This case was dismissed by the Grand Jury and their minutes so show.
By mistake the foreman signed the bill instead of endorsing the

Under these circumstances I recommend that the

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I James Galvin } Before Recorder Smyth. May 25th. 1893 Indictment for grand larceny first degree.
Jacob Hammersmith, sworn and examined.
What is your business? I am a musician.
I am employed at pic nics, balls &c.
On the 16th of May of this year about two o'clock in the morning where were you?
In East Fourth street between Second and Third avenues. Did you see this defendant on that morning? I did after he came up to me. Tell just what he did, did you have a watch? Yes sir.
Have you got that watch with you now?
No. I have it at the jeweler's. What is the value of that watch? Ten dollars.
Where was the watch? In the pocket of my vest. Was there a chain to it?
Yes. Was the chain fastened to your vest? Yes. The watch and chain were worth how much? The watch alone was worth ten dollars and the chain was worth twenty three dollars. Did this defendant do anything to you, tell what he did? I was passing along Fourth St. and he came up to me and asked me for a light? I told him I had no light as I did not smoke. He said, "Give me a match." I said, "I have no match." He asked, "What time is it?" I thought, "Do you want my watch?" and he grabbed my chain and he got the watch out of my vest pocket. He wrung the watch off the chain. I grabbed his hand and got the watch back again. He broke away from me. The officer ran after him and brought him back to me. Is the officer here in court? Yes. Did he say anything when he was arrested? He did not say anything to me. Did you say anything to him? I shouted for the police. Did you tell the policeman what you shouted for while he was there? I told him I shouted for police - that the man took my watch. You said this man took your watch? Yes. What did he say then? He did not say anything. Did he get the watch in his hand and ring it out? Yes, wrung it off the chain. I got it back out of his hand, and he ran as I shouted.

Cross Examined. Have you got the chain on now? Yes, I have got the chain; not the watch. I have the watch in the watchmaker. That is the chain (producing it). Was the chain broken? It has been, not now. Had it repaired. Did you show the broken chain to the officer? Yes. Were you not near a cellar way about that time - going down a cellar? I was forced in there by that man. Answer my question, you were in a cellar way with him? Not in a cellar way, an areaway. When he asked you for a light and then for a match and then what time it was did you strike him or threaten to strike him? No sir. I did not until he went for my watch and then I struck at him. You had a scuffle there for a few minutes didn't you? Yes. There was some steps where you were scuffling? Yes. You were near those steps. Right near the steps. Edward Wakeman, sworn and examined testified. You are a police officer connected with the municipal police attached to what precinct? The 14th. Did you see this defendant on the morning of the 16th of May of this year? Yes. I saw him in Fourth Street. Thereabouts in Fourth street? About a hundred yards from Second ave. between Second and Third avenues.

Was he running? Yes, he had broken away from the complainant. Did you see him and the complainant together?

Yes. What were they doing when they were together? I just seen him break away from him; they parted as I was coming up on my post. Did you see the scuffle? No sir. What attracted your attention to them first? The defendant running away. In what direction did he run? He ran east. You put him under arrest? I ran after him and caught him at Third Street and Second Avenue. I asked him what he done? He said, "nothing." I say, "Come around and I will see what you done. You brought him back to the complainant? Yes sir. What did the complainant say? He said, "that man tried to take my watch." What did he say? "No. I did not. I only asked him what time it was."

Did the complainant show you his watch then? I noticed the chain hanging down. He could not find the ring of the watch. When I came back in the morning at five o'clock I found the ring lying where the both of them had been together. Did you hear the complainant call out for police? Yes; he halloed "help."

The Case for the Defence.

