BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

CHARLES McWILLIAMS.
(colored)

STATEMENT OF CASE.

The Defendant, Charles McWilliams (colored), has been indicted for having perpetrated the Crime of Rape on one Emma Browne (white), aged 14 years, in the premises No. 40 Cornelia Street, on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892.

WITNESSES:

Emma Browne,
Jane Jackson,
Estella Hunter,
Mrs. Annie Denyck,
Hezekiah Denyck,
Hugo Schultes,
David DeLong,
Mrs. Mary Jackson,
Martha Jackson,
Ella Winters,
Flossie Thompson,
Henrietta Holmes,
Willie Davis,
Richard Jarvey,
Emma Stevens,
W. Travis Gibb, M. D.

EMMA BROWNE (white), aged 14 years on Sept. 19th, 1891, residing with her foster parents Hezekiah and Annie Denyck (colored) at 40 Cornelia Street, will testify:

That on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892, while she was attending to her foster mother's infant, both parents at the time being absent from the house, during which time she had for company two colored girls, named Jane Jackson aged 14 and Estella Hunter aged 13 years, and was sitting on the front stoop of No. 40 Cornelia St., the above named Defendant came along, sat down beside them and began to take undue liberties by feeling of their limbs, which they resented. That after this defendant prevailed on Witness to loan him a can for beer, which was obtained by Estella Hunter and drank by Defendant. That the three girls then entered Witness' house and closed the door. That soon after, when they were sitting in the parlor, Witness went and opened the door, when Defendant forced his way into the parlor, where he solicited Jane Jackson and Estella Hunter to have sexual intercourse with him, and that they declined to accede to his requests. That Defendant then came to where Witness was sitting in a rocking chair with the infant in her arms, sat on Witness' lap, and remarked "You would make a nice whore; I am tired of fucking old women and I am going to have young girls now". That Defendant then placed his hand on Witness' breast,-

she having on a low cut necked dress. Witness then called Jane Jackson to take the baby so she (Witness) could defend herself. That Witness then struggled with Defendant, who pulled her from the rocking chair on to the floor, where Estella Hunter attempted to assist Witness, but Defendant drove her (Hunter) away; that she (Witness) made every endeavor to escape from Defendant, who was holding her down and who placed his left hand over her mouth, and who then directed Jane Jackson and Estella Hunter to come and assist him in holding Witness, saying to them: "You'd better hold her; if you don't, - I will fix both of you". That Jane then held Witness' right arm and foot, while Estella performed a similar service on the left side of Witness; and that Defendant then lifted up Witness' dress -- she having no drawers on at the time -- and inserted his penis into Witness' private parts. That Defendant then said to Jane and Estella: "Go away; I have her now". That Defendant then remained on top of Witness for about five minutes, and had sexual intercourse with her, which hurt her very much and caused her private parts to bleed. That Defendant finally got up, and as he did Witness saw Jane and Estella at the side window. That Witness then threatened to inform what had occurred, and Defendant said: "What do I care; I am going to give you one dollar to-night". That Witness replied "I do not need your money". That just then, the door bell rang; that Witness opened the door and saw a clock peddler; and that Defendant then left the house and that soon after Jane and Estella departed. That Witness then wiped her private parts with a cloth, which she left on a window in a room adjoining the parlor. That during the afternoon of said day, one Millie Davis of 221 East 97th Street called and Witness informed her what had taken place, and that later Witness informed her foster mother on her arrival home, who directed that Witness bring Jane and Estella to the house, which was done; and that both corroborated Witness' statement relative to the outrage.

FURTHERMORE THAT Witness never before had sexual intercourse with any person, and had always been moral.

ALSO THAT at the conclusion of the examination in the Second District Police Court on August 19th, 1892, while passing Witness, Defendant distinctly said to her: "You damned fool; what did you tell it for".

JANE JACKSON (colored), aged 14 years, residing with parents William and Mary at 13 Cornelia Street, will testify in corroboration of the testimony as given by Emma Browne, with the exception of that part relating to the exclamation made by Defendant while passing out of the Second District Police Court on Aug. 19th, 1892.

ALSO that at the time of the assault, Defendant had a knife which protruded from his pocket, and Witness was afraid he might use it on her if she did not obey him.

FURTHERMORE that Defendant had previously offered Witness' mother Seven Dollars per week for a furnished room at Witness' house, if Witness' mother would allow him to sleep with her other daughter Martha, aged 19 years, at which time Defendant was ejected from the house.

ESTELLA HUNTER (colored), aged 13 years, will testify in corroboration of the testimony as given by Emma Browne, with the exception of that part relating to the exclamation made by Defendant while passing out of the Second District Police Court on the 19th of August, 1892.

ALSO that at the time of the assault, Defendant had a knife which protruded from his pocket, and Witness was afraid he might use it on her if she did not obey him.

