The People v. Jeremiah Haggerty
 Court of General Sessions. Part 2
 Before Judge Cowing. April 15th 1887 Jointly indicted with Bernard Hagan for burglary in the third degree.

Jeremiah Haggerty sworn. I am an officer; on the 22nd of March there was a man came to the station house and told us about a burglary that had been committed in 39 Park st and I went down there and investigated it and the boy told me a description of a few persons that was there. While looking for those persons I found one of them with Haggerty on the Bowery with a bag containing a shawl and a coat that belonged to a woman in 57 Eldridge st; they were after breaking her place in; one of these men I believe pleaded guilty, his name is Bernard Hagan; he was in company with Haggerty at the time I met them in the Bowery. Haggerty had in his possession a bag, a coat and a shawl. Then I told Officer Chrystal that was with me to catch Hagan this little boy (Haggerty) started to run; he gave me a run of about a block and I caught him; he dropped the bag.

Olia Osiboff sworn. I live at 57 Eldridge st. I was not at home when the burglary happened. I left home at twelve o'clock and at two o'clock I came home. I locked the doors when I went away and the window was also shut; my husband fastened the two windows with nails. Then I returned home the windows were raised and broken - two panes of glass were taken out. A shawl and a coat of my husband's, ear rings, a ring, two silver spoons and a fur coat were missing, all of the value of fifty dollars.

Jeremiah Murphy recalled I arrested Haggerty and Bernard Hagan. I arrested them on the 25th. Hagan had a bunch of keys and the ear rings belonging to this woman in his pocket; she claimed them as a portion of the stolen property. When I started to run after Haggerty he dropped a white bag which contained a shawl and a coat. The complainant came to the station house and identified the property as being hers and taken from her house. I asked him where he got it? He said Bernard Hagan met him on the Brewery and gave it to him. That was shortly after the place was broken into. Hagan was a big boy. He did not say anything to us, he kept still, he was in the custody of Officer Chrystal. The prisoner Haggerty did not tell me why he dropped the bag so suddenly.

when I arrested him; he ran about the distance of a block and I ran after him. I arrested him and picked up the bag in which was a portion of the stolen property.

Cross Examined. I said to Crystal, "Catch Wagon, that is the man we are looking for," and this boy started to run after we had Wagon under arrest. We found on Wagon a bunch of keys and ear rings; the ear rings were identified by the complainant. The arrest was made I should judge an hour after the burglary. Haggerty told me that Wagon gave him the bundle to carry when he met him on the Brewery. He said that when we got to the station house and that is all we could get out of him. He said he knew I was an officer and he was afraid.

Did he not tell you that he saw Wagon arrested, the man who gave him the goods, that he got frightened and ran? I do not remember that he said that. I will not swear that he did not say that.

Jeremiah Haggerty, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have never been arrested in my life before. I live at 157 Leonard st. and live with my mother; she is in Court. I have been attending school, I left and worked for a man in Franklin st. I could not tell you his name; it was a shoe place. I worked there a couple of months and got three dollars a week. I worked in Centre st. also for Zimm and Messer a couple of weeks and got two dollars and a half a week. The day I was arrested on the Bowery I was looking for a job. I brought home my earnings to my mother; my father is dead. I did not break into the house in Eldridge St. on that day. I met this fellow in the Bowery and he asked me to carry the bag and I carried it. The reason I dropped it and ran was because I saw the other two fellows arrested and I was excited. I know Hagan by sight. I have seen him around where I live. I told the officer immediately who gave me the bag.

Cross Examined. Hagan walked alongside of me when I carried the bag. I don't know why he asked me to carry it; it was not heavy. I met Hagan corner of Mester St. and Bowery. He did not say that he would give me anything for carrying it; he did not tell me what was in the bag and I did not ask him.

