General Sessions. Part I Sarah Fother (Before Judge Fitzgerald. September 22, 1891.
 Indictment for grand larceny in the 2nd degree.
 Maria Larkin, sworn. I am a married woman and keep a boarding house at 308 West Twenty Sixth Street; the defendant was employed by me as a servant from the 11th of May until the 24th of August. I had boarders and among them were John Brady and Mr. McCarney.
 On the 3<sup>d</sup> of June Mr. McCarney lost a coat and vest; the defendant was in charge of the room; he always gave her the key of the room; she had to clean it out. There was also missing out of his room underclothing and a pair of patent leather shoes. There was also a coat and vest of Mr. Brady's missing on the next floor. My daughter is here and she can tell more about it.
 Annie Horne sworn I am the daughter of Mr. Larkin and live on the premises.
 He searched our house in August for property that was missing and about the 25th of August He found in the closet of the dining room, the place where this girl keeps her clothing a vest belonging to Mr. Brady, which was missed on Sunday the 16th of August by him.
 I brought the vest up stairs and the mark in the vest was a Chinese laundry ticket. I reported it to the gentleman who lost the clothing. Mr. McCarney went down and reported the case to Officer Carey, and the officer came up that evening and saw the girl and said he would come the next day at eleven o'clock; he came the next day and he spoke to the girl and made the arrest. I was present; she said so many things. Mr. Carey said, "I want you to tell me what you did with these things?" He mentioned the clothing. She commenced to cry and said, "I would rather go away, let me go." He said, "I don't care anything about your tears, you will have to tell me what you done with these things?" After a good deal of persuasion she admitted taking them. I cannot remember everything she said there was so much said. There was a coat and vest found on the shed in the area way and he said to her, "what put them there?" She said she threw the vest on the shed, - not the vest that was found in the closet, but the vest to the other suit of clothes belonging to Mr. McQuillan. I cannot give the exact conversation. Carey said, "I will arrest you." She said, "Don't arrest me and I will pay for everything if you will let me go. She confessed to Mr. Carey <sup>that</sup> Mr. Mc Donald ~~to taking~~ the things out and pawn-ing them on ~~Pateth~~ street. Then she went down stairs and put her things on to go out, and going out of the door with Mr.

Carey she said that if they would let her go, she would go and get everything.
She mentioned her sister-in-law's place, and Carey said, "if they are down in your sister-in-law's I will go down and get them".
She declared they were not down there, but if they would let her go they would get everything. Mr. Brady was there at the time she confessed to Mr. Carey. The vest that was found on the shed belonged to George M. Sullivan and the owner of the vest found in the closet was John Brady.
Cross Examined. The gentleman that the vest belonged to testified to it being his. She admitted to throwing the vest over on the shed from up stairs. The wardrobe that I spoke of is in the dining room. I am positive that nobody else but the defendant puts clothes in it. I have no knowledge of what is kept in the closet. I know nothing about the household affairs. I just happened to be home on vacation. I do not think the cook had access to the closet; she never leaves the kitchen

There is a woman has been with us for years, an old lady. The girl had a key to the closet. I do not know that it was kept locked all the time. The cook has a daughter, and she visits the house at times; she is a blind girl and she does not come into the dining room.

Have you had any conversation in regard to this cook's daughter with one of the ladies here? No sir.

John Brady, sworn and examined, I am one of the boarders in Mrs. Larkin's house. I missed a coat and vest. I wore them on the 15th of August and on the 14th when I wanted to wear them I missed them and could not find them. The last time I saw them they were in my bed room hung up on one of the hooks. I know nothing about them being in a closet. I don't know who had the key to the room. The value of the coat and vest is about seven or eight dollars. I did not see it until the 24th. Miss Horne told me that she found my vest in the defendant's closet. I don't know whether it was the vest found on the shed or in the closet; the vest was worth about $1.50 I had not given the defendant permission to take any of my clothes out of my room; they were taken without my authority or knowledge. I was present the day that the defendant was arrested. On the 24th as I came into dinner I heard Officer Carey and the defendant in the parlor. I went down to dinner and before I had commenced to eat my dinner Officer Carey and this girl went down stairs to the dining room. I asked her to let us know where the clothes were and we would not do any more about it. She said she took them, that she took the clothes. I also asked her who did she give them to, and she said a man by the name of McDonald and they were all packed up in Fortieth street; that is all I know.

Cross Examined. What clothes were you talking about, your coat and vest? Yes. You conducted the conversation? Yes. It was in reply to your questions that she said she took the clothes and gave them to Mr. McDonald and he took them to Fortieth street? Yes sir. And this was in regard to your coat and vest that you valued at seven or eight dollars? Yes. I did not see her any more. I went to my work. I got the vest but did not get the coat.

Sarah Stothers; sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I did not take Mr. Brady's coat or vest. I got it in the yard. Did you take anybody else's property in that place? No sir. I did not. I happened to be out in the yard. I saw this vest and the woman told me to throw it up and I done so. I threw it up to the woman up stairs. I did not have Brady's coat or vest or any property in my possession at all. I don't know how it got in the closet. I did not put it in. Other people beside myself had access to these rooms. The lady of the house, the cook, and her daughter was often in the dining room, and the lady and the cook had clothes in it. This lady said that you said that you took the property, took this coat and vest? No sir. I did not say I gave it to Mr. McDonald. Do you know of your own knowledge who took it? No. I said Mr. McDonald took it.

