CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss.

William Quinn

of No. 16520 Jackson Street, Sailor, aged 72 years, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 26th day of July 1888 at the night time in the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent.

the following property, viz :

One note or bill of the denomination and of the value of One hundred dollars, being good and lawful money and being

Subscribed

deponent

the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Bartholomew Keefer, now here, from the fact that said deponent then worked for and worked with deponent. That said money was in the watch pocket of deponents bed which hung on a rack about two feet away from the door of deponents bed room in said premises. That deponent was in bed and the bed room door was open. That deponent then and there saw said deponent

Return

Standing in the room inside the door and about 2 feet away from said door. That defendant asked him what he was doing there and he made no reply but went down stairs and out of the house and did not return from that time to his employment or to said premises. That defendant immediately got up and examined his vest and found that said bill had been stolen. That defendant had seen said money about an hour previous when defendant undressed and went to bed.

That thereafter defendant was informed by one John Leahy that said defendant had changed a one hundred dollar bill in the saloon of James O'Garra at 88 1/2 Leary Street shortly thereafter.

City and County of New York, ss.:

Frederick Scholtz

of No. 326 Canal Street, aged 27 years, occupation Keep a Hotel being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No 326 Canal Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a four story Brick Building in the 3rd Ward and which was occupied by deponent as a Hotel and in which there was at the time a human being, by name Andrew C Blair here BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of force breaking and forcing of a lock & bolt of one of the room doors on the 3rd floor leading from the hall way on said floor into said room with a key on the 15th day of September 1885 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Good and lawful Money of the United States in Bank bills of the amount and value of Thirty five dollars the property of Andrew C Blair and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Joseph P Kelly (now here) for the reasons following, to wit: deponent is informed by Andrew C Blair of Amsterdam New York, a man who had hired the above described room from deponent in said hotel that at about the hour of one o'clock of the 15th of said date he said Blair had heard for the night and he said Blair heard a noise at the door of his room and saw the said defendant come into said room

0171

and take a vest belonging to said Blair which was hanging on the foot of the bed in which said Blair was lying down on containing said money and said Blair positively identified said defendant as the person that did enter said room and take said and carry away said money and defendant is informed by Officer James Dunn of the 5th Precinct Police that he found the said defendant in another room No 10 in said hotel and found in the said defendant's room a key which fits the identifications made in said door that was broken into. Wherefore defendant charges the said defendant with having committed said said burglary and feloniously taking, stealing

Charles M. Holly

of No. 309 West 22<sup>d</sup> Street, aged 22 years, occupation Bookkeeper being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 21 day of September 1885 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

One black Prince Albert Coat and Vest of the value of forty dollars and one Norfolk Jacket and Vest of the value of fifteen dollars together of the amount and value of Fifty, five dollars

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Robert Kelly (now here) from the fact that on the above date when deponent left his boarding house at the above address the said property was hanging in a closet in his room and when he returned at noon on said day he missed said property. And suspicion fell on the defendant from the fact that he had been employed in said house as a servant. And had left very suddenly without saying anything to anybody in said house on the above mentioned date. Deponent caused the arrest of said defendant when the said Norfolk Jacket and
