I have no personal knowledge that the accused drew the money from the Bank on this check - I did not see him get the money. I never saw the check since I signed it until its return from the Bank -

Redeemed by Mr Sanger

The body of the $50. check is in the prisoners writing. The number of the check 1187 & figures 50 are in his handwriting.

I did not receive the money on that check - Check for $500 dated Dec 1st is in my handwriting. It is numbered 1188, the book now here is my check book. The $5 check does not now appear as having been entered on the stubs - In stub of check book 1188 - the amount of $500 appears in the prisoners handwriting.

I never received this $50⁰⁰ The figures on this stub 50 has been altered from a 5.
The prisoner kept my Cash & Check Book. The Cash book is now here - The Entries on page 128 are in prisoners handwriting. On the ~~30th~~ 1st of December there is the following entry in this Cash book in depts handwriting
HM wool no 188 50.00
When the receipt is in the 5000 next following the figure 5 - there has been an erasure. It appears to have been altered from a 5. But from my examination of this entry I am convinced that it has been altered from 5.00 to 50.00 & that the alteration was in changing the figure 5 to an receipt & writing a figure 5 to the left of it - This figure 5 to the left is in depts handwriting.

0350

The $5 drawn on check 1188 does not appear on the Book now - I received this amount.
The $50 is numbered 1187.
There was a check given by me & numbered 1187. It is here produced & appears on the stub of the check - It was given to the Bank of British North America & paid. It is correctly entered by the defendant in my cash book on p payment of the $50 check
