OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

James M. Hall

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment accuse James M. Hall — of the crime of Perjury, committed as follows :

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (the same being the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of the said month of November), there was held a general election throughout the State of New York and in and throughout the said City and County of New York ;

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, and at the said election, the said

James M. Hall, late of the City and County, being a resident of the Twenty-sixth Election District of the Eighth —

Assembly District of the said City and County, and a voter entitled to vote at the said election in the said election district, for the purpose of voting at the said election, did personally present himself at the duly designated polling place of the said election in and for the said election district, the polls of the said election in and for the said election district being then open, and to and before Thomas

McMahon, John A. Murphy and Charles J. Rogers, then and there being the Inspectors of Election of the said election district, at the said election, at a meeting of the said Inspectors of Election then being duly held in the said polling place for the purposes of the said election.

And the said James M. Hall did then and there desire and require of the said Inspectors of Election that he might select a person for the purpose of assisting him to receive and prepare his ballots, and who should be allowed to pass within the guard rail of the said polling place and receive his official ballots, and enter one of the voting booths of the said polling place, with him, and there assist him in preparing his ballot.

And thereupon he, the said James M. Hall was then and there in due form of law sworn, and did take his corporal oath, by and before the said Inspectors of Election, touching his right to select such person to assist him in receiving and preparing his ballots as aforesaid, they, the said Inspectors of Election, then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said James M. Hall in that behalf.

And the said James M. Hall, being so sworn as aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, before the said Inspectors of Election, then and there feloniously, wilfully, knowingly and corruptly, did falsely swear, declare and say, that by reason of defective eyesight

he, the said James M. Hall was then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance.

Whereas, in truth and in fact he, the said James M. Hall was not by reason of defective eyesight

then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance, as he then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that the said James M. Hall in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, knowingly, corruptly and falsely, did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Charles

Count of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Caving. Dec. 20. 1893 Indictment for larceny in second degree.

Wm. W. Wright, sworn and examined

What is your business? I am a professional cook. Where do you live? New London, Conn. Were you employed in the steamer city of Boston on the 11th of December? Yes. Do you recollect where it was lying that day? Yes I do; Pier No 40 North River in this city.

At about what time of day was it? I should think it was about 20 minutes to one o'clock in the day time.

Did you see the defendant Charles Harder there? Yes I did. Where was he?

He was in the forward gangway on the starboard side. What was he doing at the time? He was looking over the rail. Did you say anything to him? I did not. Did you see him after that? Yes. Where was he then?

In my room, the cook's room. My room is on the port side. What was in your room? There was wearing apparel - jackets, capes, overcoats and such like; also a few cooking utensils. I employ five men, and they owned the clothing. It was in your custody and keeping? Yes. What was the value of the clothing? The least calculation is sixty dollars. You say you saw the defendant in that room? Yes. How near were you to him when you saw him? I was about ten feet from him. What did you see him do if anything? He was rifling my second cook's pants pocket; he had his pants in his left hand and his right hand in his pocket in the forward part of the room. I saw him do it. Had he any right there at all? No right at all. Had you ever seen him there before? No. What did you do when you saw him doing this? I opened the door and I said, he was a damned thief. I told one of the men to go and get the policeman attached to the pier. I locked the door to keep him in. I did not go back to the state room at that time, but when I went back the defendant was not there. He got out. Mr. Nichols tried to stop him. He asked me if I would appear against him? and I said, yes. I said, "You stay here." He said, "No, I want, I have not done nothing."

150

Mr. Nichols followed him to the middle of the starboard side and the policeman took him - Did you have any talk with him? No. I did not, not at that time I did in the kitchen; he said he did not do anything; they could not do anything to him; they could search him; when he got out he would get square with ~~him~~.

By Counsel

You are a cook? Yes. You have never been in the old clothing business? No. By a rough guess I should say that the property was worth sixty dollars. I should judge from what I had in the room, I could not value it at any less. Where were the trousers when you saw them, were they on the bed? No, they were hanging up on the right hand side where my man left them, but he (the dependant) had them in the forward part of the room and I saw him rifling the pants pocket. But you did not see the trousers hanging up there? No I did not.

Where were the trousers when you saw him with his hand in the pocket? He was holding them in his left hand, he was not holding them up against the door, he was rifling them in his right hand. You say you could see his hand? Yes. I could see the hand in his pants pocket. What property was in that place belonging to you?

