and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Fannie Nelson (now here) from the fact that at about the hour of one o'clock P.M. said date, deponent and the said defendant were together in a room in the premises No. 46 West 44th Street, and at that time deponent had the aforesaid ring upon the third finger of her left hand. Deponent went to sleep and when she awoke in three or four hours thereafter, the defendant called deponent's attention to the fact that said ring was missing. Deponent is informed by Officer Edward Armstrong of the Central Office Police

that the said defendant gave him a pawn ticket representing a diamond ring which had been pawned in Silchester pawn office at no 10 10th Avenue on the 1st day of June 1888 for twenty five dollars.
Defendant further says that she has since been to said pawn office and there saw said ring &c represented by said pawn ticket, and fully identified it as her property.

Wherefore defendant charges the said defendant with feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property from the person of defendant.
