Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Donato Langiano

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Donato Langiano
of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Donato Langiano

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of one Donato Barbano in the Peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and him the said Donato Barbano with a certain knife and also with a certain glass bottle which the said Donato Langiano in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, then and there wilfully and feloniously did strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, him the said Donato Barbano with intent thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said Donato Langiano of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Donato Langiano

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said Donato Barbano in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and him the said Donato Barbano with a certain knife and also with a certain glass bottle which the said Donato Langiano in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a weapon and an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

John R. Feltow,
District Attorney

THIRD COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and the said

with a certain which the said

in right hand then and there had and held, in and upon the of

the said

then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, stab, cut, bruise and wound, and did then and there and by the means aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully and wrongfully inflict grievous bodily harm upon the said against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

New York, Nov. 13th, 1890.

Hon. Frederick Smyth, Recorder.

Sir :

I would respectfully report the investigation into the character of Gustave Lind, charged with Grand Larceny in the second degree.

Gustave Lind is a Norwegian by birth and came to this country about ten years ago. He was employed as butler with the following families: - John C. Bullet, lawyer of Philadelphia, about eight months; George W. Charles, editor of the Public Ledger, for sixteen months; went to Europe with Mr. George Griswold as valet and returned with him; with Ex-Governor E.D. Morgan, about seven months; with Joseph S. Decker, banker and broker, about seven months.

Mr. Kimble of 96 Prince Street, N.Y. says that Lind was employed by his brother-in-law, Mr. Strange of Paterson, N.J. as butler for three or four years and speaks of him in the highest terms. Says that he had charge of the wine-room and of the silver, and always found him an honest and faithful servant.

In my opinion, this is his first offense that he ever committed.

Very respectfully,

Jacob Von Gerichten
Det. Sergt.

We the undersigned friends and acquaintances of Gustav Lind for a number of years, testify by our signatures, that he is intelligent, ambitious and honest, and feel positive that the crime he is accused of, was not done intentionally—

Indictment filed November 7, 1890.

Indicted for burglary in the third degree.

New York, November 12, 1890.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Assistant District-Attorney A. D. Parker;

For the Defendant,

Mr. E. M. Friend.

G E O R G E V O G T, a witness for the People sworn, testified:

I am a bar-tender. I live at No. 154 East 27th. Street. I am employed by Mr. Gemunder. I was so employed on the 31st. of October, this year. I closed up that liquor store at about one o'clock in the morning. I locked it all up carefully and went to bed. About a quarter of four o'clock, Officer Johnson came and woke me. I came down into the saloon and looked around and saw several bottles of wine on the floor. I examined the other articles in the store and found that five quart bottles of champagne were missing, also one box of cigars. The value of the champagne was three dollars and a half a bottle.

A R T H U R   A .   J O H N S O N ,   a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police. On the night of the 31st. of October I passed the premises, No. 154 East 27th. Street. I also passed No. 466 Second Avenue which is less than a block away. As I was patrolling my post I noticed<sup>a</sup> a broken champagne bottle in front of the door of the saloon. I tried the front door and I found it open. I went in and searched the place to see if there was anybody in it. I found nobody. I rapped for assistance, went upstairs and woke the bar-tender and had the place properly secured. On my way past No. 466 Second Avenue I saw a champagne bottle broken lying in the door-way. I went upstairs in those premises and, after some difficulty, went into the room occupied by the defendant. He was asleep in bed. On a chair by his bedside I saw a bottle of champagne and a glass half-full of liquor. I also saw two boxes of cigars. I woke him up and I said: "You are a pretty respectable man to do anything of this sort, committing a burglary", and he told me he did it in a joke. I had no further conversation with him.

D E F E N C E :

G U S T A V   L I N D ,   the defendant, sworn, testified:

My business is that of a butler in private families. I have never been arrested before in my life. I have been employed by such people as George W. Childs of Philadelphia, John C. Bullard, George Griswold, E. D. Morgan, Jay Gould and A. R. Eno. On this night in question I went to see some friends uptown. After I left them I came down in a Second Avenue car. I was in company with some friends of mine and they left me after I got out of the car. I felt quite cold and chilly, and I went into a saloon and had a couple of glasses of whiskey. I don't remember exactly anything that happened after that. It seemed as though I was dazed and had lost my head entirely. I got quite stupid. I came to this saloon and I saw a light in there. I found the front door open, and as soon as I touched the front door it opened and I walked in. I went around back of the bar, sat down a few minutes and then I took a drink. I took the champagne and cigars with me, intending to bring them back. I only did it in a joke as I thought I was in the place of a friend.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

This must have been at about two o'clock in the morning. I have no distinct recollection of what I did on this evening. I knew whose saloon it was when I got in there. I remember distinctly that there was a light in the place. I recall all those facts distinctly that I was stupid with drink. I state positively that I merely took these liquors as a joke, intending to return them the next day. I have never been arrested for any crime and have always had honest employment.

