being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises ~~is~~ aforesaid Street in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Residence where deponent resides with his family and which was occupied by deponent as a Residence and on which, there was at the time a human being, by name Caroline Jacobs and others were BURGLARIOUSLY <sup>attempted to be</sup> entered by means of forcibly removingthe lock or fastening of a door leading from the Street into the basement of said premises with intent to commit a larceny therein.on the 15 day of June 1886 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:Jewelry consisting of a gold watch and chain. Diamond Rings Shirt studs and other property of the value of One thousand Dollars and morethe property of deponentand deponent further says that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY <sup>attempted to be</sup> was committed and the aforesaid property <sup>attempted to be</sup> taken, stolen, and carried away byCharles Mitchell Morris

for the reasons following, to wit:

That deponent is informed by Officer Michael E. Floody, 7th Precinct that about 10:30 O'clock on the night of said day he found the defendants under the stoop close to the basement door and found in his possession a "bit & brace" a cold chisel skeleton keys & such implements as are used and necessary in the commission of a burglary and deponent believes the same to be true.

0040

Further says that upon examining the said door he found two separate holes or spaces bored through it one above and one below the fastening of the door, and so close to the lock as to permit a persons hand to reach and turn the key on the inside of the door. Deponent says that said holes bore the marks of a bit such as was found upon the defendant at the time of his arrest. Deponent therefore charges the said defendant with the commission of the felony.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

John A. Waddell
of No. 244 Fulton Street, aged 41 years, occupation Commission Merchant being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 24th day of November 188 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

a check, or order for money, on the Living National Bank for the sum of three hundred dollars, and of the value of three hundred dollars

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Henry D. Morris, now here, for the reasons following, to wit:

That on said day the said deponent entered the store of deponent at 244 Fulton Street, and said his name was N. H. Larsen.
That he then and there stated and represented to deponent that he had shipped to himself, from Baldwinsville, New York, 67 tubs of Butter containing 4820 pounds of fat butter, which he estimated to be worth about 25 cents per pound. That he desired deponent to make him an advance on said butter of three hundred dollars, and then gave deponent the annexed paper, purporting to be a bill of lading of said butter, as security for such advance. That this deponent believing said statements and representations to be true, and believing that said bill of lading was a genuine instrument, thereupon gave said deponent said check.

That deponent has since ascertained from the Agent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company in New York, that said bill of lading was false and fraudulent, and that no such property was shipped to New York by said deponent. That deponent never received said butter or any portion thereof, and has been unable to find said deponent until yesterday. That deponent therefore charges said deponent with obtaining said property from deponent designing by means of said false and fraudulent statements and representations and with the intent to cheat and defraud deponent and whereby deponent was so cheated and defrauded of said property.

-----000-----

AUGUSTUS SMITH, the complainant, being duly sworn,
-----
by _____ Street. He was a college student.

On the first of June 1886, he was standing at the corner of Fulton and Front Streets about ten minutes past 6 o'clock, in the evening- He had a watch on his person; he felt a touch at his pocket and on looking around, he saw the defendant standing in front of him. He moved his hand to his left side and in front of him. He, the complainant, told the defendant that he thought he had his watch, and took him by the collar and walked up Fulton Street. The defendant said that he would go with him and asked him to take his hand off. He did release the defendant and the defendant walked with him a square further, in the crowd; then he moved away and said he would pay for the watch. He had <sup>a friend</sup> with him; the friend said "He offered to pay you for the watch; why don't you let him go;" then Murphy said, "Let me go", and struck him, the complainant, on the left hand; then they ran.

His, the complainant's, brother was with him, and gave his brother the package that he had in his hand and ran after Murphy and the officer overtook him. The watch was worth over $25.00 -----000-----

Officer WILLIAM NESBIE, of the 1st precinct, being duly sworn, testified that he arrested the defendant. The defendant said that he would send his mother to the complainant, and if the complainant was willing to drop the proceedings against him he would return him the watch. The defendant asked him, the officer, to send his mother to the complainant; he, the officer, refused to do it.
-----000-----

For the defence, JAMES MURPHY, the defendant, being duly sworn, testified that he lived at number 12 Munroe Street, and was a plumber. Nobody was with him on the day in question. He did not steal any watch from the defendant, or helped anybody else to steal it from him. The first he knew of the complainant's loss, was when the complainant asked him for the watch. He had never been in prison, in his life.

Dependent immediately seized hold of defendant and told him he was going to give him to a policeman. The said defendant asked dependent to search him; after walking him several blocks in search of an officer, the said defendant asked dependent how much he would pay for the watch and said "I will pay you for the watch"; the said unknown man then said "Why don't you let him go, he offers to pay you for the watch?".