MRS. ANNIE DENYCK, colored, foster mother of Emma Browne, residing at 40 Cornelia St., will testify:

That Emma was 14 years old on Sept. 19th, 1891; that child's father, Edgar, is dead and that the whereabouts of the mother is unknown; and that she (Witness) has had child since she was four hours old.

ALSO that on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892, on Witness' arrival home, Emma informed her what had happened, which was later corroborated by Jane Jackson and Estella Hunter in the presence of Witness.

HEZEKIAH DENYCK (colored), foster father of Emma Browne, residing at 40 Cornelia St., will testify in corroboration of the testimony as given by his wife Annie.

HUGO SCHULTES, 108 E. 23" St., an Officer of N. Y. S. P. C. C. will testify:

That he arrested Defendant on a warrant; and that while en route to the Ninth Precinct Station House Defendant admitted being in the parlor of Emma Browne's house on August 16th, 1892, and that he was invited to come in by Emma, Jane Jackson and Estella Hunter and that all four drank beer while there, but denied having done anything wrong and claims that it is a "put-up-job".

WITNESS will also corroborate that part of Emma Browne's statement relative to exclamation made by Defendant while passing out of Second District Police Court on Aug. 19th, 1892, to wit: "You damned fool; what did you tell it for".

DAVID DELONG, 108 E. 23" St., an Officer of N. Y. S. P. C. C., will testify in corroboration of testimony given by Hugo Schultes, with the exception of statement made by Defendant while passing out of Second District Police Court on August 19th, 1892.

MRS. MARY JACKSON (colored), residing at 13 Cornelia St., will testify relative to the previous bad intentions of Defendant, who had made proposals to her to rent a furnished room at her house if she (Witness) would allow her daughter Martha, aged 19 years, to sleep with him.

MARTHA JACKSON, aged 19 years, of 13 Cornelia St., will testify in corroboration of the testimony as given by her mother Mary.

ELLA WINTERS, aged 19 years, residing at 28 Cornelia Street, will testify:

That on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892, she saw Jane Jackson going toward the premises 40 Cornelia Street.

FLOSSIE THOMPSON, aged 11 years, residing at 23 Cornelia St., will testify:

That on Tuesday, August 16th 1892, she was requested by Emma Browne to notify Jane Jackson to call at 40 Cornelia St. and later saw Jane go toward the said premises.

HENRIETTA HOLMES, residing at 23 Cornelia Street, will testify:

That on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892, she saw Defendant near the stoop of 40 Cornelia Street, while the girls Emma Browne and Jane Jackson were sitting on the said stoop; also that defendant's cart was standing in Cornelia Street near Sixth Avenue.

MILLIE DAVIS, residing at 221 East 97th Street, will testify: That on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892, she called on Emma Browne at 40 Cornelia Street, found Emma in an excited condition and learned from her (Emma) that Defendant had outraged her.

RICHARD JARVEY, residing at 413 West 13th St., will testify: That on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892, he was informed by Millie Davis that Defendant had outraged Emma Browne, and that he (Witness) in turn informed Emma Browne's foster father, Hezekiah Denyck, what had occurred.

EMMA STEVENS, residing at 38 Cornelia Street, will testify: That on Tuesday, August 16th, 1892, Defendant called on her at her house and solicited her to have sexual intercourse; that she refused; and that defendant thereupon departed, remarking: "I will get a chippie to-day before the day is over".

W. TRAVIS GIBB, M. D., 365 Lexington Avenue, will testify as to having made a physical examination of the person of Emma Browne and having found that there had been complete and recent penetration of her genital organs by some blunt object. (Certificate on file.)

What is your name? Thomas Kelly. Where do you live? 165 East 31st Street. What is your occupation? Taking care of horses. I have lived in the city 25 years; I was in the city on the 18th of July. About six o'clock in the morning of the 18th of July you were in what street? 26th Street and Third Avenue. Anybody with you? Yes, two persons, they are here now, their names are James McSherry and Tony Woychinsky. Did you see the prisoner, Angelo Moari, on that occasion? Yes.

I first saw him at the fruit stand at the corner, I do not know whose fruit stand it was, it was on the corner of 26th Street and Third Avenue; that was the first time I saw him to my knowledge. McSherry, Woychinsky and myself were in the saloon drinking, that was before we saw the prisoner; we came out of the saloon and this man, the defendant, was cracking ice in a tub on the sidewalk. He had an ice pick in his hand. McSherry slapped him and done something to him and angered him and he got up to stick the ice pick in McSherry. McSherry kicked the prisoner first and then started to slap him then the prisoner raised his ice pick over his head. McSherry has only one arm and I wanted to take McSherry away so he would not get in trouble; then the prisoner assaulted and struck me. I got the man away nearly and walked on six feet, about. I got hold of McSherry and pushed him along ahead of me. The prisoner struck me in the face with his fist and I struck the prisoner back. I saw Tony Woychinsky and the prisoner disputing and I saw the prisoner have a pistol up against his head; I believe they were fighting. I saw the prisoner pull a pistol from his coat and pegged two shots at Tpony's head; then I ran and got McSherry. The pistol went off twice; Tony was not hit. I ran to get McSherry out of the way, I got about six feet away from him and I heard another report and I fell; I was shot in the back. How far away from the prisoner were you when you received the bullet? About six feet. I do not know that anybody else had a pistol. When he shot at Tony I saw the pistol in his hand. My back was towards the prisoner. He shot me through the left lung, it came out over the heart, the bullet entered the back, under the left shoulder. I was taken to Bellevue Hospital, I was there three weeks and three days. What trouble did you have besides this at the hospital? Pleurisy and pneumonia. Two weeks after the bullet came right to the skin and was taken away by the doctor.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

