Charles O'Connor

of No. 67 James Street, aged 29 years, occupation Laborer being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 2nd day of July 1889 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and person of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States of the value of Four dollars the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by John Riorden, (now here)for the reasons that on said day deponent was lying asleep on a bench in the lodging house at above premises and deponent had said money in the pocket of the pantaloons then worn on his person and part of his bodily clothing. Deponent was awakened by a movement at said pocket and saw the defendant having his hand in said pocket. Deponent thereupon seized said money
