 The People vs Charles Concklin } Court of General Sessions. Part 7.
 Indictment for grand larceny in the ^{2nd} degree. Augustus Anderson, sworn and examined. I lived at 756 Greenwich St. at that time, I am a waiter now in the James B. Baldwin foot of Harrison St; on the 8th of last Nov. I lost a clock worth $1.50 and a suit of clothes which cost me $29. I had worn them about four weeks. I charge Concklin with stealing them; he came in in the morning and said he had been on a racket all night electioneering. Will you give me some breakfast? He said, "Here is a dollar, go out and get some country sausages, don't be long." I picked up my basket and went, I was not gone long, and when I came back Charles and the suit of clothes and the clock was gone. I locked my door right away and reported to the Charles St. station house, and the police man went around with me to these pawnshops. I did not see the property since the detective went around to four or five pawnshops and never found them. I found Charles three weeks ago. He came on board the boat with an Italian, and he told me he was trying to beat him out of some money. So I followed him to Broadway and had him arrested.

Cross Examined. How long after you lost your clock was it that this man was arrested, and where was he? I followed him to Broadway. I never saw him till two or three weeks ago. About six months afterwards you found him? Yes sir. And he came right where you are employed? Yes sir, aboard the boat. He knew that you were employed there? No sir, he did not know that I was employed there. And he spoke to you before you spoke to him, didn't he? Yes sir. How long have you known him? I know him about two months. Have you got that dollar yet? No sir. Did you buy the sausages? I bought the groceries.
Thomas Beatty, sworn and examined, testified. You are an officer of the Twenty fifth precinct? Yes sir. Did you arrest the defendant, Concklin? Yes sir. When? About three weeks ago corner of Franklin street and Broadway. On whose complaint? That last complainant, the colored man. Is that all you know about it? That is all. What did Concklin say when you arrested him? He did not say anything.

Charles Concklin, sworn and examined, in his own behalf testified: Did you take this man's clock or clothing? I did not take anything. Did you meet him that morning? No sir. He took me in at night time at 11 o'clock. I was intoxicated; he took me up stairs and put me in another room in a bed. I got up in the morning and found him lying aside of me. So he made some badness that he wanted to do. I got up and he went for 25 cents worth of whiskey; then when he came back he asked me if I would give him some money to buy breakfast. I drank some of the whiskey, but do not remember whether I drank it all or not. My head got dizzy, I got sick. I went up to a wheelrights shop and heaved up. I took the cars and went home. Then he asked me for money to go after the whiskey in the morning. I gave him a dollar. The reason you were not on hand was because the whiskey had that effect upon you? My head went like a top. I don't know whether anything was in it or not. I was not working on a boat in November. I generally live on a boat in summer. I took a room then at Mrs.

0249

Built in Greenwich St. near Canal that I believe it is a big tenement house. If I had not been drinking I would not have gone with the complainant. I have been to work on a Railroad this winter for three months. A month after November I went to work on the Newburgh Railroad. In Nov. I believe I was driving a truck for Mr. Everett down in Barclay St; he is in the Produce business - lemons and oranges. I think I drove the truck a couple of weeks. After you knocked off driving a truck what did you do? I went on the West Shore Railroad - a new road. the contractors were Reilly and McLaughlin; it is about seven weeks ago since I knocked off there. About three weeks ago I commenced to work on a summer produce steamer Wilson. The Captain's name is Burn; Jack was the pilot's name; "Ben" Cooper was the name of the young man I worked with. Augustus Anderson recalled. I did not meet the prisoner the night before at 11 o'clock; he came to my house at five o'clock in the morning. I did not go out for any whiskey, but for groceries and when I came back he was gone with the clothes. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

 The People vs. James Cooney
 Court of General Sessions. Part 7
 Before Recorder Smythe. June 26th 1883 Indictment for assault in the second degree. John Delaney, sworn and examined.
 testified. I am acting sergeant of the municipal police. On the second of January I was detailed to arrest the bar tender at 144 West St. the place I believe was kept by a man named Kelly. I had a warrant for the arrest of a man named Dunn, who used to be in his employ. I cannot speak loud because I have a bullet in my throat. I went into 144 West St.; the ^{defendant} was bar tender there. I asked for a glass of seltzer water and he gave it to me, and then I told him I wanted to see him privately. He said, "Not just now, wait a few moments." I stepped back to the end of the bar, where there was an ice box. I remained in the rear of the ice box for about ten minutes. Cooney did not come.
 Then I went up stairs to where the man Kelly was supposed to live, that owned the place. I had got up to the third flight of stairs when I heard some noise and looked behind then at the landing, and a man says to me, "God damn you, come down." Then I turned around to 0298