John Shay testified that he knew the prisoner nine years and knew him to be an industrious, good boy.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The People v. Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 James Hale } Before Judge Cowing. April. 25. 1887.
 Indictment for assault in the first degree.
 Earnest A. Luhrs sworn. I live 437
 West Forty seventh St. in this city; on the 11th of April I met James Hale ten minutes past ten at night at my place of business 1392 Broadway, a liquor store. A gentleman came in and had a drink, and in the mean time the prisoner had a disturbance with another gentleman who left his coat and umbrella on the bar; they walked out in the street and when I got through I walked after them to see that they would not get in a mass around the door. The man that had the coat and umbrella had gone and the prisoner was standing across the street. I was standing in front of my door with another gentleman and put my hands behind my back, and this prisoner deliberately walked over and as he went by me
 he stabbed me with a knife in the abdomen; the cut was about a quarter of an inch wide, I could not say how deep it was. It did not lay me up. I had it dressed. I believe the officer has got the knife. I never spoke a word to the man.

Cross Examined. I was at one end of the bar when I saw the prisoner have some words with John Hopkins, who is now in Court Hopkins said that he ought to be kicked out for trying to take his coat and umbrella and afterwards they walked out. I did not see anybody strike the prisoner in the saloon. I did not strike him, I was not within fifteen feet of him. I did not see Hopkins till next morning. I told him about the stabbing.

John Hopkins sworn. I live in 235 South First St. Brooklyn. I was in the complainant's saloon on the evening of April 11th. I left my coat and umbrella with the bar-keeper and I called for it. I went to the rear end of the saloon to the toilet and when I came out I saw the prisoner with the bar-keeper and <sup>he had</sup> my coat and umbrella. I could not say whether the prisoner had taken it. I believe he paid for his drink and I had followed him out and gave him a push as he was going out of the door; he used some abusive language and I followed him across the street as I was going in that direction. I did not see the stabbing and that is all I know about it. Cross Examined I put the defendant out of the saloon because I thought he took my coat and umbrella. I did not strike him, but I said to him that he ought to get a good thrashing. I could not say if the defendant was intoxicated. I did not see him drink in there.

Peter Brannick sworn. I am an officer of the 19th Precinct and arrested the prisoner. I saw the complainant that night, he was cut in the stomach. I guess it was about a quarter past ten when I saw him. The knife I now produce I took from the prisoner; it looked a little reddish on the end. I did not see anything of the occurrence. He was running when I arrested him and a crowd was after him. I saw the prisoner attempting to shut the knife and I grabbed his wrist; when I took the knife from him it was nearly closed. Cross Examined. Then I first saw the defendant he was running in the direction I was. I could not swear that it was him who halloed "Police"; he said to me, "Protect me". I took the knife off him and took him in custody. I saw the wound that he inflicted afterward; it was a small wound, I could not tell how deep it was. He was the first one of the crowd running.

James Hale sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I went into this saloon and had a glass of lager and as I was thinking about smoking I forgot to pay for the drink; the bar keeper followed me out and I offered to pay for it outside, but he would not take it there. I went inside and apologized and said it would be a small affair to quarrel over. As I turned round I got a punch in the ear by one of the fellows in there and driven from the door and as I was going out of the door I got a rap on my head. I thought it was that powerful man (the complainant) who struck me. I put my hand in my pocket and found a knife (I am an old soldier and am no coward) I say, if I go down the street slowly I will defend myself. I passed the complainant's door and he was standing there; he made a strike at me with the right hand and I swung past him and jabbed him with the knife. I ran and he ran after me. I hallooed, <sup>police</sup> and ran towards the Sixth Avenue. There was two policemen there, I heard. I drew the knife in self defence. He made a kick and struck at me before I used the knife.

Q. What did this man do to you?

A. He cut me with a Knife.

Q. Where?

A. Right here in the stomach, on the left side.

Q. Where did this happen?

A. This morning at the corner of Avenue B. and 10th street; it was on the sidewalk.

Q. Where did you first meet him?

0733

A I met him inside, on the corner of Avenue B and 10th street, an oyster house.