James Galvin, sworn and examined, testified in his own behalf. What do you do for a living? I work at laboring work. Where do you work? I worked in Mr. Knight's sugar factory South street, Philadelphia. Where did you leave Philadelphia? I forget. I cannot tell. About how long ago? About two months ago. Since that time you have been in this city? Yes sir. You are charged, you know, with stealing that complainant's watch, tell the jury what happened from the time you met the complainant and spoke to him until you were arrested? Nothing at all. You saw him that night didn't you? Yes, I seen him that night. What did you do when you saw him? I went up and asked him for a match. He pulls out his watch and says, "Do I want his watch?" I say, "No; all I want is a match. You asked him what time it was? Yes sir. Did he pull out his watch? Yes. he pulled out his watch Then what happened? He says to me, "If I want his watch? and he catches hold of my sleeve, and he tore my sleeve. I got hold of his vest and chain I says, I did not want to fight him at all; and then we fell down the cellar way; he fell and I fell on top of him! Did you try to steal his watch? No sir I did not. Have you ever been convicted of any crime before?

Never in my life, I have never been in Court in my life. You have never been even arrested before? No, never arrested in my life. How old are you? I am 21.
Why did you run away? Because he was after me. When I was with the policeman he came up and gave me two or three punches in the face. I don't know the man. I never seen him in my life

Cross Examined. How long have you been in this country? Two years. Where did you live during those two years? I lived in Philadelphia all the time. You worked up to the time you left Philadelphia? Yes sir What did you come to New York for? To look for a position, for employment. I worked in Philadelphia up to a week before the time I left for New York. Where have 1893

62
1856 31
37

you been working since you have been in New York? I was looking for work. You have not been working at all since you have been in New York. The Monday before I was arrested (and I was arrested on Tuesday morning) I went down to an employment office and got a job to work on the Pennsylvania Railroad. Did you work on Monday? No. I did not. When were you to go to work? On Tuesday morning. Where did you pass your time during the two months you have been here? I was looking for a job all the time. Were you looking for a job at two o'clock that morning? No sir, I was just going to work. Whereabouts had you stopped that night? I spent it up in a lodging house at 108 Bowery. How much money did you have with you when you came from Philadelphia? I had two dollars. Those two dollars lasted you for two months until a week ago, the 15th of May? Yes sir. Had you ever met Mr. Hammersmith before? No, never seen him in my life. Whereabouts were you going to work? Out on the Pennsylvania Railroad, but I do not know where I was going. It was over on the west side some place was it? Yes. In order to go to the Pennsylvania Railroad from 108 Bowery you went east of the Bowery although you knew you had to go towards the west? I do not know. I have never been in Court before in my life. You went between Second and Third Avenue? Yes. Tell me the name of the man who employed you to work on the Pennsylvania Railroad? I cannot tell you. Where did he keep his place, where did you find him? In Tenth street, down the Bowery. I do not know the number. He was to send me out. What time were you to go and see him? Seven o'clock in the morning. Where were you to meet this man connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad? Down in Tenth street, but I do not know the number. Where did you expect to meet him, in the street? At his home. Where is his home? In Tenth street. What number? I do not know. You never saw it I suppose? No sir. You do not know the name of the man? No sir.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty without leaving their seats.

The People
vs.
Edward Gates

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cowing. May 5th 1893.
Indictment for assault in the second degree.
John Kelly, sworn and examined, testified:
I am an officer connected with the 24th precinct; on the 23<sup>d</sup> of April my tour of duty was from one o'clock in the afternoon until six o'clock. I had from 36th to 42nd streets along First Avenue and half the block each way at each side of the Avenue on the cross streets. I met the defendant on that day as I was passing the door of the house where he lives 337 East 38th street, New York between First and Second Avenues. His wife ran out of the door and he after her. She was cut and bruised; her hand was cut and bleeding where she told me he slashed her with a knife. When I went up on the stoop I took her apron and wiped off the blood, so I could see whether she had a wound or not. Her mouth was all cut, her lip was swelled, and I seen two cuts on the hand; one was a straight cut down here and the other was in the middle of the arm and a little cut was in one of her fingers where she said he slashed her with a Knife. He said that in his presence. So I walked up to him and said I would arrest him. I put him under arrest and he resisted. When I took hold of him ~~he~~ broke away, and when I saw he was getting ugly I went to pull my club out of my pocket; he grabbed my club and we had a tussle for the club. He got me over against the railing and then he stooped down and got me around the legs and knees and threw my head backwards over the railing after I had arrested him. When I recovered myself and got on my feet I looked around and I saw him coming for me with my stick, he was on the bottom of the stoop in a threatening manner. Did he say anything at the time he had the club raised? I do not know if he did. I pulled my pistol out and pointed it at him, and as soon as he saw the pistol he rushed down Thirty Eighth street and First Avenue. He threw the club away near the corner of First Avenue. I chased him down Third Avenue to Thirty Seventh street, and he ran into a railroad car crowded with passengers. I followed him into the car and took him out of it and took him to the station house. At the time when this occurred were you dressed in uniform? Yes, I was out patrolling. What did he say when you put him under arrest? He told me he would not go with me, I could not take him. I did arrest him.

