v. 2/89

The People v. George Williams } Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cowing. Feb. 12. 1889

Indictment for grand larceny in second degree.

Anita L. Hare, sworn and examined, testified. I reside at 16 West 95th St., and at the time this complaint was made I resided at 243 West Thirty Fourth St. I remember on the 11th of last January being in Fifty Fourth St. between Lexington and Fourth Aves. about a quarter past Three; the defendant came up to my side, he walked alongside of me, my head was in that position looking up; he came alongside of me and looked in my face, I supposed he was going to speak to me. After he glanced at me in that way, I looked at him; he instantly took my pocket book and twisted my wrist and ran. I instantly ran after him. I had my pocket book in my left hand; it had fifty eight dollars and some change in it. When he took the pocket book he instantly turned around and ran back to Lexington Ave. I was going toward Fourth Ave. I can not tell from what direction the prisoner came. I did not see him until he was right at my side. I next saw him at the Police Headquarters about ten days or two weeks after. I was invited to go there. I saw him in company with other persons at Police Headquarters. I should think there were about ten people. I identified him there. I have never received the pocketbook. Cross Examined. I was looking up at the flat building, looking up in that direction when the prisoner came up to me. I ran from the spot he took the pocketbook to about the middle of the next block in Fifty Third Street. I saw him go over the bridge at Ninth Avenue. I kept my eye on him till he got to the top of the bridge; that is the last I saw of him. I went at once to the Police station in Fifty first St. and reported my loss there, and about two weeks after I was sent for to go to Police Headquarters. I was invited to go into a room to look at some men [A prisoner named Clark was called to the bar.] I do not remember whether he (Clark) was one of the men whom I saw at Police Headquarters; there were a number of young men in a row, more than four; according to my best belief there were nine or ten; there was quite a circle. I won't say Clark was not there. I never saw the prisoner to my knowledge before the time he took my pocketbook. I think there is no doubt that the prisoner is the one. I would be only too glad to give him the doubt if I could.

Counsel: Men go by their intuition.

Witness: He looked too well in my face to have any intuition about it.

John Cottrell, sworn and examined, testified. I am an officer attached to Police Headquarters. The complainant did not come to me in relation to losing the pocket book. I made the arrest. I did not arrest the defendant on the complaint of the complainant in this case. I arrested him on the platform of the Elevated Station in 14th street at half past six o'clock in the evening in company with Clark. This young man who stood up beside him. I was present when this lady identified him at Police Headquarters. I went out and got four boys, Clark was five and two Headquarters men, which made seven or eight. — There were ~~four~~ ^{three} boys about the size of the defendant; the two men from Headquarters were Mangin and Woodridge. Mangin is a very short man. I got the smallest men I could. She (the complainant) identified and picked out the defendant at once; she did not hesitate a moment; she said, "you are the rascal that stole my pocket book." One of the Headquarters men had a little whisker coming on the side of his face, Woodridge, the other man had no whiskers. I have frequently seen the defendant before I arrested him. I brought the defendant and Clark to the Police Headquarters. The complainant in this case made a complaint which was entered on the books giving an accurate description of him - I knew at the time I arrested him that the description was on the books, but I had not seen the lady's description of the person who stole the pocket book that was on the books. I arrested him for another offence and after I brought him to the Police Headquarters then I looked over the book. I found a description that I thought answered him and then I notified the lady. I arrested him at the Elevated station for some other cause than the one in relation to this complaint on the books. In that description she mentioned the mark on his chin.

Amita L. Bare recalled. I noticed that the defendant had a mark on his face, a scar around his face. I recognized him by other marks; that was one feature of identification. George Williams, sworn and examined, in his own behalf testified. I am going on seventeen years old. I was bell boy in a hotel. I was born in New York; my mother and father are dead. I worked in the Adelphi hotel Twenty eighth street and Sixth Avenue. I was working on the telegraph before that. I was not working anywhere when I was arrested; the hotel was closed up. I was working in the hotel last winter; the Adelphi hotel was closed up about a month ago. I am sure I did not snatch the lady's pocketbook out of her hand. I am pretty sure I was laid up with my feet on the 11th of January. Where did you room? No 140 West Twenty Eighth street; it is a tenement house.