How long had you three parties been together that morning? I met McSherry as near as I can remember about half past three and we met Woychinsky later on. I met McSherry at the corner of 25th Street and Third Avenue. I was in bed that night but could not sleep on account of the heat, I got up about one o'clock, about half past one or two. I walked down Third Avenue, I met McSherry at 25th Street. I walked down to the Bull's Head restaurant and had something to eat before meeting McSherry, I met him about three o'clock, I suppose he was taking the air himself; we went into a saloon and had a drink, we drank lager beer, I could not tell you what McSherry drank. When you met McSherry had he been drinking? I could not tell you, he appeared to be drunk. McSherry and I are friends, I have known him for some time. That was not the first drink I took that night, I had been drinking before that in a saloon on 30th Street and Third Avenue, I had a glass of lager beer; that was before I got to the restaurant. I went back to 25th Street again and met Tony, I just happened to meet him. It was not exactly after leaving the saloon we met Woychinsky, it was later on, it was about half an hour before the thing happened we met Woychinsky. We went up to the saloon again with Woychinsky,; I do not think Woychinsky was under the influence of drink when we met him, I believe he was going up to open the store. McSherry must have been pretty drunk if he was under the influence of liquor when you first met him. He was not staggering when I first met him, he knew what he was doing. I was not drunk, I can't say that I felt the influence of the liquor. Is it not a fact that McSherry was pretty drunk, you were about "half seas over"? No. I did not feel like skylarking. This man (the prisoner) was peaceably following his business in his own place? Yes. You never have been shot before? No, I think I would be apt to remember it some time. McSherry came out of the saloon first, I came next, and Woychinsky third. The first thing McSherry did was to kick the prisoner? Yes. The prisoner stood up with the ice pick, he raised himself up with it, he had it in his hand. McSherry had already slapped him. I did not see McSherry double up his fist and hit the Italian, I did not see him square off. McSherry kicked the Italian first and when the Italian straightened up he hit him in the face. I walked up to take McSherry away, so he would not get arrested. I took hold of McSherry with both hands, the Italian then struck me with his fist, his right hand; the Italian had the ice pick like that and then he punched me and I grabbed hold of the pick and wrenched it away from him. I went to grab McSherry and the Italian struck me. I do not have a fight every day, this was an unusual fight. I did not kick the Italina in the face and knock him down. I believe I struck him one blow with my right hand. I seen Woychinsky at it then. I could not see then. After you struck him Woychinsky joined in didn't he? I do not know. I was alongside the Italian when I struck him; I saw the prisoner walk away and I saw him pull something out of his coat. Tony came up alongside of him and he pulled out a pistol, I seen the revolver, and he fired two shots at Tony's head. I thought they were fighting when I first seen them; I did not see any blows struck on either side. Tony asked me what was the matter? I said I was trying to get McSherry away. Tony got in a dispute with the Italian, Tony started out and the Italian pulled out a pistol. Is it not a fact that this man was peaceably at his business, McSherry came along and kicked him, then when he straightened up McSherry punched him, and then McSherry wrenched the ice pick away, and you joined in before he punched him? No. He struck me first. Woychinsky came along and you three began to pound and hammer this man and he drew his pistol and fired at you? No, no such thing occurred. When I hit him he turned away to get the revolver out of his pocket. I seen him take it out. I told Tony to look out, he has got a pistol. He fired two shots at McSherry's head and he shot me in the back. I was nearer to him than McSherry at this time. I was walking when I got shot. When I was getting McSherry out of the way I received the shot.

ANTHONY WOYCHINSKY, sworn and examined:

I am a black-smith when I am working at it; I know Thomas Kelly

I know John McSherry now, I never knew him before that morning. Thomas Kelly, McSherry, and I were all together on the morning of July 18th, about six o'clock in the morning, at the front of the fruit stand on the corner of 26th Street and Third Avenue. I seen the prisoner with an ice pick in his hand. I could not see him doing anything with it, he was standing up looking at McSherry. I did not arrive at the place at the same time that McSherry did; Kelly and McSherry just got to the corner when I was about two doors away from the corner, the width of the house. The prisoner, Angelo Moari, was standing with the ice pick in his hand, facing McSherry; Kelly as about four feet away from McSherry, nearer Third Avenue, I seen no more, then I passed them and went up and passed them as far as the corner, I stood on the corner talking to a friend and turned around again, and I saw the man that owns the stand walking back. I do not know the name of the man that owns the stand, Nicolai, or something like that; I saw him fixing the fruit on the end of the stand, and he started to walk around to where the argument was going on. When you saw the ice pick in the prisoner's hand and he was facing McSherry were they talking about anything, were they saying anything? I heard no words whatever, no more than just the movements. The Italian had the ice pick in his right hand, up that way (Sherry) walked around. When this Nicolai started away from the end of the fruit stand around to where these three people was standing, it attracted my attention. I saw McSherry grapple with that man and take away the ice pick he had in his hand; Angelo then walked off to the shanty. I came round to see what was the matter and he pulled a revolver., he took it out of his shirt pocket. I was about four and a half feet from him; he fired two shots at my head; they did not hit me, I felt the powder on the side of my face. Is that the pistol (showing)? Yes. He fired a third shot; Thomas Kelly says, "You had better move one side, that revolver is loaded." I says, it is not loaded, they are blank cartridges. He fired a third shot, Thomas Kelly says, I am shot, I turned when he said he was shot, he was no less than about twelve feet behind me, no nearer; the prisoner was 12 or 13 feet away from Kelly. Kelly had his back to the prisoner, he was walking away from him. Kelly said, I am shot; and then he put his hand to his side and he fell. He was shot in the back, the left side. I do not know whether or not Kelly was walking when he was shot, I had my back turned to him at that time. I turned around and I heard him fall. He was fully 12 or 13 feet from the prisoner. When I heard the report the pistol was in Angelo's hand.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I met McSherry and Kelly about five o'clock in the morning.. I had been to 40th Street and Third Avenue, in the Empire saloon, I did not get up at all that morning, I was out all evening, I did not close until about 2 o'clock in the morning; I was tending bar at 25th Street up to 2 o'clock that morning; I did not go home to go to bed. I was on duty that day from 12 o'clock until 2 o'clock in the morning. I had been drinking a little that day, I drank from time to time with customers; I had half a dozen or a dozen drinks. I was in the Empire saloon all by myself, I guess I had a couple of drinks in there, I drank lager beer; I did not drink any whiskey that day. I did not see any of my friends in the Empire saloon, I was there about three hours. I was playing a game of cards with strangers that hang out around there, I suppose I drank something on the game, I was playing pinocle, it takes about an hour and a half to play one game. Then I met McSherry and

Kelly on the street; I did not know McSherry but I did know Kelly. When I met them they appeared perfectly sober. I could not tell whether McSherry was under the influence of liquor, I never seen him sober. You have to see a man once sober to know what his normal condition is? Yes. We went into a saloon, we had one drink there, Kelly paid for them. Then we came out of the saloon together. I do not know whether or not McSherry was drunk when we came out of the saloon, as far as I could see he was perfectly sober, he was as sober as any of the rest of us. Kelly says he was drunk, he was very drunk, he came out of the saloon and kicked this Italian, and that he was drunk and that he was afraid that he would be arrested, is that true? I did not see him hit anybody. Kelly was second, McSherry was first, and I brought up the rear. I was talking to the bartender for a second or so. When I came out the first thing I saw was the prisoner talking to McSherry. I heard no words between them. Kelly was about four feet back of McSherry, I walked past McSherry and Angelo, I walked as far as Kelly, on the Third Avenue side of Kelly, about as far as from here to that gentleman writing (the District Attorney). I saw McSherry standing in front of the prisoner. I saw Nicolai walking away; I turned my back and I saw the defendant and McSherry wrestling for the ice pick, McSherry got it. We walked around the corner, I walked farther than Kelly did. Then I saw the defendant pull out a revolver; Kelly stood a little behind me, seven or eight feet behind me. Kelly says that he stood up and that the prisoner struck him (Kelly) and that he (Kelly) then turned around and struck the prisoner, is that so? I could not say anything about that, I did not see it, that happened before I came out I guess. I was on the corner when the ice pick was taken away

I was talking to a friend, a lady, Mrs. Connolly. After seeing them in a fight with this Italian with the ice pick, you did not interfere but still talked with your friend? I walked around. I did not see Kelly strike anybody; I did not see the Italian strike anybody, he got his revolver and shot at me. I did not say a word to him. Nicolai and me were talking on the corner and I told Nicolai not to interfere, I wanted to stop him, I did not think there would be any fight, I only thought they would take the ice pick and walk away. Nicolai walked into the shanty. I was not fighting at all; I did not strike this man at all. Kelly when he says you were scuffling and fighting together did not tell the truth? Not with me, not with my part of it. I did not say a word to the prisoner, without any provocation he fired the pistol at my face. Kelly told me to get one side, the revolver was loaded; I told him they were blank cartridges. We were not pounding and kicking the body of the Italian. I did not imagine there was any danger for the time being. I have never been convicted of crime. When I spoke of blank cartridges it was after the fire did not take effect on me I could not say the prisoner deliberately aimed at Kelly. When Kelly said, I am shot, he was in the rear of me and I was facing the Italian. He fired two shots at me; as he fired the third one Kelly told me I had better step to one side and then he fired and Kelly said, I am shot. He had time to walk 12 or 13 feet before he was shot. I do not know whether he shot at random or aimed deliberately. I can swear that he pointed and shot at me deliberately. I do not know what became of the ice pick, Mc Sherry took it I had not spoken a word to them when he fired at me I was in sight all the time. I was within that circle.

