State of New York

City and County of New York / S:

Charles Sears
of No. 350 Washington Street, being duly sworn, says: that he resides at Mount of Mercy, Orange County

State of New York, is 50 years of age and an Agent appointed by Hon. Josiah H. Brown, the New York Dairy Commissioner. That at the time herein after mentioned one Emanuel Traugott was a Manufacturer of Homogenized, and had his factory in a building in premises No. 188 West Houston Street in the said City of New York, then occupied and controlled by himself. That on the 11th day of December 1886, Deponent went into said building to occupy and control by him, and said to said (Arthur Traugott) that he wished to inspect the material he was then ^{and here} manufacturing.

That the said Traugott in response thereto permitted Deponent to inspect the half pail of the manufactured substance herein after mentioned. That said substance was manufactured since August 1. 1886. That it was so manufactured and delivered to Deponent by said Traugott. That thereafter and on December

The Fifth Defendant delivered a portion of such substance to manufactured by said defendant to Edward W. Martin, a Chemist of the School of Mines, at the Corner of East 14th Street and 11th Avenue, in said City of New York, and caused the same to be analyzed by such Chemist; that the Certificate thereof made by such Chemist is hereto annexed; that said substance so manufactured and delivered to Defendant by said defendant was not made from unadulterated milk or cream; that it was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from milk or cream, and had been made by mixing, Compounding with and adding to natural milk, cream or butter, some animal fat or animal or vegetable oils, but the same was manufactured and made in imitation and resemblance of natural butter, produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream of the same, that the same was colored, powdered or colored with anato, or some other coloring matter, whereby said substance was made to resemble butter, the product of the dairy, contrary to sections 7 and 8, Chapter 202, Laws of 1854, as amended by Chapter 183, Laws of 1855, and as amended by Chapter 577, Laws of 1856.

That on said 14th day of December 1856, defendant in said factory, occupied and controlled by said Leavelle, saw a quantity of such manufactured substance.

Defendant charged that the said Emmanuel Leavelle, against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of New York, and the Statutes in such Cases made and provided, unlawfully, with intent to showingly so, had such manufactured substance in his possession with intent to sell the same, and having procured and suffered the same to be manufactured, and was thereby guilty of a misdemeanor.

Edmund S. Wilson, of No. 350 Washington Street, being duly sworn, says: That he resides at No. 153 Gray Street, in the City of New York, County and State of New York, is 30 years of age, and an expert appointed by HON. JOSIAH K. BROWN, the New York Dairy Commissioner; That at the times hereinafter mentioned one Charles

Wood was a Retail Butter Grocery Dealer, and had his Butter Grocery Store in a room in No. 542 Eighth Avenue Street, in the said City of New York, and occupied and controlled such room; That on the 9th day of March, 1887, deponent went into said store and such room so occupied and controlled by him, and said to one Morris A. Lee that he wanted to buy some Butter; That the said Lee in response thereto then and there sold and delivered to deponent one pound of the manufactured substance hereinafter mentioned, for which he asked and deponent then and there paid him 29 cents per pound; That it was so sold and delivered to deponent by said Lee as and for Butter, the product of the dairy; That thereafter and on March 10th , 1887, deponent delivered a portion of such substance so sold to him by said Lee to Russell W. Moore

, a Chemist of 107 Minn. Cor 4th Avenue 49th Street in said City of New York, and caused the same to be analyzed by such Chemist; That the certificate thereof made by such Chemist is hereto annexed; That such substance so sold and delivered to deponent by said Lee was not Butter, the product of the dairy, and was not made from unadulterated milk or cream;

That it was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from milk or cream, and had been made by mixing, compounding with and adding to natural milk, cream or Butter, some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils; Not produced from milk or cream, so as to produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter; That the said substance had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby said substance was made to and did resemble Butter the product of the dairy, and was so colored thereby in semblance of and to resemble natural Butter; That on said 9th day of March, 1887, deponent in said store and room occupied and controlled by him saw a quantity of such manufactured substance offered for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream in the ordinary course of said Grocery business.

