in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a four story brick building and which was occupied by deponent as a factory and in which there was at the time ^{no} human being, by name were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking a window open on the second floor on the 14 day of September 1895 in the ~~day~~ time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

tools &c of the value of over brass goods three hundred dollars

$300

the property of Deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by George Wagner William Doran and William F. Follen

for the reasons following, to wit: Deponent left the said property seemingly locked up in said premises on the night of the 13th of September and when Deponent went to said place on the next morning the place was found broken open and the said property was missing. Deponent is informed by Policemen

William Brown and John F. Clarke now here that the, learned from investigation as a policeman that the defendants had committed said burglary and the defendant Wagner admitted to the said officer that he went to defendant said premises with the other defendants and received a part of said property and disposed of it at a junk shop, and the said Wagner pointed out the junk shop No. 564 Greenfield street as the place where said property had been sold by himself, acting in concert with the other defendants. And defendant is informed by Margaret Craig, the proprietor of said junk shop that she bought a quantity of brass goods similar to those stolen from defendant's place, about the time of the committing of said burglary.