Q Did you have any controversy with him?

A No, Sir.

Q Any discussion?

A No Sir. I did not speak to him at all.

Q Did you pick up his hat and carry it out?

A No Sir.

Q What sort of an instrument was used.

A It was a pocket knife about four inches long unopened, something like this [a pencil handled knife shown by Officer M. Callough].

Q You had no trouble with any of these men?

A No Sir.

Q Not a word spoken before this happened?

A No, Sir.

M. Cullough, being duly sworn and examined as a witness for the people, deposes and says: About one o'clock this morning I was at the south corner of Avenue B and 10th Street; there is a saloon at the North corner. There came five men out of the Cyster saloon talking loudly. The complainant was one, the defendant was another - I do not know the names of the others. One was Conrad. They were talking loudly. I did not pay much attention at first, but some raised their hands and I thought there was going to be a fight and I walked over to stop the disturbance. The defendant then made a complaint that there was a man that took his hat and committed a nuisance in it. On the way to the station house

 the constable said he was stabbed. After the prisoner was disposed of in the station house I examined the complainant and found he was cut.

Cross examined

Q He said nothing at first about being stabbed?

A W. D. The defendant here was the complainant. He said that a nuisance had been committed in his lot. He charged another man - Gustave Sprutte.

Q How long had you had this prisoner in custody in custody
 when he charged this defendant with cutting him?

A This Sprutte was my prisoner -
 On the way to the station house Fort said he was cut

Q Did he say who cut him?

A Yes: at the station house
he did - not on the way.

Walter Enderz, being duly sworn and examined as a witness for the people deposes
and says: I am 42 years old. I am a cabinet maker.
I live at 437 East 15th street.
I met the defendant in the Office below at the corner of 10th street and Avenue B.
Q What did you say to him?

A I did not say anything
to that man.

Q Did you see the Defendant
do anything?

A No sir I heard Halpin say
"I will give you ten dollars if you will do something in my hat."

0737

Matthew T. Halpin, the defendant being duly sworn and examined by his counsel as a witness in his own behalf deposes and says, I went in with a friend to get some refreshments about 1 o'clock P.M. I sat down and had my hat alongside the table. Then three men came in and asked for some beer. The proprietor said he had no beer. On going out this man Spottle took my hat. I said "What are you going to do with that?"
He said "I am going to shit in it." I did not think he would do it. He went outside and took down his pants and did what he said he would. I told the officer
I would make a charge against him and the officer arrested him. On the way to the station house

He said he was stabbed.
 The sergeant asked him who stabbed him. He said "It is one of these two men." He said "Do you know which one?" The complementant answered "I do not know
 one of them." The sergeant asked "Which one do you think?" He then said
 "I think this man" pointing to me.

Q Did you stab him?

A No sir.

Q Never used a knife?

A Never. That is all that happened.

Q There was no trouble that started?

A I was surprised; I did not think he would do it.
 I never saw him before he-fore in my life.

Morris Barnett, being duly sworn and examined as a witness for the ~~people~~ <sup>defendant</sup> deposes and says I live at 118 Suffolk Street. I am a clerk for Marshal Myers. I was in company with Mr Halpin, defendant, on this occasion.

2 What occurred?

1- We went down in this oyster saloon to have a steak. We were sitting at a table when these three people came in and wanted beer. The proprietor said "I have not got any beer". Then they came over to where we were sitting and one took up Mr Halpin's hat and said "I am going to shit in it." He took the hat and went outside and took down his pants and shit in the hat. Then the officer came over and Halpin said he wanted the man arrested for doing business in his hat. We walked up the street nothing was said about the stabbing until after the man was arrested on Halpin's complaint.

2 What was the condition of the other party as to sobriety.

A I should say that they acted as though they were drunk.

2 You said nothing to them in the first instance?

A Nothing at all.

2 Did you see Halpin touch him?

A No, Sir: not at all. He grabbed for this hat: It was all done in two seconds.