Deponent charges that the said Morris A. Lee against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of New York and the statutes in such case made and provided, unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly so, had such manufactured substance in his possession with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream, and so offered the same for sale with such intent, and so sold the said portion thereof to this deponent as and for Butter the product of the dairy, and caused, procured, and suffered the same to be so offered for sale and sold, and was thereby guilty of a misdemeanor.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by

1886, § 3.)

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Morris A. See,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ninth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven, at the City and County aforesaid, one pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did intentionally sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did unintentionally sell and cause and procure to be sold to one Edmund S. Wilson, one pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now

Court of General Sessions of the Peace, of the City and County of New York.

The People of the State of New York,
against
Abraham Sevier

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse Abraham Sevier of the crime of Perjury, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on the twenty fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven, at the City and County aforesaid, one Joseph Edmund was lawfully apprehended and brought before J. Henry Ford, Esquire, one of the Police Justices of the City of New York, on a charge of having on said day committed in said City, a misdemeanor, whereupon the said J. Henry Ford, Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid did then and there, in due form of law proceed to examine into the said charge, and did then and there examine the same in due form of law, and appearing from the said examination that a crime had been committed, and that there was sufficient cause to believe the said Joseph Rodman guilty thereof, the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid did then and there duly make and sign an order that the said Joseph Rodman be held to answer the said charge, and he be admitted to bail in the sum of three hundred dollars, and be committed to the Warden and Keeper of the City Prison of the City of New York, until he give such bail.

And afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Abram Sims, late of the City and County aforesaid, personally came and appeared before the said J. Henry Ford, Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, (and as such Police Justice being then and there legally authorized and duly qualified to take bail in the said case) and then and there offered himself to be and become the bail and surety for the said Joseph Rodman, and did then and there produce and exhibit to the said J. Henry Ford Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, a certain written undertaking signed by him the said Abram Sims and by the said Joseph

 of the said Robert, wherein and whereby they the said George Robert and Abram ~~Robert~~ ^{Servis} did undertake jointly and severally that the said George Robert should appear and answer the said charge in whatever Court it might be presented: and should at all times render himself amenable to the orders and process of the Court, and if convicted, should appear for judgment, and render himself in execution thereof or of the right to perform either of these conditions that they would pay to the People of the State of New York, the sum of three hundred dollars: and the said Abram ~~Robert~~ ^{Servis} did then and there do produce and exhibit to the said Henry F. Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, a certain affidavit in writing duly signed by him, and then and there containing certain allegations and statements of and concerning the sufficiency and responsibility of him the said ^{Abram} ~~Robert~~ ^{Servis} as such surety upon the said undertaking.

And the said Abram Servis, now then and there in due form of law sworn, and did take his corporate oath, before and before the said Henry

Lord Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, touching and concerning the truth of the matter contained in this said affidavit in writing; And the said J. Henry Lord Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, having then and there full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said Abram Lewis, in that behalf of him and there necessary and material that the said J. Henry Lord Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, should know the true circumstances and propriety of the said Abram Lewis, in order that he might determine whether he would and should take, accept and approve the said Abram Lewis as such surety upon the said undertaking.

And the said Abram Lewis, being so sworn as aforesaid, before the said
 J. Henry Lord Esquire, Police Justice as aforesaid, upon this oath aforesaid, touching and concerning the truth of the matter contained in this said affidavit in writing, and promising to perform the same, did swear, depose and say 3.

(amongst other things) in substance and to the effect following, that is to say:

That the said Abram Sevier was then a freeholder within the said County of New York and State of New York, and was then worth six hundred dollars exclusive of property exempt from execution, and over and above the amount of all his debts and liabilities, and that his property then consisted of the house and lot number eight Sutton Place in the said City of New York, which was then worth eight thousand dollars, and was then free and clear of all liens and encumbrances whichever.