 Did you pay your rent? Yes sir. I don't know the landlord, but I was living with a lady named Mr. Hughes - the lady who sent the letter down this morning. I had no room mate; a boy named Barry who roomed next to me; there was a door leading into my room. On the 11th of January I was home sick; the 11th was on Friday I was taken sick about ten days before that. I have rheumatism in my knees; they were swollen up. I do not say I was in bed all day. I went out about five o'clock in the night. I went round to the restaurant and got something to eat. I was in my room all the following day, Saturday. I cannot fix the time exactly, but I recollect being sick. Barry came into the room to see me; he stayed with me part of the day. I was sick nearly two weeks. I walked around a little, I cannot hardly walk. I know I was in bed all day Saturday. I don't know whether I was in all day on Friday. Cross Examined. I never was arrested here before. Is this the first time you have ever been in Court? Yes sir in New York. I was arrested once in Albany. I was there selling programmes there at a fair last summer. There was a young fellow there who commenced to talk to me, and a man came up and arrested us. He said, "This young fellow was a pick pocket. I did not have anything on me, only some money belonging to myself. A pocket book was found on him, and a lady said it was her pocket book; so I got arrested with him because the lady identified the pocket book. I went under the name of George Williams when I was arrested. I went under the name of O'Brien when I worked as a messenger in the District Telegraph Co. I gave a false name. I worked in the District Telegraph Co's office nearly five weeks. I was not discharged from there. I resigned; that was over a year ago. I don't know why I gave the false name of O'Brien. I had done nothing to cause me to give a false name. I worked at Park and Tilford's store in Thirty Eighth Street, I cannot exactly say how long it was; it is a pretty good while though; it was before I worked in Park and Tilford's. I gave the name of O'Brien there. Neither my father or mother are living. They were not living when I worked in Park and Tilford's. I worked there nearly two years ago.

I resigned from Park & Tilford's. I worked in different places before I worked in Park & Tilford's. I worked in a fancy store in Twenty Third St. I think the No. was 46; ladies kept it, they haven't the place any more, they sold out. I gave the name of O'Brien when I worked there. The first place I went to sell programmes was in Albany; Clark was not with me. I never sold programmes with him. Albany is the only place I was arrested in in this State. I never sold programmes in any other place than Albany. I got a hundred days in Albany. I gave the name of George Williams there; I assumed that name for the first time in Albany. I had forty five dollars in the Union Sime Bank. I cannot explain where I had the balance of the hundred dollars. Clark was minding it for me. I gave it to him before I went up there to Albany. I gave him about sixty five dollars. I did not want to take it up there with me. I took up about fifteen dollars. The sixty five dollars were not the proceeds of a theft committed by me and Clark. He (Clark) was not a stranger to me. I used to see him around. I knew nothing bad about him, I knew he would not take my money. I did not want to put the forty five dollars in the Union Sime Bank. I went up to Albany early in the morning and I gave the money to Clark the night before. I got the sixty five dollars when I left work in the hotel. I carried it about a week. I never trusted Clark with money before. I was in the habit of seeing him around the restaurant I went to. It was about ten o'clock at night when I gave him the money. I saw Clark when I came back from Albany. I was never with Clark when he was arrested. The night of the arrest when he was with me on the elevated station he was coming from the doctor. I was going on the elevated station and met him on Fourteenth street. I just met him by chance. I saw him that morning. I made no appointment with him. I met him on the stairs around six o'clock. Clark and I did not mix in among the crowd; there was a pretty big crowd there. The officer came over and told me he wanted me. I stood over by the newsstand looking for a paper. I left the Adelphi hotel before Christmas. I was taken sick around New Year. I was confined to my room about two weeks. I had no doctor. I used Buds Extract. My ankles were swollen. A friend of mine named Gorton rubbed them. Clark did not attend me during my sickness. A juror was withdrawn and the prisoner pleaded guilty. He was sent to the State prison for three years.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this

Indictment accuse E. Wilson Woodruff, Henry S. Ives

and George H. Stagner

of the crime of Grand Larceny in the first degree committed as follows:

The said E. Wilson Woodruff late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twenty-second day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there an officer, to wit: the treasurer of a certain corporation known as the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad Company, and as such officer and treasurer then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation, the true owner thereof, to wit: sixty-five written instruments and evidences of debt, that is to say: sixty-five certain bonds and written obligations called mortgage bonds, made and issued by a certain corporation called the Cincinnati, Richmond and Chicago Railroad Company, being then and there wholly unsatisfied of the denomination and for the payment of one thousand dollars each, and of the value of one thousand dollars each, the said E. Wilson Woodruff afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said goods, chattels and personal property to his own use, and to the use of the said Henry S. Dves and George H. Stayner, with intent to deprive and defraud the said corporation of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the said Henry S. Dves and George H. Stayner, both late of the City and County aforesaid, then and there, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, were feloniously concerned in the commission of the said felony and larceny by the said E. Wilson Woodruff in manner and form aforesaid, and were then and there feloniously present aiding and abetting the said E. Wilson Woodruff in the commission of the same, and him, the said E. Wilson Woodruff, so to commit the said felony and larceny in manner and form aforesaid did then and there feloniously counsel, command, induce and procure.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that the said E. Wilson Woodruff, Henry S. Dves and George H. Stayner the said goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation in manner and form aforesaid feloniously did steal: against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, and
