Martin Huberth, 337 East 23^d Street,
Saloon Keeper. On the 17th of November 1888, between 10 and 11 in the forenoon the defendant came with another man into my saloon. The defendant took a drink and the other man got a cigar. The latter gave me a $5 bill in payment. After he got his change, both left the saloon.
About two minutes afterwards the man who gave me the $5. bill, returned to the saloon and got another cigar. He paid for it and went out again. Immediately thereafter the defendant came back into the store, took a cigar and went out through the side door. About a minute later he returned through the side door to the saloon, took three cigars and went out again through the side door. About six or seven minutes afterwards a young man came into the store and told me, that some boys had cut my show windows. I went out and discovered four small cuts in my show windows. The said young man remained with me, until I returned to the store, to wit about two minutes. He had been in the store before, when the defendant had obtained his three cigars; he ^{then} took a ginger ale and left the store, going towards Second Avenue. He remained away for about five or six minutes, and then returned to give me the above information. While we stood outside the store, he engaged me in a conversation, evidently for the purpose of detaining me. When I returned to the store, I saw the hall door just being closed by somebody ~~sitting~~ in the hall. Being suspicious that something wrong had happened, I went behind the bar and discovered that my pocketbook containing $46 in ~~the~~ bills and 5 silver coins, was taken from the drawer behind the counter. I was looking ^{through} ~~out of~~ the ~~of~~ door window.

I saw the defendant, hurriedly leave the hall door and run towards First Avenue. I pursued him to 22^d Street, where, between First and Second Avenue I apprehended him, and with the assistance of Philip Fiehl brought him to the Police House. The pocketbook shown me by Mr. Fiehl I at once identified as the one which had been in the drawer of my counter before the defendant came to my store. It is my property.

Philip Fiehl, 350 East 28^d Street, florist business. On the 17th of November, 1888, between 10 and 11 o'clock in the forenoon, when I was standing at the door of my store, I saw two men run very fast towards First Avenue, and seeing no car or other object, for which they might run, I became suspicious of them. I went down to First Avenue to see whether they continued running. There the complainant came along in pursuit of the two men. Thereupon I shouted

'Pop thief!' and set out to pursue them. At 22^d Street I lost sight of the taller of the two. The defendant stopped ~~at~~ in front of a grocery store and said to us, while he unbuttoned his coat, that he had not done anything. He stood near a potato barrel, and when I looked into the same, I discovered a pocket book lying therein, which I took and put in my pocket; unseen by the complainant and the defendant. I brought the defendant to the Station House and there exhibited the pocket book found in the said barrel. The complainant identified it at once as his property. It contained $4.06.

24
 The People vs James Garity } Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Geldersleeve.
 Wednesday March 13. 1889. Indictment for burglary.

Daniel J. Maloney, sworn and examined testified. I am an officer of the 16th precinct of this city; on the night of the 12th of February last my beat was on Tenth Ave. from Fourteenth to Twenty First street; it is in the 16th ward - the premises No 114 Tenth Avenue. That night I saw the prisoner in the neighborhood of No 114 Tenth Avenue at about one o'clock on the morning of the 12th of February with another man standing on the corner when I went out on post at twelve o'clock; it was then about twenty minutes past twelve. I walked down Tenth Avenue to Fourteenth street and came back again; they were still standing there. I stood on the Sixteenth street corner under the shade where it was dark. They came past me down Sixteenth street around the block on the Avenue and began to look up and down the Avenue. They could not see me, I went on the other side. No 114 is on the corner between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets. They came down Tenth Avenue and approached No 114. Garity approached the window on the Seventeenth street side; he took the shutter off and he broke the window; it was a wire shutter fastened on the window; it was about half way up; it was not on in the day time but put on at night. I saw Garrity break a pane of glass. I don't know how he broke it, it was with his fist I suppose; he had a key in his fist when I saw him in his right hand. I was one block away when I saw the window broken. I could see plainly because there is an electric light on the corner. The window of No. 114 was in full view. There were no other men on the Avenue at that time but the defendant and his companion. I went up and they ran away when I went towards the store. Garrity ran in the hallway up a flight of stairs. I went after him and caught him in the hall half a block away. At the time I turned the corner there was another policeman but nobody else at that time. The house I found the defendant is No. 448. He was panting a little bit. He was running up stairs. I caught him on the top of the stairs; he was running as fast as he could. I brought him back to where the window was broke. I asked him what he done it for? He said he did not do it; he said it was the other man who was along with him. I took him to the station house and went to this man's house and got him to search the place to see that there was nothing gone; the screen was lifted off Archibald McColl sworn. I keep a saloon at 114 Tenth Avenue. I closed the saloon on the night of the 12th of February at ten minutes past twelve and left everything secure. There was a wire screen on the window; the glass of the window was perfect when I locked up. The janitor called me shortly after two o'clock and told me to get up. I did so and found the screen on the sidewalk and the window broke. I had five hundred dollars worth of property in the store. I know Garrity he lives in the neighborhood. I saw him and another man that night in the saloon five minutes before twelve. I have known the defendant over three years. I have never known him to be charged with the commission of any crime. James Garrity sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live at 428 West Seventh Street between Ninth and Tenth Avenues. I recollect the evening in question. I was at the People's Theatre on the Bowery to see the play "The Tiger". I walked up the Bowery to Bleeker St. and went up Hudson street to Ninth Avenue and had a drink in Mr. Paul's saloon. I walked to the corner of Sixteenth Street and Tenth Ave. and had a drink there with my friend John Beane who left me there. I went down Seventeenth St. and there was two men ahead of me. I stood for a while, opened the door and locked it and put the key in my pocket and went down as far as Tenth Avenue. I saw two men standing at this window and then saw them running. I saw officer Maloney running after me and I ran into the hall 1440, which is a boarding house. I was clubbed by the officer and brought back to where the window was broken. I told them I did not know anything about it. I was searched when taken to the station house. I have never been convicted of any crime. A man named McGuire was with me that night at the theatre. I did not know he was a criminal. Luke Saw and Mrs. J. Waller testified to the good character of the defendant. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

0840

0841

0842

being duly sworn says he is an Attorney and Counsellor at Law having his Office at N^o 49 Court Street in the City of Brooklyn, W. Y. where he resides.

That the above named defendant Alexander J. Glynn is well known to deponent and was in deponent's employ for 3 years + upwards as Clerk + messenger until about 2 years ago

That during the time of said employment deponent entrusted said Alexander J. Glynn with various sums of money on numerous occasions for payment on collection and deposits in Bank and that he was always honest, trustworthy, and faithful and that he never missed or lost anything by him, That in other respects his record was equally good as he was always punctual and attentive to his duties. That deponent was greatly surprised as well as pained upon being informed by his mother a hard working industrious woman that he had been arrested for an attempt to obtain property by unlawful means.

That deponent does not believe the said Alexander to be guilty of such an offense or that he could have done anything of that kind as it appeared from expressions derived from his acquaintance with him and of previous record and character.

That said Alexander J. Glynn left deponent's employ about 2 years ago of his own accord.

Deponent has no hesitation in asserting his belief in the innocence of said Alexander from a full knowledge of his habits derived from the time he was in his employ of deponent as aforesaid during which he saw no indications of such a propensity as would be indicated by such a charge or accusation and he earnestly wishes & hopes he may be speedily released as he thinks he deserves to be not only on his own account but for the reason that he has a good & faithful mother who provides a good home for him.
