I am a journalist by profession, have been employed on the New York Press for the past eight years, and have resided in the city during the whole of that time.

About ten o'clock on Thursday night January 24th 1884, in company with a male companion I went into the resort

0236

17 Known as McFlory's, located on Hester Street, between Elizabetht and Mott Streets in this city, and remained there until after midnight.

After partaking of some lemonade in the billiard room, my companion and I, called for Irish Whiskey. The waiter crossed over to the other side of the hall, and spoke to a man in his shirt sleeves, pointing to us at the same time.

Two small glasses, containing the whiskey, and one of ice water were placed before us, and 30 cents charged which

0237

³ Sum was paid. The waiter then leaned over the table and confidentially informed us, that he had had great trouble in getting the whiskey for us, and evidently desired to impress us with the favor he had done us. "What's the trouble?" said I. "Why yer see we ain't allowed to sell liquor, so we've got to keep it dark". Then seeing that we did not drink the whiskey, he said, "Say put it away quick". We drank the liquor at a gulp.
In my own case, it was

certainly whiskey, but a fiery hot put stuff. It burned my throat, and gave me violent pains in my stomach. The waiter shortly afterwards brought two girls and seated them by our side. The girls asked to be treated, and a round was ordered, and the waiter joined in the drinks. I ordered Irish whiskey, so did my friend, the girls ordered hot wine, and the waiter said he would have "rye". The drink supplied to me was the same ^{kind} as before, and I scorched my throat a second time. In a few minutes my head became dizzy and there were violent pains in the body. The girls finding that they could do no business with us, left for a dance, and the waiter brought another couple ^{of girls} whom he said were damned good bed fellows. Another round of drinks was ordered; really by the waiter and the girls, I and my friend ordered each cigars. These last two rounds cost $2.00.

The drinks appeared to be whiskey (rye) and hot wine, as ordered, but I did not taste them. Most of the visitors, ordered beer and the liquor served appeared to be beer; in one case an empty glass near me, gave me proof that beer had been served in it. I did not taste the drugs but I smell them.

The liquor which appeared to be beer, was served in great quantities.
"Hard" drinks became more frequent towards midnight. Many of the girls I saw in the ball room, were drunk, and one or two of the waiters were nearly so.
The drinks were obtained from a bar, adjoining the ball room, and were 0241

7 brought to customers, right before the eyes of a man dressed as a police officer.

District Attorney Fellows,

Dear Sir,

Excuse the liberty I take in writing you, but it is the only means I have of communicating with you, as I cannot spare the time from my business to see you in person. I have now in your office an indictment for felonious assault, on a party of colored people, against Patrick McLean. He appeared as complainant in precisely a similar case nearly a year ago and in which, as in this case, he was the aggressor. He prepared himself in that trial and it is to prevent a repetition of it to excite sympathy among the jurors, that I write you the following facts, for, if there ever was a criminal who deserved, State Prison it is "this Patrick McLean". Ever since he arrived in this country

0257

he has been a thief and leader among that class. Before he had completed six months residence in this country, he committed a crime. He was arrested and convicted for Larceny, and sentenced ⁱⁿ to General Prison to One Year. Ever since his release he has confined himself to despoiling poor unfortunate wretches who happen to get drugged in his saloon. He has never done an honest days work in his life, but has always acted as a sort of quasi bartender in unlicensed saloons and low dives. The liquor store in which the assault occurred, although licensed, is not respectable, being a branch of the notorious Hickory saloon cor of Chrystie & Canal, a dive the late Dist. Atty. McKern did his utmost to break up. A branch of the Hickory saloon ^{recently} reopened in West 1st Street in the very saloon where Sergeant

0258

Delaney of the Tomb squad, shot and killed McGowan, and then P. McGowan installed as bartender. He did not last there long however, as a quarrel arose between him and some of the characters who resort the place, in regard to the division of the spoils purloined from some poor wretch who was enticed into the dive. For the protection of his health and life he had to leave, and was installed in the dive cor 85th St & 2nd Ave. He was accompanied in his removal by the only witness ^(Delaney) he had in the present case and who had also to vacate Res-titch for the very same reasons.
This Delaney evidence cannot be taken according to law as I understand he is a convict. It is to prevent your being imposed on that I write the above for he will stop to any thing in order to keep out of Prison. Let the law run.