The Jury returned a verdict of "guilty of grand larceny in the second degree".

Indictment filed November 7, 1890.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

New York, Nov. 12, 1890.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Assistant District-Attorney A. D. Parker;

For the Defendant,

Mr. J. C. Costello.

CHARLES H. MORAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 23 Barrow Street in this city.

I am a truckman in the commission business. On the 30th day of October I was driving a truck. I had seven pieces of blue uniform cloth upon the truck to be delivered to D. & H. Heidgerd at Canal Street and Broadway. I went with my truck to several other places, and finally to No. 40 Walker Street. At No. 40 Walker Street I left my truck standing, as the street was blocked, and carried a piece of goods into No. 48 Walker Street. At the time I left seven pieces of this blue cloth on the wagon. I came down and was informed of something, and I ran in pursuit of this defendant and caught him in a doorway with a piece of this cloth,  $41 \frac{3}{8}$  yards, in his possession. I know the value of the goods. It was \$2 a yard.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I didn't see the boy take this piece of goods off the truck. I caught him near the entrance of the door of a wholesale house. My truck was standing some four or five doors off from the place at which I caught him. The boy started to run when he saw me.

BENJAMIN SAGER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 90 Eldridge Street. I am a stock clerk with Wallace, Andrews & Company, No. 42 Walker Street in this city. On the 30th. of October at half past one o'clock I saw this defendant take a piece of goods from the truck that was standing in front of No. 40 Walker Street. When the driver came down I called his attention to it, and we both arrested the defendant. We afterwards turned him over to an officer.

MICHAEL F. McGOUGH, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer attached to the Fifth Precinct. I arrested this defendant on the 30th. of October on the complaint of Mr. Moran. The boy told me he didn't take the cloth.

D E F E N C E:

ISAAC LOCKMAN, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am fifteen years of age. I live at No. 11

Eldridge Street with my uncle. I have been working peddling matches and other things for about two years. I came here from Louisville, Kentucky, two years ago. I have heard the testimony given here against me. On that day a man came up to me and asked me if I would help him to take up seven bundles from a wagon to a store. I told him I would. I took the first bundle off the wagon and put it in the hall, and just as I was doing that the driver came up with a whip and began to whip me. I told the officer I didn't take the cloth but I told him also that a man, whom I thought was the owner, had given it to me. The driver struck me very hard with his whip.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I am positive that I told the officer the same story that I have told here to-day. I didn't know that the man who was hitting me with the whip was the owner of the property. I felt that I was doing no wrong in taking this piece of goods off the truck.

The jury returned a verdict of "guilty of grand larceny in the second degree, with a recommendation to the mercy of the court".

The driver struck me very hard with his whip.
There a man, whom I thought was the owner, had given it to the officer I did not take the cloth but I told him also driver came up with a whip and began to whip me. I told

Police Court

Daniel D. Kemp	Before Hon.
vs -	Daniel F. McMahon,
Edward Lacey	Justice
and Otto F. Rehn.

N.Y. Nov. 13th, 1890

Appearances:

No one for Complainant
Elias G. Levy, for defendant
Lacey Thomas M. Murray, for defendant Rehn.

Counsel for defendant
Lacey waives examination.

Daniel D. Kemp, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

By Mr. Murray:

Q The only knowledge that you have in relation to the stealing of this wine by the defendant Rehm is the information given to you by the other witnesses who were here?

A Yes sir.

Q And by the defendant Lowrey?

A Yes sir.

Q Is the information given by Mr Lowrey, the defendant, and these other gentlemen whose affidavits appear here, is that correct?

A That is some of the information; the balance is our books and the way our business is conducted.

Q At the time Mr Lowrey made this confession in open Court was Mr Rehm present?

A No, the warrant had not been issued then, but it was repeated in his presence.

By The Court:

Q Did Lawrence make any statement? Did he make any statement at the time he was put under arrest?

A Yes sir, at the time he was put under arrest. I am not sure whether it was made in Mr Rehm's presence.

By Mr Murray:

Q Did you hear the statement personally from the defendant Lawrence?