Cross Examined. Have you told everything as it occurred? Yes, as near as I can remember. I was sober. His wife called me up on the stoop and told me to arrest him - that he assaulted, and beat and kicked and cut her with a knife. Who was present then besides you and the wife and the husband? At the time as far as I knew only the three of us, but since then I found another citizen who was present and seen it. He was near enough to hear some remarks. The wife came out ahead of her husband; she was not very far ahead of him; she was not running rapidly. She struck the stoop almost as soon as I came in ~~the~~ <sup>of the</sup> front door. I put the husband under arrest. I took hold of him by the arm, and I says, "as long as your wife is going to make a complaint - she seems to be pretty badly used up - I am going to arrest you." He says, "I am not going with you, and you cannot take me either." He wanted to go in for his coat and hat and I would not let him go for them. Did his wife go in for the coat and hat? I don't know what the wife done after I got into a tussle with him because I had no time to look around; my attention was all occupied with him. I did not say to him, "I will do you as Reilly was killed." I did not hit him in the back of the head with the billy. I did not strike him at all. I did not speak to him at all before my wife asked me to take him in charge because I did not see him. He threw me into the area over the railing, and the area is level with the sidewalk; he lifted me over the railing. I weigh about 180 pounds. I was not injured at all.

Frank Pokorney, sworn and examined, testified. I am 14 years old. I am not working now and am out of work a month. I worked for a druggist Forty Third street and Second Avenue. I remember the day of the arrest of Gates, a week ago last Sunday. The officer went up and asked the lady something and she showed him her hand. He looked at her hand, and he wiped it with her apron, and then he said something to her, and then he took hold of the man that was standing next to her. He told him to come with him. The man said, wait till he get his clothes. The officer sent the lady in to get his clothes - the prisoner's clothes. Then he took him by the arm and told him to come. When the prisoner did not want to come the officer pulled out his club and then the man took hold of it, and when the officer was trying to get the club off him, he caught him in the corner, and the man threw the officer over the railing. The officer was standing on the top of the step, six steps up, when the man threw him over the railing.

At the time when this man had thrown the officer over the railing up to that time did you see the officer strike the defendant? The man took the club from the officer before he threw him over the railing. After he had gotten the club from the officer he ran down towards First Avenue. The officer took his revolver out then and went after him. I went down the corner and saw a man jump on the car and the officer grabbed him: that is all I seen.

cross-examined I have not talked with anybody about this since then. I have not thought much about it. The officer is the only person I told about it. He asked me what I knew about it and I told him. Did the officer ask you whether you saw the defendant throw him over the railing? Yes. Did the officer ask you how he did it? Yes sir. I do not go to Sunday School but I go to church sometimes. For a month I have not been doing anything because I have been sick in bed. The lady and her husband were together were they not when the officer came up? Yes sir. Where did this man stand

When the officer came up? Right by the door; he had one leg inside and one leg outside. He was standing still was he not? Yes. You could not hear what was said? No. Did you see anybody else standing very near? No sir. Has that officer ever driven you away from the corner? No. You never loaf around the corners yourself? No sir. There was a big crowd around at this time, but none nearer than I was.

Did the officer threaten you? No sir.