 There was two suits of clothes in that room and two pairs of shoes belonging to me, and there was thirteen dollars in money. I did not take a direct inventory of the clothes. Had I known you were going to ask me I would have done so. Could you get more than twenty five dollars for your property that was there? Yes, I had two suits of clothes and two pair of shoes. Don't you make allowance for the rest of the clothes belonging to the five men?
 Charles E. Nichols sworn and examined, testified. What is your business? I am steredore on pier No 40 of the Norwich line. Were you so employed on the 1st of September 1893? Yes. Did you see the defendant Charles Hadden there?
 Yes. What time was he there? I should judge between half past twelve and one o'clock. Where was he when you first saw him? I saw him coming out of the cook's room. There you were on the boat "The City of Boston"? Yes. Did he break the door open or how did he come out? He opened the door and walked out I should judge. Which way did he go? He walked about five or ten feet away and left the door open. I saw him open the door. He was inside the door at the time? Yes. The door was closed when I first went in on the boat. Where were you at the time you saw him come out? I was about five or ten feet from the door. I asked him what he was doing there? and he said he was waiting for some man on the little steamer that comes in at the same pier. The cook said that he saw him taking things out of his pants pocket. He said that in the presence of the defendant. What did he say? He said he did not take a thing - he was simply waiting for the boat to come. I asked the cook, "Do you want to make a charge against him? still holding him until the officer comes?" He said he had already sent for a policeman. Did the defendant run away or attempt to get away? No, he did not.

Charles Harder, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: Where did you work last? I made a trip on the steamer Cherokee to Florida, the Clyde line I was winter there, and I was second steward of one of the old Dominion steamships, the Wyandote. How long were you with them? All the summer. Where were you prior to that? I was on the yacht Miranda belonging to J. J. Coleman of California. I worked for him last winter until April. I was also employed on the Quarantine grounds. I had charge of the disinfectant boats under Dr. Jenkins during the cholera the Stonington and New Hampshire. I had twenty thousand dollars worth of goods. Surgeon Halpin and all his men were with me. Were you ever arrested charged with any offence before this or were you ever convicted of any crime? No. This complainant says that he saw you have a pair of trousers and that you were going through his pockets, is that true? No. Explain to the jury why you went on the boat? I was out of work for the last three weeks and I went down there to get a job of work. I saw the "Edward Clark" there which runs from the pier to Elizabethport, N. J., which hauls Singer Sewing machines. She had just pulled out to go on the east side. It was raining very hard and I thought I would go on the City of Boston to see what was doing there. I was talking to Mike a deck boy, and this fellow came by. I walked in the "glory hole," that is where all the colored help that works on the boat sleep. After I had went in I got up on the bed to see if there was anybody in there. Johnson used to be second cook on there. At that time a pair of pants dropped and I was picking them up. He slammed the door and halloed, "Thief, thief in the room." I could not get out; in about a minute somebody unlocked it and I came out. I met him and said, "If I am a thief, you must search me; come in your room and see if you have missed anything." He went in and he said, "Nothing is missing. Did you put your hand in the pocket of his trousers?" No, only picked the pants up and put them back on the bed. I got up on the berth to look over to see if anybody was there. There was not anybody there, and just as I went the pants fell. I picked them up, he slammed the door and caused excitement and I was locked up. Cross Examined. I was living at No 66 North st, opposite Jefferson Market. Where had you slept the night before you were arrested? I had slept in Third street, it is a nice, respectable place. I told them in the Police Court I had nowhere I could call my home. I was mad with the detective simply because he tried to make out that I had stole something. I went into this room on the boat because I knew Johnson, a fellow who used to cook on the boat. If I am not mistaken he used to work on the boat last winter. I cannot remember his first name. I last saw Johnson in New London on the same boat. I had no money on me when I was arrested. Officer James Mallon testified that he arrested the defendant. He said the second cook told him to go in there. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt to commit petty larceny.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER

Of the City and County of New York.

The People of the State of New York

against

Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles
and Patrick J. Maroney.

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK,

by this Indictment, accuse Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles and Patrick J. Maroney of refusing to perform a duty required of them as Inspectors of Election, by the election law, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (the same being the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of the said month of November), there was held a general election throughout the State of New York and in and throughout the City of New York; and on the day and in the year aforesaid, and at the said election, the said Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles and Patrick J. Maroney, all late of the said City and County, were Inspectors of Election of the Fifteenth Election District of the Second Assembly District of the said City and County, duly appointed, qualified, and then and there acting as such.

