Rachel Drucker
of No. 97 Second Ave Street, aged _____ years, occupation married being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 8th day of April 1891 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Two overcoats of the valued
Forty five Dollars

the property of Henry Colby 97 - 2nd Ave in care and charge of deponent and that this deponent

carried away by George Nau (nowhere) for the reasons following to wit:

Deponent says - said property was on a hampster, which hampster was in the hallway of said premises.

Deponent further says - at about 1 PM of said date defendant called at said address being admitted by deponent, defendant having informed deponent that he had an engagement with his husband who is a physician.

Deponent further says - Her attention a few minutes later was attracted by hearing the sound of pulling footsteps, and saw defendant leave am the - defendant in the above proceeding and am now charged in the - Tombs charged with the crime of grand larceny and in defence and extenuation of the said charge I make the following statement:

on or about the - 2<sup>d</sup> day of March 1891, defendant was acting as salesman for Marton & Co. of 202 Broadway New York city and on that day received from said Marton & Co. a quantity of jewelry for sale upon the installment plan.
That at such time defendant had been out of employment for nearly three months and during said three months had been diligently searching for employment both in his trade that of photogram printer, and also for any honorable employment that he might be able to obtain, that defendant is a married man and his wife was at the time aforesaid and still is in a delicate condition, and within a few weeks of expected confinement. That defendant's anxiety for the condition of his wife and his desire to obtain for her necessary comforts and care which he was unable to do otherwise, led him to commit the offense of which he is charged; that the money received by the defendant from the articles pawned by him was actually used for the benefit of his wife as aforesaid, and with the intention of repaying all of the money so received to his employer, or in fact of returning the articles so pawned by him, and without any intention on his part of defrauding said Marton & Co. or of committing any crime whatever.

deposes and says, that the premises No. 14 Prince - Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Three story Brick Building Liquor Store and which was occupied by deponent as a human being, by name were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly Breaking open a storm door leading from the street into said store - and then forcing and breaking a fanlight, over a door leading into said store - from said storm door, on the 23 day of March 1889 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States, of the amount of fifty dollars; (50)

A Quantity of Cigars of the value of one hundred dollars (100)

A Quantity of Liquor of the value of one hundred dollars; all of the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars (250) the property of Patrick H. Oakley deponent's care and custody and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Thomas Relimet and Thomas Sheridan (both now here) while acting in concert with each other; for the reasons following, to wit:

That deponent securely locked and fastened the said door and said fanlight on the aforesaid date about the hour of 1.30 A.M. and went away.

And that deponent is informed by Officer Lawrence J. O'Brien of the Tenth Precinct Police that about the hour of 2.25 o'clock A.M. he found the said storm door broken into, and

carried away by Otto Krueger for the reasons that on said day the defendant was in deponent's employ as a clerk and bookkeeper and as such had in his possession, custody and control monies belonging to deponent and received and disbursed deponent's money. That on said day one Frederick A. Dunn was indebted to deponent in a sum of money on an account had with deponent. Deponent is informed by the said Frederick A. Dunn that on said day he gave the annexed check for One hundred and fifty dollars to its appearance and authorized the defendant to credit him, (Dunn) with One hundred dollars on his account with deponent and give him the difference to wit: fifty dollars. The defendant received said check and gave said Dunn the annexed receipt for said payment and gave said Dunn fifty dollars.

That the defendant regularly entered said transaction in his books of account kept for deponent and took said fifty dollars from deponent's cash drawer but failed to deposit said check to deponent's account in the Peoples Bank where deponent is a dealer but endorsed said check in his own name and deposited the check in said Bank to his own account he having an account there. That said check has been paid and the defendant has appropriated the proceeds to his own use depriving deponent of its use and benefit and deponent asks that the defendant be arrested and dealt with as the law directs.

Understanding that Otto Krubum has pleaded guilty in Your Court to the crime of Grand Larceny, and is now awaiting sentence, we wish to certify to you, that we have known Mr Krubum for a number of years, and have been very much surprised and pained to find him charged with an offense of that character.
We have always found him to be a young man of most excellent character in every respect; honest, industrious, and respectable. We cannot account for this act of weakness on his part. We feel sure, that he is sincerely sorry for his act, and we do hope and trust, that as this is his first offense, Your Honor will in your goodness and mercy will send him to some Reformatory Institution and not send him among felons and hardened criminals. If Your Honor will grant our prayer, we feel sure, that you will do a proper thing and never have any occasion to regret the mercy extended to him.