MOSES NUSSBAUM, sworn and examined:

I live at 329 Third Avenue; I have a stationary store at the same place. On the morning of the 18th of July, about six o'clock in the morning, were you with Thomas Kelly, the complainant? I was not, nor with McSherry, nor with the others. I saw a portion of this occurrence. I do not know McSherry, I do not know Kelly, I do not know Woychinsky, and I do not know Moari; I am a perfect stranger to all of them. On the 18th of July, about six o'clock in the morning, I was at the corner of Third Avenue and 26th Street, I seen the prisoner there, and I also seen Kelly, Woychinsky and McSherry. As I was going along, I was serving my papers at the time, I seen that there was an altercation between them with this Angelo Moari and standing there I seen that there were some words going on between them, and I also took notice that Angelo had an ice pick in his hand, which was taken away from him by McSherry, who remarked at the same time, what are you going to do now? Kelly says to McSherry, give me that; McSherry says, no, I won't, we will throw it away. McSherry did not throw it away, he went away with it. Then the prisoner turned around and he had the revolver in his hand. They had been having words together before I saw the pistol in the prisoner's hand, that is all that I took notice of. I turned around, I seen the prisoner with another close together. It was Nicolai that he was talking to; then the prisoner turned facing toward me, at the time when I seen them together of course they had their backs toward me, and he had the revolver in his hand and he raised it and fired at Kelly. Three shots were fired; I was very near in range of them and I moved a couple of steps backward to get out? I did not see either Woychinsky or McSherry at the time of the firing. I saw 3 shots fired at Kelly, Kelly at the time was out at the curb, towards Third Avenue. He may have been five or six yards from the prisoner. I did not hear Kelly say anything at the time. I noticed that he was shot because at the third shot he staggered and fell down right in front of the store on Third Avenue. I wanted to see whether he was hurt, and noticed when they kind of turned him that he was bleeding at the back, blood was flowing out of his back. The policeman came along, I told him the man that did the shooting went down 26th St. and he ran down after him and brought him up. I did not notice Woychinsky or McSherry at the time of the shooting, my attention was riveted on the prisoner; at that particular moment I do not know where the others were.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

You said on the direct examination that he was aiming at Kelly, now you say that your attention was riveted upon him to see him fire but you did not notice particularly who he was firing at? I stated he was firing at Kelly. I have not been in the court room during the proceedings, I have been outside. Woychinsky has been on the witness stand and he swears that he stood in front of the man who aimed at him, he was so close to him that the powder bit his face, is that true? I did not see him. I did not see anybody between the prisoner and Kelly when he fired those three shots. I am sure that Kelly was there. After the shooting I went away. I did not hear Kelly say, "Look out, that is loaded," and Woychinsky say, "Do not be afraid, they are blank cartridges;" I should have heard any remark like that that was made. I did not hear them holding any conversation. When I first seen them Kelly, McSherry, Woychinsky, and the prisoner were standing all together, they were having an altercation together. McSherry came up behind the Italian and snatched the ice pick out of his hand, he was holding the ice pick in this manner (showing) . Then McSherry says to him "What can you do now?" Kelly told him to throw the ice pick away or he would get in trouble. They were a little drunk, all three were under the influence of liquor. Woychinsky was on the stand, he says he was perfectly sober, and as far as he knows all the rest were perfectly sober, is that so? I do not believe it is. Kelly says that after the ice pick had been taken away from the prisoner that he went up to get McSherry out of the way and that the prisoner struck him (Kelly) is that so? I did not take notice of it. And that he hit him with his right hand and struck him back, is that true? I did not see it. If it had occurred I think I should have seen it. Is it not a fact that your testimony does not agree with any of them, that they were so drunk they did not know what occurred? This may have occurred before I came up; they were in an angry altercation when you came up? Yes, I did not hear what they said particularly, I walked right ahead. Did you hear what any of those three drunken men said to this man, were they not abusing and calling him all sorts of vulgar names? I did not hear any words between them, only the tone of the conversation was aggressive, I understood that these three men were in antagonism with this one man from their conversation. Just before the prisoner took this revolver out and before he fired, did you see Kelly, McSherry, Woychinsky or anybody else strike the prisoner? I did not. Had Kelly, or Woychinsky, or McSherry struck him at the time he had the revolver, or any time before he took the revolver, you were in a position to see the blow, were you not? I was. There was no blow struck. I did not see the whole altercation; as far as I did see, this man drew the pistol, nobody was attacking him, Kelly was five or six yards away when he fired three shots at him. My sight is not the best? I might have been standing three yards from the prisoner and also three from Kelly. I did not hear the remark "Look out, they are blank cartridges." I can see Mr. Purdy perfectly well and I could see Kelly just as well. There was no one but myself, you might say, between Kelly and the prisoner, I did not see Woychinsky in front of the prisoner, if he had been there I should have seen him, I seen Nicolai and the prisoner, and if there was a third party I should have seen him. I was on one side, about three yards from Kelly, about three yards from the prisoner, a little to the left, to the left of the prisoner, to the right of Kelly. I was very near in range to get shot with the pistol and I stepped one side. After the prisoner fired the shots he walked a few steps and then commenced to run; they commenced to run after him. Wasn't Woychinsky and McSherry chasing him? I did not take notice of that, I seen lots of people chasing him, I did not see Woychinsky at the time. You seem to have lost sight of them? I did at the shooting, I could not tell where they went at the time. I was quite excited through the shooting. I was in range, my main business was to get out of range as soon as possible, that is the reason my attention was on this man more than anybody else. You were not so excited but what you have told us to-day what actually occurred on that occasion? Yes, I remember distinctly, I seen all that I have told you.