I lived in Redding, Penn. I was born in Redding. I left far rockaway about 6 months ago. my father lives in far rockaway. I went away from home for a situation to the protest of mercy I got one from there in my street with Wm. Rocham. it I lived there 3 months I then went home. I remained home. 2 months from home to St. Clair St. Greenpoint to Mr. Mills. I remained there 3 weeks I do not know the day of the month I last left home I went away from Mills' and went to 27 Bleeker St I knew there were bad houses in Bleeker St. because I went there with my cousin my cousin is a man. his name is Frank Sheno 0294 he lived with us in far rockaway and I met him in Houston St N.Y.

I met him by appointment. I went with him to Bleeker St. he showed me where those bad houses were.

✓ he left me at Houston St. cor. of Bowery I went to 2nd Bleeker St by my own advice. he told if I wanted to to them I could go. he did not have connection with me until I went to Bleeker St he said he did not think that the mans would take me in but I might go and try. he told me in Rockaway if he would meet me in New York and that my father would have no suspicion of it. he did not say that he wanted to have connections with me. It was while I was living in 5th St. that he told me about the bad houses in Bleeker St. I went with him to my aunts house twice while I was in Greenpoint. he enticed me away from there. I never went back my when for my clothes. he visited me here in 27 Bleeker St. he had connections with once there, there was no other person from far rockaway brought me around but my cousin I know a man named Geo Fisher he was the first one who seduced me it was in far rockaway it is just months ago. Another Mr. Fisher the painter visited me at 27 Bleeker St. he had connections with me twice I met him in Bleeker St. when I first went to the house I saw one of the girls and inquired for the mistress of the house the girl called Lizzie and Lizzie was standing on the stoop it was $\frac{1}{2}$ past 6 p.m. it was not October after my cousin showed me these houses I did not go in any of them that night I went back to Greenpoint he left me at 34th St ferry. I remained in Greenpoint 3 days when I came back to New York the second time my cousin came and took me from Greenpoint to New York and got shoes for himself. ~~Mr.~~ I left Greenpoint on the 17th I do not know what month. I was away from Greenpoint four days before I went back for my clothes. When I first spoke to Lizzie ~~I went~~ ^{up} in the hall and then went into the front parlor I there saw Mr. Mack standing by a table. I spoke to Lizzie about the room in the Hall. She had previously told me that she had rooms from two dollars up to $\frac{7}{8}$

I recollect going from the front to the back parlor the chamber maid and Lizzie were there they were the only ones then present. I then made bargain about the room. I told Lizzie where I was from ~~I do not recollect saying~~ ^{purser that} I did not tell Lizzie that my father she told me to change my name.
 I said what for. She said for fear any of our friends would come around and it would be my father's ears where I was. I did not tell Lizzie that my father would not dare interfere with me. This is the girl Maria Russell (now just) who was present at the time. after Lizzie was all settled there I told ~~her~~ ^{Lizzie} my father dared not interfere with me as I could speak enough about him as he ordered me out of the house 3 times and threw scalding coffee on me I also told her about him having another woman in Bedding Conn. that is all I told her about my father, the men who went with me into the House I met on the stoop and sidewalk opposite the house. I was arrested on a Wednesday night. it was 3 days after I left Lizzie's house. I was arrested at the corner of Christie & Grand St after I left Lizzie I went to live at the Philhammie. kept by Lubin. the reason I left Blecker is because the fellow I had, Geo. Fisher, the painter did not want me to stay there Geo had been my fellow about 2 weeks. he did not sleep with me in Blecker. At he slept with me one night at the Philhammie. I told Lizzie it was Geo Fisher (the operator) I had for 3 years the reason I left Green Point, was after I saw Blecker St. I wanted to get them and be a bad girl by the Court. How old are you. I think I am fifteen years of age. I was in Lizzie home two weeks and a day. My father does not know I am a witness in this case. I received money from men for having connection with me. I had connections with 10 men on an average every night. I would give Mack twenty five cents for every man I had connections with me. Lizzie and I dollars per week for my room. Lizzie taught me how to cruise. she went with me on the street and showed me how to solicit men
