CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, ss:-

JOHN F. MOSER, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he resides at No. 374 West 35th Street and is engaged in business at No. 440 9th Avenue in the City of New York. On Sunday evening December 2, 1888, he was informed that burglars had broken into his store and proceeding there, found the defendant who was in said store and the door locked. That the defendant informed him that he had been put over the transom of the door by some man--a stranger, who had told him to get the money drawer and bring it to him and he would be given a share of the proceeds. At that time the door was locked. That the deponent preferred a charge of burglary against the defendant in Jefferson Market Police Court on the day following such burglary. The door is of such a height that deponent believes the boy must have had some assistance although he knows nothing as to who rendered such assistance or in what manner it was so rendered. That he knows the defendant who is a young lad and lives in his neighborhood and has previous to this, been a boy of good general character. That he is a boy of slight stature and delicate health, and that he believes that confinement in any of the penal institutions to which the defendant might be sent under a sentence of this court would be injurious to his health and that he has no desire to urge that punishment be inflicted upon the defendant, but on the other hand that he believes that the confinement in which the defendant has already been held, will have a salutary effect upon the defendant and he most respectfully recommends the defendant to the mercy of this court and that judgment be suspended during the good behaviour of the defendant.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, ss:-

PATRICK GRAY, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he resides at 441 Tenth Avenue in the City of New York; that he is a member of the Municipal Police force and assigned to the 20 Precinct. That on the 2nd of December, 1888, about seven o'clock in the evening he while at the Clinton House Post West 37th St Sent by the Sergeant in Charge at the Clinton House was summoned to 440 Ninth Avenue in the City of New York and there arrested the defendant who was found inside the store of John F. Moser; that the door was locked, but that the transom over the door which was protected by bars was open at the time and fastened up from the inside, and deponent is informed and believes that it was left that way when the store was closed on Saturday, December 1st, previous to the day of the arrest. That the defendant is of such a stature and the door is so constructed and of such a height and protected by bars above that the deponent believes it is impossible for the defendant to have made an entrance through them without having assistance from the outside. That deponent at the time of the arrest did not discover any other means of entrance into the store for the defendant than the one specified.

Dear Sir.

Referring to the case of John Higgins, who is before you for sentence for burglary in the third degree, permit me ask your leniency to an extreme constant with rights.

I have known the lad for some time.
He is undoubtedly the victim of somebody's rascality, and as I know him to be physically weak and mentally not strong, and as I am sure a severe punishment would be a permanent injury to the boy that I ask that he be considered

Dec, 20/11.
Judge Randolph B. Martine,

Dear Sir:-

This is to certify that John Higgins has resided with his parents in this house, for the past two years. They are highly respectable people, and as for the boy, I have always found him an honest, well-behaved lad. To my knowledge he has been under the doctor's care for some time past, I think he is suffering from consumption.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

Emanuel Steward

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Emanuel Steward

of the CRIME OF Box LARCENY, committed as follows:

The said Emanuel Steward, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the second day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Jacob Dorn, of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Jacob Dorn

That a hall under the auspices of an association called the Reform Knights Association was to be given and held at a certain hall in said city called Apollo Hall on the 24th day of December 1888 for the purpose of the Fair Bazaar of said city, and that arrangements had been made therefor, whereby 0852 the said hall had been secured for the purposes thereof and other necessary preparations made.

That the said Emanuel Howard was then duly authorized to sell tickets of admission to the said hall, and to receive money therefor, and that certain tickets which he then and there produced and delivered to the said Jacob Don, was a good and valid ticket of admission to the said hall.
And the said Jacob Don then and ~~there~~ believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Emanuel Howard and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Emanuel Howard, the sum of one dollar in money, lawful money of the United States, and of the value of one dollar, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Jacob Don,

And the said Emanuel Howard did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Jacob Don by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Jacob Don, of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said no hall was to be given or held at the said hall or at any other place in the said city under the auspices of the 0053 said association for the benefit of the said Xine Department, and no arrangements had been made, therefor, whereby the said Hall had been secured for the purposes thereof or any other necessary preparations made; and the said Emanuel Howard was not then duly authorized to sell tickets of admission to the said Hall or to receive pay therefor; and the said ticket which he so as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered to the said Jacob Dorn was not a good and valid ticket of admission to the said Hall.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Emanuel Howard to the said Jacob Dorn was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as the said Emanuel Howard
at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Emanuel Howard
in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Jacob Dorn then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

against

Ida Howard

Ida Howard

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said

late of the 18th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

(Section 385, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the sixth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-Eight, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0065

THIRD COUNT—

(Section 322
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the fifth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

TESTIMONY.

