Indictment Number Two.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, A c c u s e ALEXANDER MEAKIM, EDWARD T. FITZPATRICK and JOSEPH KOCH, of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit, on the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and at all the times ^{herein} mentioned, the said Alexander Meakim, Edward T. Fitzpatrick and Joseph Koch, were Commissioners of Excise of the City and County of New York, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, and as such Commissioners then and there constituted and composed the Board of Excise of the City and County of New York.

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, one, RICHARD W.G. WELLING, a

Hugh R. Mueck.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I would most earnestly request this Hon^{ble} Court to permit me to withdraw my complaint for the following reasons to wit:

The defendant & I resided in the same house and were engaged in some business transaction. He is honest & upright. & his people who are in Germany are highly respectable & very well off. He is only twenty years of age and has been in prison since the 13th day of May. & I think he has been sufficiently punished. If he is discharged I have reasons to believe he will return to his good people in Germany & remain with them.

On April 28th 1890 at 2 A.M. o'clock, while Jim Kee was asleep in his bunk in his store, 339 Madison Street, the prisoners broke the front door open by breaking off the bolts, they woke Jim Kee up . The largest man of the two caught Jim Kee by the throat, while the small man hit him with a lamp on the head, made it bleed, Jim Kee hollered for the police and ran out in the yard. They hit him with the lamp and a glass then the policeman came and arrested the prisoners. They cut his head seven times.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the City and County of New York.

The People of the State of New York

— against —

Rod [unclear]

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse Rod [unclear] of the crime of Selling Intoxicating Liquors and Wines as a Beverage on Election Day, committed as follows:

The said Rod [unclear] late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 10th day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand, eight hundred and eighty nine, the same being a day on which a general election was held throughout the State of New York and in the said City and County, of the City and County aforesaid, and within one-quarter of a mile from a certain polling-place there, where the said election was then being held, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to Edward W. [unclear], Edward E. [unclear], and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Second Count.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said Rod [unclear] of the crime of Keeping Open on Election Day, a place licensed for the Sale of Strong and Spirituous Liquors, Wines, Ale and Beer, committed as follows:

The said Rod [unclear], late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being a day on which a general election was held throughout the State of New York, and in the said City and County, being then and there in