Whereas in truth and in fact the said Abram Sevier was not then a freeholder within the said County and State, and was not then worth six hundred dollars exclusive of property exempt from execution, and over and above the amount of all his debts and liabilities, and his property did not then consist of the said house and lot number eight Sutton Place in the said City of New

and dear of all views and circumstances wherever; as the said Adam Swiss then and there well knew.

And so the said Adam Swiss,
do say, that the said Adam Swiss, in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, maliciously and knowingly, did commit, intend and commit perjury, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

And so the said Adam Swiss,
do say, that the said Adam Swiss,

against

William Singer

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

- William Singer -

of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE ON SUNDAY, committed as follows :

The said William Singer.

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 24th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit : One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whisky, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to

Herman Wenzel, and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

- William Singer -

of the CRIME OF GIVING AWAY INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE, ON SUNDAY, committed as follows :

The said William Singer.

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whisky, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did give away as a beverage to certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT:

- William Singner -

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said William Singner,

of No. 406 East 95 Street, aged 37 years, occupation Labourer being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 1st day of May, 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession person of deponent, in the Night time, the following property viz :

One open faced Gold watch and Chain attached of the value of fifteen dollars the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Alfred Londo (now here, for the reasons following, to wit :

On the above mentioned date, about the hour of 11:40 o'clock p.m., deponent missed the above-described property as having been stolen from the right hand pocket of his Vest which was then worn on his person as a portion of his bodily clothing. That subsequently said Londo admitted to deponent in the presence of police officer Patrick J. Bradley of the 18th precinct, to having stolen said property from deponent's Vest pocket right hand side about the hour of 11 o'clock on said date.

Grand Larceny

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The horse sold to me by defendant, the purchase price of which is the subject of the larceny charged herein, was open to my inspection on purchase. A warranty as to his soundness, and statement as to his qualities, was given me, except the receipt annexed to the Complaint herein.

The defendant has made me full restitution for the price paid for the horse, less the expenses to which he has been put in this action.

I therefore request permission to withdraw the complaint herein.

against

James Sugars

(§ 1938 Consolidation of a MISDEMEANOR, committed as follows: Act.)

The said James Sugars, late of the 12th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty*seven*, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully throw, expose and place, and cause and procure to be thrown, exposed and placed, in and upon a certain street and highway there situate, known as

Third Avenue,

(otherwise than upon the curves, crossings, or switches of certain railroad tracks then and there being), a quantity of saltpeter, and a quantity of a certain other substance to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, for the purpose of dissolving certain snow and ice which had fallen and been deposited, and was then and there upon the street and highway aforesaid; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity,

SECOND COUNT, (§ 316, Revised Ordinances of 1880.)

of the CRIME OF VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE OF THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF New York, committed as follows :

The said James Sugars,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully cast, throw and sprinkle, and cause to be cast, thrown and sprinkle, in and upon a certain ~~avenue~~ and highway there, known as Third Avenue, — and in and upon a certain railroad track, there, otherwise than upon any switches or turnouts of the same, a quantity of salt, and a quantity of a certain other substance to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, for the purpose of melting certain snow and ice which had fallen, accumulated and been deposited, and was then and there upon and in the ~~avenue~~, highway and railroad track aforesaid, and did then and there and thereby offend against a certain ordinance therefore duly passed by the Common Council of the City of New York, and then and there in full force and operation, which said ordinance is as follows, that is to say :

“ It shall not be lawful for any person or persons, company or corporation, to cast, throw, or sprinkle, or cause to be cast, thrown or sprinkled, salt, or any other substance, in or upon any avenue, street, railroad track, except upon switches and turnouts, lane, alley, highway or public place in the City of New York, for the purpose of melting any snow or ice which may have fallen, accumulated or been deposited upon or in any such avenue, street, railroad track lane, alley, highway or public place in the said city, under a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars for each and every violation of an against the provisions of this section ; provided that permission to throw salt on switches and turnouts on railway tracks be first obtained from his honor the Mayor.” against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

RANDOLPH B. MARTINE,

District Attorney.