Cross Examined: Why did you say Mr. McDonald took it? I did not know what I was doing at the same time. You know Mr. McDonald don't you? No. I do not know him at all. So that you just guessed at the name? Yes. Did you tell this young lady here in the presence of her mother, Mrs. Larkin, and Mr. Brady that you had taken these things and that if the police would let you go you would get it all back again? No sir. I never said that at all. That is not true? No sir. I did not know what was lost at the same time, only a suit of clothes. You remember seeing officer Carey? Yes. I saw him. You remember his telling you he was going to arrest you. Sent you? Yes. I did not know him at the time he came in. He told you he was going to arrest you? Yes sir. I heard them saying they lost a suit of clothes. You thought the best thing to do was to tell that Mr. Donald took it was that it? Yes. How did Mr. Donald get in the house did you tell that? No. You said something about a pawnshop didn't you? No. You never said a word about a pawnshop? No. Did you say anything about Fortieth Street? No. Did you talk about the pawnshop in Fortieth St.? No sir. Do you know Mr. Donald? No. You had never seen him? No. Was he in there? No. Did anybody come there to see you? No, there never came no one.

I did not use the name McDonald to those ladies. I did not say I knew who took them and if they would let me go I would find them. I did not speak of my sister-in-law's house. I have got a sister-in-law, she lives in Nineteenth street. When was your last day off before the 24th of August? I never got off no time at all. You got off once in a while?

Yes; they were always sitting at the hall door. Do you know a man by the name of McDonald? No. Did you see McDonald take this property? No. You did not hand it to him? No. Why did you make that statement to the witness? I thought it would clear myself. I said it to the detective. What did you say to the detective? I did not know what I was saying at the same time. Did you have anything to do with the larceny - did you take any of the property, the coat and vest? No. I never did.

Mary Branstetter sworn and examined. Where do you reside? No. 340 Park Avenue, Hoboken. Do you know the defendant? Yes sir. How long? I know her since she has been in the country about a year. Did you know her before she came here? No. Do you know other people that know her? I know her friends around. Do you know her reputation for honesty? Yes: What is it? It is good; she came often to my house. Money, clothes and jewelry were there, and she could help herself if she was that way inclined, but she has always been honest to my knowledge. Did she work for you one time? No, she stayed weeks with me at a time and everything was open to her there in the house. Annie Potter sworn. I live No 505 Nineteenth St. I know the defendant three years. I know a good many people who know her. She is honest and all belonging to her. James Allen sworn. I reside at 503 West Nineteenth Street and know the defendant about ten months and know other people who know her. As far as ever I have known since I have been acquainted with the defendant she has always been an honest and upright girl.

Harriette Stothers sworn. I live at 444 Nineteenth St. the defendant is my sister; she has always been hardworking and industrious and her reputation for honesty is good.

Maria Larkin recalled by District Attorney. Were you present at the time that the conversation was had where Officer Carey, the defendant, my daughter and Brady was present. Did you hear what was said between the several parties there? Yes I did. Tell me in your own language your best recollection of what Officer Carey and this defendant said in relation to this or any person that was there? Officer Carey asked her where the vest was found and she said that they were in the pawn shop; she took them and they were up in Portieth street, and if she was let out to her sister-in-law she would get them. Then Officer Carey asked her where they were? She said that they were in a pawnshop in Portieth street. M. McDonald took them from her and that he pawned them - that if he could let her out she would get the things. Was anything said at that time about how M. McDonald came to get them? He asked how he came in and she said he was an acquaintance of her sister-in-law's. What else was said about how he got them or how he took them? That was all as near as I can recollect. Do you know M. McDonald? No. I never saw him and never heard of him until she spoke of it. She was arrested on the 24th of August. I am in the house all the time, very seldom out unless I go to market. I am down in the dining room. I never saw any man come in there except those belonging to the house. She was not let out to find McDonald. Carey had her in custody. She was taken from my house to the station house and she never got out after that. From the 8th to the 12th I was continually in that house. I saw no McDonald there. A boy could not very well be in my premises without my knowing it. When did you first hear of your boarders missing any property? The first was about the 3rd of May Mr. Mc Carney lost a ~~coat~~ and vest, and the next robbery was on the 16th of June Sunday and the next was when Mr. Brady and Mr. McQuillan lost a suit of clothes. Mr. McQuillan got his coat and pants and vest, working clothes, but Mr. Brady did not get any thing except the vest that we found in her possession in the closet where she kept her clothes and to which nobody had access. What other help did you have in that house? There was an old deaf lady there for years. How many boarders? I had then eight men and my own children and one lady friend. It is a two story and basement house and these people are boarders in that house.

John Carey sworn and examined. I went to the home of the complainant that day about half past eleven or twelve o'clock and saw Sarah in the parlor. I told her I was a police officer and what I was there for, and that clothing had been stolen from parties in the house. She said at first she did not know any thing about that. I said I was there to arrest her if she did not tell me where the clothes were. I told her I was informed the vest had been found in her closet, and that the day on which the blue suit of clothes was found on the shed that she was seen to throw a vest up there. She said she threw a vest up there, but did not throw the pants nor the coat. I then asked her where McGarney's clothes were. She said that James McDonald 433 West Sixteenth street came there one night about 8 o'clock, she let him in and he went up stairs and he came out with a bundle tied up in a red handkerchief. I told her there was no pawn office in 40th street, but I do not remember her reply. I had previous to the arrest searched all the pawn shops.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
