I went into Rein & Gimpels Saloon at 613 - 3rd Ave. at about 11³⁰ AM. Corcoran had been working for me and I wanted to find him. He seemed to have charge of the pool-room. I played a game of pool with Collins, who was partially intoxicated. He beat me and I paid for the game; we then played another game. I beat him and Collins refused to pay for the game. Corcoran then refused to let him have the triangle to set up the balls again. Corcoran put the triangle around his neck, and Collins tried to get it. Collins hit Corcoran then. I went between them, I held Corcoran's hand; Collins hit Corcoran over my shoulder. I then let go and Corcoran knocked Collins down. I then pulled Corcoran off of Collins. Corcoran went for a cue and Collins took a knife out of his pocket. I held Collins and told Corcoran to go away; he put up the cue and Corcoran went out.

I held Collins for about 20 minutes and we then went out together. He then went into the saloon on the E^{cor} of 40th and 3rd ave. He came out and I, in company with Cooley, tried to get home again. He said "I'll knock his head off before the night is over": he had the knife open in his hand all the while I then walked away through 40th St. Cooley was with me.

I was standing in Rein & Gimpels saloon: at the cigar ~~store~~ case right near the door. Collins and Corcoran were in the back room at the pool-table. ~~They~~ I heard some loud talking, and I looked in the back room and saw Collins and Corcoran in the back room each holding the (pool) triangle. I saw James Ahearn and John Brown in there. I thought there was going to be trouble and I went out to the S.W. corner of 4th St and 3rd ave, and was standing there when Collins came over and asked me if I saw Corcoran. I said "No" Ahearn and Collins & myself walked with him about 15 ft. Collins said about Corcoran "The son of a bitch he can't fight me" I told him to go home and have no further trouble. Some woman passed by and said that man has a knife. I looked and saw his right hand in a position as if he were hiding a knife. Ahearn and myself left him.

He stepped to the door of the saloon at NW of 39th St & 3rd Ave, and then to Flanagan's on the S.E. corner. I saw him and in a few minutes, I saw Collins and Corcoran on the corner. Collins was getting up from the sidewalk. I saw Corcoran run in the front door, with Collins after him, and I saw Corcoran run out of the side door, and started towards 2nd Ave.

I saw Collins come out of the front door and blood flowing from the wound.

David Rosenblatt.

I saw Ahern Cooley, and Collins standing on 3rd Ave, in front of 612. As Collins turned around I saw the knife in his right hand. I saw him go down again look in the saloon and saw him go in the saloon (Flanagan's). I saw Corcoran followed Collins run around the corner, and then saw them go in. I then saw them

I went and called ^{the} Officer that took Collins to the ambulance.

and asked for a drink. They were standing at the bar when Collins came in and struck at Corcoran with his right hand. Corcoran started for the side door. They clinked then they let go of each other and then they both got knives, and saw them make thrusts at each other. They then went out of the side door and Corcoran followed by Collins.

Then Corcoran came out of About 1 P.M. I was standing at 34th St. Heard a man was stabbed at 39th St and 3rd Ave. Gilanigan told me it was Corcoran. I went over to 9th Ave and 62nd and arrested Corcoran. I said "Why did you cut him". He said "He couldn't help it; that he couldn't get out of it any other way". I said "Why did you run away". He said "Well I didn't know what to do". He showed his thumb where it had been cut.

He said

Collins has been convicted. Detective Fraser and myself took Corcoran to the Bellevue Hospital. Collins said pointing to Corcoran "That's the man that done me my injury". Corcoran said "you lie".

the property of Deponent and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Harry J. Cordingley (now here) from the following facts to wit: That about the hour of eight o'clock P.M. of the aforesaid date deponent retired to bed in his apartment at the above mentioned address, and at the said time the defendant was asleep in said bed, and that deponent before going to bed securely closed and locked the doors of said apartment, and that about the hour of 10 o'clock P.M. deponent awoke and discovered the defendant gone, and immediately missed the aforesaid property—and that deponent is informed by Officer Frank Bonner of the 15th Precinct Police that he found a Train ticket on the person of the defendant, and that the defendant after being advised of his rights, admitted and confessed in Open Court to defendant in presence of Officer Frank Connor of the 15th Precinct Police that he had taken and stolen the aforesaid Watch and Chain, Shoes, and money, but denied taking the said Watch, stating that the said Watch had been given to him by defendant's wife, and he also admitted and confessed in Open Court that the said Pawn ticket found on his person by said Officer Connor represented defendant's watch, Defendant therefore asks that the defendant may be held to answer.

Before the
Hon. Rufus B. Cowing and a jury.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

Indictment filed November 10, 1892.