EMMANUEL JACOBS, sworn and examined:

I am 13 years old, I sell papers for a living. I was out on July 18, about six o'clock in the morning, selling papers, on the corner of Third Avenue and 26th Street. I saw the prisoner there on that occasion. Did you see that man there (pointing to Kelly)? Yes. When I was coming over the corner of 26th Street from serving my papers I saw a few men quarreling; they were the prisoner, the other Italian, Thomas Kelly, Tony Woychinsky and McSherry. What did you see them do to each other, what did you hear them say to each other? All I saw was these men saying something; I do not know what they said, I was round the corner, I was upon the Avenue and they were on the corner, I was about as far away from them on the Avenue as I am from you. I do not know what they said, they were quarreling, I did not see the men do anything to each other. I saw the other Italian go inside the shanty; I do not know his name; that is the man (pointing to Nicholai). He went inside the shanty and came out and handed the other man a revolver, he handed a revolver to the prisoner. Did it look like that (showing revolver)? Yes. The prisoner put the revolver down in his pantaloons, then he took it out and fired three shots. He kept it in his pocket about five minutes.

During the five minutes that the prisoner had the revolver in his pocket did McSherry, Woychinsky, or Thomas Kelly did him or do anything to him? No. When he put the revolver in his pocket Kelly was on the corner, Woychinsky was in a slanting direction. They were all several feet away, Kelly was about on the corner. The Italian fired three shots. You say that McSherry, Kelly and Woychinsky were several feet away, you sa the prisoner handed the revolver, he put it in his pocket, and kept it there, you think, for about five minutes, then you saw him take the pistol out and fire three shots? Yes. He fired two shots at Tony Woychinsky, I was standing there and watching, then the third shot was fired. Woychinsky was about as far from the prisoner as you are from me. I saw him raise the pistol, and point the pistol and fire twice at Woychinsky; Woychinsky did not fall. Kelly was walking away with Woychinsky. How long a time was it from the time that he fired twice at Woychinsky before you saw him fire the third shot at Kelly? About two or three seconds afterwards. Kelly was about fifteen feet from the prisoner when the third shot was fired. Kelly wheeled round and walked over to the drug store.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I did not see any ice pick in the hands of the prisoner. I did not see the prisoner strike anybody; I did not see anybody strike him. When I came up the three men were quarreling with the prisoner, Kelly, McSherry and Woychinsky were quarreling with the prisoner; they were talking loud. I did not hear what they said. McSherry, Kelly and Woychinsky were there all the time. I saw the prisoner put the revolver in his pocket. I did not hear Woychinsky say anything to him at this time. The prisoner aimed the revolver at Woychinsky's head. Didn't Kelly say to Woychinsky, "look out, that is loaded"? Woychinsky said to Kelly, "Look out." I did not hear Woychinsky not to be afraid that they were blank cartridges. I think the shots were all meant for Woychinsky, he did not step aside. They were fired as quick as that (showing). The pistol was aimed directly at Woychinsky's head, as they were walking away the third shot caught Kelly, they were walking down together. The prisoner fired the third shot and it hit Kelly.

JAMES H. TITTERINGTON, sworn and examined:

I am a surgeon in Bellevue Hospital; I have been in that position seventeen months and 21 days. Do you remember having your official attention, or your medical attention rather, called to the case of Thomas Kelly? I do. What time on the 18th of July was Thomas Kelly brought into Bellevue Hospital? I think it was about 6:30 in the morning when I saw him. He had gun shot wounds. He had a wound entering the lower angle of the left shoulder, it went on the right shoulder blade and passed upwards and a little outward, coming out just above the outer side of the left nipple. The bullet was about two and one-half inches from the heart. The bullet entered his back, it was lying just under the skin. I cut the bullet out myself, it was about two and one-half inches above the nipple, it went right through in that direction. He was in the hospital three weeks and three days, I think. I attended him. He had localized pneumonia from the passage of the bullet through the lung, and pleurisy surrounding the entrance into the external, to the pleura.