A Yes, sir.

Q You cannot remember whether Mr Rehm was present or not?

A He was not present at the time Mr Lawrence made the original statement.

Q Before Lawrence was arrested he made this statement to you in relation to Rehm?

A. Yes, he told me.

Q. Mr. Rehn was not present then?

A. No, sir.

Q. And Mr. Lawrence upon his arrest repeated this statement that he had made to you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. At that time Mr. Rehn was not in Court, was he?

A. Yes, he was in Court at that time.

Q. At the time the defendant Lawrence first made the admissions as to his stealing this wine?

A. The time he first made it was before the warrant was issued.

Q. When was the next time Lawrence made this admission?

A When Mr Rehm was here.

Q Are you sure of that?

A Yes sir.

Q Lawrence was in custody before Rehm was, was he not?

A I think so, yes.

Q Did Lawrence at that time make this same confession at the time he was brought into Court before Mr Rehm's arrest?

A No, it was made after his arrest.

Q That is all you know then the information of Lawrence and other employees of Becker, Merrill & Condit?

A. It was by my own researches brought about by other information.

Q You have no further knowledge of any facts except your researches and the evidence of these witnesses?

 A No sir

Christopher Nolan, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Court:

Q. Where do you live?

A. 411 West 44th St

Q Do you know this boy
 Lowrey?

A Yes sir

Q Do you know Mr Rehm?

A No sir

Q Did you ever see Lowrey take packages from Acker, Murrell & Cordit, and deliver them to Rehm's place?

A ~~No~~ No, sir.

Q Know anything about these packages?

A No sir.

Q Did you see any wine delivered there?

A I don't know what it was.

Q What was it? What did it look like?

A There was some bottles in a box

Q When was that?

A Last Monday.

By Mr Murray:

Q Did the bottles contain anything that you know?

A They contained something; I don't know what.

Q Who did he deliver them to?

A I can't tell you; I was out in the wagon.

Daniel D. Kemp, recalled.

By the Court:

Q On the day mentioned by this boy did Mr Rehm purchase any wine from your house?

A No sir.

Q Were there any bottles of wine or anything ordered?

A No order whatever. I made a thorough search all through the books.

By Mr Murray:

Q This order is in the handwriting of Lawrence?

A Yes sir; that is an order for the cellar man to put the goods up.

Mr Murray moves for the discharge of the defendant Rehm, on the ground that the Confession of Lawrence, not being under oath, is simply evidence against himself that he committed larceny and that it is evidence of no other fact.

Police Court, District.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

James S. Kemp

of No. 1010 Sixth Avenue Street, aged 35 years, occupation Superintendent being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 10th day of November 1890, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken stolen and carried away from deponent's possession the following property, to wit: Six bottles of wine of the value of Eight dollars property in care and charge of deponent.

Said property was stolen by Edward Lowrey (now here) for the reason that said Lowrey was employed as a driver for the firm of Acker, Merrall and Pondit, and as such came into possession of property to be delivered to customers of said firm. That on said day the said

Lowrey in the usual course of business sent the annexed order to Michael Kearns (now here, an employee of said firm, to prepare and put up various articles of merchandise which had been ordered by various customers of said firm. That ~~the~~ said order called for six bottles of wine which said

Kearns put up with the other articles.

That in the usual course of business said property so ordered is noted and checked by a shipping clerk, who notes the articles actually in his view and not from the written order.

Deponent is informed by George D. V. Clark (now here) the shipping clerk that he did not see said wine and did not make a note of it. Deponent is informed by Christopher Nolan (now here) a wagon attendant associated with said Lowrey that on said day he Said Lowrey in open Court acknowledges and confesses that he stole said property from said firm and further informs deponents that he delivered said property to said Rehm under an agreement with Rehm that he Lowrey should steal various articles and should deliver it to Rehm who would pay him one half the usual price charged by said firm. That with such understanding he Lowrey placed said wine upon the said order and secretly removed said wine

It appearing to me by the within depositions and statements that the crime therein mentioned has been committed, and that there is sufficient cause to believe the within named _____ guilty thereof, I order that he be held to answer the same and he be admitted to bail in the sum of _____ Hundred Dollars, _____ and be committed to the Warden and Keeper of the City Prison of the City of New York, until he _____ give such bail.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Mellie Lynch

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant and my self lived together as man & wife, and owing to a difference between <sup>us</sup> we separated, which action vexed her, so that she lost her temper, she is a hard working woman, and I would recommend that she be chastised.