see who it was, and I say, "you had better not interfere with me, I am a police officer." He says, "Damn you, police officer, who cares for you?" I said, "I am a policeman, and there is a warrant for the arrest of a man and you had better not interfere with me." He knocked the warrant out of my hand. (That man was McGowan, who is now dead) He struck me over the eye with a pistol. I was falling, I caught the stairs and heard somebody coming up. It was Corney. I say, "Bar tender, assist me to arrest this man, I am an officer, he has assaulted me." The bar tender (Corney) got in between McGowan and myself. McGowan was trying to ~~throw~~ ^{throw} me down stairs. The defendant got in between us, got hold of me and tried to push me down stairs. I told him not to do that, that if the dead man (meaning McGowan) escaped I would hold him responsible and have him punished for it. He said, "you damned dick, what is the matter with you, am not I using you like a gentleman?" I will show you if this man escapes," I said. With that the door opened behind me, and blood was rolling down my face. I stopped to get a handkerchief to rub the blood off my face. Magowan ran down stairs and I started after him; the defendant caught hold of me and held me on the stairs. I told him not to do that, I would have him arrested. I went down stairs, and he followed me all the way down, and at the bottom of the stairs he says, "you damned chuffer, I'll kill you if it took me nine years." I passed out on the sidewalk. There was a coach outside; this man Magowan was in the coach. I took hold of Magowan in the coach; he had a pistol in his hand. I brought him out on the sidewalk and had him on the sidewalk; the defendant came in between me and Magowan, pushed me one side, pushed Magowan into the coach and told the driver to go ahead. I then started after the coach on the sidewalk when Magowan put his pistol through the window and swore he would shoot me if I followed the coach. I told him I would arrest him if it cost my life. I went in the rear of the coach and Magowan jumped out in the rear of the coach and shot me through the (hole in the rear part of the coach). Then I fired and killed him. This was upon the 2nd of January about twelve o'clock at noon. I was not able to take the defendant to the station house I was shot. I went to the station house and gave information to Capt. Petty. Officers were sent to arrest the defendant. The warrant I had was in the name of John Doe, as the complainant did not know his name. The man was charged with larceny. A countryman by the name of James Nolan from Danbury Conn. went in there with another person to have a glass of beer and they laid down a twenty dollar bill in payment for the same and the money was kept and not returned, at least he said so. Cross examined. I never saw the defendant but twice. I do not know that he knew I was a policeman when I went in first. I had been assaulted by Magowan before the defendant came on the stair case. I asked him to assist me, but he got between me and Magowan.

0299

0300

0301

The defendant did not pick me up from the floor, he did not assist to protect me. John Murphy, sworn and examined. I live at 143 Sullivan St. I am a coach driver and was driving the coach in which Magowan was shot. I saw Cooney and Delaney on this day. Delaney had hold of Magowan and I saw Cooney separate them. I heard the door of the coach slam and some one told me to go ahead. I saw Cooney come out of the saloon into the street. Peter Richardson sworn. I am an officer of the Sixth Precinct. I saw Cooney on the 2nd of January. I heard him say that he would get square with Delaney if it took him ten years. A man came to the station house and said there was an officer getting killed at Bester St. Officers McFry and myself ran around. I saw a large crowd gathered and the defendant was talking very loud. I asked him what the trouble was. I could not get any satisfaction. I heard him say, "I will kill him if it takes me ten years to do it." I learned afterwards that he meant Delaney. He went into the saloon. Sergeant Lewis went in and arrested him and brought him out of the saloon; this was after the shooting.

0302

James Looney, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I live in Hudson, N. Y. I have been in the city fifteen months. I had been working as a barkeeper in this place about five weeks. Mr. Delaney came in; he had two gentlemen with him from Danbury Conn. He asked for seltzer. I had none and gave him soda; he stepped back and says to me, "Come here. I want to see you." I said, "Excuse me for a minute." There was a wine party in front of the bar, Tilly Carpenter and others. The officer opened the door and went up stairs and Magowan after him. I say, "I am going up stairs to stop that trouble." I knew Magowan had a pistol; he shot one of the shots off in the saloon. So I goes up stairs. I finds Mr. Delaney lying on the floor in the room, the door open. He says, "Assist me." I picked him up and brought him to the bottom of the stairs. He says, "Let go of me." So I let go of him; he rushes out of the side door. I goes in and goes behind the bar and looks out of the window. Magowan was in the coach and this woman was in the coach. Delaney had hold of the knot of the coach. I went up to him and just touching him. I said, "Get away from there, Delaney, that man will hurt you. He has got a pistol." He says, "Let go of me." I let go of him, and the coach drove on. I never assaulted Delaney, I never raised my hand to him. I did not take the prisoner Magowan away from him and did not tell the coach to drive off. I did not push Magowan into the coach because the lady was in the front of the coach. I did not separate Magowan and Delaney in the street. Did you see Sergeant Delaney attempt to arrest this again? Yes sir, he had his hand on the knob of the coach.

By the Court Q. Sergeant Delaney said that he had hold of this man Magowan on the sidewalk. he says that you came between him and Magowan and separated them, is that true? No sir. Well now, the witness, the hackdriver, Murphy says that he saw you pass between Sergeant Delaney and Magowan and separate them, is that true? No sir. Magowan was in the coach. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty according to the indictment.

The Recorder in sentencing the prisoner said that the officer acted with great bravery. He was in the midst of ruffians, armed men who did not regard the taking of human life. It is necessary to make an example in this case for two reasons: first, any person who commits an assault upon an officer who is engaged in the discharge of a public duty ought to be punished more severely than if the assault was made upon a private citizen. In this case where the officer was discharging his duty in a proper way and without any necessary violence or harsh conduct on his part he was brutally assailed. It requires that an example should be made for the purpose of deterring other men of the same character and the same calling from engaging in similar offences. The sentence of the Court is that the prisoner be imprisoned at hard labor in the State Prison for the term of five years, that he be fined one thousand dollars and that he stand committed until the fine is paid, not exceeding a day for each dollar fine.