ROGER S. McCOY, sworn and examined:

I belong to the 18th precinct, I was on duty on the early morning of the 18th of July, about six o'clock in the morning. I arrested Angelo Moari, the prisoner at the bar. I did not see this occurrence; I arrested him on the complaint of Thomas Kelly. Describe Thomas Kelly when he made the complaint? He was lying on his back in front of 353 Third Ave. The prisoner was present. I asked Kelly what was the matter? He said he was shot. I asked him who shot him? He says, "That Italian," pointing to the defendant. I said, are you sure of that? He said, yes. I asked him how he felt and he told me he thought he was going to die. He said he was sure that the prisoner was the man who shot him. I had two witnesses there at that time, Dr. Walsh, of 293 Third Avenue, and Anthony Woychinsky, and I asked him to listen to the statement that he had made. I had summoned an ambulance. At that time there was quite a crowd around about time there was quite a crowd around, about five or six hundred people. I could not very well attend to it as I was all alone. The ambulance came and I took the prisoner to the station house. What conversation did you have when you arrested him about landing him in the station house? I asked him why he shot Thomas Kelly? He said, "Me no shoot, me no shoot, me no have pistol." That was on the way to the station house. When we got to the station house Sergeant Boyle asked him, through the interpreter, why he had shot him. An Italina fruit vendor at 23rd Street and Fifth Avenue acted as interpreter. I went up to the hospital and got a certificate from Doctor Titterington as to Thomas Kelly's condition and then brought the prisoner up to court where he was committed without bail to await the result of the injuries by Judge Welde. On my way down to the station house I got off at the corner of 26th Street. I was speaking to the people, as I heard rumors that Nicholai handed him the pistol. I placed Nicolai Worga under arrest and brought him to the station house and locked him up. Where did you get this pistol? I do not know who gave it to me, one of four or five hundred people. I asked, did anybody see a pistol? and the pistol was handed to me by somebody. And these bullets too? They were all in it; there are three empty chambers; it is a five shooter, there are five chambers; I took those cartridges out of that pistol. How many were loaded at the time? At that time ~~two~~ were loaded and three were empty, two full cartridges and three empty shells. It is a self-cocking revolver, 38 calibre. What conversation I had he spoke in English; he said "Me no shoot, me no shoot, me no have pistol."

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I arrived at the scene about five minutes after the shooting.

I arrested the defendant in the basement, on the third step of the stairs leading to the basement 469 Second Avenue. The owner of the place is an Italian, he keeps a coal and wood place. There was a big crowd of people above the stairs, he was standing on the middle of the stairs. Did not the party who handed you the pistol say where they got it? No, I asked if anybody saw the pistol and the pistol was handed to me. I did not know they had seized him and taken the pistol away from him. This man is no relation to me. He denied that he shot Kelly. Woychinsky was standing by the side of Kelly, Kelly was lying down as I ran past Kelly; Woychinsky still remained there until I came back with the prisoner.

THE CASE FOR THE DEFENCE:

NICOLAI WORGA, sworn and examined:

How long have you been in the country? One year. Do you know the prisoner? Yes. Do you own the fruit stand on the corner? No, the fruit stand belongs to a brother of mine. What business did Angelo Moari have there? He had no stand, but at that particular moment he was looking after my stand. Tell us all that you saw and did? At six o'clock in the morning I was looking after my business in the saloon. While I was cleaning up the saloon I saw these three persons, they were kicking up a row. I went up and said to these people, what are you kicking up a row for, what are you doing here. They were fighting between themselves and punching each other. I asked them what was the matter and one of them gave me a blow on my face. The fight was between these three persons; they were fighting with the prisoner. I went and asked them what was the matter and I received the blow. Did you see these three men do anything to Angelo? The three were holding him and fighting with him and giving him blows; he was standing on his feet and they were giving him blows. I saw him (the defendant) with the ice pick in his hand. After I saw him with the ice pick in his hand one of these three gave him a blow and another one went and took the ice pick out of his hand. I heard him saying then to the men, "Go on, go on, and let me alone." Then I saw that the prisoner drew his revolver from his pocket and he fired three shots one after the other. When he fired the three shots the three men were beating him and giving him blows. He wanted to send them away, he said "go on, go on." They would not go, they showered blows on him and he fired afterwards. I saw that man (pointing to Woychinsky) strike Angelo. Was he striking Angelo when Angelo fired at him? Yes, I did see him. Two of them ran away, one fell down and other people ran after them. Did Woychinsky chase Angelo when he ran? Yes, and another man with one arm.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I have known the prisoner fifteen months. I am not in business with him. I did not give that pistol to the prisoner. Did you go into the shanty and stay there a few minutes and come out with that pistol and hand it to the prisoner? No. You are sure that when the three shots were fired the three men were on the prisoner beating him? Yes. Was the prisoner on his knees or was he lying on his back when these men were beating him, at the particular moment that he fired these three shots, what did you see the men doing to him? He was standing up, they were fighting with him, giving him blows. About how near to the prisoner were these three men when he fired at them? About as far as from here to the railing. How, if the three men were that far off from the prisoner, could they be beating him at the time he fired the pistol, how long were their arms? They went back afterwards. They were beating the prisoner and they were beating me at the same time. At the particular time that the pistol was fired they were altogether were they? Yes, that is true.

