Dear Sir,
 I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.
 I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 Your obedient servant,
 Wm. C. Smith.

The People
 Patrick Clark
 Clark was jointly indicted with Charles McGuire for grand larceny.

County Court of General Sessions. Before Recorder Smythe. Tuesday, October 3. 1880.

Thomas Regan, sworn and examined. testified I keep liquors and cigars at 645 First Avenue corner of Thirty seventh St. I have known McGuire and Clark a couple of years. I was in my premises on the 24th of Sept. I did not see either of the prisoners there that day; I had some property stolen from me that day. It was contained in a show window on the other side of the store from the bar and joining the show window is an office with a partition leading into the show window from the office; the office is a little secluded portion of the store probably about eight feet square. About 1200 cigars were taken, 12 boxes, valued at $30. I had a conversation with Clark and I was telegraphed to go to a store in 72nd St. I went there and waited till a policeman came. I accused Clark with being interested with McGuire in the stealing of those cigars. I had a conversation with McGuire before I saw Clark and I told Clark that the case was already fixed, that McGuire had taken the cigars and that there was not any use of a further denial of the matter. He said, "Well, I suppose so; if you had the same trouble you would resort to anything. I should be shot anyhow." Those were his exact words. I told him McGuire was arrested. This was on Saturday morning and the larceny was committed on Friday morning. Cross Examined. It was in Mr Gillespie's shoe store, 72nd St and Third ave. that Clark was arrested. I have known Clark two years and up to this time I never heard anything against him. The officer heard the conversation I had with Clark. William Walsh sworn and examined testified. I arrested Clark where the complainant is in waiting. He told me he was sorry that he got into this trouble. Clark told me he was with McGuire and that it was all his (Clark's) fault. I asked him what he did with the cigars? He said he had sold them to a cigar man in Second avenue - a man who kept a barber's shop and a cigar store at 1076 Second ave. McGuire had made a statement to me before that about the case. I asked McGuire which of them sold the cigars? He said it was Clark. "Did you go in or remain outside?" I asked. He said he remained outside the door. I asked McGuire how much money he had received from Clark. He said $7.50. I told all this to Clark going down in a Third avenue car. I said, "I suppose you have nothing to say in regard to this matter. He said, 'No,' he did not dispute it at all. He said, 'It is all my fault,' he said Regan had always been a good friend of his and that he had no right to do it. Cross Examined. I was examined in the 57th St. Court but I do not know whether what I said was put in writing or not by the Justice.

Patrick Clark, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live at 343 East 34th Street.
 My occupation is shoe salesman and at the time of my arrest I was making slippers for myself at 72 Third Ave. in Walter Gillespie's store, the place where I was arrested. I was born in New York and never have been arrested before.
 I have known Mr. Regan before. On this Friday morning when the cigars are said to have been stolen I went into Regan's place to write a letter to Beneky Bros. Canal St., but as there was another gentleman there I changed my mind and left the saloon about 10 minutes past 9 o'clock and I know nothing further about the case until I was arrested the next day in Mr. Gillespie's store. I heard Mr. Regan's testimony.
 I did not say what he swore to. Cross Examined I did not say I felt like shooting myself or that it was my own fault. I did not say I sold any cigars and I did not sell any cigars. I never saw the cigars. I did not pay McGuire $7.50. I believe the officer mentioned at the time that I was implicated in it. I was not present at the police Court when McGuire was there. I had no lawyer when I was before the police Court. The Judge asked me certain questions, and when he asked me what I had to say about the charge I think I said, "I have nothing to say." I said to McGuire, "Am I guilty of this crime?" He said, "No." He admitted that he was drunk when he was arrested.

Mr. Refan when he came up to the store said that McGuire told him I was guilty of doing this thing with him. The bar keeper of Mr. Refan was in the store when I was there in the morning. I was in the little office that morning, but I know nothing about stealing the cigars. I have been in Mr. Refan's store frequently before the morning in question.

Isaac Bernstein sworn. I keep a shoe store 81 Eighth Ave. I know the prisoner Clark; he is a very fine, industrious young man; he is a clipper maker by trade. I have trusted him with checks. Bridget Clark sworn. I am the mother of the prisoner; he has never been arrested before for any offence; he helps to support me; people have always thought him a very fine young man. Nellie V. Clark, the sister, also testified to the same effect.

Wm Harris sworn he knew the prisoner for three months; heard he had been arrested on a charge of stealing from Mr. Gillespie.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny. Penitentiary six months.