Tried November 22, 1892.

Appearances:

Assistant District- Attorney Bedford for the People .
Mr. for the defence .

W I L L I A M S. C O O P E R called by the People being duly sworn, testified that he was a carpenter and lived at 460 Pearl street , New York. On the 4th of October he was going up stairs at No. 133 Cherry street in New York about 11 o'clock A. M. Witness was alone and had in his vest pocket a watch and hanging therefrom was a chain; the former costing $40 and the latter costing $20. Having reached the first flight of stairs he first noticed that the defendant followed him, and then grabbed at his watch in his pocket and the chain and took them. Witness could not catch him but called for a policeman. Witness saw the watch and chain in defendant's possession. Defendant was caught by the policeman somewhere outside of the door of the house and he got the watch.

H E N R Y S T A N G E being duly sworn testified that he was an officer attached to the 7th Precinct and was on duty on the 4th of November in the neighborhood of 133 Cherry street, where he arrested the defendant. Saw the complainant at that time ~~at that time~~, who said that the defendant had robbed him of his watch. Complainant had hold of the defendant on the third step in the hallway which was dark. Witness then produced the watch to the jury. Witness had to put his hand down in the hallway to get the watch. Witness saw the defendant up three little flight of steps in the hallway and searched him and found nothing. Witness looked around the stairway and found the watch. Complainant was present when witness found the watch and said it was his property. There was no chain attached to it; the ring is off of it. The defendant said nothing although he was accused of stealing it .

When witness arrested defendant complainant had hold of him .

P A T R I C K C O R R I G A N , the defendant, being called by the defence and duly sworn, testified that he was 14 years old and lived with his mother at 24 Hamilton street in New York. Defendant did not take the complainant's watch. The officer was coming up the street and defendant went into the hallway because he knew the officer would hit him and chase him away from the door. Another boy said to defendant "Here comes a cop" (meaning a policeman). When defendant ran into the hallway he ran accidentally against the complainant who was fixing his watch. It is not allowed to stand in a hallway watching people who go ^{up} and down stairs. Complainant said "Give me my watch". Defendant said "There is your watch". The policeman came in and grabbed defendant, and the policeman said "Where is the watch?" Defendant said "The man is holding me for the watch" The policeman looked around and saw the watch on the stairs, and he picked it up and took defendant to the station house. Nobody was with the defendant at the time. Defendant was confined at one time in a Pro-

I tectory, and was convicted in Special Sessions for stealing, and was working by the day when arrested. Complainant was not fixing his watch but the ring connected with it, or he was fixing something. Defendant did not twist it off; it fell on the floor.

This indictment is over six years old . By reference to the statement of Ex-Senator Eugene F.
O'Connor, the principal witness against the defendant and the only one who sustained any loss by reason of defendant's transactions complained of, which statement is herewith filed, it will be seen that he has no desire to further prosecute this matter for the reasons therein expressed.

The great lapse of time since the filing of the indictment and Senator O'Connor's attitude in reference thereto, and my own belief that a conviction would be excessively improbable, constrains me to recommend that the defendant be discharged upon his own recognizance.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

William Crowley

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

On the evening when my chain was taken there was a shoulder party parade passing through the street and a great crowd of people had collected on the sidewalk and there was a great crush to view the parade; that during the passage of the parade I became entangled in the crowd and feeling a dragging at my watch chain looked down and examined my vest as to the cause and then discovered that my chain was gone. I seized the person standing near who was the defendant William Crowley supposing, in my excitement, that he was the person, who took the chain, but upon examination of said defendant could not find any property of mine in his possession. I therefore now when the excitement has passed off do not feel sure that the defendant is the person who took my chain and would be unwilling to swear positively that it was him. I therefore ask that the defendant be discharged as I do not feel that upon a trial a conviction could be had on my evidence. That I am informed that defendant is the partial support of his aged parents, that he has never before been arrested and has always borne a good character that on account of the above facts I desire to withdraw the complaint herein.

ously taken, stolen and carried away by Frank L. Cynne (now here) for the following reasons.

The defendant and deponent occupied the same sleeping room at 31 Washington Street and on said date while the defendant was in said room deponent went into bed - leaving said over coat on a chair in said room - and having the said watch in the pocket of the shirt that he had on his person - deponent awoke during the night and missed said property and the defendant was gone from said room - about 6 o'clock next morning deponent saw the defendant return to said room and accused him with having stolen his property and caused his arrest - deponent is informed by Officer Stevens of the 2^d precinct that he found in the possession of defendant - two watch keys tied together with a red string and deponent fully identifies them as his property and that they were fastened to the chain which was stolen from deponent
