"That the 'Ives Pool Law' repealed the provisions of the Penal Code relative to pool selling and book making and the adoption of the new Constitution abrogated the 'Ives Pool Law' and at the time of the commission of the offenses named in the indictment (while the same were made unlawful by the terms of the Constitution), no punishment was prescribed for such offenses, and the subsequent amendment of the Penal Code cannot effect the defendant for the reason that its provisions, in so far as they relate to the crime charged in the indictment, are ex post facto."

then and there being the Inspectors of Election of the said election district, at the said election, at a meeting of the said Inspectors of Election then being duly held in the said polling place for the purposes of the said election.

And the said Henry Stannard — did then and there desire and require of the said Inspectors of Election that he might select a person for the purpose of assisting him to receive and prepare his ballots, and who should be allowed to pass within the guard rail of the said polling place and receive his official ballots, and enter one of the voting booths of the said polling place, with him, and there assist him in preparing his ballot.

And thereupon he, the said Henry Stannard — was then and there in due form of law sworn, and did take his corporal oath, by and before the said Inspectors of Election, touching his right to select such person to assist him in receiving and preparing his ballots as aforesaid, they, the said Inspectors of Election, then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said Henry Stannard — in that behalf.

And the said Henry Stannard — being so sworn as aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, before the said Inspectors of Election, then and there feloniously, wilfully, knowingly and corruptly, did falsely swear, declare and say, that by reason of defective eyesight — he, the said Henry Stannard — was then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance.

Whereas, in truth and in fact he, the said Henry Stannard was not by reason of defective eyesight —

then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance, as he then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that the said Henry Stannard in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, knowingly, corruptly and falsely, did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

FRED C. SCHRAUB, Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of New York; that, at the times hereinafter mentioned, one Reuben R. Stone was a retail dealer, and had his store in a room in number 2310 Eighth Avenue Street, in the City of New York County of New York within this State, and occupied and controlled such room; that on the 18th day of October 1893, deponent went into said Reuben R. Stone's said store and such room, so occupied and controlled by said Reuben R. Stone and then and there saw a quantity of the manufactured substance hereinafter mentioned in the said Reuben R. Stone's possession, kept for sale and offered for sale by said Reuben R. Stone that the same was contained in a tub which ~~was~~ was exposed for sale ~~upon the~~ in a Ice box of such store with other goods; that deponent then and there took a sample of such manufactured substance for analysis in the manner required by law; and thereafter, on October 19th 1893, deponent delivered such sample so taken by him as stated, to one Charles M. Stillwell who was and is known to deponent to have then been, and who since has been and is now, a chemist, practicing as such at number 55 Fulton Street, in the City of New County of New York within this State, and deponent caused the said substance to be analyzed by such chemist; that the certificate of such analysis made thereof, by said chemist, is hereto annexed; that such substance, so kept for sale and offered for sale and had by said Reuben R. Stone in his possession, was not butter the product of the dairy, and was not made from unadulterated milk or cream; that it was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from milk or cream, and had been made out of some animal fat or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated milk or cream of the same, and by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of natural milk, cream or butter, a quantity of such animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated milk or cream, so as to produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural butter produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream; that the said substance had been manufactured and was colored with some coloring matter whereby it was made to and did resemble butter, the product of the dairy; and was so colored thereby to be and was in imitation and semblance of natural butter, produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream; that on said October 18th 1893, when deponent was in the said Reuben R. Stone's store, the said Reuben R. Stone had his store open for business in the ordinary way and such substance was being offered for sale as stated in the ordinary course of said Reuben R. Stone's business; that the names and residences of the persons to whom the same was offered for sale and a more particular description of such manufactured substance, the ingredients thereof and the amount of the same are unknown to deponent and cannot be stated herein for that reason.

Deponent charges that the said Reuben R. I do not know whether or not it is the Eleventh Senatorial District.

I did not know that I was a candidate for the Constitutional Convention of this State for the 11th Senatorial District until after the Election was had. I was in the City of Boston Mass. from the 1st of Nov. 1893 until the 10th day of Nov. 1893. I did not vote at the Election held the 8th day of Nov. 1893. I did not expend one cent or contribute one cent either directly or indirectly, in aid of my Election to said office at said Election.

Not having received any notification that I was a candidate and not having any expended any money, I did think I was bound to file any statement of expenses.

It appears by the enclosed affidavit of the defendant herein that he did not know that he was a candidate for office until after the election was had.

He was absent in the city of Boston prior to the election and did not return until several days after. He did not receive any notification that he was a candidate and did not expend any money and did not think he was bound to file any bill of expenses.

Their being an entire absence of felonious intent on the part of the defendant, I think a proper disposition of this case is that the defendant be discharged upon his own undertaking, which I respectfully recommend.