Lizzie Gates, sworn and examined, testified I am the wife of the defendant, and on the 23<sup>d</sup> of this month I will be married to him nine months. I have been living since my marriage at First Avenue and Forty-fifth Street. You were living in that house on that Sunday how long? I was there going on three weeks. Has he been a good husband to you up to that time? He has been a very good husband. If he earned a quarter for putting in coal over his week's wages he would bring in bread for it. He always brought home his wages, twelve dollars, and handed them to me. Did he assault and cut you? No. He never touched you? No. At the time the officer made the arrest my husband just pushed me when I was trying to keep him in. Did you tell the officer to arrest him? No. I did not call the officer. You did not make any charge against your husband? No. The officer came up the stoop. I was standing there, and the officer said, "Well, Gates, what is the matter? — He knew my husband's name. My husband said, 'O, nothing.' With that I cut my hand with the door, just scratched it. I was kind of excited. I was trying to get my husband in from the door, he was drinking. The officer took my skirt and he wiped the blood off my hand and said, "Gates, you have been assaulting your wife." He said, "O no, not at all. He put his hand on my husband's shoulder and said, "you will know when you come down to the house." So with that my husband said, "let me get my coat and hat." The officer answered him back in a rough tone of voice, "No. you will get no coat; come on with me; you so and so, if you dont I will give you what Reilly got," and that was on the other side of my door, the other side of the street where this man was killed. I saw the policeman hit my husband across the back of the neck with a club. Did you see anything else? No, I went in for the clothes. I put them under the bed to keep him from going out.

Cross Examined. This occurred between half past two and three o'clock Sunday afternoon. I could not say exactly the time. When officer Kelley came along I was standing on the right hand side of the stoop going down on the Second Avenue side. My husband was standing between the door; there was only one door open. I was after trying to push him in; he did not want to go in because he was drunk. Had he been drinking in the house? No sir. Where was he drinking? He went out at nine o'clock in the morning and he came in very drunk. I believe some man brought him home very drunk. I could not exactly see them. It was about one o'clock. This was two or three o'clock? Yes sir. What had he been doing between one and three o'clock? He came in, he threw himself on his back on the bed; he was so drunk; he had half a cigar in his mouth, and he was hallooing and crying; he was so drunk he did not know what he was doing, and I took the cigar out of his mouth, I pulled him out and I put a pillow on the floor, and he kept hallooing. He did not seem to notice it. I let him sleep until half past two o'clock and he got up. He was looking around. I says, "What are you looking for?" He says, "My hat and coat." I said, "Sit down and have your dinner." "I will have no dinner" he said. I said, "You will not get your hat and coat." He insisted upon getting his hat and I would not give it to him. I live on the ground floor in the back. He went to open the door and I went and rushed to the door and took the key out. You stood between him and the door didn't you? Yes sir. At half past two he woke up? Yes, some time about that.

 Just about half an hour before this trouble? I could not say. To the best of your recollection how long do you think it was? It did not take him only about two minutes to get out. He is a strong man and I am a small woman. He gave me a push and got out. I had his hat and coat hid under the bed clothes and he could not find them. He had too much drink and I did not want to let him out. He went out ahead of me and I pushed him in a little bit. He stood on the stoop; he had nine dollars in his pocket.
 I was after taking it out. I was afraid he would go out and spend it.
 When he got out on the stoop he missed his money and put his hand in his pocket and said, "Give it to me." I said, "When you come in. I will give it to you. I have got it inside the room. I cannot give it to you now. I have not got it about me. He did not strike any blow, anything of that sort? No!

He did not threaten you in any way?
No, he did not have any occasion to I said to him, "Come in, it is Sunday, you look bad, you are in your shirt sleeves. His hand was scratched on the door. What is that mark upon the left side of his lip? That is a cold sore. You can see. How did you happen to get this cut upon your hand? I got it by a screw in the door while I was holding the door trying to keep my husband in.
How long was that before the officer came? Just about two minutes.
Was the blood flowing freely from your hand? Not very much. The officer wiped it off; no blood was flowing from my hand. The officer was coming out of another house; he said he was making peace in the house. I had not been drinking anything.
Anybody can see that is a cold sore I have upon my face. I don't know Roundsman Petty and did not see him that afternoon. I did not see my husband push and knock down the officer in the basement.
The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.