JOSEPH FAGILLA, sworn and examined:

I cannot talk English; I have been in the country 11 months; I was born in Italy. What do you do for a living? Boot-black but now I am a barber. Where is the barber shop? 24th St. I saw this fight on the 18th of July. It was about six o'clock in the morning. I was inside the saloon and heard a row, I went out, I saw these three English persons, they were fighting with the prisoner. Nicolai, I do not know his other name, came out of the saloon. He said, why are you fighting and beating this man? They answered, you son of a bitch, and they gave him a blow on his face, the big man (pointing to Woychinsky) gave him a blow on the face. Nicolai, said, what do you want from me? Angelo Moari said, why don't you send these bums away from here; they are calling you sons of bitches." With this these three men gave a severe blow to the prisoner. The prisoner at the bar went back and the man with one arm had the ice pick in his hand. The prisoner saw them putting themselves in a line for a fight. He took out the revolver and said, go away from me, go away from me and he fired three shots. Mr. Kelly fell down and the other two ran towards the prisoner who ran away, and they followed him. He was caught on Second Avenue in the basement, and they nearly killed him with blows. If the police officer had not come to his assistance he would have been killed.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

When you saw Kelly fall how near was the prisoner? From here to yourself. At the time that these three shots were fired Kelly and the other man were not all fighting the prisoner were they? They were clinched together one near the other. How could they be clinched together, if during the the three seconds that it took to fire that pistol, Kelly was off this far from the prisoner? They were towards each other. They saw him taking out the revolver, they said, "Pistol, pistol, pistol," and they went away and then came together again. Angelo Moari saw nothing at all because he was all smashed, the blood was running out of his face. They came against him as soon as they saw the pistol in his hand; when they wanted to catch hold of him he held the revolver and they went on to him and then he fired. They were away from him when he fired as far as I am from you (counsel). That is the man that I saw shot and fall (pointing to Kelly). When you saw the prisoner fire this pistol was Kelly walking towards the prisoner and facing him? Yes, Kelly was moving against him and facing him. He was nearest to the prisoner. You say that his face was covered with blood? It was not blood but he had marks on his face, his face was dirty, he was covered with dirt. His face was a little swollen.

ANGELO MOARI, sworn and examined:

How long have you been in the country? One year. Have you ever been arrested or convicted of any crime before? No, never. What is your business? Fruit dealer. How did you come to be at the fruit stand that morning? I was helping that friend of mine that kept the fruit stand, I was employed by him, by the man who kept the stand. This morning I went out and my work commenced by cutting some ice to make fresh water and while I was employed on this kind of work some one kicked me. I turned around to see what was the matter, and when I turned round to ask what is the matter, three men came on me and commenced fighting with me. They threw me on the ground. The biggest of the three men was near killing me and then I fired three times. I was leaning over when they came up, somebody kicked me, I fell down, and got up again and said, why are you kicking me? That man (pointing to Woychinsky) gave me a blow in the face, after I received the blow I fired three shots. One of them took the ice pick away. Did you understand what this man said to you? Yes, I did understand, they were calling me a son of a bitch, bum, and other words. I received blows from the three of them and they nearly killed me; at the same time I was receiving blows from the three of them. I was knocked down. Where did you get the pistol, did you have it in your pocket or where did you get it? A friend of mine, while seeing me treated in that way, gave me the revolver; Nicolai gave me the revolver. Who did you fire at? I fired at one of them, they were trying to kill me; that is the one I fired at (pointing to Woychinsky), he wanted to kill me. Before I fired he was the worst one to attack me. I asked them, "Are you crazy, are you drunk?" I ran away because I was afraid, I did not fire at anybody. Woychinsky and McSherry chased me; they caught me and held me on Second Avenue. They hit me and threw me on the ground, hit me and beat me. I fired the pistol at them because I thought they wanted to kill me.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

How far was Kelly from you when you shot him? They were all three of them around me. Kelly and McSherry were facing me and giving me blows when I fired. The biggest man was giving me blows at the time. Kelly was facing me when I fired. Nicolai says that he did not give you the pistol, you have just sworn that he did give you the pistol, which is true? I am

Morice

By Dist. Atty. Q The boy says that Nicola went in the shanty and was there five minutes and came out and handed you a pistol, is that so? A. I remember that he handed me the pistol. I put it in my pocket but not to fire against anybody.

Q Then Nicola was mistaken when he told this jury that he did not give you the pistol was'nt he?

A I had no revolver.