Officer Michael Dolan 21st Precinct being sworn says: I did not know the deceased. At 12 M. July 19/88 I was on post on 3rd St & 3rd Ave. when I was told that there was a woman dying on the sidewalk at 29th St. & 3rd Ave. I went to 29th St. & I found the deceased Annie Fox lying unconscious in front of 217 E. 29th St. and after some inquiries I was told that a woman dressed in black pushed deceased off the stoop of 217 E. 29th St. I was told that the prisoner Lizzie Hughes was the woman who pushed her off. I went up stairs and found Lizzie Hughes in the rooms on 4th floor. I found her to answer to the description that I got and I arrested her & took her to the Station House & afterwards to Court where Judge White committed her without bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. I had five witnesses there who testified in Court. I summoned an Ambulance which took deceased to Bellevue Hosp. where I was informed she died at 8 PM same day.

I was at the door of 212 E. 29th St. when I saw a woman that resembled Lizzie Hughes the prisoner, in dress & build, deliberately push deceased off the stoop from the top. She took me by the hand & pushed her. The deceased had her back to the street when the prisoner pushed her. She fell striking the back of her head on the railing on top of the stoop, falling from there clean to the sidewalk, a distance of 12 steps, falling on her face laying there never moving. I ran over & saw the blood run out of her mouth, nose, eyes & ears. She lay there unconscious. She never said a word afterwards. An Officer came & sent for an Ambulance which took her away immediately & the Doctor pronounced it a hopeless case. The party who pushed deceased immediately ran back in the hall & disappeared. At the time she pushed her she

I know the prisoner Lizzie Hughes. I heard that the deceased had advertised for a situation. On July 19/88 at 11 am a lady called to see her. She had an interview with that lady at the door. After that she came up stairs & sat in the front room. In the meantime a gentleman called & the Kitchen is between the hall & the front room & Mrs. Kelly called Eliza Hughes, the prisoner, saying "Lizzie you advertised?" Lizzie went out before Anne Fox got a chance to see or hear that the gentleman had called. In the meantime she found it out & she got indignant over it. They changed words in the front room & I asked the deceased to have patience. She was saying a few words to the prisoner. I said "If you do not get a place today you will tomorrow." ~~I said~~ <sup>the deceased said</sup> "I want have"

The crazy old thing took my advertisement before" With that Eliza Hughes heard the expression she advanced violently towards the window and with her two hands she took the deceased & threw her out the window. I was near enough to catch the deceased - I took hold of one side of her skirt & Mrs. Kelly also - & saved the deceased. In the meantime I said to Mrs. Kelly "Can't you preserve peace in your rooms?" With that Mrs. Kelly said "Aunty, go down to the door, Lizzie will be going out in a few moments." The deceased did so. While Lizzie Hughes walked across the floor & said "He son of a B*** I'll kill her" - in a violent temper. The prisoner went down stairs right away after the deceased. It was not five minutes later when I looked out of the window & saw the dog in the feed store rush across the street and

Mr. Schaffer after the dog, I saw the deceased lying on her face & hands on the sidewalk I said "Great God! She has killed her!" The prisoner came up in the house afterwards I said "Lizzie what did you kill her for?" She said "Who?
I did not do it" I did not see the prisoner push the deceased off the stoop.

Mrs. Bridget Kelly being sworn says: I reside at 217 E. 29th St. I am a housekeeper. The deceased stopped a few nights with me. Anne Fox came ~~here~~ to my house about 8:45 PM. July 18/88 she said "Mrs. Kelly I am going to put in an advertisement." I said "Aren't you too late?" She said "I'll get it in tomorrow." She went out then & when she came back that night she said she had put in an advertisement. Before Anne Fox came back Lizzie Hughes came in and <sup>she</sup> Lizzie Hughes said she had put in an advertisement. In the morning ~~we~~ were all peaceable. Anne went down to the door to speak to a lady & while she was down speaking to the lady a gentleman came to the door asking "if there was any body there who advertised." I opened the door and asked Lizzie if she advertised & she said "Yes." I said "Well! here's a gentleman come out & speak to him." At the time Lizzie was speaking to the gentleman Anne Fox

Came up stairs, She said "Lizzie Hughes is taking my advertisements" I said to Annie "Well Annie, Lizzie told me last night before you came in that she was after advertising" Annie then commenced to scold Lizzie & Lizzie was in the back room dressing herself & Annie was at the window looking out & she called Lizzie a crazy lunatic She said she was taking her advertisements I craved & begged of Annie not to be scolding her, Annie still kept calling Lizzie a crazy lunatic The last time she called her so Lizzie was standing at the glass right beside her, so Lizzie caught her to throw her out & Kate O'Connor grabbed her & also I held her to save her from being dumped out the window, Kate said to me "Mrs Kelly: Can't you keep peace in the house?" I begged them both again to keep peace, Annie went down stairs then to watch for the lady so Lizzie Hughes dressed herself

She walked out of the room then I see the Key of the yard in her hand a few minutes before that.
 Then there came word up for me to go down stairs that Annie Day was lying on the sidewalk, so I went down stairs & found her sitting on the steps of the stoop. I thought she was dead. She was unconscious & did not seem to know any person.
 I stopped there till she was put in the Ambulance & taken away to the Hoop. When I went up to my room there were 3 policemen taking the prisoner out of the room. The deceased & the prisoner did not have a quarrel before that I know of. Deceased was a respectable hard working woman, as is also the prisoner as far as I know.