And before the day of the said election a certain political party called the Republican County Organization of the said County of New York, which had duly filed certificates of nomination of candidates for certain offices to be filled at the said election, by writing signed by the proper representative of the said organization, duly appointed one John D. Walton as a watcher to attend the polling place of the said election district on the day of the said election; and by the provisions of the election law the said John D. Walton, so being appointed as such watcher, was entitled, on the day of the said election, upon delivering the said writing to one of the ^{said} Inspectors of Election, to be present at the said polling place and within the guard rail thereof, from at least fifteen minutes before the unlocking and examination of the ballot boxes at the opening of the polls of the said election until after the announcement of the result of the canvass of the votes cast thereat, and the signing of the certificate thereof by the said Inspectors.

And on the day of the said election and after the opening of the polls of the said election in and for the said election district, but before the closing thereof, the said John D. Walton personally appeared before the said Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles and Patrick J. Maroney, so being such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, at the polling place of the said election district, and did then and there produce and deliver to the said Inspectors his said written appointment as such watcher to attend the said polling place as aforesaid and did then and there desire and require that the said Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles and Patrick J. Maroney, as such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, permit him to be present at the said polling place and within the guard rail thereof, thence during the said election.

And the said Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles and Patrick J. Maroney, being such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, well knowing the premises, and the duty so required of them and the right and authority of the said John D. Walton as such watcher as aforesaid, but wholly disregarding the same, then and there feloniously did refuse to permit the said John D. Walton to be present at the said polling place and within the guard rail thereof at any time during the said day, as well while the polls of the said election in and for the said election district were open as thereafter, and thence continually until after the announcement of the result of the canvass of the votes cast thereat, and the signing of the certificate thereof, by the said Inspectors; and during all of the said time did then and there feloniously exclude the said John D. Walton from within the said guard rail; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided; and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Heretofore, to wit: On Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (the same being the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of the said month of November), there was held a general election throughout the State of New York, and in and throughout the said City and County of New York.

for the purpose of conducting such election, at the hour of six o'clock in the forenoon of the said day, and continued such meeting until the closing of the polls of the said election, and thereafter until the votes cast thereat had been canvassed, the result announced and the certificate thereof duly signed.

And the said Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles and Patrick J. Maroney, so being such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, were then and there required by the election law, among other things, to refuse admittance within the guard-rail of the said polling place from the time of such meeting as aforesaid, until the announcement of such result and the signing of such certificate thereof, and to exclude from within such guard-rail all persons except themselves, and the poll clerks and ballot clerks of the said election district, persons admitted by them to preserve order or enforce the law, persons admitted for the purpose of voting, persons duly admitted to assist disabled voters, and persons lawfully designated by candidates to be present at such canvass; and to prevent more than one person from occupying one voting booth in the said polling place at the same time, except only in case where a voter should declare under oath to them that by reason of total blindness, loss of both hands, such total inability in both hands that he could not use either hand for ordinary purposes, or physical disability by reason of crippled condition or disease to enter the booth alone, he was unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance, in which case such voter might, by the election law, select a person for that purpose who should be allowed by the said inspectors to pass within the said guard-rail and receive such ballots and to enter the said voting booth with such voter and there assist him in preparing his ballot.

Nevertheless, the said Philip H. Hargrave, William J. Giles and Patrick J. Maroney, so being such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, well knowing the premises, then and there feloniously did omit, refuse and neglect to perform the acts so required of them by the election law as aforesaid, and then and there and especially between the time of such meeting as aforesaid, and the opening of the polls of the said election in and for the said election district and the closing thereof, did feloniously admit within the guard-rail of the said polling place, and omit and neglect to refuse admittance within such guard-rail, or to exclude from within the same one Thomas Foley, and divers other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, not being poll clerks or ballot clerks of the said election district, or duly authorized watchers, or persons admitted by them to preserve order or enforce the law, or persons admitted for the purpose of voting, or persons duly admitted to assist disabled voters, or persons lawfully designated by candidates to be present at the said canvass; and then and there during the time aforesaid, to wit: between the opening and closing of the polls of the said election, did feloniously suffer and permit more than one person to occupy one voting booth in the said polling place at the same time, and omit, refuse and neglect to prevent more than one person from occupying one voting booth at the same time, to wit: did feloniously suffer and permit the said

Thomas Foley, and divers other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, to pass within the said guard-rail of the said polling place and to receive the ballots of divers voters of the said election district who had not declared under oath to the said inspectors that for any of the reasons aforesaid they were unable to receive or prepare their ballots without assistance; and did feloniously allow such persons after they had received the ballots of such voter to enter the voting booths in the said polling place with such voters (they the said voters not having made such declaration under oath as aforesaid, to the said inspectors), and to occupy such voting booths at the same time with them; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
