City and County of New York ss:

Ambrose H. Purdy being duly sworn says: that he is one of the Attorneys for the above named defendant. That the said Peck was arrested on or about the 4th day of Sept 1890. That on the 5th day of Sept he was arraigned before Police Justice at the Jefferson Market Police Court and was there held on a charge of Grand Larceny in default of $7000 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. That on or about the 16th day of Sept, the Grand Jury presented an indictment against said Peck charging him with the crime of Grand Larceny and on the 16th day of Sept, he was arraigned at the bar of the Court of General Sessions in Part One thereof to plead to said indictment and thereupon he interposed a plea of not guilty. That on the 18th day of Sept the case was placed on the Calendar of Part Three of this Court, and was then and there tried before the Hon. James A. Fitzgerald, one of the Judges of the Court of General Sessions, and a jury who was sitting at that time in Part Three thereof. That said trial resulted in a disagreement of said jury, they standing eleven for acquittal and one for conviction. And deponent further says that the said Peck has ever since been confined and is still confined in the City Prison

George W. Watson }
City and County of New York, ss.
Emily Todd, being duly sworn, says, I am a widow and reside at 253 West 28th Street, City of New York. That Samuel Peck, who is indicted for the stealing of a watch from George W. Watson is her son. That on the 13th of September, 1890, the said Watson came to my house and said to me that if I would give him $25, he would not appear and testify against my son. That she told the said Watson, she was not rich and could not shake the money from the trunk of a tree. "What makes you to demand so much money from me?" That the said Watson thereupon replied: "O, I must have it, I must have it, that if you do not get me the money, I will send your son higher than a kite." That deponent then promised to said Watson that she would try to get the 0857

said money from her daughter.
That on the 13th of September, 1890, before the said Watson had been called into the Grand Jury Room, deponent paid the said Watson the sum of $12. This was on the first floor of the Court of General Sessions building.
When deponent paid the said money to said Watson, he said to her, that he would settle the case against her over P. Peck, that he would get her off, whereupon deponent replied, that if he was not sure whether he could do any good to her said son, he should not take the said money. That said Watson again assured her that he would make it easy for her son. That deponent promised the said Watson to pay him the balance of $13 as soon as she could, and the said Watson said, that he must have the said money before they went into the court room. That on the 18th of September 1890, in the building of the Court of General Sessions, I gave to my son-in-law, William Eato, the said balance of $13 for the purpose of handing the same to said Watson. That the said Eato afterwards assured me that he had paid the said money to said Watson. That at the conversation between me and the said Watson at my house on the 13th of September 1890, there was present Mrs. Anne Paine, that she heard the greater part of said conversation. That she lives in 253 West 23rd Street, N. Y. sworn to before me } Truly told this 26th of Sept. 1890 }

Police Court—2 District.City and County } of New York, } ss.:Gertrude Weaver of No. 340 West 17th Street, aged 29 years, occupation Housekeeper being duly sworndeposes and says, that the premises No. 340 West 17th Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a five story and basement brick dwelling and which was occupied by deponent as a dwelling on the 1st floor back and in which there was at the time a human being, by name unnamedwere BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening the front door of said premiseson the 22 day of August 1880 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:two silk dresses of the value of fifty dollars two pairs of sleeve buttons of the value of two dollars, and eight dollars and seventy cents in money all of the value of about sixty dollars $ 60 —the property of Deponent and member of her family and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Edward Pertellfor the reasons following, to wit: Deponent is informed by Mrs. Cara Hewitt, now her, who was left in charge of said premises, that she securely locked and closed the said premises on Friday August 22 1880. Deponent returned on the same night and found the said goods missing. The defendant had been previously coming to the house and was suspected and accused of the theft, and he confessed to deponent and the officer John Carey of the 16th Precinct that the defendant had entered the said premises with a key and stolen said property in deponent's absence, and pawned it, and the pawn tickets for the aforesaid dresses and sleeve buttons were found in possession of the defendant by the said Carey.

Wendenburgh into public scandal and disgrace, and to injure and aggrieve him and to cause it to be believed that he, the said A. P. Bredenburgh, had been guilty of gross and fraudulent irregularities in his accounts as such Secretary-Treasurer, and had fraudulently falsified the books and accounts of the said club, unlawfully and maliciously did publish and cause and procure to be published in a certain newspaper and publication known as the "Forest and Stream", published in the said City and County, a certain false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel, of and concerning the said A. P. Bredenburgh in a certain part of which said libel there were contained certain false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory and libellous words and matters, of and concerning the said A. P. Bredenburgh, according to the tenor and effect following, that is to say:

I have also opposed the financial management of this club (meaning the said American Kennel Club) and for fear that I may have been misunderstood, permit me ^{to} now to say that the financial management, as evinced by ^{the} reports made, are not only false and fraudulent, false because they are not true and fraudulent because they have been made with the intention to deceive,

A few days after this meeting, while the writer of this was in the American Kennel Club (meaning the said American Kennel Club), office Mr. Bredenburg (meaning the said A. P. Bredenburg) stated to me out of his own mouth, substantially that I had made no mistake in nominating Mr. Belmont, as he had come into the office mourning over the smallness of the bank account, and replenished it with a large sum of money.

At the annual meeting of the American Kennel Club, (meaning the said American Kennel Club) which was held Feb. 21, 1889, Mr. Bredenburg (meaning the said A. P. Bredenburg) as treasurer made two reports, commencing from Dec. 5, 1888, and showing the balance as reported at the previous meeting, $5.39, and on Jan. 11. $1,228.28. If any book-keeper will now take these two amounts and examine them, there is only one conclusion that he can come to, and that is this, that they are false.

The item of $1,228.28, was not earned by the club (meaning the said American Kennel Club). There was no possible resource from which the club could earn this item, and the club (meaning the said American Kennel Club) did not earn it, it was either borrowed, book-kept or juggled into the accounts.

and in a certain other part of which said libel. There were contained certain other false, scandalous, malicious, defamatory, and libellous words and matters of and concerning the said A. P. Audenburgh, according to the tenor and effect following, that is to say: May 8, 1888, the American Kennel Club treasurer (meaning the said A. P. Audenburgh's) report shows $128.01 on hand; secretary goes to Europe, returns Dec. 3, 1888.

Dec. 6, 1888, makes a report dated Dec. 5, balance on hand $5.39.

At same meeting asked to have registration fee increased 100 per cent, because stud book was always published at a loss.

In same month ^{states to} ~~to~~ the writer received a large amount of money from the President, Feb. 21, 1889, makes two reports on one day, which show upon their face fully as much jugglery as could have been gotten into one report in two days.

January, 1890 secretary and treasurer (meaning the said A. P. Bredenburg) published an annual statement showing that from and during the year 1889, he (meaning the said A. P. Bredenburg) had received from the dog men and breeders of this country $8,312.26, and that he (meaning the said A. P. Bredenburg) and a few others had expended $4,027.66, and yet he (meaning the said A. P. Bredenburg) had ^{tried} failed to show in any of his reports where the dog men and breeders have received any benefit from the expenditures of this money, for no stud book was published during the year, and for some two months thereafter, to the great damage, scandal, disgrace, and injury to the said A. P. Bredenburg, against the form of the Statute in such case made.