Indictment

Manslaughter

§§ 189 & 493 P.C.

in having on the 19th of July, 1888, (at No. 217 East 82nd Street) wilfully assaulted and wounded in such a manner as to cause her death thereby

0900

Herman Schaffer, 2175 Second Street, me, feed business at 212 East 29th Street. On the 19th of July, 1888, at about noon I was standing in the door of my said place of business when I saw a woman fall off the stoop of the house No. 217 East 29th Street. I have the impression as if she was pushed down the stoop by a woman. My recollection on this point is very slight, because the woman that pushed the woman who fell disappeared in an instant, and because my attention was mainly attracted by the woman who fell. The woman fell beyond all the stairs directly on the sidewalk, which she struck with her face. I did not go near her, as there was at once a crowd assembled around her. Before she was pushed as aforesaid, I saw the deceased standing on the top of the stoop for a <sup>few</sup> minutes.
I had seen her several times on different days on said same stoop before the 19th of July, 1888. She must have been a woman of 40 or 45 years.

0901

Edward W. Norris, 214 East 29th Street, Feed business at No. 212 East 29th Street. On the 19th of July, 1888, at about noon I was standing at the door of my said place of business, when I saw a woman dressed in black, who stood in the ~~back~~ door of No. 217 East 29th Street, push the deceased so that she fell head long on the ~~side~~ sidewalk striking the same with her face. Immediately before she pushed the deceased, the said woman ~~called~~ <sup>halled</sup> to her: "Get along out of her!" I could not recognize the woman that pushed the deceased, but I saw her lay her hands upon the latter. When I saw this, I had just come from the back of our stable, I do not know how long they had been standing on the ~~top~~ top of the stoop.
As soon as I saw the deceased fall, I hurried right over to her.
She lay on her face and was bleeding from her eyes, ears, mouth and nose. She was put on the stoop in a sitting position. I did not hear her speak. I remained only for a minute or two near her, and then went back to my business. Both women were unknown to me, before the said occurrence. I did not see the deceased after she had been removed from the said street.

Michael Dolan, patrolman, 1st precinct. On the 19th of July, 1888, at about noon I was on duty at the corner of Third Avenue and 33rd Street, where police officer John Stanley informed me that a woman was lying in a dying condition on the sidewalk in front of No. 217 East 29th Street. I hurried there and found the deceased lying on the stoop with her feet on the sidewalk. She was unconscious. There was blood on her face. I was told that she had been pushed off the stoop by a woman living in the same house. I went upstairs, and a woman by the name of Margaret Perry ~~showed~~ showed me a room, saying that she lived there. The door of said room was locked. I demanded an entrance. A woman inside replied that she had no key to the door. I threatened to break the door open, and thereupon she opened it. There was no body inside, but the defendant. She was dressed in black. I asked ~~her whether she had pushed the~~ I do not know who spoke first, but the defendant remarked that she did not do it. that she did not know anything about it. I arrested her and brought her to the station house, where she also denied having pushed the deceased. I also brought her to Bellevue Hospital, where the deceased had been carried to. The latter was unconscious at the time and the former did not make any remark. The woman that at said time I saw ~~on the said stoop~~ the Hospital, was the woman that I had seen lying on the stoop as afore said.

(meaning the defendant)

0904

Mairie Miller, 217 East 29th Street, 11 years of age. I attended the Primary School No. 14. My parents live at said house. In the summer of the last year, on the same day when the defendant was arrested ~~she said to me~~ "Have you asked me: ~~whether~~ Did you see the ~~doing~~ that advertised?" I answered:
"No ma'am," whereupon the defendant continued: "When I catch her, I kick her down the stairs!" This conversation took place on the top floor in the presence of other children. I did not see the defendant push the deceased.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

Samuel Hyman

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Samuel Hyman.

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the second day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of one George Davis, in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and him the said George Davis, with a certain sharp instrument to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, which the said Samuel Hyman in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon then and there wilfully and feloniously did strike, beat, cut, stab and wound,

with intent him the said George Davis, thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Samuel Hyman.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said George Davis, in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and him the said

George Davis,
with a certain sharp instrument to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown
which the said Samuel Hyman

in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a weapon and an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the Peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
